

River Men

Logging, Lumber Mills, and River Pilots were key to the birth of Stevens Point. The River Men mural pays tribute to the River Pilots that navigated floating lumber yards downstream.

Corner of Water St. and Clark St.

Market Square

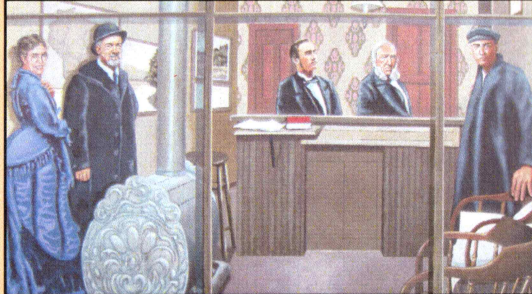

The mural on Buffy's depicts common activity on the square circa 1910. The mural is a historic representation of what the square and Stevens Point residents looked like in that era.

North and west walls of Buffy's, City Square, downtown

Law Office

The Law Office mural depicts the McDonald Law Office, established in the 1850's the McDonald family has been involved in the land title and legal profession for over five generations.

McDonalds Law Office, 1059 Clark St.

Point Bakery

The Point Bakery mural depicts Ted Zdrojewski and his two daughters who worked in the bakery.

Point Bakery Building, Hwy 66 West

For more information, please visit the:

Visitor Information Center
340 Division St.
1-800-236-4636
info@stevenspointarea.com

If you are interested in donating to the downtown
murals, please contact:

The Foundation of Central
Wisconsin
715-342-4454

Stevens Point Murals

Remembering historic Stevens Point one mural at a time.

The mural artists are Kelly Meredith and local Greg Luedtke.

The murals are painted of people, events, and places of significance to Stevens Point. The buildings, clothes, bifocals, and even pipes are painted to the styles of the eras. The faces depicted are significant people of Point's past and locals that have given donations, making these murals possible.

Ten Most Influential Citizens and Events

These murals depicts the people and events that have had the largest impact on Stevens Point, making it the city it is today.

East Wall of Kristin's Riverwalk, Clark St.

Walkway, East side of the Library, Main St.

Graffiti

The Graffiti mural depicts citizens in Graffiti Sports Pub. Graffiti was and still is a Stevens Point Landmark.

West side of Graffiti, Main St.

Old Post Office

The Post office mural depicts the old post office which was torn down in the 1960's. Postmen, students, businessmen, and locals from the past are depicted in front of the beautiful marble Post office.

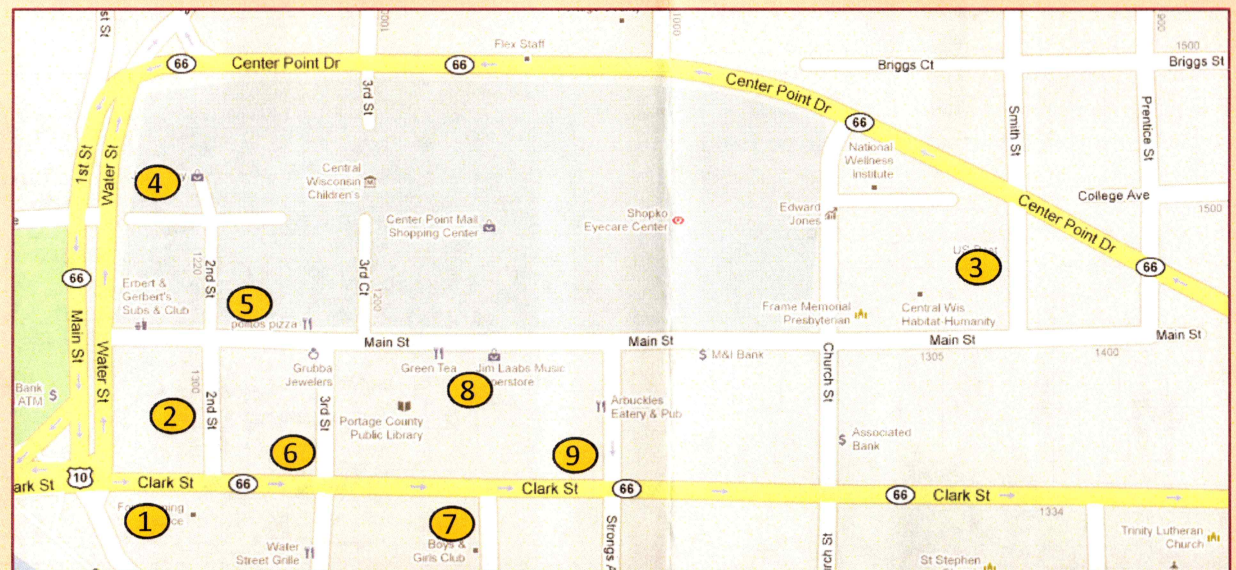

East wall of the new Post Office building, Corner of Main St. and Smith St.

Cozy Kitchen

The Cozy Kitchen mural depicts Stevens Point's longest running restaurant, the Cozy Kitchen. Over the years thousands of locals and visitors have enjoyed delicious home cooked meals at the Cozy Kitchen.

North wall of Cozy Kitchen, Third St.

- | | | |
|---------------------|------------------|--------------------------|
| (1) River Men | (4) Point Bakery | (7) Law Office |
| (2) Market Square | (5) Graffiti Pub | (8) Influential Events |
| (3) Old Post Office | (6) Cozy Kitchen | (9) Influential Citizens |