

Dessie Coffman,

Plff.

vs Affidavit

Albert Coffman

Deft

The affiant Dessie Coffman states that she has now pending in the Mercer Circuit Court a suit for divorce against Albert Coffman, wherein he is enjoined and restrained from selling any property, and from interfering with or molesting this affiant in any way : that on the day of April 1928 and after the affiant had filed her divorce suit he wrongfully and illegally took from the Express office a guitar ^{with affiant's name thereon} the property of this affiant and is now attempting to sell the same. ^{says she} She/is the is the owner and entitled to the immediate possession of said property which is of the value of Fourteen dollars ; that it is wrongfully detained by the defendant and was not taken for a tax or fine against the affiant, nor under any order or judgment of a Court against her, nor seized under an execution distress warrant or attachment against her property, and that the plaintiff's cause of action has accrued within one year prior to this date, and that she ought to recover $5.00 damages for the wrongful detention of said property.
