NINE MILE CORPS AND COMMUNITY CENTER

The concept of a corps and community center, while not new to The Salvation Army in the United States, is very unique. It incorporates both the teaching and the ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ. It includes both a personal relationship with God, and a personal involvement in the life of man.

The term "Corps" refers to a congregation of christian believers dedicated to the fulfillment of Christ's great commission "go ye into the world and preach the gospel". Mark 16:15. The term "Community Center" communicates the idea of recreation and fellowship for every member of the family, in a warm and friendly atmosphere. A place to meet friend, share ideas, and solve problems, have fun and learn to live out one's faith in God in every day life.

Our commitment to The Salvation Army tradition of service to mankind regardless of race, creed, or place of national origin, is clearly demonstrated in the erection of this new building. We consider these new facilities a trust, and dedicate ourselves to their best use. May God grant that our dedication will be equal to our opportunities, and our commitment equal to His ability to teach us how to serve.

DEDICATION SERVICE

Sunday, November 8, 1970

3:00 P.M.

Colonel S. W. Franzen, Presiding

MUSICAL PRELUDE. Royal Oak Citadel Band
Max Wood, Bandmaster

CONGREGATIONAL SONG "To God Be The Glory" Major Alvin Nelson

To God be the glory, great things He hath done!
So loved He the world that He gave us
His Son;
Who yielded His life an atonement for sin.
And opened the Life gate that all may go in.

O Perfect redemption, the purchase of Blood;
To every believer the promise of God;
The vilest offender who truly believes,
That moment from Jesus a pardon receives.

Great things He hath taught us, great things He hath done.
And great our rejoicing through Jesus,
the Son;
But purer and higher and greater will be
Our wonder, our rapture, when Jesus we see.

*Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Let the earth hear His voice!
Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Let the people rejoice!
O come to the Father through Jesus
the Son,
And give Him the glory; great things
He hath done!*
