The region around Ecartswelier became Hanauerland in 1480 when Graf van Hanau became the new ruler of the region. This is the same region in which Martin Luther translated the Bible.

In 1575 the reformation's beginnings started in Hauerland. In this time 30 mayors governed the area and Hetzel was among them.

Between 1618-1648 the 30 years war took place. Everything was devastated and many people died. Of the 30 mayors, 24 survived, one of which was a Hetzel.

In 1681 France pushed its borders to the Rhine, encompassing the village of Ecartswelier, causing immense difficulties for the residents. In 1697 the persecution stopped. During the next two decades there were a number of wars. In 1703 the Spanish War took place and the people had to help protect their fields and families. After 1714 came the Polish and Austrailian Wars.

In 1796 the French were involved in a war in this region. Napoleon was the French ruler during this time. In 1803 Hanauerland became part of Baden, which was a state of Germany, through the decree of Napoleon.

The tragedies of seiges, troupe marches and plunderings took a heavy toll between 1796-1814. A decade of rebuilding took place. Famine was prevalent in the 1840's and 1850's, therefore; many people emigrated. In 1851, 40 people emigrated at the expense to the community. In 1852, our Hetzel family emigrated, again paid for by the people of Ecartswelier, Germany.

During 1849 the town was split for no apparent reason. In 1870 Germany and France were again at war and in 1875 the first military defense of the region was organized. 108 men fought and 25 men of Ecartswelier did not return.

After World War I people could not leave the city and entrance to the city was only by special pass. Inflation was rampant.

During Hitler's time the town was rarely mentioned. Up to 1944 the town was more or less secure and the war was not hard on Ecartswelier. In 1944 the town suffered artillery barrage. On April 25, 1945 the German army retreated leaving the town to the French Army. During World War II 112 men served of which 26 were killed and 12 were listed as missing in action.

At this present time, 1983, a distant cousin, Alfred Hetzel, is Mayor of Ecartswelier. The Hetzel family name is still very well known in Ecartswelier, Germany.

Michael C. Hetzel was born on November 23, 1849 in Ecartsweiler, Germany. He married Amanda Messing on March 13, 1856. They became parents of six children, Edna, Ernest, Arthur, Alvin, Lydia and Florence Ruth. Michael C. and Amanda were farmers and their farm was located just outside of Almond. Michael and his sons were also in the building business, they helped to build their church and also several houses. A son, Arthur, was a traveling salesman, dealing in knives, Maybelle Walter, a granddaughter of Barbara Keffner, still has a knife that was sold to her parents. Arthur also ran an establishment called, "The Palace of Sweets", which was advertised in the 1876 Wisconsin Atlas. One of the daughters, Florence Ruth, who later dropped the Florence, went on to write several children's books and also had her own radio program at NBC. Ruth Hetzel Harshaw won several awards including the Peabody Award. Michael and Amanda are buried in a small cemetery north of Almond. It is called the North German Cemetery.

David Hetzel was born on June 30, 1851 and he also came to Wisconsin with his parents from Ecartsweiler. On April 13, 1876, David married Magdalena Mehne. They became parents of twelve children, William, Martha, Edward, Emma, John, Albert, Laura, Fred, Oscar, Henry, Walter and Ezra. David and Lena were well known farmers of the Almond area. David and Lena are buried in the East German Cemetery just outside of Almond.

Mary Hetzel Sternitzky was born on January 18, 1855 in Wisconsin. She was born either just before or just after the death of her father. We know little about her childhood. She married James Sternitzky, the date is unknown. I have heard she and James operated a store at Lynn, Wisconsin. They became parents of five children, Margaret, Fred, Emma, Susan and Martha. She died in a fall in an old age home in which she resided in Waupaca. She and James are buried in Granton, Wisconsin.

The Johannes Hetzel Sr. family came to Wisconsin from Ecartswear, Germany in 1852. They left Ecartswear and sailed from LaHarve, France in January of 1852. They brought with them their children, Barbara, Johannes Jr., Elisabetha, Michael and David. Johannes Sr. was a weaver in Germany.

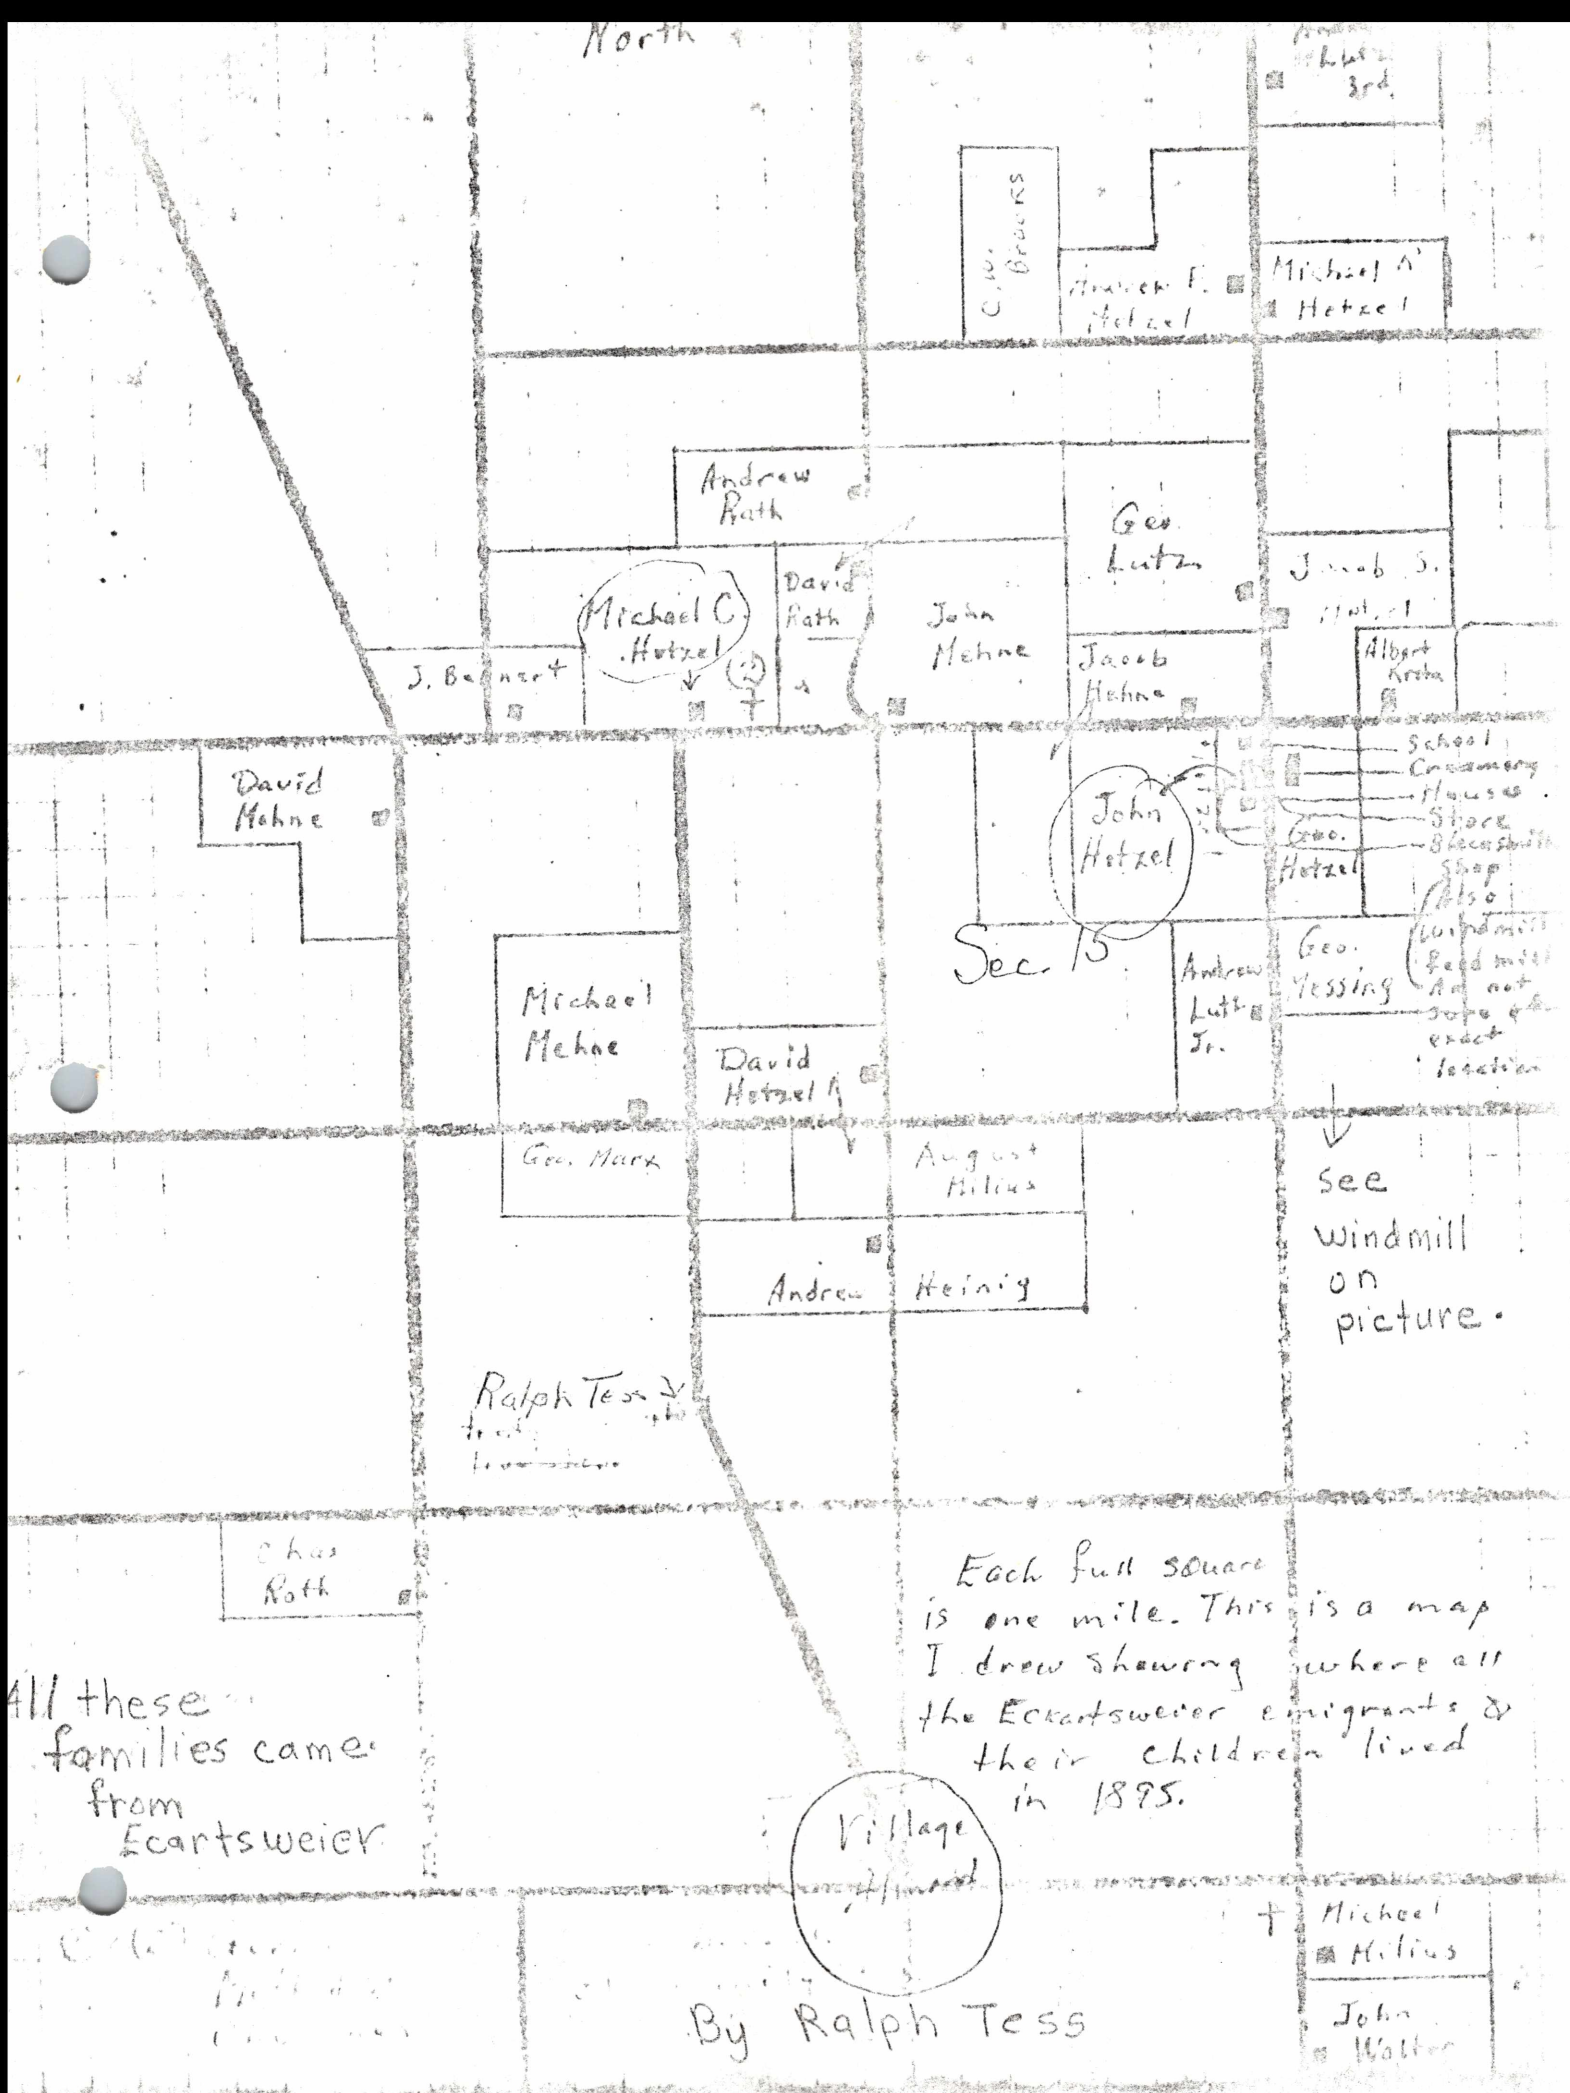

Johannes Hetzel Sr. was born on September 18, 1820. On October 22, 1844, he married Anna Barbara Goepper who was born on August 15, 1820. After they arrived at Almond, Wisconsin they had another daughter, Mary. Johannes Sr. was a farmer in Wisconsin. Some time in 1854 or 1855 Johannes Sr. was killed in a well accident. This left Anna Barbara a widow with at least five children. The reason why five children are mentioned instead of six is that it is believed Elisabetha also died soon after coming over here. A marriage license was found for a Barbara Hetzel and August Dammier for 1857. Whether or not this is our Anna Barbara has not been proven. It is also believed that Anna Barbara died before 1860. This left the children orphans with Barbara the oldest being 16. The children were raised by various friends of the family. Johannes Sr., Anna Barbara and probably Elisabetha are buried in an unmarked plot of what was once their farm. It is located on highway EE about 2 blocks north of A on the left.

Barbara Hetzel was born in Ecartswear, Germany on July 24, 1845. She came over from Ecartswear with her parents. She married Peter Keffner, the exact date is not known. Barbara and Peter had three sons John, Jacob and Frank. Barbara and Peter farmed all of their married life. Barbara, according to granddaughter, Maybelle Walter, was a kind and gentle woman. She cared for Maybelle and her brother and sister for a few years after their first mother died and before their father, John, remarried. Barbara and Peter Keffner are buried in the Almond German Methodist Cemetery.

Johannes Hetzel Jr. was born in Ecartswear, Germany on December 17, 1846. He married Anna Marie Mehne on October 2, 1867. Johannes Jr. served in the Civil War. He entered the army on February 13, 1865 and served as a private in Co. B, 46 Regiment Wisconsin Infantry. He served until the end of the war. Johannes Jr. and Anna Marie became parents of ten children, George, Johannes III, Wilhelm, Anna, Daniel, Bertha, Sophia, Minnie, Adolph and Rose. Johannes and his wife operated the Hetzel Store and Post Office at Hetzel, Wisconsin. That's right, Hetzel, Wisconsin. Hetzel Post Office operated from October 17, 1896 and continued until 1902. Johannes Hetzel Jr. was the postmaster. The Hetzel Creamery and Dairy (see picture) was built on George Hetzel's farm, but was a cooperative owned by surrounding farmers. Michael R. Hetzel, who does not seem to be related was the first president of the creamery. Johannes and Anna Marie had two children, Johannes III and Wilhelm who died of influenza in 1874. There is an interesting story connected to the boys' death as told by Bruce McCormick. Before coming to the United States, the Hetzels were Lutherans. The Lutheran minister gave Johannes and Anna Marie such a hard time about the burials that Johannes and Anna Marie asked the Methodist minister to bury the boys. Since that time the Hetzels of this time period were associated with the Methodist Church rather than the Lutheran Church. Johannes Jr. and Anna Marie Hetzel are buried in the East German Cemetery just out of Almond.

Elisabetha Hetzel was born on March 16, 1848. We know she came over with the family because her name is on the sailing papers. I have included the sailing papers in this tree. It is believed she died between the years of 1852 and 1855 or on the ship coming over here. She is probably buried on the Johannes Hetzel Sr. <sup>farm</sup> along with Johannes Sr. and Anna Barbara. This is not proven however.

Arthur Hetzel of Tampa, Fla. sent a picture of the players to Frank M. Reader requesting a copy to be printed with a story of the game and sent to each player now interested in the sport.

Brady, pitchers who also played with the Almond team, were harvesting at home and they were not included on the picture.

The score stood 1 to 0 in favor of Wild Rose at the end of the 7th inning. In the first of the 8th Almond got their first m

David and Lena
Hetzel

DAVID E. HETZEL. At present a retired citizen of Almond, David E. Hetzel has been one of the industrious men of Portage County, linking his name with all that is admirable in farming and wise and progressive in individual life. His career has been passed amid agricultural surroundings, where his industry and good management brought him material success, while his sterling qualities of character, as evidenced in his straightforward business transactions and his loyalty to friendships and fidelity to engagements, won him equal prosperity in his fellow citizens' confidence and esteem.

Mr. Hetzel was born in Germany, June 30, 1851, and is a son of John and Barbara (Gaybert) Hetzel. In his native land John Hetzel followed the trade of a weaver, and while he worked hard and economized could not seem to make satisfactory progress. His ambition and desire for a home of his own led him to face unknown conditions in the United States, and during the late '50s he came to this country with his family and settled in Portage County, in the locality known as Hetzelville. Here he acquired a small property which he developed and cultivated and after years of hard work had accumulated 160 acres, which he gave to his son. John Hetzel met a tragic death when still active and with apparently many more years to live. Always an energetic man, when there was work to be done, he was always eager to take part, and it was in this way that he died, being crushed while engaged in cleaning a well on the home farm. He was the father of the following children: Barbara, who is now Mrs. Kifner, of Almond; John and Mike, who are deceased; David E.; and Mary, who resides in Clark County, Wisconsin.

After completing his educational training in the district schools of Almond Township, David E. Hetzel turned his attention seriously to the business of farming and applied himself assiduously to assimilating the teachings of his father in methods of farming. When ready to enter upon his own career as an agriculturist he took up unbroken land in section 16, where he eventually cleared 120 acres, and following this added to his property by clearing forty acres in section 21. This property comprised the farm on which he worked out his success, and for many years he was numbered among the most successful tillers of the soil of this region. He also accumulated eighty acres of land in the vicinity of Buena Vista, which he still owns, but this is practically all in timber, only four acres having been broken at the time of this writing. When Mr. Hetzel retired from active labor he turned the management of his farm over to William Tess, who is now carrying on successful operations there. The property is graced by good buildings erected by Mr. Hetzel and also boasts of other valuable improvements installed by him. On coming to Almond he purchased a home and lot, and since that time has invested in other village property, in addition to which he has an interest in the produce and warehouse company at Almond. As a public-spirited member of his community, Mr. Hetzel always aligns himself with constructive forces, and while he has not been desirous of a place in the limelight as a public official has been ready to discharge his duties of citizenship and has served capably and conscientiously as road commissioner and treasurer of the school board.

In 1876 Mr. Hetzel was married to Miss Lena Mehne, who was born in the same part of Germany in which his birthplace was located. To this union there were born the following children: William, who is engaged in farming in Portage County; Martha, who is the wife of William Tess and resides on her father's farm in Almond Township; Ed, a resident of Almond; Emma, now Mrs. Tess; John, a farmer of Almond Township; Albert, of Almond; Laura, who resides on a farm; Fred, who is proprietor of a store at Almond; Oscar, a resident of Duluth, Minnesota; Henry, a farmer of this county; Walter, of Duluth; and Ezra, the youngest, and the only child now at home.
