TWO VICTORIES FOR LA VERNE IN DEBATE

MISS THOMPSON'S MUSIC PUPILS RENDER DELIGHTFUL RECITAL

The music pupils who are studying under Miss Thompson, on Thursday evening, March 21st, gave a recital which was a credit to Miss Thompson and to the school. The recital was carried off in Miss Thompson's usual pleasing manner before an audience which filled the auditorium. Altho some of the soloists were not accustomed to performing before the public, every number on the program was artistically done, and showed itself to be the result of a great deal of practice.

"The Bear Story," as told by Aleck himself, a reading given by Miss Elva Gillette, was extremely provocative to laughter, and was much enjoyed by all, with an original poem for an encore.

The size of the audience shows the interest that there is in music and by the applause, it was evident that it was not disappointed and another affair of the same kind would be heartily supported.

The following delightful program was rendered:

Piano Duet, "Morning Wood" Grieg
Lois Miller and Marguerite Ives
Vocal Solo, "Sleep Song" Foster
"Her Rose" Coombs
Pauline Shirk
Piano Solo, "In Spring Time" Huerter
Madia Royer
Vocal Solo, "Mother" Olney Speaks
Ernest Root
Vocal Solo, "Sweet Miss Mary" Neidlinger
Wanda Carl
Piano Solo, "Pizzicotti" Delibes
Mary Blickenstaff
Vocal Solo, "To You" Oley Speaks
"My Curly Headed Baby" Clussam
Lois Miller
Reading, "Aleck's Bear Story" James Whitcomb Riley
Elva Gillette
Piano Solo, "March of the Dwarfs" Grieg
Marguerite Ives
Vocal Solo, "Land of the Sky Blue Waters" Cadman
"Roses After Rain" Lehman
Lucile Beckner
Piano Solo, "Serenade" Chaminade
"Scarf Dance" Chaminade
Lois Miller
Vocal Solo, "My Dear Soul" —A Wessex love song Sanderson
David Bomberger
Piano Solo, "Valse Coquette" Friml
Olive Stouffer
Vocal Duet, "Even Song" Charlton
Pauline Shirk and Lucile Beckner

LA VERNE MEN TOO STRONG FOR THE MIDDLE WEST CHAMPS

LA VERNE DEFEATS MORNINGSIDE

Tuesday, March 22, La Verne College made a name for herself in debate by defeating Morningside College, of Sioux City, Iowa.

The question was the same as that used in the debate with Redlands University, "Resolved: that immigration into the United States should be further restricted by additional literacy tests." The affirmative was upheld by the Iowa team, composed of Andrew Stauffer, Ralph Long and Leon Hickman. The negative team, representing La Verne, was D. Welty Lefever, George Hollenberg and Leland Brubaker. The judges gave their decision 2 to 1 in favor of the negative team.

The famous Morningside trio came over two thousand miles to get a crack at the western teams. They were successful at the University of Arizona, but disappointed at Redlands and La Verne. The visiting team is rated as one of the strongest teams in the middle west, if not in the United States.

An unusually large crowd for a debate packed the auditorium. The La Verne College band gave a short concert before the debate. Miss Thompson rendered three of her delightful solos. Dr. Collins, professor of history, and registrar of Redlands University, acted as chairman of the debate.

Hickman, of Morningside, opened the debate by a marvelous introduction which carried the audience with him. He presented an interpretation of the question which, if the negative had followed, would have spelled defeat. Leland Brubaker opened the negative argument with a direct attack on the affirmative position. Stauffer defended their interpretation, showed the need for further restriction and replied to the attack of the negative. Hollenberg continued the objection to the affirmative interpretation and presented the first part of the negative substitute plan.

Long concluded the affirmative constructive argument by attacking the negative substitute plan and further elaborating on the affirmative plan. Lefever presented an analysis of the situation and the second part of the negative substitute plan. The rebuttal speeches consisted largely in clashes over the negative position with reference to the interpretation of the question.

It is generally conceded that the affirmative side of this question is the most difficult to uphold. Morningside made a brilliant fight throughout the debate, but the odds of the question gave the La Verne trio enough of the edge that enabled them to carry the day.

The judges were Professor Frampton, of Pomona College, Miss Annette Leonard, of Pomona High School and Mr. Wilbur Fiske, of Chaffey Union High School. The judges were recommended by Professor McArthur of California Institute of Technology.

C. I. F. DECIDES FAVORABLY TO LV.C.

The protest entered by El Monte against the eligibility of Landis and Riddlebarger was entertained at a meeting of the C. I. F. in Los Angeles on Thursday, the 17th. The rule calling for interpretation was interpreted by the president to mean that our men were eligible to compete. La Verne therefore wins the Valley League track meet, and these men their medals.

Forensic Orators Defeat U. of R. 3 to 0

Friday night, March 18th, a practice debate between Redlands University and La Verne College was held in the College Auditorium. The question for debate was "Resolved, that immigration to the United States should be further restricted by an additional literacy test." The La Verne team, consisting of Leland Brubaker, George Hollenberg and D. Welty Lefever, upheld the negative side of the question.

The oratorical ability of each team was readily seen by the clear cut manner in which they expressed their ideas on this problem. And the "deep thought" of the La Verne silver-tongued men was so manifest that the judges unanimously gave the decision to that team. This debate with Redlands was held in preparation for meeting the famous eastern debaters from Morningside College.

HARRY RIMMER IN CHAPEL

On March 16th, the Student Body was pleased to listen to Harry Rimmer, who is at present holding evangelistic services at the Brethren Church. He spoke of the four everlasting and unchanging objects which exist as are revealed in the Bible, namely: the throne of God, the Church the word of God, and the soul. He spoke of these in a very interesting and forceful manner. He showed briefly that everything in science accorded with the Bible and all nature uplifts itself directly under the hand of God.

SENIORS in CAPS and GOWNS

It was 9:43, Tuesday morning, Mar. 15th. The entire student body at La Verne College were in their accustomed places in the chapel. An air of expectancy pervaded the room. Then with the first cord of a dignified march the doors swung open, and with great dignity the faculty, followed by the College Senior Class, each of whom wore a cap and gown, marched down the aisle and took their places on the platform.

Prof. Frantz, the class teacher, explained briefly the significance of the cap and gown. It stands for sixteen years of hard work, not for pride or glory.

The love of the class for the school and for the students, was well expressed by the class president, George Hollenberg. He also encouraged the under-graduates to stay by their school work and to stay by La Verne.

The class song and the school song, written and composed by members of the class, were well rendered. La Verne can well be proud of this graduating class, whose highest ideals are "To Serve."

LV. TRACK BOYS 2D IN GALA DAY

By not taking her two places in the half mile, La Verne lost out in the Gala Day track meet at Alhambra on the 16th, and Monrovia took first place in the meet. Johnny upheld his record by running away with the 220 yard dash, beating Charles of Monrovia and Goodnow of Claremont.

The most exciting race of the day was the relay. Otis got away with a bad start and gave Dwight a fourth place. Dwight pulled up to third and then Ben showed his mettle by giving Johnny first place, but not enough margin to get the inside lane. However Johnny ran on the outside of the Monrovia man Shaw, supposed to be the fastest man in the meet, and held even with him on the curve. Then in the last twenty yards Johnny passed Shaw and gave us the relay cup.

The events were run off as follows:

- 50 Yard Dash—
- 1st Heat:—Charles (M) 1st; Goodnow (C) 2d; Time 5 3/5 sec.
- 2d Heat:—Fleming (E. M.) 1st; Williams (Co.) 2d; Time 5 4/5 sec.
- 3d Heat:—Mason (C) 1st; Blathy, (Ci) 2d; Time 5 3/5 sec.
- 880 Yard Run: Time 2 min. 5 2/5 sec.
- Landis (L. V.) 1st; Morris (B) 2d; Rinderknecht (Ci.) 3d; Cypher (M) 4th.
- 120 Yard Hurdles—
- 1st Hat:—Shaw (M) 1st; Milliken (C) 2nd; Snidow (B) 3d; Time 17 3/5 sec.
- 2d Heat:—Marshburn (L. V.) 1st; Sparke (B) 2d; Smith (C) 3d; Time 18 sec.
- 100 Yard Dash (Record lost in heats) Time 10 2/5 sec.
- Finals:—Charles (M) 1st; Goodnow (C) 2d; Yoast (Ci.) 3d; Fleming (E. M.) 4th.
- 50 Yard Dash Finals—Time 5 3/5 sec.
- Charles (M) 1st; Goodnow (C) 2d; Fleming (E. M.) 3d; Moore (M) 4th.
- 440 Yard Dash—Time 54 1/5 sec.
- Yorba (B) 1st; Welch (L. V.) 2d; McDaniel (E. M.) 3d; Linder (Ci.) 4th.
- 120 Yard High Hurdles, Finals—Time 17 2/5 sec.
- E. Shaw (M) 1st; Milliken (C) 2d; Sparks (B) 3d; Marshburn (L. V.) 4th.
- 220 Yard Dash, Finals—Time 24 sec.
- J. Brooks (L. V.) 1st; Charles (M) 2d; Yorba (B) 3d; Yoast (Ci.) 4th.
- 220 Yard Low Hurdles, Finals—Time 28 1/5 sec.

DR. AND MRS. SCOVILLE BRING US A TREAT

The La Verne students were again favored on March 18th, when Dr. and Mrs. Scoville, with their accompanist, Mr. Harris, came to us with a great treat in the form of a speech and several beautiful solos.

Dr. Scoville spoke on that subject which is of such vital interest to all students and of which each forms a part, and yet does not fully understand—that is the "Real College Life of a Student." He said he expected to see students two or three hundred years old, judging by the appearance of our dear old building.

However, he brought an encouraging message, just as an old experienced college fellow can. He made a student's petty troubles and trials shrink into insignificance and showed that by real hard devoted work, he can win in the end.

He stressed the point of always making a margin on our lessons, and to think "Latin" when we're studying Latin, and "History" when we're studying History, and not some modern angelic hero or heroine who persists in crowding out "little Caesar" from our thoughts. His appeal was,

THE MUSIC COMMITTEE

There is a place of prominence waiting for the Music Committee. There needs to be some interested and responsible organization in charge of our Student Body music. We need to learn some school songs. We need to collect a group of songs and have them arranged so as to be the most useful to us.

The committee will have plenty to do in looking for new songs and in editing those which have already been presented. The committee should see to it that we learn some of these songs and that we sing them at our games and interscholastic meetings, such as the Gala Day program. —D. W. L.

NEXT YEAR'S COMMISSION

If the Student Body Commission is to become an institution of permanent value to La Verne College, it must become an object of ambition to every school-spirited student. If the commissionership is regarded as the highest office in the gift of the school, the success of the commission form of Student Body government is assured.

Since the Commission is the highest rung in the ladder of Student Body offices, the students who occupy these high positions should be the most experienced in their departments. This will usually mean that upper classmen will be elected.

It is not too early to begin planning for next year's Commission. It is not at all likely that any new students coming in next fall will be elected. Next year's Commission, then, is within our present Student Body. In every department of student activity it is time that students be found with the talent and experience to direct that activity.

In order that student activities be a success, it is necessary that there exist a continuous flow of students from the lowest positions to the highest. Too much of the work has been left to the experienced leaders, with the result that they have been overburdened and that there is likely to be a dearth of leaders when the present Senior classes have graduated. There has been, also, too much of a tendency on the part of some of the younger students to refuse to do anything at all unless they can fill important positions. We must begin now to plan for next year's Commission and for next year's activities.

You aspirants to the Commission, are you planning your campaign? Are you looking forward to what the Student Body is going to do next year? —D. W. L.

COLLEGE ATHLETICS

Again the call has sounded for recruits. The College Baseball squad has started practice for the spring season.

Not only is the call for men to try for the team, but for the hearty support of the whole college department. Basketball did not receive the support from the college students that it ought to have received. Here is a chance to do better.

The struggle to build up a strong and respected system of intercollegiate athletics in La Verne College must be supported. La Verne must put out teams which can do things before she can hope to take her place among the colleges of Southern California. The College Baseball season is here. Get back of the team, you College students! —D. W. L.

Loyalty

Breathes there a man with soul so dead,

Who never to himself has said:
"This is my own, my own loved school
Her highest hopes shall be my rule?"

If such there be—Ah, mark him well,
His highest hopes shall failure spell.
'Tis not in word alone, but deed,
That for support your school has need.

A mighty hand is his who stands
For union strong and then demands
That he himself shall loyal be—
Ah! that's the secret—don't you see?

What Am I?

Last year I asked my best girl to marry me and she said, "No." But I got even with her and so I married her mother. Then my father married the girl.

When I married the girl's mother, the girl became my daughter, and when my father married my daughter, it made her my mother. My mother's mother (which is my wife) must be my grandmother, and I, being my grandmother's husband, must be my own grandfather.

THE ANNUAL

Annual with a vim! The art work is almost all in to the engravers. Bone is coming to bone and soon it will take on flesh and become a living, or at least a lively annual. Some nifty art work is taking form under the supervision of Ralph Netzley and the able help of Herman Moomaw and Martha Brubaker. An army of writers on the write-up staff are striving for originality and are endeavoring to produce a most unique annual. The staff is trying to omit those things which have no specific interest,—aiming to make it a condensed memorandum of the school year.

More attention is being given to the photographs and art work, and it is taking precedence over much of the stereotyped reading material.

The write-up staff consists of the following:

- George Hollenberg, chief
- J. W. Fox
- Ruth Boose
- Jeanette King
- Elva Gillette
- Susan Stoner
- Helen Winslow
- Cecil Brower
- Eva Brownsberger
- Nellie Fisher

MRS. HAUGH SURPRISED

"I certainly approve of surprises, for they make one feel so foolish," was heard on Wednesday night, Mar. 23, shortly after 8 p. m. at the home of Prof. and Mrs. B. S. Haugh; and it was easy to believe they do, after seeing the expression upon Mrs. Haugh's face, and her aimless actions for a short time after her two expression classes, and a few close friends, greeted her at her door with "Happy Birthday!"

The birthday cake with just sixteen candles was presented by Mrs. Mae Miller, and Mrs. Haugh said the number was just right. The clever telegrams and the impromptu program entertained the guests until a big fire, heaps of buns, yards of wieners, and jars of mustard, succeeded in attracting all to sample their quality. The cake was cut into enough pieces so that all had a small piece, and it was "some cake." After wishing Mrs. Haugh many happy returns of the day, the jolly group bade her good-night.

ALTRUISTICS SPEND DAY AT THE BEACH

What a grand and glorious feeling it is to be an Altruistic, and have the privilege of going to the beach and having a perfect day and the real sensation of being thoroughly sunburned. Of course no one could know how wonderful it really was unless they had been along, for the day was a success from the beginning to the close. They left early in the morning, enjoying the ride immensely.

The day was divided into four parts. The first part was devoted to the grand splash in the briny deep; the second to eats, and oh, such eats as they did have; the third part was another splash, climbing rocks, roasting wieners and riding home. The last and most interesting part of the day was entirely devoted to the treatment of sunburns. However, the good time enjoyed by everyone was worth staying in bed a week for.

J. O. C.'S ENTERTAIN FOR ALTRUISTICS

The J. O. C.'s sat on a log in front of the Dorm, and the Altruistics sat on the steps of the Dorm for just about an hour. At last the "entertainment committee" arrived and started all on a journey no one knew where. Without a single conveyance in view, and the leaders walking like they were going somewhere, the prospects were very discouraging. At last two big wagons, without any hay, loomed into view and with shouts of laughter the gay party climbed on.

Then the procession started. On we rode, the drivers pretending that even they did not know the destination. After much debate and travel they turned into a field which had been exposed to the rain too recently, and the results were almost disastrous. However, with much pushing, and talking they got the wagon back on solid earth again. After playing for a while at this place, orders came to get on again.

Now everyone (they were getting very hungry by this time) began to cry, "Wieners, wieners! Bring on the wieners!" Responding to this call of their guests, it was decided to stop and have the wiener bake. But when we went to get the eats, the wieners were absent. What should be done? Of course we must go back and get them, and it was so far and everyone was so hungry.

Trouble came again just as we were passing the C. H. Larimer home. Mrs. Larimer asked all in, but the boys insisted on riding around a few more blocks. But since this home was our destination, we soon returned to it. Chicken, potatoes, butter beans, cocoa cake and fruit salad were some of the things that awaited us there. No one minded the lost wieners or the useless sticks we had carried so faithfully.

Supper over, the entertainment began. Stunts, races and the airplane rides were a few of the events. Why Beulah, as she soared upward, should pick on Truman to cling to, when Herman was so near, is still a mystery to most of us. As the clock neared ten, the party began to adjourn.

Cheers were given for the J. O. C.'s Larimer's and Hipes. The evening had been a grand success, and the Altruistics contend that a late start never spoils anything.

KOLLEGE KNEWS

Sunday, March 20th, Mrs. Grace Miller gave a birthday dinner for Miss Beulah Noll and Mrs. Gregory. The dinner was served in cafeteria style, and was greatly enjoyed by all. Those present were Susan Stoner, Naomi Harshbarger, Ruth Emley, Beulah Noll, Velma Noll, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, Ernest Root, George Hollenberg, Albert Reed and Herman Landis.

The "Pill Bottle" cast is busy again and will go to Hemet April 3d, and to Long Beach on the 10th.

We are certainly glad to see the baseball boys out, and starting with good practice. Go to-it, boys, we are expecting great things this year!

Say, did you hear the decision of the debate with Morningside? Oh, boy! it surely was a "mourning side."

About all we hear now is, "Were yours good?" "When did you get them?" "Oh, I can hardly wait until I get mine!" "Gee, aren't they swell?" Hot Dog. Some bunch of Senior pictures.

Last Saturday a surprise was given to the students in chapel. Prof. Funderburgh was called to the platform, and in a very serious manner said that some things had to be made public. He then began calling names and asked the owners to come forward. The students began to get excited and wondered what those boys had done. Finally all was still and Prof. Funderburgh presented to the student body the "Skeeter Team" and to the boys their silver medals.

Some of the students have been enjoying the revival services conducted by Harry Rimmer at the Brethren Church.

Miss Ruth Van Dyke is having a good (?) time this week with the sunburn which she received while at the beach last Monday.

Andrew Blickenstaff, of McFarland, F. S. Sanger, of Empire, and N. J. Brubaker, of Los Angeles, who are three members on the Executive Board of La Verne College, are with us this week.

Miss Vessie Noll, of Pomona, was a guest of her cousin, Velma Noll, Friday, March 25th.

March 26 to 30 is Easter Vacation. Most of the students are planning to make the best use possible of this time.

Thursday evening, Mar. 24, the students of the Dorm who are or have been residents of Reedley, Calif., together with some of their friends, enjoyed a sumptuous three course dinner, given them by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lehman. The evening was enjoyably spent in recalling childhood days which were spent at Reedley.

The lucky ones were the Misses Beulah and Velma Noll, Lois and Grace Forney, Ruth Emley, "Blonde" Lois Miller, Naomi Harshbarger, and the Messrs. George Hollenberg, Herman Landis, Albert Reed, Wayne Bohn Harvey Emley, Gerald Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Alphus Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Gregory and son Loren.

S. V. VOLUNTEERS REPRESENTED AT SO. CALIF. CONFERENCE.

An executive meeting of the Student Volunteers of Southern California was held at Occidental College on Saturday, March 19. The president, Mr. Henderson, of Redlands, presided. The matter of raising a budget of $1200, which had been undertaken by the Volunteers at their last meeting at Los Angeles, was discussed. The mistaken idea that the amount was to be raised in the form of a $3 assessment from each foreign volunteer was corrected. The plan is for each band to raise as much as possible, which amount should not fall below an average of $3 per member.

It was also decided to hold the next conference at the Redlands University from April 15-17. There are to be devotional talks by live speakers, and sessions of general discussion in which the problems of vital interest to the Southern California bands will be discussed. Every effort is being put forth to make it a conference that will be of great inspiration to every Student Volunteer who can attend. Those of the La Verne band wishing to go should make arrangements with Hazel Minnich as early as possible.

GALA DAY EVE. PROGRAM

The awarding of the medals took place at El Monte on Saturday, the 19th, in the evening. A fine program was given, there being more of a variety than usual. There was a lack of the usual pep and spirit which is so prevalent immediately after a meet. However, everyone felt repaid for their extra trip by the splendid program.

The A, B, C of Things

A stands for grades that we all desire But C is the one many of us acquire.

B are the books we study each day,-- But how well they're studied, I'd better not say.

C are the cuts we take from our class But we'd better stop cutting if intending to pass.

D stands for the don'ts the professors give--

If it were not for them, we never could live.

E is for English, we love even more When the period is up and we're out of the door.

F is for Fundy, the basketball star, Who can do funny tricks on the acrobat bar.

G's for the Georges--Hollenberg and King--

May the college forever their praises sing.

H is for the Hazels, maidens sublime Who, when they aren't late, are always on time.

I's for the "ifs" in the excuses we make

To the dear loving teachers, when we're trying to fake.

J is for the Johns, both Rhodes and Hilton--

May they make greater men than dear Bro. Milton.

K stands for Katherine, a lady so fair With pretty brown eyes and sparkling blue hair.

L is the library where students will come

And chat all the day and never keep mum.

M is for Martha, so full of her fun, Except when she has work to be done.

N is for Nina, so tender and kind, May the day never come that she'll be blind.

O stands for Otis and Orvil, his twin, Who run on the track team and always they win.

P's for the pies we have at the dorm, And oh, they are good, when they're served to you warm.

Q's are the questions Prof.'s ask on exams--

When we don't know them we sweat like clams.

R's for the Rabs we give to our school When we aren't stubborn and act like a mule.

S is Stewart, who wears a broad grin Having a hope that he'll soon be thin.

T is for time we squander away, And wonder where it goes to, each blessed day.

U stands for ugly, the way people look When the librarian tells them they're due on a book.

V is for Vaniman, our matron so dear Wherever we are, she always can hear.

W's for Welty, the spud eating man-- Some people say he cans all he can.

X is for voting, whether yes or for no, You'll find that out wherever you go

Y is for yellow dog that people put on, But take it right off when company is gone.

Z is for Zoroaster, the Persians' best friend.--

My, but I'm glad that I've come to the end!

Mrs. Amanda Larimer celebrated her 87th birthday on Sunday. A party of 54 relatives and friends with Mrs. Larimer gathered at Ganesha Park after church services and enjoyed a delightful picnic dinner and a social afternoon in honor of Grandma Larimer's birthday. Among the 54 present were relatives and friends from Santa Ana, Whittier, Los Angeles, Glendora, Chino, Pomona and La Verne. All joined in wishing Grandma Larimer many more happy birthdays. Grandma is strong, well and spry for one of her years, and looks and appears many years younger.

Easter Day in LaVerne

Easter is a day which is full of the most sacred meaning. It is the day in which Christ made it possible for those who love Him to look forward to the future, not with fear but with joy. It is the time when Christ rendered the most costly and most valuable service to mankind, and so it should mean to every Christian a day of service for Him.

In harmony with the thought of joyful service, it was 4:30 Sunday morning that fifty young people of the college started up D street singing "Christ Arose." They did not stop with D street, but went all over the city of La Verne singing Easter carols as they went. After they had sung the carols in the American part of town, about 30 of them, together with Mr. Mageno and Mrs. Grace Miller went to the Mexican Mission, where each one got a Mexican song book and then spread the spirit of Easter to the Mexican people by singing songs in their own language.

At 7:15, a tired but happy group of young people returned to the College ready to serve wherever they were needed.

At 8:45 Pastor R. H. Miller brought the Student Volunteers an inspiring message on the subject of "The Easter Joy and the Student Volunteer." His message was--"Give your entire life in unselfish service to Him who gave His life for you."

It surely does seem good to hear a very familiar voice and a hearty laugh in the hall, which we all recognize as belonging to David R. Bomberger. We are glad you are back, Dave, for we all missed you. A bad penny always returns, you know!

Every dog has his day, but the dog with a bobbed tail has his week end.

Last Friday, March 24, the new Alma Mater song was sung by a quartette at the Student Body Chapel. The words were written by the College Juniors, and the music composed by Miss Thompson. Lucile Beckner, Beulah Noll, L. S. Brubaker and D. R. Bomberger composed the quartette.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Lichtenwalter, whose marriage was a recent event, were honored on Saturday evening at a party given at the Corona home of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Crew.
