L. V. C. SQUAD DEFEATS POMONA HIGH SCHOOL

SCORE 13 - 0

La Verne makes the beginning of her record football season with signs of remarkable progress. In a fast, fighting game last Friday, La Verne defeated Pomona High, the erstwhile champions of the Citrus Belt League, to the tune of 13 to 0. The game was played on the La Verne gridiron.

For an early season game, there was a good-sized crowd in attendance. The ticket sellers were kept on the jump—a prophecy of fat gate receipts for a needy Student Body treasury.

The rooting is improving under the tutelage of the newly elected yelling, Urbin Hartman. A yell leader of Hartman's pep and ability is a necessity for a successful football season. A more effective send-off would be given the team if the stands were to rise and cheer when the boys come trotting onto the field.

The line-up at the beginning of the game was as follows:

- Dickey, center
- I. Brooks, Throne; Guards.
- Betts, Marshburn; Tackles.
- Root, Beckner; ends.
- Welch, Hepner; half-backs.
- Price (Captain); quarterback.
- J. Brooks; full back.

First Quarter

Pomona kicks off. La Verne makes her downs three times in quick succession. Root attempts place kick for La Verne, but fails. Pomona's ball on 20 yard line. Pomona makes yardage. Pomona punts. La Verne is penalized 5 yards because backfield started before ball was snapped. J. Brooks carries ball 25 yards. Hepner and Price make important gain for La Verne. On fourth down with less than a yard to go, La Verne carries ball across the line for the first touchdown of the game. Root fails to convert for La Verne. Score 6 to 0 in favor of La Verne.

Quarter ends with La Verne possessing the ball in the middle of the field.

Second Quarter

La Verne's ball on her 45 yard line. In bringing the ball down the field, La Verne is penalized 15 yards. La Verne punts on fourth down. Pomona's ball on her 40 yard line. Pomona is tackled for loss on first play. Pomona made no gain on next attempt. Pomona punts on third down. La Verne's ball on her 35 yard line. La Verne punts. Pomona's ball on her 55 yard line. Pomona makes three successive yardages. Pomona attempts forward pass but fails to complete it. Pomona is penalized 5 yards for offside twice within the next few minutes of play. Pomona's ball on La Verne's 25 yard line. Pomona attempts place kick but fails. La Verne's ball on her 20 yard line.

La Verne punts and recovers ball on her 40 yard line. Forward pass, Root to Beckner, completed, but team penalized 5 yards for offside. La Verne fails to complete forward pass in the next play. La Verne punts. Pomona's ball on 55 yard line. Smith goes in for Beckner. Pomona makes first down. Pomona fumbles. La Verne recovers. La Verne's ball on 20 yard line. Half ends with score 6 to 0 in La Verne's favor.

Third Quarter

Pomona makes rotten kick-off. La Verne's ball on her 45 yard line. La Verne punts on fourth down. Pomona's ball on her 26 yard line. Pomona carries ball 22 yards on next play. Pomona penalized for offside in next play, and Pomona punts. La Verne's ball on her 40 yard line. La Verne makes yardage but is penalized 15 yards. La Verne attempts forward pass, but fails to complete. La Verne's punt is blocked. La Verne recovers ball on her 30 yard line. Price makes 10 yards on next play. La Verne makes yardage and places ball on her 50 yard line. Hepner and Welch carry ball for another yardage. La Verne punts. Pomona's ball on her 38 yard line. B. Harper substitutes for Throne. Pomona fails to make yardage. Quarter ends with La Verne's ball on Pomona's 35 yard line.

Fourth Quarter

La Verne fails to complete forward pass. La Verne makes yardage. La Verne fumbles and Pomona possesses ball on her 28 yard line. Pomona attempts forward pass, which is intercepted by J. Brooks, and is carried over the line for a touchdown. Root converts for La Verne. Score 13 to 0.

Funk goes in for I. Brooks. La Verne kicks off. Ball goes over goal line. Pomona is given the ball on her 20 yard line. L Pomona punts. La Verne's ball on her 50 yard line. La Verne makes yardage. La Verne completes forward pass, carrying the ball to Pomona's 30 yard line. La Verne fails to make downs. Pomona makes yardage. Jordan substitutes for Root. Pomona fails to complete pass. Brover for B. Harper. La Verne blocks Pomona's punt and recovers ball on her 40 yard line. La Verne tries two forward passes in succession, but fails to complete. La Verne punts. Pomona's ball on her 25 yard line. C. Harper for Betts. Garber for Marshburn. Pomona punts. La Verne's ball on her 40 yard line. La Verne completes two pretty forward passes. La Verne's ball on her 25 yard line. Game ends with score 13 to 0 in La Verne's favor.

The boys deserve a great deal of credit for the way they threw themselves into the game. The game was a good showing of what can be done by La Verne pep and the La Verne fight. It is the splendid fighting spirit of La Verne that is helping us in our attempt to win a place on the Conference schedule.

ALUMNI NEWS

For the past several years there has been a growing feeling among the alumni of the College that their association was not meeting the need for which it was organized as fully as it might. Accordingly the past year has witnessed the inauguration of a new plan of organization.

This new plan provides for a Board of Directors of six members, who serve for a term of three years, two being elected each year. In addition the President of the College is ex-officio a member. This Board of Directors will hold frequent meetings throughout the year, and will attend to matters of detail in addition to its larger function of interesting new lines of activity and stimulating interest and enthusiasm among its members.

There is another feature which is quite a departure from the old plan, and that is a provision whereby all voting takes place by mail, instead of at the business meeting, which only a small percentage of members can attend. This will tend to bring about a greater degree of democracy in the association, and will further kindle the flames of interest and enthusiasm among those of the Alumni who cannot get back to their Alma Mater each Spring.

The new Board of Directors who were elected the past Fall and who will shape the destiny of the association throughout the coming year are:

- For the three year term:—
- Prof. H. W. Frantz, President.
- Mr. Howard Beckner
- For the two year term:—
- Mr. David Bamberger
- Mr. Truman Funderburgh
- For the one year term:—
- Mrs. Marie Brubaker
- Miss Pauline Miller

CHAPEL NOTES

The entire chapel service Thursday, September 28th, was rendered musically by the members of the Apollo Club. Miss Mary Blickenstaff opened with the piano prelude. The scripture lesson—the Ninety-first Psalm, was given as a vocal solo, "He that Dwelleth in the Secret Place," by MacDermid, by Prof. B. S. Haugh. Misses Pauline Miller and Lucile Beckner sang the prayer, "Evermore," Miss Lois Miller accompanying. Miss Gladdys Muir played a piano solo, "Albumbblatt," by Moskowsky.

"Be they large or small, fat or skinny, light or dark, bright or stupid good natured or 'crabby,' talkative or quiet, or selfish or kind-hearted,—yet are they room mates." Thus spoke Mrs. L. E. Haugh on Monday, September 25th.

Tuesday, September 26th the chapel service was given in the interests of the Campus Times. Miss Martha Brubaker, Commissioner of Publications, discussed the paper, its purpose its benefits to the students, alumni, and friends, and its value to the school. Mr. Ernest Landis, business manager of the publication, conducted a campaign for subscriptions.

Mrs. Marie Brubaker, on Wednesday, September 27th, talked on athletics. She stressed good sportsmanship and the clean game.

The newspapers which come into our homes leave a definite impression upon them as do the friends with whom we associate. Are our large dailies doing that great service which their opportunity affords them? Mr. Knoch, editor of the La Verne Leader, answered this negatively in an interesting talk to the students Monday, October 2nd.

ANNUAL 'L' DAY CELEBRATED BY THE STUDENT BODY

GIRLS "ASSIST" BOYS IN CLEARING OFF 'L'

Saturday, October 7th, was the day set apart for the annual "L" Day. The day's activities opened early, so early, in fact, that some stretched the day by including Friday night in it. These ambitious ones were taken to the canyon at seven o'clock, and some of them camped until the wee hours of the morning to commence their weary hike, others walked or crawled on to Brown's Flat, where they comfortably (?) spent the remainder of the night, little of which remained, if the journey took as long as was reported.

Those who felt that one day was enough for the trip, crawled from their warm beds at some such hour as 2:30; and finally left in trucks and cars by 3:30. After a moonlight ride up the canyon, which everyone survived, the hikers set off up the trail about 4:45.

Now, lest you may think that these courageous hikers were all of the hardier sex, let me state that there were at least as many fair ladies in the crowd as men.

The first of the bunch arrived in a little less than two hours. Rose Landis proved to the boys that they aren't the only ones who can walk. She got to the flats in about 2 hours and 20 minutes; and soon after several more girls arrived, among whom was our honored Commissioner of Welfare. Beyond a doubt, however, the highest honors in the way of hiking belong to Otis Brooks and George King.

It wasn't long until the girls caught up with them, this may have been due more to political reasons than the steepness of the hills, however, as ed by about 10 o'clock, and the workers and others present returned to the flats, and lunch. After lunch, all returned in various and sundry groups to the canyon, for the big dinner.

Just before dark the call was sounded by the Sophomores, who by reason of precedent, were the class to make the arrangements for the day's festivity arrived among the last group of girls.

Axes, picks, shovels, etc., were soon busy relieving the "L" of the sprouts that had sprung up since its last grooming. This was accomplished, for all to line up for the "eats." A real dinner it was, too. If anyone went hungry, it was his own fault.

But this was not the end of the day; a lively program was yet in store. Two snappy readings were given by Ruth Barnhizer. The audience was delighted by the music rendered by a well-known trio. Then some popular songs were sung by the group. Next the Peppemistic Quartet held the audience spell bound. But the program would not have been complete without the Bingo Boys, who sang, "Roll On, Silvery Moon."

One more number was to have been given; but it seems that a trip to the "L" has a depressing effect upon one's mental alertness, as "Vi" lost all trace of the reading she was to have given. Whether this was fortunate or not, we cannot say.

At the close of the last number there was a wild scramble for transportation home. Those disappointed in the first attempt, waited for the return of a truck.

The class of '25 certainly deserves our thanks for the able arrangement of the trip, which was no small part in making it a real "L" day.

A. W. S. "T"

Wednesday afternoon, September 20 marked a big day for the members of the A. W. S. and all lady faculty members. At the time of the regular meeting hour, all members met in the expression room, and there each one was introduced to all respective officers of the organization.

The program of the afternoon was arranged as follows: Piano Duet, Misses Pauline Miller and Gladdys Muir "Business of Being a Woman," by Ida M. Tarbell, read by Maurine Miller Trio, "Kentucky Home," sung by Wanda Carl, Martha Brubaker, and Lucile Beckner.

The traditions of the organization were read and a few of the big things that are being planned for the future were discussed.

Mrs. Fox was chosen as the A. W. S. representative to the W. C. T. U. convention to be held; a report of the convention will be given later. Refreshments of tea and wafers were served—Freshmen waiting in line to be served last. And due honor should be paid these Freshmen, who are found to be willing workers, as the manual labor and unclean work of the day was done by these respective suffering sisters.

discussed the first of these on Tuesday, October 3rd.

Miss Amelia Babcock on Wednesday, October 4th, gave a vivid description of "The Pilgrimage Play," as it has been presented in Hollywood this past summer.

On Thursday, October 5th, Prof. D. W. Lefever very appropriately addressed the students on the "L,55 that for which it stands, and that which it means to the College students.

"A dog in La Verne bit five people."
"Was the dog mad?"
"No, but the people were."

Several of our boys fought fire in the South Hills last Saturday afternoon. The College students are "right there," no matter what the game may be.

Here's a good one on Wanda:— After a full half hour's detailed and eloquent teaching of the Sunday School lesson to the Mexican Junior boys and thinking she had made a deep impression on their youthful minds, she asked:

"Now, do you boys have any questions on the lesson?"
Abraham Mageno—"Yep! When's the next football game comin' off?"

TRADITIONS

La Verne, to be like other colleges, must have traditions. We are not so old as many schools. Therefore we do not have so many traditions. But we do have a few, and these few must become a real part of our College life. They must be respected and loved. To be untrue to our traditions should be a matter of deep disgrace, something to be shunned by every student.

Of all our traditions the one which is foremost in our minds, because we have just finished celebrating it, is that of the "L." What does the "L" mean to you? Of what does it make you think as you see it there on the mountain-side alone? It is, or it should be a thing of pride to you, a thing at which you will look first of all when you come to La Verne. It is not merely a letter without a meaning. It stands for something concrete and real in the minds of each of us.

Our "L" should symbolize to us four things, and they are these: Life, Learning, Loyalty, and Love—four L's which merge into one and that one our school letter and ideal.

The "L" means life for La Verne College. There have been strenuous times in the history of our school, times so hard that it almost seemed as if her doors must be closed. But we have overcome our hardest struggles, and are the better for having had them. Not that our difficulties and problems are all solved, for we find ourselves facing big ones every day, but by the help and inspiration of our "L" and our willingness to work—and work hard—we will overcome them the same way.

Then the "L" stands for Learning and progress. La Verne, like other schools, is primarily an institution of learning, but that learning includes more than book knowledge. We want to learn how to live. A great man has said that education is not preparing for life, it is life. We must learn to live while we are here. We want to learn new facts, new methods and new thoughts, and to use them for advancement in the right direction.

Many things have been written and said about Loyalty, but the thing which our "L" signifies is Loyalty to our College. We can have no use for the disloyal student. It is not necessary to uphold our mistakes, never to admit defeat, or, in common slang phrase, to "razz" other colleges, to be a loyal La Verne-ite, but we can talk of the good things we have, be always ready to defend it, and get that indefinable something we know as the "La Verne spirit." Student, if you can think of nothing good to say of La Verne, say nothing at all, for it is what you have to say of your College that will raise or lower it's standing in the minds of those who are not of our number. Be loyal to La Verne!

Last of all, our "L" means Love. Love for our College, for our fellow students, and for high ideals and clean conduct. We do not love La Verne for the magnificent buildings and beautiful campus, but for that far more important thing, the spirit of good fellowship, and the atmosphere of a clean, Christian college, a college where religious things, as well as social and athletic activities, are made an important part of school life. The ideal of the "L" is to keep our ideals high and in the term so often heard, be "good sports."

The tradition of the "L" and our other traditions will always live. As we grow and become larger, we will acquire others. Every student must uphold them and make them stronger. Then and then only will the ideals of truth and right, for which the "L" stands, become a part of us and help to make La Verne a college which will be known for her spirit of loyalty and good sportsmanship.

COMMISSION NOTES

More Truth Than Poetry

La Verne, Calif.

Farmrite, Uptodate,
Dear Uncle Simon Grubbinhoe:—
I'm sorry that ya din't here from me much sooner, I calculated on riting long time ago but I jest been putting it off. I'll see that it do not hapin riteaway agin stil. Thar a ben a whole sled load a things a happin and goin to thar stopin places, since I dropped in. I got to ride on one of em air kind a cars that run with weels on a track. The are pretty hy and they got the top fastened on a telephone war to keep em from tumblin ovar. They shure go fast. After I got sined up some of the boys ask me if my name was Hay Seed, and I ask them if they ment alfalfa or grain hay seed or regular oats and they just lafed I recon they don't nc the difarenc. When I first got down here my old summer straw hat was in stile, and I bet I looked as good as Henry Weathersby did on election day. Some of the fellows said that my hat was pretty big, but I told them that it was seven and a half, by regular size, I didn't kere what all they said about it cause I new I was in stile. I take English here and my teacher ask me if I ever seen a dictionary and I pulled out my little one from my vest pocket and told her I reconed I had, I read it clean thru wonc and I calculated on reading it thru again but I just been putting it off. They go to bed in the midule of the nite down here and don't get up until six o'clock. Saturday mornin reminded me of the farm cause we all got up at 3 o'clock and then we went to the mountains. They went to clean off a big "L" on the mountins. I shur showed em up when it come to work, and I recon I over done it cause I feel kinda sorta stiff, but I shur had a good time. They go up every year and I can't hardly wait til the year goes by so I can go agin. Please save me a job workin fer ya next sumer, cause money is a good friend a mine. I must stop. Rite and tell me how Ant Sarah and the children is;

From your nefew,

BEN.

"HEARINGS FROM THE HAPPYHIZER FAMILY"

The only organization in the college of La Verne which is allowed to hold meetings as often as five times a week, is the Happyhizer's. Each day at the hour of 12:00 as the siren blows for all inhabitants of La Verne to quit work and satisfy their great hunger, all members of the said organization seek their leading members, and immediately retreat to some quiet, cozy, corner of the Kampus, as a meeting place. There, under the auspices of the fatherly John Calvin Price, and the matronly and motherly Ruth N. Barnhizer, each member busies himself with the devouring of sandwiches, doughnuts and what-nots (?). Entertainment of all description is furnished during and between every course. Thus the short noon hour swiftly passes by for all students residing in the far-away places of the city.

"Work, if you would be happy;
Work, if you would be wise;
Work will gain the victory;
Work will win the prize.
Working will solve your problems;
Working will bring success;
Working will ease your troubles;
Work your life will bless."

ACADEMY FRESHMAN—JUNIOR PARTY

It was very fitting and proper that the Juniors should initiate the Freshies, so the latter were told to meet in the auditorium at 7:00 o'clock on Saturday, the thirtieth day of September. These wee ones were very fidgety when they arrived, for they thought their doom had come, and knew not what it was to be. After they had stayed in the chapel until the suspense was unbearable, the Juniors led them one by one down to the dark basement where they were compelled to get down upon their knees and crawl through a box with tin cans hanging from above. As their heads came out of the tunnel, a sponge full of water was dashed into their faces.

With the sounding of a loud horn, the much frightened victims gave a jump and landed on a lot of peanuts scattered on the floor, which felt like walking on spiders. Then after groping along in the dark they were made to step upon a board and be raised into the air and then jump off, landing on some bed springs.

After this act, their hands were tied behind their backs and they were lined up along the wall, and a big green "F" was painted on their foreheads with green ink. Then they were made to sit on little kindergarten chairs with a blue ribbon tied on for the girls and a pink one for the boys. Miss Gillette proceeded to tell them a nice story, which they seemed to understand and enjoyed very much.

Of course after all this the "poor dears" were hungry, so little bottles of milk were given each one of them. They enjoyed playing "ring around the rosy" and a few more games which took little thinking. Then a Junior took a Freshie and fed him bread and gravy.

Following this, their intellect was tested by having them dramatize the Old Mother Goose Nursery Rhymes. They can certainly look forward to a successful Senior play.

As the hour neared 8:00 o'clock and they seemed to be getting tired and sleepy, the ice cream and animal crackers were given to them. Then they were coupled off and safely taken home in little coaster wagons.

The Juniors having had no chance for eats while they had the responsibility of feeding the Freshmen, returned and feasted upon ice cream, wafers, apples and peanuts.

The students were sorry to learn of the illness of Miss Hoke last week. She has recovered sufficiently to be about her duties at present.

VI PASSES HER TWENTIETH MILESTONE

Several people were made perfectly well aware of the fact that Viola Neher was twenty years of age on October 4th, when Mrs. A. J. Beckner entertained a group of girl friends at a delicious chicken dinner in honor of the irrepressible Vi.

She had announced quite generally during the day that she had been invited to take dinner with the Beckner family that evening. She arrived at about six o'clock, to find that several other girls had received similar invitations. The most violent expression she could muster was "Mercy me!" after which the evening progressed gaily.

During the delicious dinner which followed, it is true that some of the guests forgot their dignity, as when Martha insisted that her mouth was larger than a certain large spiced peach, and immediately proved it—in quite a logical way.

Vi, in attempting to cut her big birthday cake, after much difficulty, arrived at the startling conclusion that the sharp edge of a knife cuts better than the dull one. After she had eaten most of the cake herself in the process of cutting it, the guests helped themselves to generous slices. When every one had satisfied the hostess by numerous elegant and appropriate remarks that they had really had sufficient nourishment, the party moved to the parlor, where snapshots were discussed, and Lucile sang.

Vi pronounced "My Birthday Party" a glorious success, and all the guests agreed. Besides the host and hostess and their family, there were present Viola Neher, Dorothy Arnold, Eva Brownsberger, Pauline Shirk, Frances McCahill, Lois Johnson, Hazel Brubaker, Martha Brubaker, Maurine Miller and Lucile Beckner.

ANOTHER ONE

Dorm life wouldn't be what it is cracked up to be if it were not for the occasional birthday surprise parties that hold forth after weary hours of study. Such an event as this took place at the home of Misses Kathryn Harshbarger and Dorothea Dyck on Thursday night, October 4th, in honor of Ruth Emley. A little alcohol stove assisted with hot cocoa, which tasted like more when the cookies were passed. The honored guests were Misses Esther Renkel, Ruth Emley, Ada Moothart, Mary Gockley, Wanda Carl and Susan Stoner. Aren't birthdays grand—for some folks?

KOLLEGE KNEWS

A number of LaVernites attended the special Rally Services held at the Inglewood Church, September 29 to October 1. Bro. Emmert, who had charge of the meetings, was assisted by the following, who took part in speeches and songs: C. Ernest Davis, Ora Weddle, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Brubaker Susan Stoner, Mary Gockley, and Wanda Carl. This party were at the Stoner home for Saturday night. They are still remembering the fried chicken for breakfast and the splendid dinner at the church on Sunday.

Miss Elva Gillett has been suffering from a severe cold. She was unable to meet her classes Thursday.

Miss Lois Sheller went to Long Beach for the week end of September 30, to visit her brother.

The District Meeting of Northern California, which was held in the Rasin City Church last week, was attended by President Funderburgh, Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Miller, Mr. J. B. Emmert, Mr. L. S. Brubaker, Mr. C. E. Davis, and Mr. Simeon Davis.

The Misses Esther Renkel, Dorothea Dyck, and Kathryn Harshbarger were the dinner guests of Miss Alida Larimer last Tuesday evening. Everyone knows what a good cook Mrs. Larimer is, and the girls greatly enjoyed the roasting ears, sweet potatoes and peaches and cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Culley and their small son and daughter, and Miss Mary Culley, of Los Angeles, paid a short visit to Mrs. Culley on Sunday, October 1st.

On October 1st the Misses Viola Neher and Martha Brubaker entertained Miss Maurine Miller at dinner at the Ladies' Dormitory.

Miss Ruth Emley spent the week end of October 1st as the guest of Miss Velma Fager at her home in Glendora.

Mrs. Culley visited in the city last Wednesday.

Miss Frances McCahill visited with relatives in Los Angeles last Saturday and Sunday.

The Misses Eva Brownsberger, Viola Neher, and Rose Landis were entertained at dinner at the Lingel home on Sunday, September 24.

Miss Dorothea Dyck spent the week end of October 1st with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Newcomer entertained at dinner on Sunday October 1, the Prices, John Brooks, and Otis Brooks.

Miss Dorothy Arnold was the guest of Miss Lois Johnson at the dormitory on Sunday, October 1st.

COLLEGE PLAYS COVINA IN FIRST BALL GAME

The college had its first game last Friday with Covina. The game brought out many weak points in both teams. The game was frequented throughout by fumbles, especially for La Verne. The score was 6 to 6.

In the third quarter La Verne was penalized, placing the ball on Covina's three yard line. It was then bucked over for their only touchdown. They didn't get another chance.

A thirty yard run by John Brooks scored for La Verne in the fourth quarter. The goal was not converted.

La Verne did not play up to form any time during the game. The team has been working hard during the last week, and will be back with more pep and better football in our next games.

LA VERNE ACADEMY TIES EL MONTE HIGH SCHOOL

The La Verne Academy, although out-weighted ten pounds to the man, held the experienced El Monte eleven to a no score game. La Verne's line smashes by Root and Brooks were especially effective. La Verne also completed the only forward pass of the game, Bohn to Hartman.

La Verne surely showed a lot of pep and spirit, and followed the breaks of the game. Captain Bohn played a heady game at quarter and did a lot to keep up the spirit of the team.

Coach Raymond Root deserves a lot of credit for putting out the team he has with such "green" material, and we are certainly expecting them to cop the league championship. The first league game is October 27. Let's go, Academy! Let's go!

ACADEMY HAS THE FIRST SCRIMMAGE

The Academy had its first scrimmage last Thursday with Bonita High School. It was the first game of the season for each team, and also the first team either school has ever put out. Captain Wayne Bohn and Otis Brooks in the backfield, and Urbin Hartman at end, starred for La Verne.

It was not a regular game, so no score was kept, but La Verne can hold her own any day with the Bonita team. A regular game will probably be played before the season is over. Coach Raymond Root is well satisfied with the first showing. The backfield is going fine, and the line is rapidly being whipped into shape. Virgil Brooks made his appearance on the field Monday. His presence will be appreciated greatly by the line, and will help to form a stone wall into which the opposing backs will bump their heads.

BETHANY GIRLS MEETING

Friday evening, September 29, the Bethany Girls met at the home of Mary Blickenstaff for their first business meeting of the school year. The following officers were elected: President, Mary Blickenstaff; Vice President, Marguerite Dickey; Secretary, Eva Brownsberger; Treasurer, Beulah Smith; Assistant Treasurer, Viola Neher. After the business meeting, some time was spent in singing; and later the girls turned their attention to Mrs. Blickenstaff's delicious ice cream, angel food cake and cookies.

SLUMBER-LESS PARTY

Saturday evening, September 30, four jolly "young-'uns" met at the home of Alberta Maust with the intention of spending a wonderful and truly sleepful night together. Jokes and stories were told during the evening and all retired at an early hour for a long and peaceful night's sleep after enjoying refreshments of punch and animal crackers. Those present at the delightful affair were Harriett Woody, Edith Miller, Mabel Griggs, Verna Shirk and Alberta Maust.

A GOOD TIME AT MRS. ARNETT'S

On Thursday afternoon, October 5, Mrs. C. E. Arnett was hostess to her Sunday School class at her home on Third street. This was the first informal gathering of the year, and one of the series of gatherings which has been planned for this year. After much weighty discussion and frivolous conversation, the guests were served chocolate and wafers.

MRS. MILLER GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

The "Live Oakers" and two other young ladies who tried to prove (?) that they were from Live Oak, were entertained at the home of Mrs. Grace Miller on Saturday evening, Sept. 30. The occasion was in honor of the birthday of Miss Rose Landis. It would be superfluous to say that we enjoyed ourselves, for everyone knows that, without doubt.

By the time the refreshments had disappeared, several of our number had their future revealed to them thru the means of "symbols" found in the birthday cake. For several reasons we hope that Rose will have many more such birthday parties.

Those present besides the Miller family, were the Misses Rose, Estella and Florence Landis, Clovie Carroll, Esther Renkle, Kathryn Harshbarger, Ada and Ethel Winslow, and Messrs. Herman and Ernest Landis.

STEAK FEED IN SAN DIMAS CANYON

Saturday evening, September 30, twenty of the students enjoyed a most glorious time in San Dimas Canyon. After anxiously waiting through the long hours of the day, seven o'clock found them ready to start on their journey. The Peerless, Cadillac and Hudson quickly found the way to the desired stopping place. A most beautiful spot was chosen for the evening's fun. Soon a roaring fire was smoking, and the beefsteak happily sizzling on the griddle. This, together with huge sandwiches and little pickles made up the first course. Then delicious pie a la mode was served. Everyone felt that he never wanted another bite to eat after such a feed. The hour of departure came much too soon, and the happy crowd journeyed homeward.

EVERYBODY'S DOIN' IT

In keeping with the October birthday spirit, the Misses Dorothea Dyck and Esther Renkel planned a surprise birthday party for Miss Kathryn Harshbarger Sunday evening, October 8. At nine o'clock in the evening the College girls residing in the dormitory quietly gathered in Esther's room. After a few minutes, Kathryn was ushered upon the scene, where the surprise was complete. Greetings and explanations quickly followed.

After instructing Kathryn to cut her birthday cake, the hostesses served a delicious fruit salad. The variety of sizes of dishes, plates and spoons, made no difference in the enjoyment of the splendid refreshments. All present expressed their pleasure in helping to celebrate Kathryn's birthday.

HOW DO YOU TACKLE YOUR WORK?

—By Edgar A. Guest—

How do you tackle your work each day?

Are you scared of the job you find? Do you grapple the task that comes your way

With a confident, easy mind? Do you stand right up to the work ahead,

Or fearfully pause to view it? Do you start to toil with a sense of dread,

Or feel that you are going to do it? You can do as much as you think you can,

But you'll never accomplish more; If you're afraid of yourself, young man,

There's little for you in store. For failure comes from the inside first. It's there, if we only knew it; And you can win tho you face the worst,

If you feel that you are going to do it.

Success! It's found in the soul of you And not in the realm of luck! The world will furnish the work to do,

But you must provide the pluck. You can do whatever you think you can,

It's all in the way you view it. It's all in the start that you make, young man;

You must feel you are going to do it.

How do you tackle your work each day?

With confidence clear, or dread? What to yourself do you stop and say When a new task lies ahead?

What is the thought that is in your mind?

Is fear ever running through it? If so, just tackle the next you find By thinking you are going to do it.

We are glad to welcome among us Miss Mary Frost, who has recently enrolled as an Academy Junior. She was born in the Philippine Islands and has command of several languages. Most of us have a hard enough time with the United States language, so we extend her a vote of admiration.
