Earth Tremor Startles N. J. Coast Section

By United Press
ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 1.—A severe earth tremor of 10 seconds duration shook buildings here at 8:41 a. m. today.

Workers in high buildings in the center of town felt the quake distinctly.

Reports within five miles of Asbury Park and from the commanding officer at Fort Hancock, Sandy Hook, were similar.

The tremor was distinct in Jersey City. Dishes were shaken from shelves in homes.

Redbank and Freehold, N. J., reported the shock had been severe in those places.

Windows rattled and children and housewives were momentarily frightened in the approximate fifty mile region affected by the shocks.

No important damage was done, however.

Police headquarters in the towns affected by the tremors answered innumerable inquiries and quieted the fear of citizens that another explosion such as that which wrecked the Lake Denmark Arsenal last year had taken place.

The shocks were felt in the Pompton Lake region, Butler and Ocean Grove, N. J. Furniture was reported overturned in Ocean Grove and bottles in a drug store were broken.

LINDBERGH WILL GET ROYAL WELCOME TO U. S.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 1.—A welcome befitting a Dewey or a Pershing will be given Captain Charles A. Lindbergh, airman hero, when he docks here June 11 aboard the fast cruiser Memphis.

President Coolidge announced today the youthful flier, honored by kings and commoners abroad, had accepted an invitation to sail aboard the Memphis from Europe and to steam up the Potomac to receive a nation's plaudits through the President Cabinet officers, soldiers, sailors and citizenry.

The shift from plans to bring him home aboard the destroyer Breck came after Lindbergh in London had received from the President's special cabinet reception committee an invitation to make Washington his first port of call. It was really the President's own invitation—a bid equivalent to a royal command.

When the Memphis sails or from what port was not made known.
