

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Cornishville Milling Company,

Plaintiff.

-VS- Statement &c,

W. H. Long,

Defendant.

Plaintiff Cornishville Milling Company says that it is a Company composed of Robert Horn and W.T.Royalty doing in the year 1920, a general Milling business in Cornishville, Ky; they say that the defendant W.H.Long is indebted to them in the sum of $19.05 for flour which the plaintiffs furnisshed to defendant at his special instance and request and for which he agreed to pay and for which they have demanded payment but that defendant has failed and refused to pay same; they say that said account is just, due and unpaid and that no part of same has been paid; they say the defendant has no property in this State subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy the plaintiffs demand or demands of the defendants creditors and that the collection of same will be endangerd by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found;

Wherefore plaintiffs pray judgment against the defendant W.H.Long for the said sum of $19,05 with 6% interest thereon from the first day of Jany, 1921, till paid, for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant, for their costs herein and for whatever relief they may appear entitled to.
