L' ENVOI

Farewell!

This year is ended. The last paper is published!

We have enjoyed the past year And all it has given us.

We the editors of the campus times, wish to extend our sincere appreciation to all of those who have given their time and talents to make this year's paper a successful. We would especially commend Phyllis Koch for her excellent work as news editor during the first semester. Equal appreciation and thanks we extend to Marie and Armen Sarafian for their untiring and successful this past semester.

Many have cooperated beautifully in the work of editing this school paper, and it is to them we extend a warm handclasp in depp and sincere gratitude.

Yes, this year's paper is ended, but it with a spirit of optimism that we look to the future for bigger and better publications.

Thank you.

Four years of college life has become history for you. You leave behind four successfully completed chapters in a great book---Life. Before you lies unkown and unwritten pages. May you take with you the lasting memories of the past four chapters to help you in the future.

You leave behind many friends and we shall miss you. Our prayers are for your success as you begin your unwritten chapters. We are proud of you, and our endeavor is to make you proud of us!

Farewell---and God bless you!

WILSON FERREL NAMED ALL-CONFERENCE

LET'S LOOK AHEAD A LITTLE

I guess looking ahead now to next year seems a long way off. Well, maybe it is, but we can still look and see what we have to look ahead about.

Coach Lloyd has a real program made out. Several long trips have been gotten. One is to Arizona State. This is where Gerret Arbelbede is teaching, and we will have a chance to go down and show him just what we have. It is heard that he did not have such a team this year, so that may give us a chance. Another trip is up to San Jose State. This is another long trip and is also a very tough game. It is awfully hard to tell just what will happen. Only time will tell.

Next year we are hoping to have a fairly good team. The line will be a whole lot heavier. We are going to have plenty of beef. How is this for a line?: Anderson, Brickley-tackle, Taliismanic-right guard, Frantz-center, Johnson-left guard, Moon-tackle, Dutcher--end. Don't you think this line will go places? The back field will be about the same as this year. Eisan-halfback, Landis-halfback, Ulmer-fullback. Fischer, Beauvais, Walsh and Deal will also be out there to back these men up.

Quite a bit of new equipment has been bought this year. This will add a lot in strengthening up the team. Coach Lloyd thinks that the prospects will be the best in the past three years.

Basketball will be under a different coach next year. It will be either Buck Elder or Manly Reitz. It is pretty hard to tell just what will be done in basketball next year.

Here is what we will have:

Wilson Ferrel, La Vernes pitching star, shoved himself to victory by making the all-Conference baseball team this year. He was named all-conference utility man. Ferrel was also a star at short.

Ferrel is a former Pomona man. He came here from Pomona J. C. Participating in every sport, Ferrel is expected to go to town next year. He will be here to help take La Verne to the conference championship.

Here is the all-Conference team:

C. Galindo--S.D
P. Putnam---Red.
P. Churchill-Red.
P. Walker----S.D.
P. Lyons-----Oxy
1B.Sefton----S.D.
2B Lee-------S.B.
3B.Evans-----S.B.
2B.McKinney--Red.
S.S. Van Meter--S.B.
L.F. Busby------S.B.
C.F. Stevens----Whittier
R.F. Hastings---S.O.

Utility:
Ferrel---L.V.
Sinatra--Whittier
Hegashi--S.D.

Next year it is probably that other La Verne men will be listed on this team. It is understood that Red Crites, catcher, missed being on this line-up by only one or two points. Next year's at least half of La Verne's baseball team will be listed; wait and see!

I guess I have told you enough about baseball, but I would like to give you some of the prospects of next year.

Red Crites and Talesmanic will probably fight it out at catcher. Some of the other players will be:Ferrel, Shehorn, Reeves, Landis, Ulmer, Deal, Callison, Crawford, Jae, Smith. We are expecting some good mat-

SENIOR CLASS OFFERS - "PETTICOAT FEVER"

Have you ever been in a wireless station in Labrador? No? Have you ever been in Labrador? No? Have you ever gone two years without seeing even one white woman? No? Then you have led a negative life, or you have never had Petticoat fever.

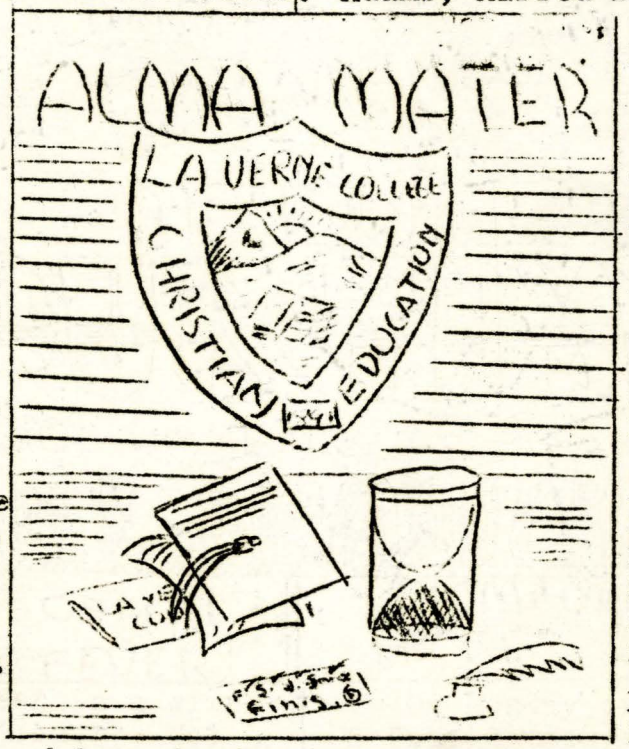

On Friday evening, June 4 at 8 P.M. the Seniors will present the famous and funny "Petticoat Fever."

The play itself is a grand work, with clever dialogu and various mix-ups and with the cast chosen to enact the play it will be little less than sensational.

The main character in the play is a yong follow stuck in a wireless station far from the fringes of humanity. This young buck always liked the feminine part of life and here he is a bit wonky after two years without even a glimpse of one. Harp plays the part of this likeable lad, and you all know just what would happen to such a virile lad as Harp if he were sealed up like this. Yes, he'd appear slightly embalmed topside. And in his portrayal of this part, he will almost convince you that he is.

The cause of Harp's sudden erratic mode of living is caused by the sedate Elaine Garner, who plays the part of Ethel Campion.

DORM GOSSIP

In a middle western state twenty-one years ago Thursday, o one of the Miller Hall women became a little mayflower to her parents. Later she found her way to California and then to La Verne. Happy Birthday, Wattie. "Today I am a woman."

Ding, dong, dong, ding.
"Where's that ding-busted cow bell?"

"I can't find it, Mrs. Holsinger," says Becky.

"You help her, Belva."

"Here it is."

"Give it to me. I know a cow it'll fit better."

"So do I!"

DITTY

Miller Hall girls go in for fun
When Ma Holsinger is away,
When the cat's away the mice will play,
That's what we always say.
Penny first burns ou t the lights
So that none can see at all.
Dawnie calls the boys in from outside,
And so we have a ball.
Yes, we have a ball
That is what we said.
When Mammy is away.
We never go to bed.
Up the stairs we go,
Tripping to and fro.
Cause we sure have fun when Mammy's away,
With a great, great big-"Hip, Hip, HOORAY!"

Cows come walking into the dorm.
And the little calvies too,
Then somes water in on our porch
And we don't know what to do.
Janet screams just like the duece
Oh, you boys, you aren't so wise.
But you'll wake up and find we're not so dumb.
When we take you by surprise.

WATCH FOR THE LAMDA!! SOON OUT!!!

WHOOZ HOO

Once upon a time there was a girl in Miller Hall who was so pure, so wholesome, and so upright. Time passed as time will and the matron began to wonder if she were so pure and so wholesome and so upright. But this didn't stop our little girl.

Some bird fell from their nest and our little Whooz hoo took them to raise. However, one day they took sick. First they rallied and then they sank and then they passed on to their reward. Everyone thought she would go, too, but she took up the art of bed-making that she was so pure and so wholesome and so upright.

Time passed as time will, and our little whooz hoo became so expert at bed-making that she was even asked to make the beds of others. She was so-o pure, and so-o-o wholesome, and so-o-o-o upright.

WHOOZ HIM

I gaze into my crystal ball to see some of my friends twenty years from now. I see a building. It is a college lecture hall. Down the hall walks a man whose once raven thatch has become grey. Toward an open door up on which is printed "Religious Education" he walks. Since he was used so often by his old Religious Ed Teacher, he decided that he would make that his life's work.

Later I see him watching football practice wishing he were out there in his old tackle position. From there he wanders to the dining club, where he remembers his dish washing days and crooning days.

I see the college coeds still flutter when he glances at them, for he has never been able to walkkdown the aisle with a woman.

Most of our faculty have already planned their summer vac.

Pres. Studebaker plans to go to the Church of the Brethren Regional Conference at Napa, Idaho. He will try to visit Pike's Peak in Col. He then will visit his brother in Fort Dodge. THE FRESHMEN TRAIL

"The Freshmen are a mighty swell bunch, and I mean it!"says sophomore class president, Jimmy Thornton.

A lot of people may doubt it, but we have the facts. Do you want to hear them? Well, here they are: At the bonfire Rally who were the ones who furnished the wood? The Freshmen, of course. That shows we started out with a flare.

Who got the sophs all muddy? Not the Freshmen, of course.(A slphomore typed this and had to make this correction.) The fact shows that the sophs pulled the frosh through the mud once--of course, that doesn't count. Maybe the Frosh didn't win the sack race, but the sophs sure had to fight for it. The Frosh court is supposed to give the other classes a chance to punish all unruly frosh--none escape.

The frosh seemed to enjoy it even more than the others, so they still have the upper hand. (Funny they didn't seem to be enjoying it at the time.)

And who was it who pepped up the Frosh-Junior Hay-ride in San Dimas Canyon? Why, the Frosh, of course. The frosh Student Body Program was without a doubt the best program ever presented to the students for a long time.

Now, facts are facts, and we don't want to hear any upper classmen doubting our ability. Because when Greater things are done, the class of "40" will do them.

WRITTEN BY THE FROSH COURT
(corrected by a Soph)

Don Verbeck and Mildred Holl would like all their friends to know they are invited to their marriage which is to take place this Sunday afternoon at 3 P.M. May 30 at the Church of the Brethren.

SUCCESSFUL FORENSIC YEAR ENDS

With the completion of the oratorical contest, the forensic season comes to a close, and it is a dramtic close, indeed. In the three last contests our pseakers won $70 in prizes. The largest amount was won by Francis Kutchback in the Peace Oratorical of the Southwest held at Occidental. Miss Kutchback won second place and $30 While Pomona was taking first place, Wouthern California, third Occidental fourth and San Diego fifth.

Earlier in the year Harold Michael won second place in the Conference Interpretative Reading Contest and for his award was given a volume of Shakespeare works. Early last fall the woman's debate team consisting of Mary Blocher and Francis Kutch back won first place in their division of the Pasadena Tournament. Later the women's teams with the added help of Mary Ellem Lapp and Francis Grober took second place in the So. Cal. Speech Conference while the men tied with Cal Tech for second place in the Men's Conference.

Four new members were taken into Tau Kappa Alpha this year:Ralph Smeltzer, Francis Grober, Ralph Mangun, and President Studebaker.

Next year's plans call for a tournament at Denver, Colorado, and also to the College of the Pacific at Stockton, Calif.

STUDENTS ASSIST IN DEDICATION

Last evening, services for the dedication of the Church of the Brethren of Pomona were held. During the banquet, Rolland Callson sang two songs,"Trade Winds", and "Drumadoon" and Patricia Packard took part by singing "Down in the Forest" and "De Ol' Ark Am A'moverin'." Eleanor Herrick was accompanist. Hal Michael also gave a reading.

LUCK WAS WITH THEM

La Verne College students have had remarkable success this year in obtaining teaching positions. By May 25, eight students had received their contracts. This record, according to old-timers is exceptional at this time of the year.

Others have received much encouragement from principals and superintendents and it is very probable that 100% of the graduating class will have their contracts before the next school term.

Those of the class of 1937 who have received positions are:
Doris Beckner--Bakersfield
Don Verbeck at Fallbrook
Harriett Strate--Strathmore
Howard Glover----Earlimart
Louise Larick ---La Verne College
Norlyn Dull--Physics--La Verne
Bert Rightmer---Three Rivers
Maurine Moomaw--Hermosa Beach

CONCERNING SENIOR EVENTS

The Seniors will present their play "Petticoat Fever" by Mark Reed on Friday evening June 4. This promises to be an exceptional ly fitting climax to the various events of the chass of "37".

Let us all be there to give them a fitting farewell before they go forward to teach.

Last Friday the Juniors and the Seniors celebrated their annual JR-SR. Banquet in San Gabreil Canyon.

It seems as though the seniors proclaimed their annual Ditch Day last week-end. No wonder the Juniors were seen strutting around as thoughthey owned the whole school! Don't you suppose, Juniors, that you stepped out of character when you caused such a turmoil in front of the dorm Monday forenoon? The Seniors would never do that. I hope you will learn by next year. The weather was not just what you seniors would have liked it to be, but did you enjoy your week-end at the Beach?

The Seniors held their annual step-out day in Chapel, Thursday. It was new and different!

Sunday, May 30, will be Baccalaureate, at which time Dr. Studebaker will address the graduating class.

Monday, May 31, will be the President's Reception to the Seniors at his hom.

Monday, June 7, the seniors will be addressed by Dr. Hartley Alexander of Scripps College at the Commencement exercises at the Church of the Brethren.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS MEET

The new commission members for 1937-38 were installed at the last Associated Students meeting held on Friday May 21. The old commission members of this year were presented with pins in token of their efficient management of student body affairs. The amendment that the W.A.A. members receive blocked letters instead of script ones was approved by the student body. After the presentation of letters to the baseball and basketball and track members, Carl Dutcher led the student body in some peppy yells.

The new members installed were Hal Michael--Comm. of Pub., who will continue the work of Norlyn Dull; Francis Grober will replace Donald Verbeck as Comm. of Forensics; James Thornton will take over the duties of Babe Eisan as Comm. of Finance; Patricia Packard will replace Viriginis Massey; Clayton Shehorn will relieve Howard Glover as Comm. of Athletics; and Rube Callison will be President of the Associated students in place of Charles Messick. ELECTION CLOSES Y.M.C.A. ACTIVITIES FOR THE YEAR.

Today the election for the Y.M. officers for next year is to climax the semester's activities for the year.

It is hoped that next year the Y.M. will get off to a well-grounded start so as it will be assured a permanent place and have a vital influence on the campus.

This year's activities were a speech by the coeds on "Likes and dislikes of L.V.C. women." Then a Y.M. program was given here by the fellows of the Univ. of Redlands. To try to clear up the athletic situation for the ensuing year the Y.M. next called a special meeting which resulted in the selection of a committee to meet with the Board of Trustees of the College. The final undertaking of the Y.M. was the Retreat at Jenks Lake, May 1 and2.

Next year the Y will go on to greater heights and all of you fellows who weren't interested this year--well, think it over, as you will enjoy and benefit from the Y.M.C.A.

FRESHMEN PARTY

These Freshmen are always having fun! At least, they had a lot of fun last Wednesday night at a party at Annellan Wilson's home. After playing "cootie" for a while, everyone was told to do what they pleased. Some played pool, some played the piano, some played "hearts" and so on, far, far into the night.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake stopped the party before it got into the morning hours However, every little Freshman was in bed by 12:00 o'clock. (All except Mendenhall! He was "seein' Nellie Home.")

Y. W. NEWS

The Y. W. has had a very successful year under the capable leaderships of Helen Brownsberger, first semester and Belva Buck, second semester. Such adventure as the big and little sister affairs, the fasion show, the glamorous mountain retreat, the delightful teas, the feast of nations, the valentine party, and the Mothers Daughters Tea---all go together in summing up the eventful year.

Much fun and fellowship is being planned for the coming year by the new cabinet:Helen Brownsberger-President; Hazel Beekley--Vice Presdent; Janet Brink-Secretary; and Marie Sarfian--Treasurer.

Thomas, Dickey, Deal, Henzie, Crites one and two, Fox, Miller twins, Landis, Shehorn, Snokelburg, and a few others. Most of these have had experience in the varsity basketball team.

A few of them are coming up from the frosh. Anyway, we expect them to dosomething this next year. We do not know anything about the system that either one of these men will use, but we feel that they will do their very best.

erial from the outside; everything is going to be for the best next year.

All there is for you to do now is to get out and support your team in all of your sports. It is your duty, so let's see you do it.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Senior class and friends were guests at the annual upperclassmen banquet given by the Juniors. Friday evening, May 21. The banquet was held at a private Spanish home in San Gabriel Canyon. The Spanish background of the home and the gardens furnished atmosphere for the Spanish motif which was carried out.

During the dinner, Mexican entertainment lent further atmosphere for the banquet. The program planned by the Juniors was given in between courses and following the banquet Carl Dutcher presided as toastmaster introducting Mr. Woody, Harper Lehman, Galen Price, and President Studebaker for short speeches.

The remainder of the evening was spent in playing bridge, rook, and cootie. The invitations, decorations, and favors were made by a committee headed by Jean Angel. Janet Brink, Galen Price, and Phyllis Koch were in general charge of the banquet, which proved to be a very successful one.

CHAPEL

Rev. Warren, from the Methodist Church in Chino, spoke in Chapel Tuesday on the subject "Spiritual Punctuation Marks." There were four marks which represent the different moods. The exclamation point represents our recognition of the other person by fear, reverence, and awe. If we want to go ahead or are in doubt, the question mark represents our mood. A period is fitting when we are filled with faith and assurance. The parenthesis represent our mood when we explain or interpret life to others. We need interpreters today of God's power in the world.

Fletcher Hornbaker is the bally Englishman who likes a bloddy scrap(if it doesn't include him) and runs around as Sir James Fenton, and quite certain that Harp is plain nuts and a menacne to Labrador society, which con sists of four Eskimos, two ducks, one Penguin and one half of a discarded beehive.

Vivien Saul plays the part of the girl who comes to Labrador to marry Harp (after two years) Clara Wilson, but only to find him madly and hopelessly in love with Elaine.

Maurine Moomaw and Marian Landis take the part of two Eskimo girls, who add quite a touch of humor to the story.

Robin Swihart has the part of Kimo, Eskimo servant to the wonky love-nut, Harp, and makes a loyal and efficient servant until the Love-bug ups and nips him too.

Chuck Messick arrives in the play and is the Anglican Rector who finally officiates the wedding of Harp to-----. Well, now be there Friday night and see.

Don Verbeck storms about as as old sea captain and Alfred Basten as a sailor on board the captain's ship.

With this great cast, and a swell play, and under the capable and untiring coaching of Mr. La Follette, this play will go down as one of the best presented in La Verne.
