day

a lifetime in miniature

to awaken each morning is to be born again.

*to fall asleep each night
is to die to the day.*

in between waking and sleeping are the golden hours of the day.

*what we cannot do for a lifetime
we can do for a daytime.*

In her fifth year as principal, Sister Marianne divides her time between overseeing school affairs, guidance counseling, and teaching senior religion.

*touch me—
lay hold on my reach, for i have fountains of light*

Sister Madonna, Sister Florence, Sister Bernadette, and Sister Helen (not pictured) instill a deeper appreciation of our literary heritage through the instruction of English.

Sister Regis instructs students of all grade levels on the fine arts.

Picture right
Sister Angela heads the religion department, while Sister Brian instructs physical education classes assisted by Sister Nora (extreme right), Sister Alberta and Father Hyde also conduct religion classes.

The infinite universe within a finite world is explained in mathematics by Sister Joanne, Sister Thomas and Sister Judith. Sister Denise and Sister deMontfort combine to form the science department. Sister Julianne teaches algebra and geometry.

Sister Clarita manages the bookstore while Sister Dominica and Sister Joseph are members of the social studies department. Sister Clarice teaches all levels of Latin.

Sister Pius divides her time between opening lockers and teaching history and religion.

Enriching our cultural backgrounds are Sister Augustine, graphic arts; Mrs. Shedlosky, Home Economics; and Sister Paul, choir and music appreciation.

Below: Bridging the language gap between countries is Sister Charles, who teaches French, along with Mr. Herschel and Sr. Rebecca, teachers of Spanish.

present moment is significant not as a bridge

between past and future

but by reason of its contents, moments which can fill

our emptiness and become ours

if we are capable of receiving it.
