Indian and Dog Head Match Safe. This vintage match safe is in fantastic condition, although it was obviously used over the years. On one side is the solid embossed image of an Indian in headdress with impressive detail. On the other side is the solid embossed image of a dog and riding crop or whip. The lid fits snugly, snapping closed with authority. There is a rope band above and below both images and a striker surface on the bottom. The piece measures 2 ¼" x 1 3/8" x 3/8" plus the embossed images. The match safe also includes tiny wooden matches.
