COLLEGE NIGHT

FATHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

The Father Daughter Banquet proved to be a night of fun and frolic for all the girls and fathers in attendance. A delicious meal was followed by live entertainment and the traditional raffle. All proceeds were donated to the scholarship fund.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

A variety of ice cream, a style show, and a bit of chit chat about summed up the fun filled lee Cream Social Mothers and daughters enjoyed themselves as they relaxed and got aquainted with the other girk and their mothers. As a special attraction the mothers old favorite records were played. It was a memorable evening for all.

A SILVER FOREST

Tinsel covered Christmas trees, millions of shining stars in the dark sky and romantic candle lit tables transform the commons into a "Silver Forest". It's the Elms Christmas Cotilion sponsored by the junior Class for the enjoyment of both senions and juniors and their dates. Music for this occasion was supplied by the popular band, junice.

)R PROM

was held at Tangiers Restaurant. The evening began with a and music by Quiana. The after-prom found couples swimng, playing pool and missiature golf at the Cleveland

STUDENT COUNCIL

N. Dillon Pres.

S. Graber V. Pres.

V. Tolliver Sec.

P. Spence Treas.

Student Council, the backbone of the Elms, achieved many of its goals this past year. With the officers and the elected representatives, the council was able to sponsor the Freshie Mixer, Computer Dance and the Bam Dance to promote student communication. The girls also served as links in the generation gap that the Father-Daughter Banquet and the Mother Daughter Social. Sr. Barbara and Mr. Rackoff were the dependable moderators.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The NHS induction assembly, staged as a mock trial, carried a unanimous verdict of 'enjoyable' by all witnesses. Additional projects, such as the ice crowden cone sale and cotton camb' booth, helped to provide cone sale and cotton camb' booth, helped to provide the control of the control of

1971-72 GAA Officers

Debbie Wampler, President Sue Giorgio, Veep Patty Hoffmann, Secretary Ann Cleary, Treasurer

The GAA program offers students a well-balanced choice for a coutring physical still and poise. Members and volleyball intramurals, but also organies and sponsor skiing trips, chest fournaments and ping-pong championships. A new addition to this year's program is the formation of a competitive swim team, organized under the direction of Mrs. Wahlers.

DRAMATIC PRODUCTIONS

The Drama Department had a successful year under the direction of their flexible moderator, Mrs. Palmer. In January, the Theatre Arts class staged A Night With O. Henry which was a series of three one-act, student directed plays.

Calvin Coolidge High held classes as the theatre curtains parted for Up the Down Staircess. The student director, light crew and cast captured the divergent atmosphere of the large utban school around which the play revolved.

Three plays including Glass Menagerie, The Mystery of the Holy Mass, and Two by Chekov were presented by professional theatre companies.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

With the cooperation of all club members, the officers of FTA, Cathy Sinopoli, Julianne Jones, Mary Murphy, and Maria Sinopoli, organized their annual Christmas party at Robinson Elementary School. Other activities included making boot-bags and Easter baskets as gifts for needy children. The club owes much to their effectual moderator, Sr. Joanne.

HOME-EC CLUB

An Easter Faculty Dinner, a trip to Fenton Class Co. and bake sales highlighted this year's Home-Ec Club calendar. With Mrs. Shedlosky's reliable help, the girls also presented the annual Spring Style Show.

Leslie Costanzo, President Kelly Phythyon, Veep Kathy Pleskach, Treasurer Mrs. Shedlosky, Moderator

Under the direction of Sister Buth the newly organized club members assist with book ordering, shelving and check-out.

The Choral Choir, accompanied by Hedwig Kennessy and Nadine Shank, performed many classical, popular and traditional pieces that concert year under the able to the control of the control

ELM LEAF

With the able direction of Sr. Carol Lipps, the monthly $\underline{\operatorname{Em}}$ Leaf, edited by Pat Large and Pat Cunningham, included articles on school events, club activities, movie reviews and news from other schools. The $\underline{\operatorname{Elm}}$ Leaf also espressed student views on pertinent issues.

YEARBOOK — THE BEST EVER

Random piles of cropped prints, revised copy sheets, and final layents were organized into a meaning ful whole by co-editors Jeanne Herwick, Janet Topp and the staff. Under the watchful eye of their censor, Miss Patton, the piles disappeared.
