And so Thaney's ^{shattered} ~~cracked~~ young life was ended, a stunning blow to his father and mother and the many friends who loved him.

On June 30, 1873, a few days before, a third daughter was born to his sister and brother-in-law and this time ^{the baby} ~~was~~ named Mary Fenwick.

When ~~the~~ "Lizzie", some twenty one months old, heard her cry for the first time she is said to have remarked "Calfie-Baa"

Shortly after this death and birth, Minnie and Joseph broke up their home in Juliustown and moved to that at New Lisbon, to comfort Minnie's ^{loving} ~~grieved~~ parents.

They and their two baby girls were living there the following December when James Fenwick again writes to Cousin Andrew the two following letters.

(Letters).
