

Berkeley City Limits

Volume One, Number 2

June, 1988

"Megaversity" vs. Berkeley

by Clifford Fred

The University of California at Berkeley would like to build on over 100 developed and undeveloped lots in the City of Berkeley. This information was graphically illustrated on one of many large maps displayed at a meeting held by UCB's planners on April 28. Many of the sites it would like to develop are not owned by the University, but instead are considered as "opportunity sites."

UC Berkeley has little mercy for those who stand, or live, in its way. The University has plans to demolish apartment buildings on LaLoma, Highland, Haste, UC Berkeley has little mercy for those who stand, or live, in its way.

Contents

What Is Berkeley City Limits?	3
Haste St. Shelter Demolished by UC	3
County Moves into West of Downtown Neighborhood	4
Courtney Building Denied by Bd. of Adjustments	5
The Golden Bear as the Long Range Predator	6
People's Park Under Attack Again	8
Alternative UC Sites	9
UC Eviction Victim Tells Her Story	10
Expanding UC Threatens Berkeley Neighborhoods	11