EDWARD MARTIN TABER was born in Staten Island, July 21st, 1863, and died at Washington, Connecticut, September 9th, 1896. He exhibited with the Society of American Artists in 1886, 1894, and again in 1895, in which year he was elected a member. During the winter of 1887-88 he studied under Abbott H. Thayer. Subsequently his delicate health obliged him to leave New York for a more favorable climate. He received no other instruction in painting. From 1889, until within a short time of his death, he lived in Stowe, Vermont, and almost all his paintings are of the scenery in the immediate neighborhood of Stowe.
