CAMPAIGN NEARS THE $1,000 MARK

Enough additional pledges have been made to insure the success of the struggle for an up-to-date athletic field. One of the officials of the L. V. O. G. A. said he was glad to help La Verne College get a good field even though he was too busy to attend the games. In the last issue it was stated that business men should back L. V. C. if they wish effectively to do business in La Verne. The other side of the question is that students and friends of the College must patronize home enterprises. No support can be expected if we do not trade at home. Give the home business your trade and you will find in most cases you are better off, while at the same time you keep your money in La Verne, where it rightfully belongs. Some business men in La Verne feel, and rightfully so, that they do not get results from their advertising in our school publications; that student trading is done in Pomona and Los Angeles, while they themselves support the school and town and are not given a fair chance. They do not even get to show their goods to the home people. What we need is a bit of cooperation. Give our business men a square deal and they will continue to back us to their limit. By our trade we either limit or extend their ability to help make La Verne and L. V. C. what they should be.

Since the last writing the following contributions have been made:

E. P. Jochimsen, Mgr.
L. V. O. G. A.	$50.00
Pres. I. V. Funderburgh,
Alumnus	50.00
George Jones, Meat Market	25.00
Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Brubaker,
Alumni	25.00
Frank Cromer, Barber Shop Amzi Swank, foreman L. V. O. G. A.
Roy D. Flory, Alumnus
C. M. Moore, Garage
Mrs. Grace Miller
Herman Moomaw

Many others have signified their intention to help, but have not yet signed pledges, while still others have not yet been asked to give. Students and business men, boost! and help make the goal of $1500 a reality.

"BELSHAZZAR" TO BE PRESENTED

On Friday night, May 4, the Choral Union of La Verne College will present the oratorio "Belshazzar" in the College auditorium as the last number of the Music and Lecture Course. Under the leadership of Prof. and Mrs. B. S. Haugh, the principals and chorus have been working hard and a delightful musical evening is promised to all who come.

The scene of the story of Belshazzar is among the Jews in captivity at about 530 B. C. Zerubabel is the leader of the Jews and Cyrus of the Persians. Belshazzar in his palace is engaging in a drunken revel, which greatly aggravates the Jews. Zerubabel tells Cyrus of the revel and Cyrus plans the attack, which is successful. At this time appears the handwriting on the wall, which Daniel interprets. The story is intensely interesting from beginning to end.

A large delegation is expected of La Verne, as the conference is quite near. All who are interested are welcome. Students, attend all sessions, if possible, to catch the spirit of the conference.

When they are walking down the aisle Some say, "He should be taller," And if she's small and he's real tall, The people still will holler. Why worry—after wedding bells It makes no difference whether They look so well or not, for they Will never be together.

AN APPRECIATION

The students of La Verne College and Academy, through this note, wish to express their appreciation for the sincere and earnest efforts put forth by I. V. Funderburgh during the two years that he was President of the College.

He proved himself a true friend and a helpful advisor to all the students in the College.

We wish him the best of success in whatever he may do, that he may continue to carry on his work with young people in Christian activities.

MAY DAY FETE

Spring's the time for love and all things beautiful. May Day, Tuesday, May 1, has been set aside as the time when the Associated Women Students of La Verne College will entertain. There are to be many surprises throughout the day, but the main events are as follows:

The regular chapel service will be conducted by the A. W. S., and every-

The purpose and spirit of the conference can be clearly ascertained from the following program:

"THE MAN FROM HOME"

By Class of '24

Friday night, April 27, one of the most wholesome of modern plays is to be staged in the College gymnasium by the members of the College Junior class. With the assistance of certain successful amateur players from the lower classes, and the faithful work of their efficient coach, Mrs. B. S. Haugh, there is no doubt but that it will be one of the most successful dramatical presentations of La Verne College.

The scene, which is laid in Italy, is most striking and attractive, staging some of the outdoor scenes of that country. With the use of the large stage in the gym auditorium, there will be ample room and opportunity for the use of the new scenery, which is now being made.

Trustees of LaVerne College Meet in Special Session

"We shall have a bigger and better school in every respect next year." This was the unanimous opinion of all the Trustees who met Tuesday night, April the 17th, in a special Trustee session. This session of the Trustees was called by the Executive Board of the College. There were many and varied problems confronting the Trustees.

The Trustees after being in session for a number of hours made the following decisions:

1. That school shall continue for next year in full blast.
2. That Professor Ellis M. Studebaker of McPherson, Kansas, should be given a unanimous call to the Presidency of La Verne College.
3. That the resignation of Pres. I. V. Funderburgh be accepted and Prof. J. B. Emmert be the Acting President for the remainder of the school year.

The Board decided that the Endowment campaign should be pushed very hard in the next few months and the field work of the College be carried on in a much larger way.

This was without doubt the brightest board meeting that the Trustees of the College have ever experienced.

WHAT CAN YOU DO ?

An intense feeling of love and loyalty for La Verne College, such as has not been experienced for a long time, was aroused at the chapel service on last Wednesday when the announcement for which we had all been anxiously waiting was made that La Verne College is going to go. The applause, loud and long, indicated the pep and enthusiasm of every student and the relief that the question is settled. Our Board of Trustees met in a long and strenuous session and the result of their conference is surely the answer to prayer and hard labor. Although some of us may have tried, we cannot realize just what a calamity it would be to have our College close, but we earnestly believe that such is not His will. The friends of our College and the splendid group which constitutes the Board of Trustees are sacrificing and working for us, and we certainly want to show our deep appreciation to those who are making school possible for us next year.

Students, have you thought of our obligation to those who are doing so much for us and our College? What do we owe to them? We are the ones for whom the school is in operation and it is up to us to make good and show them that we are trying to be worthy of their sacrifices. These friends of ours are vitally interested in us and our well being, or the money for next year's expenses would never have been guaranteed. They are looking to us to make the most of our opportunities, that when we are through school we may be ready for service.

We have no right to let things slip by in any careless fashion, but it is our part and our privilege to repay so far as we can the sacrifice, energy, and interest for our College by doing our best to make La Verne the clean, loyal, unselfish, broad-minded, and Christian institution it ought to be.

Our College is just what we as individual students make it. If our morals are clean and our ideals high it is because each student has clean morals and high ideals. It is the little things that count in more ways than we realize. When one student does something that is not up to his own personal standard of conduct and honor, the morale of our school is weakened just that much, and especially is it so when that student is a person of influence and a leader.

When school closes for the summer and you are away from here, remember that you are from La Verne and that people are going to judge La Verne College by what you do. The home folks will have a high estimation of your abilities, and how will you respond? Show them that you have received something at La Verne and that you are willing to pass it on and do whatever you can.

Let's each of us do our best to show the Trustees and friends of La Verne College that we appreciate the opportunities that they are placing within our reach. We owe to them and to ourselves that we should develop the best that is within us and make our College what we want it to be.

Decide now that you will be back next year with all your pep and enthusiasm and bring someone else with you! La Verne College needs you, and you need La Verne College!

A clergyman objected to wiping dishes for his wife, saying: "It's not a man's job." She quoted this scripture to him, "I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down." He is still wiping the dishes.

Johnny—"Did Moses have dyspepsia, like what you've got?"
Dad—"How on earth do I know? Why do you ask such a question?" Johnny—"Well, our Sunday School teacher says the Lord gave Moses two tablets."

More Truth than Poetry

A maid sang out with voice so clear For all who wished her song to hear, But now 'tis sad—oh, sad her plight—Oh, dear! to think she gained it over night!

No more engagements can she keep,
With this her fame mounted, oh, so steep,

For she's caught the gleam, that blessed Ray, She has an Alltime engagement for another day.

COMMISSION NOTES

It was decided in regular student body meeting that the Commissioner of Finance be given complete charge of all student body finance, including both the "Campus Times" and the "Annual," to be effective at the beginning of the next school year.

The Commission met with President Emmert in a called meeting and decided to boost the proposition which Mr. Knoch presented to the students concerning a sale of Leader subscriptions. It is planned that the X. Y. Z's and the Lion Tamers head the drive.

PIANO RECITAL A SUCCESS

The Junior Piano Recital given by Miss Madie Royer Friday night, Apr.
20, was very delightful to all present.
Miss Royer put such interpretation into the selections rendered that the interest of the audience was held throughout the evening. Her playing reflected credit on her teacher, Prof.
B. S. Haugh. The solo by Mrs. B. S.
Haugh and the reading by Miss Elva Gillette were greatly enjoyed, and the encores were charming. The College auditorium was comfortably filled, many of Miss Royer's friends from Pomona being present. The beautiful bouquets presented Miss Royer expressed the interest of her friends.

SOCIETY

AT CAMP BALDY

Sentiments of the Friendship Girls, who spent the week end in Shaffer's Cabin at Camp Baldy:

I move you we make a little rhyme To tell Dr. Shaffer of our jolly good time.

A Cadillac, Ford, Reo and Dodge Brought us up to "Boulder Lodge," Ate our dinner—Oh! our belts were tight!

Washed the dishes, and went for a hike;

We slid on the snow without any sleigh

And the way we rode was a funny way
The evening spent was very gay, And then it was time to "hit the hay."
Sunday morning at six ever rared, And a very good breakfast was soon prepared;

The ham and eggs we remember yet, And those flap-jacks we will never forget.

Next we went to Sunday School, Where we were taught the Golden Rule.

The pictures we took were surely rare And we will not show them everywhere.

Sunday dinner was very delicious—Hard on those who had to do dishes.
Then came time for us to go home.
Which was ushered in by one grand groan.

Now we will close this petite rhyme, Everyone voting a jolly good time.

ANOTHER "GANG" BIRTHDAY

This time it was Irene's birthday.
She entertained very royally when she took the party to Long Beach for church Sunday morning and to the beach for lunch and a good time in the afternoon. After going to church at La Verne in the evening, the party went to Irene's for a delicious feed of ice cream and birthday cake.. It was a very happy day and Irene's sixteenth birthday will long be remembered.

SENIOR LUNCHEON

Mrs. Leroy Hoover entertained the Senior girls at luncheon Saturday in honor of Miss Ruth Barnhizer. The table was beautifully decorated in pink, blue and lavender. The centerpiece of flowers was beautiful and was greatly appreciated. Later this same center piece proved to be of great interest to the guest of honor, for just before serving the last course the guests were told to pull the ribbons that extended from the center of the table to their places. Everyone found a dainty bouquet at the end of their ribbon with the exception of Ruth, who discovered hers attached to a shower of gifts for the table. The gifts were then admired and the fortunes read that were found hidden in the bouquets.

After luncheon the time was spent in playing the Victrola and in taking pictures. Mrs. Hoover was such a delightful hostess that the day will not soon be forgotten by those who were present.

A SIX O'CLOCK DINNER

Last Wednesday night some of the College boys were hosts at a very formal dinner party. The table was very artistically arranged and the five-course chicken dinner was served admirably by the attending maid. The boys cooked a dinner which any woman might be proud of, and everything from the cocktail to the after dinner mints was properly seasoned. Needless to say, everyone exceeded their eating capacity and were really thankful that the soup crackers had been forgotten. The invited guests were:
Wanda Carl, Lois Johnson and Martha Brubaker, and the hosts were Herman Moomaw, Bertram Betts and Ben Hepner.

A TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

A trip around the world, with all its thrills and excitement! Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Miller were the hosts at a party for the students and faculty of the College on last Saturday night.
At the entrance of the gym, passports in the form of little boats were given to each passenger. The group was also divided into two parts—the "All Stars" and the "Invincibles."

The five continents were represented by five countries. Each corner of the gym was decorated to represent some country. An African jungle, with its snakes and tigers, was very typical; a Japanese garden, and a little jungle representing a South American country, where many dark-skinned natives found their home, was very clever.
Three little Dutch girls represented the land of wooden shoes.

In the center of the gym an American flag and red, white and blue streamers gave evidence of the good old U. S. A. When each one had found his home in one of the five countries, one of each group read ten statements regarding that country.
Then the real trip began. Each group traveled from one country to another, where more facts were learned. When each person had learned fifty new facts, the "Invincibles" and "All Stars" took their places on opposite sides of the gym. Each side selected a catcher, pitcher and score keeper. A regular game of base ball was played, except that instead of base balls, questions were asked.
The "Invincibles" were victorious.

Then each country gave a stunt.
Three Dutch girls sang, a Japanese scene was given, and the South Americans played a phonograph selection.
America sang Yankee Doodle. The Africans had a native who performed with stunts, and weird and mystic music, played on bottles.

Last but not least were the eats.
Africa furnished dates; South America, cookies. Of course Holland furnished the cheese and crackers, and Japan the tea. In the United States paper plates, napkins and roses were given to each one.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller certainly entortain in a wonderful way, and all the students thank them for the good time.

A PLEASANT AFTERNOON

Mrs. Arnett entertained her Sunday School class Thursday afternoon with a little informal social. Such games as "Button, button, who's got the button?" were enjoyed just as tho' they weren't faculty members and grown-ups. The main feature of the afternoon, however, was drawing a May-pole dance with eyes blindfolded.
Miss Babcock wished that she hadn't been so artistic after the prize was awarded, for the prize was having the honor of serving the refreshments to the group. The refreshments were so delicious that it must have been really self-denial on Miss Babcock's part to refrain from tasting each dish before serving. Everyone declared that Mrs.
Arnett not only was a good teacher but a good hostess.

ETHEL HAS A BIRTHDAY

Friday, April 20, being Ethel's birthday, she took the "gang" to the ball game, then to Ganesha Park for "eats." The girls had a very good time, as would be supposed. Then the Gem Sweet Shop, La Verne, was their goal, and with a very big, delicious angel's food cake they made their way thither and dined on cake and ice cream. Those to enjoy this very delightful birthday party were: Irene Brooks, Mollie Rhodes, Olive Shirk, Minnie Dickey, Lois R. Miller, Miriam Shirk and Norman Roynon.

KOLLEGE KNEWS

Ray Root was host at a dinner at the Rosslyn Hotel in Los Angeles on Thursday evening, April 12th. The host and his guests went to Hollywood to see "The Covered Wagon." The guests were Lucile Beckner, Viola Neher and Dwight Welch.

The tryouts for the inter-class debate were held Monday afternoon, April 16. The Seniors and Juniors were victorious over the Sophomores and Freshmen. The debate between the two victorious classes will occur in the near future.

Martha and Hazel Brubaker and Maurine Miller spent Tuesday, April 17, in Los Angeles.

Wanda Carl and Nova Leonard spent the week end at their homes in Hermosa Beach.

As diamond rings seem to be in demand in the institution, the valiant commissioner of finance, Levi Dickey, announced in chapel that these rings could be secured at reduced prices if ordered in lots of ten or a dozen.
Several names of those entering an order appeared on the hall desk shortly afterward.

ATHLETICS

COLLEGE DEFEATS REDLANDS

The College team defeated Redlands University in a return game here last Tuesday by a score of 4-1. This was a much better game than the first one. "Hop" was back to his old form and pitched a very close game, while the rest of the team backed him up much better. The home team knocked the first pitcher out of the box about the sixth inning and the new one held them better. Redlands scored their only run in the eighth. La Verne is holding her own very well with the Conference teams and could easily hold her place in the Conference, in base ball at least.

ACADEMY WINS FROM CLAREMONT

The Academy won their second league game last Friday by defeating Claremont, 6-3. The game was fast and exciting thruout. The Academy showed some real class and much improvement over the game with Colton. Kreps pitched a wonderful game fanning twelve and only walking one.
The team gacked him up in every way.
Urbin played a good game at second, and also "Chet" Shirk at first. Capt.
Or. Brooks played a good, consistent game behind the bat. Frank Gillett has not started his batting average yet, but give him a little time. Don't give up, folks. We still have a chance to win the league.

LA VERNE LOSES TO CALTEC

La Verne lost a very long, hard game to Caltec in Pasadena by a score of 15-14. The game lasted nearly three hours. Dwight Welch pitched a good game, considering the fact that he pitched the entire time, which amounted to two ordinary games.
There were a good many hits and also errors on both sides, which accounted for the large score. La-Verne was leading in the first of the ninth, but Caltec made three runs at their last time at bat, which put them on top by one run.

COLLEGE DEFEATS OXY FROSH

The College nine defeated the Oxy Frosh squad by a score of 6-2. La-Verne took the lead in the second inning and held it thruout the game.
Mr. "Hop" Welch pitched a close game, allowing only a few scattered hits. La Verne especially excelled in batting. Ben Hepner led the home team, batting a thousand per cent.
He now leads the contestants for the belt buckle offered by Coach Arnett, with an average of 400. Mr. Howard Beckner is a close second, with 392.

COLLEGE "Y" BACKS THE FATH- ER AND SONS BANQUET

The practical service committee of the Y. M. C. A. has really done some good work. The Y took over the responsibility of selling tickets and providing part of the program for the Father and Sons banquet held in the Methodist church Tuesday night, April 10. The success of the banquet was due in large measure to the work of the town men, especially Mr.
Brower, Mr. Durward, Mr. Romick, Mr. Fischer, Mr. Throne, and Mr.
MacDonald.

The program was very interesting and full of pep. After the delicious banquet served by the ladies of the Methodist church, Mr. Brown of San Dimas, a leader of Y. M. C. A. summer camps, led the groups in a hearty laugh and some songs. Mr.
C. E. Davis, the toastmaster of the evening, told some good jokes on the traditional "Pat" and "Mike." Dwight Shirk then told the fathers what he would do if he were a man. He said he would be a chum of his boy. Then Dr. Dickey talked on 'Playing the Game Together.' He based his speech on a prank that a boy played on his father. The father and son were breaking a colt and they wanted to see if he would scare, so the father told the boy to go down the lane and jump out and say "Hoo!" The boy

CHAPEL NOTES

Under the auspices of the Student Volunteers, Mr. Lloyd Lorbeer addressed the students on Thursday, April 12th. Mr. Lorbeer is a missionary on furlough from India and resides at present in Claremont. He made vivid many of his experiences as head of a normal school in the southern part of India.

On Tuesday, April 17th, the College Y. M. C. A. furnished the speaker for the chapel hour. Mr. George Day, the secretary working among the college students in this state who are from foreign countries, told of his experiences in that work. He took for his subject, "The Foreign Student, the Campus, and the Community."

The Apollo Club, on Thursday, Apr.
19th, rendered the following program during the chapel period:

Prelude, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" (with variations), Miss Pauline Miller.

Devotional.

Popular Music in America, Miss Bertha Fike.

Vocal Solo, "The Journey's End," Miss Vera Hoover.

Piano Solo, "If I Were a Bird," Miss Dorothea Dyck.

Vocal Quartet, "Babylon," Misses Lucile Beckner, Lois Miller, Mary Blickenstaff, Pauline Miller.

Piano Duet, "Valse Brilliant," Misses Lois Miller and Beulah Smith.

Vocal Trio, "Life Eternal" (from "Victory") Mrs. B. S. Haugh, Prof.
B. S. Haugh, Miss Lois Miller.

went a little beyond the hog-wallow to hide and just as his father got to the mud puddle he jumped out and shouted. The father landed on his head in the mud. The son found this very humorous and his father very nearly becoming angry, remembered just in time the pranks he himself had played, and all he said was, "Now, Elick, that was too big a 'Hoo' for any calf."

Mr. Fischer spoke on the subject of "How the Y. M. C. A. Helps." He told of the activities of the High Y.

Dr. Batten of Pomona gave the address of the evening. He said that the father should make his son feel that he was the "swellest guy" in the world. The future of the world is in the hands of the American home and the religious training should receive more attention.

All who attended the banquet voted it a real success. It is through such meetings that great things will be accomplished for the future.
