

Amsterdam 3/10/98

Dear Andrew, just a scribble by ordinary mail. I thought I had your e-mail address, however my "mails" to you were returned "undelivered". Send me a e-mail and then automatically I will get your proper e-mail address. Last Sunday Vera and I attended a private viewing of the picture "Grenfeti Symphony". I saw also messieurs Nick v. AADT. I had not the fortune to speak to him. From a third party I learned that he is still hanging in the ULB but now in A'dam. Right as for v.

Steenwijk is terminally ill: Cancer.

The other day I had lunch with Andrea.
She works two days a week. She gained a few but more weight; her hair had an orange colour and more than a kilo make up on her face; with her joy de vivre she cares not a damn. Of course we discussed over lunch the Monica Lewinsky affair.
Today's poll results for the Senate will be tale-telling. Even more shocking is the fact that the venerated Thomas Jefferson had an extramarital affair.

When Hyattsville arrived in London with Jefferson on their 24th anniversary

He could exchange views
