

Festival honors the blueberry

WHITESBOG —A summer tradition in the Pinelands will be celebrated Saturday with the hosting of the 18th annual Blueberry Festival.

Besides blueberry baked goods, visitors can take a wagon tour to see the sugar sand roads and natural world of the Pine Barrens with its cranberry bogs, wetlands and wildlife refuges.

Whitesbog is the company town that is the home to the cultivated blueberry. 6-29-01

The festival, which will feature music by the Sugar Sand Ramblers and others, will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Parking is $5 per car and includes a ticket to pick a pint of blueberries.

Whitesbog is at mile marker 13 on Route 530, Pemberton Township.
