Scope and Content

The collection consists of various letters and legal documents relating to the Campbell family

Historical Note

The Campbell family were prominent farmers in the town of Union Vale. Henry L. Campbell was active in local politics, serving twice on the board of supervisors. The Campbell's were connected to other important families in Dutchess County, including the Adriances, known for their part in running Adriance Platt & Co.

Provenance

The Collection was donated to the Dutchess County Historical Society by _____ in 2008

The item location is identified both by accession number (2008.Campbell) and series (1.1, ect.). This attempts to reconcile the two disparate systems that sit on top of each other. The series number represents an original boxing organization, however, this was not maintained as of 2025.
