

re capsules

6/9/04

costume.

CITY BAND PLANS A SPOOKY EVENING: "A Spooky Evening in the Park" will be the theme as the Stevens Point City Band presents its fifth concert of the summer season on Wednesday, July 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the Pfiffner Pioneer Park band shell.

The band, under the direction of Kathryn Kawleski, will perform a Halloween-themed concert featuring such music as "House of Horrors," "Rats, Bats and Spiders," "In The Hall of the Mountain King," "Pirates of the Caribbean," "The Headless Horseman" and "That Old Black Magic." As a highlight, all audience members are invited to join the band in dressing in costume for this concert.

The 7th Annual Pet Parade will be held in conjunction with the weekly children's march. Audience members are invited to bring their leashed pets and join in the parade. Pets are also welcome to dress in Concerts are free and held Wednesday evenings through Aug. 11.

Audience members should bring chairs or blankets for seating. In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held in the center court of CenterPoint MarketPlace, and a children's march will be held in lieu of the pet parade.

* * *

re capsules

6/18/04

City Band's second concert of the summer season.

The nostalgic musical trip through the 1960s will include "Aquarius/Let the Sun Shine In," "Up, Up and Away," "Georgy Girl," "The Girl From Ipanema," "Batman Theme," "Tijuana Brass In Concert" and "Highlights From Exodus." "Hogan's Heroes March," from the popular '60s sitcom, will be the featured music for the weekly children's march.

Concerts are free and held Wednesday evenings through Aug. 11. Audience members should bring chairs or blankets for seating. In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held in the center court of CenterPoint MarketPlace.

STEVENS POINT CITY BAND WILL SALUTE THE 1960S: "Sounds of the Sixties" will be the theme for the Stevens Point

7/16/04

Broadway including "Gershwin!", music from "Gigi," "Overture from Bye Bye Birdie" and "The Music of Cole Porter."

Robert Kase, music department chairman and professor of trumpet at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, will be the featured trumpet soloist, performing "Grand Russian Fantasia" by Jules Levy (arranged by Donald Hunsberger).

Another highlight of the evening will be "Richard Rodgers in Concert," featuring vocalists from the Central Wisconsin Area Community Theater singing with the band. Vocalists will include Doris Blanche, Don Ciseski, Colleen Hogan, Maxine Hogan, Kevin McWilliams, Dylan Rath, Garrick Rohm, Gerry Vircks, Marlene Vircks, Dan Wise and Amber Zietlow.

"The Billboard March" will be the music for the weekly children's march.

Concerts are free and held Wednesday evenings through Aug. 11. Audience members should bring chairs or blankets for seating. In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held in the center court of the CenterPoint MarketPlace.

CITY BAND WILL FEATURE 'SHOWSTOPPERS': "Showstoppers" will be the theme as the Stevens Point City Band presents its sixth concert of the summer season on Wednesday, July 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the Pfiffner Pioneer Park band shell.

The band, under the direction of Kathryn Kawleski, will play a variety of music from 7/23/04

County Fare capsules

CITY BAND WILL PREMIERE WORK BY HARBACH: "A Premier Event" will be the theme as the Stevens Point City Band, under the direction of Kathryn Kawleski, presents its seventh concert of the summer season on Wednesday, July 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the Pfiffner Pioneer Park band shell.

The band welcomes Barbara Harbach back to Stevens Point as it performs the world premiere of her "Emanations from the Sacred Harp," transcribed for symphonic band by Robert J. Haskins. The two-movement piece is based on five hymn tunes primarily from the First New England School of Composers of the Revolutionary and Federalist periods.

Barbara Harbach, visiting professor of music at the University of Missouri-St. Louis, previously served on the faculty at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point. She is an accomplished composer, tours extensively as both a concert organist and harpsichordist and is widely known as a pioneer in documenting the music of women composers.

Other music featured on the concert will include "First Suite in E Flat" by Holst, "Fantasy on American Sailing Songs" by Grundman, LeRoy Anderson's "Blue Tango," "A Johnny Mercer Medley" and "Walt Disney Band Showcase." "Repas Band March" will be the music for the weekly children's march.

Concerts are free and held Wednesday evenings through Aug. 11. Audience members should bring chairs or blankets for seating. In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held in the center court of CenterPoint MarketPlace.

* * *

8/6/04

County Fare

CITY BAND PLANS FINAL CONCERTS OF THE SEASON: The Stevens Point City Band will feature "Highlights of the 2004 Season" next week as it presents its final concerts of the year.

The band, under the direction of Kathryn Kawleski, will perform at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Portage County Health Care Center and at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the band shell at Pfiffner Pioneer Park.

The final concerts will feature highlights from this season's concerts, including "Great Hits of the 60s," "Cumana," "Tijuana Brass in Concert," "That Old Black Magic," "Roller Coaster (A Symphonic Sketch)" and "America, The Beautiful." Fillmore's "Presidents March" will be the music for the weekly children's march.

Both concerts are free of charge and open to the public.

Audience members should bring chairs or blankets for seating. In the event of inclement weather, the Wednesday concert will be held in the center court of CenterPoint MarketPlace.

* * *

County Fare

dust cloth since they always need dusting.

Lincoln Center is open Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (Tuesdays to 7 p.m.). The public is welcome.

* * *

CITY BAND WILL PRESENT 'THE SOUNDS OF JAZZ': "The Sounds of Jazz" will be the theme as the Stevens Point City Band, under the direction of Kathryn Kawleski, presents its eighth concert of the summer season on Wednesday, Aug. 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Pfiffner Pioneer Park band shell.

Featured music will include "Duke Ellington!" "Bix Beiderbecke in Concert," "Big Band Favorites," "Count Basie Salute" and "A String of Pearls." K. Clarke Crandell, lead alto saxophone player for the band, will perform as soloist on Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess Medley," arranged by Ralph Hermann.

The band's euphonium section, Jodi Gerarden, Justin Smith and Brian Bentley, will be featured on LeRoy Anderson's "Bugler's Holiday." Fillmore's "The Footlifter" march will be the music for the weekly children's march.

Concerts are free and held Wednesday evenings through Aug. 11. Audience members should bring chairs or blankets for seating. In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held in the center court of CenterPoint MarketPlace.

July 30, 2004

(Continued from page 9)

* * *