

by: You say you don't agree with me in thinking Robert little changed, and but slightly older. You seem to consider him from an earlier period than I do: he has been a moralizer for many moons.
You don't appear to have cultivated his acquaintance much of late years.

I have greatly enjoyed the Punches. I am to send them back, after looking them over, in fact. Sister Sargents' picture of Henry Irving is I am sure, a beautiful caricature

He comes home the last of next month, too late, I fear, for me to see him in Sturte

About that time I expect to present an appearance something
