Activity

By writing a fabulous story,

Approach the birth of a dream.

Student Council

During the past year Student Council has aimed at increased communication and understanding. Council-sponsored activities included the annual Father-Daughter Banquet (proceeds to go for partial scholarships for incoming Freshmen), exchanges with Hoban and Walsh, workshops, Christmas decorating, Council picnic and supervision of the Lost and Found.

1970-71 Council officers are Mary Pierson, vice pres., Rita Kelly, pres., Bobbi Cook, treas., and Nancy Dillon, sec.

1969-70 officers were as follows: SEATED--Chris Williams, pres., Mary Kay Eckel vice pres. STANDING--Rita Kelly, sec., and Ann Waikman, treas.

Choir

This past year's agenda for Choir included production of a Christmas record, Walsh Hoban exchanges, annual Christmas concert and a special at the Sheraton Cleveland for the Diocesan Educational Planning Study.

President--Ellen Aumiller
Vice-president--Rita Kalafus
Secretary--Terese Tremata
Treasurer--Marie Ann Kidder

CAU

Among CAU's activities during 1969-70 were flower day; the Dating Game, which provided canned goods for Akron area poor; a school canned food drive, which aided striking migrant workers; and a dance to augment mission funds. Consecration of new members was held in May (see picture above right).

president--Joyce Hahn vice-president--Michele Torrance
secretary/treasurer--Anne Forster

NHS

NHS projects included the Volunteer Assembly, a Christmas party for the special education children; the tutor program (Crysia Bybyk and her tutee pictured below); and publication of the literary magazine PERCEPTION.

New members were inducted into the club in February (pictured at left is Barb Vaughn and her mother after the ceremony).

president--Nancy DiFederico
vice-president--Susan Traub
secretary--Connie Gorey
treasurer--Judy Reidy

Players Guild

Under the guidance of a new advisor, Mrs. Sawan, Players Guild directed and produced THE CHALK GARDEN, featuring Chris App, Laura Hartman, Blute Sonta, Dave Wilson (Walsh junior), and Jim Foley (Hoban senior) in January and THE SOCIAL CLIMBER in May. Mari Baumgardner, Nancy Wendling, Peggy Carney, Anne Borgending, and John Kelly (Hoban sophomore) took the leads in this adaptation of Moliere's LE BOURGEOIS GENTILHOMME.

president--Liz Wagenhoffer vice-president--Louise Krupp
secretary--Katie Champion
treasurer--Mari Baumgardner

Elm Leaf

The resident journalists worked untiringly this year to put out the Elm Leaf. In order to raise funds, the newspaper staff sponsored a book sale, a coffeehouse, and a showing of the movie FUNNY GIRL. A switch in advisors occurred midyear; Sr. Sharon Marie was moderator first semester; Mrs. Whittington, second.

Yearbook

The 1969-70 yearbook is the culmination of much planning, toiling, and creativity by one of the smallest organizations of the school. In addition to the yearlong work done by the entire staff, some members spent many summer hours finishing layout and working out copy. Among these were Janet Clary (editor), Patty Ritzert, Patience O'Neil, Phyllis Bruno, Patty Bernat (in charge of senior pages), Stef Pender (layout editor), and Sr. Denise (advisor).

Heading the financial end was Liz Wagenhoffer.

Speech

During 1969-70, speech team members were involved in area tournaments, one of which was held at the Elms. The October 18 moratorium assembly included talks by a number of the girls.

Three girls placed in district competition and went to Columbus to the state tournament. These were Katie Champion for her humorous cutting from PYGMALION, Mary Pierson for her dramatic interpretation of A TASTE OF HONEY, and Judy Reidy for her poetry reading.

Moderator of the club was Mr. Towne.

president--Sue Evanicki
vice-president--Joan Cummings
secretary/treasurer--Rosalind Rowe

Home Ec.

The Elms homemakers, alias the Home Ec Club, sponsored a style show, a dinner for the faculty, and a party for the special education children.

president--Pat Zeno
secretary/treasurer--Julie Costigan

FTA

Completing its first full year at the Elms is Future Teachers of America. Activities included student teaching in the grade school and preschool (Molly Costigan pictured at left with preschoolers), Slave Day, Teacher Appreciation Day, and a dance featuring the "Measles".

president--Margie Abbate vice-president--Debbie O'Brien
secretary--Cindy Kessler treasurer--Donna Ford

GAA officers:

president--Pat Garrett
vice-president--Cheryl Palijs
secretary--Nancy Rankin
treasurer--Janie Johnson

GAA

The Susie Athletes of Elms demonstrated their abilities through numerous GAA activities--skiing, bike hike and picnic, bowling, interschool basketball and volleyball, archery and miniature golf.

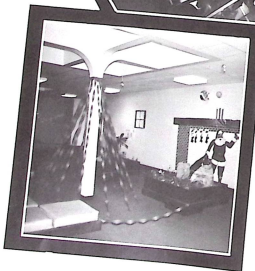

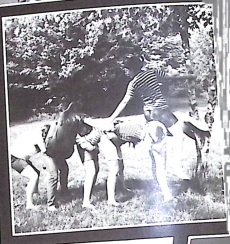

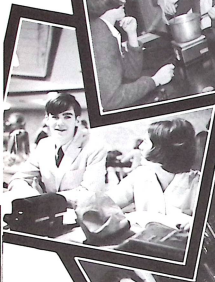

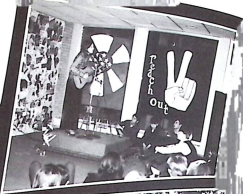

Spirit this year was given a boost by the introduction of the Booster Club. Their activities included cheerleading, postermaking, and selling buttons and T-shirts.

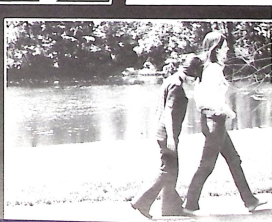

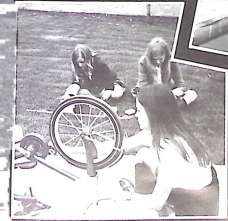

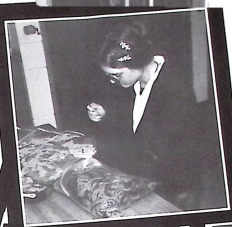

We are the music-makers
And we are the dreamers
of dreams
