

PAINTING 20 ELK DIPTYCH by MARILYN BETH HUGHES ORIGINAL WATERCOLOR PAINTING $2,600

These fabulous paired diptych paintings by Marilyn Hughes, born in 1936, are simply stunning. Hughes resided in Billings, Montana for many years, and her work reflects a gentle, yet realistic style that captures wildlife in simple elegance. Marilyn has won many national awards, and her work is in museums and private collections across the country. She has exhibited at the Russian Institute of Art, the American Museum of Natural History and the Salmagundi Club. She is a Fellow of the American Artists Professional League and a Signature member of the Montana Watercolor Society and the Northwest Watercolor Society. These wonderful paintings, professionally framed and in pristine condition, measure 33" x 19" and "25" x "19", and were painted by Marilyn in 1990. We purchased them at the Charles d'Lou Wildlife Gallery in Jackson, Wyoming right after they were completed by Marilyn. Any distortions in the photos are due to light on the glass. They are quite heavy.
