

Huskie Highlights

By Eleanor Hall

I'M SORRY that my column was cut short last week and my New Year's wish to you was not included, so Happy New Year. I hope that you included studying at the top of your resolutions. Sally Smith, Jo Whitney and Carol Guerra's New Year's eve party was a success. Among those attending were: Joyce Eleanor Hall Crain, Carl Bretz; Carol Maille, Howard Seifert; Phyllis Hovis, Bob Anderson; Becky Moore, Kenny Weed; and Sally and Carl Furey.

Ann Joslyn is now all set to take off for nurse's training for Santa brought Ann luggage for her Christmas present. Becky Moore received a 3-speed record player from Kenny. Becky was hostess this week to her cousin from New Castle. Carol Simmons and Doris Ollerak received cedar chests from Jack Wagner and Marvin Akerly respectively. Nancy Askins received a radio from her beau. Janet and Barbara Vaughn spent the holiday in Florida.

The Peppermint Ball is now a thing of the past. Seen dancing to the music of Don Prescott were: Carol Maille, Howard Seifert; Pat and Bruce Boyle; Sally Betts, Howard Higby; Sue Betts, Dan Higby and yours truly and Bob Sutter.

Doris Ollerak was hostess to a "hen party" Tuesday afternoon in her home. All the senior girls invited enjoyed the pizza that was on the menu.

Thursday night the Varsity basketball team played the alumni at school. This column had to go to the press before the results were known.

Well, tomorrow the school bells will ring ending our vacation.
