TOMORROW is the day that cupid will be shooting his arrows. Will he hit you? Mr. Williams will be adding another candle to his cake tomorrow, so be sure to wish him a "happy birthday."

Parties are hitting the spotlight once more. Two favorite gals were honored at a birthday party last Saturday. Who are these two who celebrate on the same day? Why the twins, of course, Jean and Jane Cass. Diann Bisbee was hostess to a group of her friends Friday evening in her home.

Get your partner! Yes, get your partner for the Hill Billy Hop sponsored by the Outdoorsmen club, Feb. 25, in the gym at 8 P.M. Howard Seifert (president of the club) is the general chairman and his able bodied assistants are Terry McShea, Dick Catrabone, Don Vrenna and Wilbur Goldsby. These fellows have a super duper evening packed full of fun planned, so let's all go. The Hammetteers will furnish the music. See you there!

A hearty welcome to Albert Schmieder, a student teacher, who is to teach Social Studies and senior high English. Mr. Schmieder is a student at Edinboro State Teachers college and we hope that he'll enjoy his stay here.

The debate club had its first debate Friday against Lawrence Park. The topic this year is "Resolved: That the Federal Government should initiate a policy of free trade among nations friendly to the United States." The affirmative team consists of Clare Breter, Bob Paull, Theresa Fetsko, Jerry Madigan and the negative team is Pat Meade, Tom Hilinski, Marge Halyak and Walton Davis.

The new Klein grade school on East Lake rd. will be dedicated Thursday evening. The school is a memorial to Mrs. Edith Klein who graduated and taught in Harborcreek schools.

Get well wishes to Nelson Enos ('54) who was injured recently and has been in the hospital.

The magazine sale is sailing right along. Vonda McQuarrie received a camera for turning in the most money on the first day. The over all winner will receive a radio if the goal is reached. Thus far Gary Barnes is in the lead.

Eleanore Hertel recently spent a week at Mount Union as our delegate to State Orchestra. Eleanore reported a real swell time.
