In 1970, before Title IX legislation was passed, the WIAA hosted "Wisconsin State Girls Track and Field Sports Day" at Appleton East High School with 15 events. Maria High School (now known as Pacelli) sent 1 girl, S. Menzel, and P.J. Jacobs High School (now known as SPASH) sent 8 girls, Sue Bengelsdorf, Linda Bohm, Janet Dake, Cathy Hartman, Lark Klish, Sue Larson, Marcy Mirman and Robbie Schweers.

The WIAA held the 1st Girls Track meet in 1971 at Appleton East High School with 1 division and 14 events. Although there is no program for the 1971 meet in the WIAA archives, the 1972 program shows entries from 25 schools in Class A and 1 girl from Portage County, Kim Fletcher competing in the 400-yard dash.
