

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Clell, Walter, Lee James and
T. C. Coleman, doing business as the Cogar Grain & Coal Co.

Plaintiffs,

Vs. State & Affidavit.

William Tatum,

Defendant.

To Balance Account $ 20.61

The affiant, T. C. Coleman, states that this is an action for money due upon a contract; that the defendant has no property in this State subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy plaintiffs demand and that the collection of said demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found.

He states that he is informed and believed that Cecil Davis is indebted to defendant in a sum sufficient to pay this plaintiffs account.

Wherefore it prays judgment against defendant in the sum of $ 20.61 with interest from date until paid; that Cecil Davis be summoned as garnishee herein and required to pay into Court any funds he may have belonging to defendant or enough thereof to satisfy this plaintiff's demand; for his costs herein and all further relief.

Roy E. Graves
Attorney-for-plaintiffs

The affiant T. C. Coleman says that the foregoing statements are true.
