

QUIMPER 83 $2,750

We purchased this incredible Porquire Beau cider pitcher in France nearly 30 years ago. It is in fabulous condition with one very small flake near the spout as show in a photo, and, otherwise, we find no chips, cracks or repairs. The image of a Briton woman and her children watching the boats head out to sea on one side and a wonderfully detailed floral design on the other are superb. One side has the crest of Quimper and the other the Amavie crest. This is a heavy and substantial piece that measures 10 ¾" tall, 9" wide and 3 ½" deep and is marked on the bottom. It dates from 1875 and is a treasure.
