

To Mohammed Sarrafraach. Rotterdam
Dec 1987
Dear Mohammed.

It is customary in the Northern Hemisphere to cheer each other up in this time of the year when the days (day light) are shortening. Even the Christian religion has arranged the feast of the birth of Jesus Christ to take place in this dark time of year to bring joy in the hearts of mankind. This feast is immediately followed by the changing of the calendar year feast. And then slowly the light returns.

Mohammed, against all odds, we do wish 1988 to become a peaceful year for your people. It is our fear that in the Twentieth Century we still behave like we do. A Dutch writer said: Seen from the Moon all people are look alike.

The American poet E. A. Pound wrote:

"When I carefully consider the curious habits of dogs, I am compelled to conclude that man is the Superior animal.

When I consider the curious habits of man, I confess, my friend, I am Puzzled."

On behalf of all Staff. thank you for the fine cooperation. Let us meet in 1988. Enclosed ~~is~~ a picture of our new premises (only one floor).
