

PAINTING 1 BRONCO by TED LITTLEFIELD Original Oil Painting $1,400

This terrific original oil painting, c/1950, by acclaimed western artist Ted Littlefield is in very nice condition and offered at a fraction of what a gallery would charge. Born in 1915 and deceased in 1977, Littlefield was well known for his detailed and realistic depiction of life in the west. His early career was spent in the motion picture industry, and he worked for the Disney Co. and was a close friend of Walt Disney, but he grew frustrated with the lack of creative art work and turned his talent towards painting wonderful western related oils, although he continued to do some work for TV shows until his death. This early example of his work is typical of his desire to include action in his creations. Professionally framed, it measures 29" x 23" and the frame is 1 5/8" thick. Hard to get accurate lighting in upper left of painting photo, so know that the colors are like the right side.
