SO LONG, SENIORS

Tonight's game brings down the curtain on the collegiate athletic career of Dick Hepner. For the past four seasons he has been outstanding both in football and basketball.

Fred Hollingsworth will wear the Orange and Green track suit this year, so we will see him in action again. He is a transfer from Mt. San Antonio College, and has made a great contribution in three sports—football, basketball, and track.

Don Hodson (so we hear) plans to play tennis this year, but tonight is his swan song in major sports. He has lettered in every sport, having been rated as one of the best in Southern California in football and baseball.

Our best wishes to three great athletes. You have truly won places in the unpublished "Hall of Fame" among L.V.C. athletes of all time.

Dick Hepner, Fred Hollingsworth,
Don Hodson
