TRAVEL TO MONGOLIA with Jo Carlson, daughter Kim and Lani Tierney. They will share their travels to both a beautiful and culturally rich country. Explore one of the world's last horse-based nomadic cultures where people still live in gers(yurts) and are surrounded by their beloved horses. With the winds of change stirring – Mongolia is a country on the brink of transformation.

ROOM 1330 at 10:15–11:15am and again at 1:15–2:15pm.

ENGLISH CRICKET: The world's third most popular sport. A sport played with a bat and ball, a game without “balls or strikes”, no foul territory, and where you can get six runs with a single swing of the bat. Demonstrations will be ongoing all day on the East Practice Field located outside SPASH.
