

New Lisbon N.J. April 4th 73

Dear Andrew

This letter inclosed was received from Hodson this morning and I hasten to inclose it to you.

He appears determined to hunt up the heirs of Ignatius. and must have some confidence in his fees at least, from the Frenchman. The french attorney in this case is living or writes from Bordeaux. so Combs & Downs says in one of their letters to me. Our merchants there might have picked out this very man to work for us.

Please return this some time as I am keeping all the letters connected with this case. Little Susan Jones has been with us for a day or two. she talks about mother in her sleep. and has some home sick crying times. poor little thing, we promised to keep her untill she approched womanhood say 15 years in our family at our table and then put her into the way of some trade. such as woman follow. She now goes to school. but she is to help work. wife says. The childs mother appeared much pleased with our proposal. but I am affraid the child will not be contented with us.

Give my best regards to cousin Caroline

I am truly yours

James A Fenwick
