

Catching up on the past in Pemberton Twp.

PHOTOS BY DORANN WEBER / FOR THE BCT

The Browns, of Pemberton, (from left) Logan, James and Sawyer, land a big one Sunday while decked out in clothes from the 1920s during Blueberry Living History Day on Sunday at Whitesbog Village in Pemberton.

Whitesbog Village in Pemberton Township hosted Blueberry Living History Day, during which visitors could visit the museums and historic landscapes, pick blueberries, take a wagon ride and see the village come alive with workers and residents from the 1920s.

Katie Sherwood (left), 13, of Atco, and her sister Lily, 11, play marbles, which was a popular game with children during the 1920s.