History Reviewed for Corner Stone

Three thousand years hence, perhaps, a copy of this issue of the Campus Times may be excavated from the corner stone of the grand old ruin of the Church of the Brethren in historic LaVerne.

Will there be a town of LaVerne then? Will there be a nation of the United States of America? Will there be anything besides ruins of the present civilization we call great?

That largely depends on the success of the labor in whose interest this building is raised. Whatever the outcome, be it known to the archeologists of 4930 A. D., that the folks in LaVerne are working and building that the spirit of truth and of righteousness may rule the world.

Closely related to the organization which is dedicating the building to the service of God is the college which publishes this paper. The builders of the church are the builders of the college, the college needs the church, and the church needs the college.

LaVerne College was organized under the name of "Lordsburg College" in 1891, although until 1912 only secondary work and special courses were offered. The founders were David and Henry Kuns, Daniel Houser and Samuel Overholtzer, members of the Church of the Brethren.

History of LaVerne College

About 1888 there was a great boom in the place where LaVerne is now located. It was then called Lordsburg, and a large hotel was erected to attract eastern tourists. Owing to a sudden collapse of this boom, the hotel was never used, but was purchased by Henry Kuns, Daniel Houser and Samuel Overholtzer, members of the Church of the Brethren, to establish a school. The school was chartered as "Lordsburg College."

When the town name was changed, the name of the college was changed to LaVerne College. In 1908 the property was donated to the Church of the Brethren of the District of Southern California and Arizona. In 1914 the District of Northern California became a joint owner with the Southern District.

The first college course was outlined in 1912 by Dr. Hoover, the present dean of the college. During the administration of Dr. S. J. Miller, a campaign for a greater LaVerne College was launched. The war handicapped the work somewhat but the material equipment of the college was enlarged by the erection of a Women's Dormitory which is now named in honor of Dr. Miller, Miller Hall. Solicitation for the Gymnasium was begun, and thru the loyalty of the alumni the building was completed in 1921. President Ellis M. Studebaker came to LaVerne in 1923, and since that time the promotion of an endowment campaign, the erection of a new administration building, and the accrediting of the college by the California

Fine Dramatic Cantata Nearing Perfection For First Production Friday, January 31

"David and Goliath" is rapidly approaching the realm of perfection. Last week the three acts were rehearsed separately and on Thursday night there was a complete rehearsal of all three acts.

Many of the properties are being constructed by the advanced drama class. The speech room is indeed evidence of the fact, for it resembles a stage-craft shop, since paint brushes and dye pots are its chief decorations. Quite a number of the costumes are being made here at the college, but many are being designed at the Broadway costume house in Los Angeles, especially for this production.

Portions of the stage setting are also in process of construction.

The setting of the first act is the splendor of the court of King Saul, the second act is an outdoor scene showing the battle field of the Israelites and the Philistines. The third is also an outdoor scene but of an entirely different nature from that of the second act. It is laid in the royal gardens adjacent to Saul's palace.

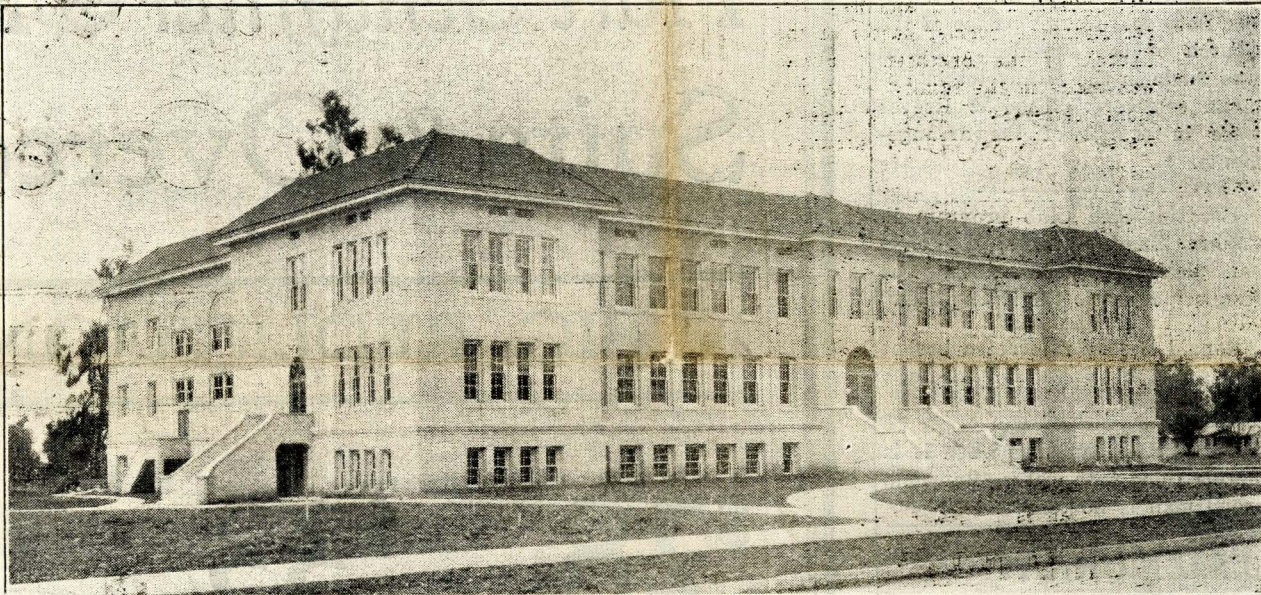

The cast is maintaining a genuinely enthusiastic interest in the rehearsals. This interest will grow continually until the "polishing process" is completed. Both the directors and the cast wish to officially express their gratitude to Wayne Bohn, bass, who is playing King Saul, and to Ernest Carl, baritone, acting the role of the giant, Goliath, for their pleasing attitude, interest and co-operation. They are doing splendid work in both the singing and the acting. It means much to the success of the production to have the services of these two alumni.

During the rehearsal of the second act last week, one of the members of the cast who had not seen the climax before, stated that it alone is worth 50 cents.

Posters have been placed in prominent places in LaVerne and nearby towns and tickets may be purchased with reserved seats at Herr's drug store.

Everybody boost for this college project for you will receive full value for your money!

The By-Products of Education--Clifton

A. B. Clifton, superintendent of schools in Monrovia, addressed the assembly Tuesday morning, on the subject, "The By-Products of Education."

The chapel service was opened with a devotional song given by Doyle Montz, after which Harrison Frantz offered prayer.

Mr. Clifton commended the college upon the graduates that have gone from this institution and stated that most of them found a definite and useful place in life.

The speaker first gave an excellent definition of education, in which he emphasized the social and spiritual objectives of education.

Mr. Clifton said that people often make the mistake of educating their children solely for materialistic purposes. However, education should produce more than merely a means of getting a living. The first by-product of an education should be an appreciation of the common things of life, such as the surrounding hills that one may see every day. The speaker described how tourists often hastily "do" the various points of interest but fail to really enjoy them. A college graduate should have an open mind toward new facts and conceptions. He also ought to be willing to assume whatever responsibility that may fall to his lot. Finally, a truly educated person will seek for idealism in science, and thereby build up a science of the soul rather than merely a science of facts.

Dr. Hoover Adds New Volume to Library

A recent addition to the college library was made when Dean Hoover donated a beautifully bound volume, "The Articles of Faith" of the Mormon religion. It was sent to Dr. Hoover in 1922 by Heber J. Grant, president of the Mormon Society of Salt Lake City, and was used as a source of material for Dr. Hoover's book, "Religionisms and Christianity." The principal doctrines of Mormonism are set forth in this book, providing reference material for students who may have need from time to time for such information.

In conclusion, Mr. Clifton urged the student to think of education in terms of the social and spiritual elements during the college course.

Women's Glee Club Start Big Year

The Women's Glee Club composed of twenty-five members, with the aid of Professor Haugh, have started the year with two programs and others to plan for. Prof. Haugh said that the group is working together better than they ever have and expects to make 1936 a big year for the glee club.

At the beginning of the year the women entertained the men's glee club, and other social events are being planned, as a feed after some program, and a banquet at the close of the year.

The program is varied and will be of interest to those hearing it. A short cantata, "The Ten Virgins," is an added attraction and makes up the program with the addition of choruses, a solo, a duet and numbers by the Sunshine Quartet.

The next program will be given at the local Methodist church Sunday evening, January 26.

NEW FROSH QUARTET SINGS IN PASADENA

The Acapella Four, consisting of Marvin Bollinger, first tenor; Albert Gnagy, second tenor; Vernon Heckman, first bass, and Daniel Stover, second bass, sang in the Pasadena Church of the Brethren last Sunday morning. After the services they were the guests of Mr. Heckman at a birthday dinner at his home in Pasadena. The afternoon was spent in country-exploration.

Women Win One Lose One in Debates

When the debating teams of LaVerne College Women's Forensics met those of Redlands and U. C. L. A. for the final contest of the conference, there was a royal battle of words and wits. Neva Snell and Lucille Hylton represented the negative side against Phyllis Evans and Ruth Leslie of U. C. L. A., while Arnelia Brubaker and Virginia Stern upheld the affirmative side of the question against Miss May and Miss Wilson of Redlands.

Miss Snell and Miss Hylton had the privilege of debating in their college auditorium at LaVerne and won the debate by a score of two to one, being judged by S. J. Miller of LaVerne, Miss Ruth Gooder of U. C. L. A., and Mr. McCollum, coach of debate at Covina high school.

The affirmative team, Miss Brubaker and Miss Stern, on the other hand, presented their arguments in the "Y" room at Redlands and were hindered by the absence of such facilities as the stage and a large platform to which they are accustomed. This, however, was not the cause of their defeat, for their delivery was excellent; but the Redlands team was just a little better. The judges of the debate were District Attorney Johnson of San Bernardino, Professor Johnson of Redlands, and Professor Jamison of LaVerne. The district attorney cast his vote in favor of LaVerne, while the other two judges favored Redlands.

Miss Brubaker and Miss Stern are new material for the LaVerne Women's Debate, and being freshmen, have never worked on a college team before. Their constant efforts and their success are highly appreciated by members of the college group. Just as this year's work is their beginning in college debate, so it is the end for Miss Snell, who is a senior and expects to graduate in the spring. Her latest achievement was a fitting climax to her career in college forensics.

Van Kirk Reads from 'Merchant of Venice'

Thursday morning the chapel assembly was very fortunate in having an elocutionist, Rev. Robert W. Van Kirk, read selections from Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice.

The reader explained the setting of the play, then rendered the scene describing Shylock lending money to Antonio. After a storm of applause, he gave the scene between Shylock and his servant who was leaving his service. Again the audience expressed its appreciation by vigorous clapping. The third number was the interview between Shylock and tormentors, Solanio and Salarino. The final selection was the scene in which Shylock refuses to allow Antonio to go free of his paying the bond.

The wild applause following the readings expressed the keen enjoyment and appreciation of the audience for this delightful program.

The Aeolians gave a concert in the First Church of the Brethren in Los Angeles Sunday night.

Death of Henry L. Kuns

The constituency of LaVerne College was saddened at the news of the passing of Henry L. Kuns at the family home, 2449 Magnolia avenue, last Saturday, after an illness beginning December 29.

Mr. Kuns was born November 19, 1847, in Logansport, Cass County, Indiana, and came to California from Illinois in 1878 to make his permanent home in this state. The family settled first in Santa Clara county, moving later to Merced county, where they lived prior to moving to LaVerne in 1903.

Mr. Kuns was married March 28, 1870, to Mary Eoline Pearce and her death occurred in LaVerne Feb. 14, 1915. On March 8, 1916, he was married to Mrs. Lillie Bartlett, a niece of his first wife, and she is left to mourn his passing.

His father, David Kuns, was one of the first board members of LaVerne College. He, with three other men, all members of the Church of the Brethren, organized themselves into an educational board, and in 1891 bought a building and grounds and secured a charter under the name of Lordsburg College.

H. L. Kuns was founder of the David and Margaret Home, which is named for his father and mother, and a son who died while a young man. He was a trustee of the College of the Pacific for many years, and a generous contributor to LaVerne College. Few have done more of a religious and educational nature in this community than Mr. Kuns. The Methodist Church owes much to the benevolence of the deceased and the David and Margaret Home will always stand as a monument to him.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church, LaVerne, Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 2 p. m. The pastor, Rev. S. J. Rogers, was assisted in the services by Rev. Alonzo W. Reynolds, pastor of First Methodist Church, Pomona, and Rev. Edgar Rothrock, former pastor of the Church of the Brethren. Burial was made in the family lot in Pomona cemetery. Todd & Reeves were in charge of the arrangements.

For the Glee Club program in Covina Sunday night, LaVonne nam played two violin solos, "The Juggler" and "To the Rising Sun."

Ronald Bessey refereed a basket ball game in Baldwin Park over the week-end.

A teakettle can sing when it is merely filled with water. But man, proud man is no teakettle!

DR. D. W. KURTZ TO LEAD MURRAY SUMMER TOUR THROUGH EUROPE

LaVerne students and readers of the Campus Times will be interested to know of the tour next summer to Europe and the Near East which Dr. Kurtz will lead. June 21 is the sailing date from Montreal. The tour will extend over 77 days at a cost of $995. The S. S. Albertic of the White Star Line will provide spacious and comfortable sailing accommodations. Anyone looking forward to such a trip should write soon for further information and reservations to the business manager, M. R. Murray, Suite 1, Ridge Arcade Bldg., Kansas City, Missouri. The tour will be under the auspices of Mr. Murray, and be known by his name. All business arrangements should be made with him.

Dr. Kurtz, as leader, instructor, and director of the party, will give a series of addresses en route on the boat and at places visited, as well as some of his world-famous lectures on Religious Education, Peace, Art, Christian Doctrines, and other subjects.

The Passion Play at Oberammergau is one of the main features of the tour. Admission is quoted at the low figures of $2.50 to $5.00. Lodging in the homes of peasants will add further interest.

The complete list of countries on the itinerary are England, France, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Serbia, Palestine and Egypt. One can readily imagine what delight will accompany this "tour of taste, time, and purse." Steamer trips up the castled Rhine, gondola rides on the Grand Canal, visits to Heidelberg Castle and to the William Tell country are a few of the events scheduled on this journey to the world's most interesting places. From Genoa a Mediterranean steamer will carry the party to Alexandria. After seeing the tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen, the Pyramids, and other Egyptian wonders, the tourists go by train to the Holy Land. Four days will spent in and around Jerusalem and four additional ones at other places of great Biblical interest. Damascus, Smyrna, and Athens will be visited en route to Rome. August 20 is the time of the Passion Play and August 26 the date for sailing for home from Southampton.

In 1924, Dr. Kurtz was one of a "Murray Party" in which were a number of teachers from McPherson and other Kansas towns, several instructors from Bethany Bible School, officials from the Mission Board headquarters in Elgin, Illinois, as well as merchants, students, and others from various states.

The tour next summer should include a number from the west coast and from California in particular. It is a wonderful opportunity for those who can go, emphasizing, as it does, the spiritual and educational features in acquiring a store of knowledge that will be one of the most valuable assets of life. Good companionship and common tastes will make the tour on special pleasure for teachers, students and members of professions represent a large part of the personnel.

Personals

Vernon Weybright spent Sunday afternoon in Glendora (studying).

Don Miller has been beautifying his place of abode. It has been reported that he spent Sunday afternoon repapering his and Johnny Heiser's room, in preparation for open house.

Orlin Vaniman was one of the responsive audience at the Hermosa Church of the Brethren last evening at the Orange Blossom's program.

The surrounding libraries were flocked with L. V. C. students over the week-end. Everyone has suddenly turned studious.

Isaac Funk refuses to report on his week-end escapade. Why?

Camillo Amplayo is manager of a Filipino volley ball team. They held a match in Glendora Sunday.

Alba Montgomery enjoyed the performance of Charlotte Greenwood in "So Long Letty," at the Granada Friday evening.

Steward Allen visited the Kellogg Arabian horse ranch Friday afternoon. He also was fortunate in selling his Colt 32 revolver to Robert Long. It is supposed Robert's family needs protection more than does Steward's.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Daugherty were Sunday afternoon visitors in Pasadena at the home of a former Bethany Bible School acquaintance.

The Orange Blossom Singers gave an impressive program at Hermosa Beach Church of the Brethren Sunday evening.

Frances Berg, Martha Baer, George Berg and Doyle Montz sang a quartet number in the Sunday morning church service at the Church of the Brethren.

Frances and George Berg are happy to have Mr. and Mrs. Berg with them for a few days. Incidentally, they also have the use of the family car.

Pearl Niswander was happy to have a visit from her parents, Mr.

and Mrs. V. E. Niswander, of Selma, California, over the week-end. They came to LaVerne to help celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. Niswander's parents, which took place Saturday.

Dorothy Soper spent the week-end with Louise Grisct at her home in Tustin.

Opal Kuns, Vivienne Wyne, Ruth Gibbel and Frances Sandblom spent the week-end in their respective homes.

Bernice Conley and Marion Souther spent Tuesday in Los Angeles, where they attended a dinner party.

Zelda Morelock and Orlin Vaniman motored to Redondo Beach and visited her home Sunday afternoon.

Charles Snell visited Alfred Adams at his home in Sunland Saturday.

Mary Platt spent the week-end at her home in Hemet. She attended the San Jacinto high school play on Friday evening.

announcement of equal interest was that each person who desired to do so, would be permitted to write his name in the autographsection of the book, where it will remain for 3000 years hence, providing he is willing to pay ten cents for such a privilege. It has been estimated that, if all the students and the faculty as well take advantage of this opportunity, at least twenty dollars can be accumulated and put to good use in the construction of the church.A unique program directed by the cheer leaders, Chuck and Alex-

First of all, the beating of a Chinese tom-tom was heard in the distance, and soon Alexander Malides appeared beating the queer drum and announced that the audience would be favored by a piano duet executed by Vernon Heckman and Dan Stover. The two selectionswhich they presented were highly preciated by the audience.Malides again appeared still beating the tom-tom, and this time announced that a crystal-gazer was going to foretell the result of the Redlands-LaVerne game. The seer was very mysterious and wore a black covering over his head which almost concealed his face. The crystal happened to be a beach ball. Malides stood by curiously watching and occasionally asking the seer what he saw.
Finally he answered in a weird voice, "I see a bulldog on one side,

WHAT I THINK AFTER THINK- ING

It seems to me that there is enough misery and heartaches in this old world without any of us trying to make more, yet folks will talk. There is a saying, "The best thing to do is do as you please and your mind, if you have one, will be at ease, for folks will talk." That is partially true; however, we cannot go banging through this life in absolute disregard of the other fellow. Yet folks will talk. Many years ago a wise man named Solomon said, "Where no wood is the fire goes out; so where there is no talebearer the strife ceaseth." If this can be improved, I wish someone would patent the improvement. I think, after stopping to think, that we all can help the other fellow and ourselves in our trek for wisdom (and by the way, "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding") if we will use a little discretion and guard our tongues in all we say.

Marie: "Why did they put Charles out of the game?"

Mary: "For holding, I think."

Marie: "Isn't that just like Charles."

Leopards Lose to Redlands Twice

The Leopard basketball team lost two close games to the Redlands Bulldogs last Friday and Saturday evenings. The score of the first was 11-7, and the other was 26-21.

The Friday night game was one of the greatest demonstrations of guarding ever seen in the local gym. Redlands made a field goal in the first two minutes of play and did not make another in the entire first period. The Leopards only made six points and the way things stood at the half was 6-2.

The second half was all Redlands. They made five points and allowed the Leopards only one. With less than two minutes to play the score stood 7-5 in favor of LaVerne, when Bell, the Bulldog forward, sank a field goal to tie the count.

In the extra five minute period Redlands made two field goals to put the game on ice.

Bell was high point man of the game with a total of eight out of the entire eleven points that his team scored. Stutzman and Thomason tied for high point honors with three digits each.

The line-up for Friday's game:
Redlands 11 LaVerne 7
Loper F (1) Weybright
Keele(2) F (3) Stutzman
Bell(8) F
Lee(1) C (3) Thomason
Beiden G Hubbell
Ebel G Nicolas

Saturday Game

The contest Saturday night was played in the Bulldogs' gym and lacked the guarding and speed of the first game, and many more points were rolled up by both quintets. Only one time were the Leopards out in front during the entire game, which was in the early part of the second half, when the score was 14-13. Redlands made a scoring spurt that put them out in front by a good margin and were never in danger of being overtaken by the Leopards.

Weybright was high point man for LaVerne with nine points. Keele and Lee were the leading Bulldog scorers with seven points each.

The line-up:

Redlands 26 LaVerne 21
Keele(7) F (9) Weybright
Bell(6) F (6) Stutzman
Lee(7) C (3) Thomason
Beiden(6) G (3) Hubbell
Ebel G Nicolas

Substitutions: Redlands: Niedermeyer for Beiden, Loper for Keele; LaVerne: Kindy for Stutzman; Thomas for Nicolas, Deal for Thomas, Root for Deal.

GAME CELEBRATED BY WAFFLE FEED

It was too exciting after the game with Redlands to settle down and go to bed. At least that is what a group of girls thought, so a waffle party was the result. Each girl furnished something, and all met with Geneva Suttle. A hilarious time was had mixing the batter and seeing that the iron was not too full, and attending all the other intricacies which go with the are of waffle making. As much fun was had eating as making them.

Those receiving the benefits of this affair were: Geneva Suttle, Virginia Stern, Mary Hollinger, Gwendolyn Ardinger, Edythe Miller, Louise Huff, Dortha Gans and Harry Thomas arrived hime in time to have one also.

CONFERENCE NOTES

The results of the games last week-end left Redlands high and dry in the race for the conference cage championship. None of the other teams are conceded a chance to win from them since they topped their two strongest contenders. The results of the other conference game were a win for Pomona over San Diego 26-18, and a 53-30 triumph for Oxy from Caltech.

The only conference games this week are Occidental at LaVerne and Caltech at San Diego.

Announce 1930 Football Schedule

The 1930 football schedule was announced last Wednesday and is very favorable for LaVerne. The first game is played on October 1, and the final one is on November 22. The Redlands and Whittier games are to be played on the local gridiron. Four of the following are conference games:

October 11—LaVerne at Caltech (Rose Bowl.)

October 18—LaVerne at Santa Barbara (non-conference).

October 25—LaVerne at San Diego.

November 8—LaVerne at California Christian (non conference).

November 15—Whittier at LaVerne.

November 22—Redlands at LaVerne.

Frosh Basket Ball

The frosh lost two games to the Redlands pups by the scores 31-10 and 38-25. The Friday night game was the first conference game for the eligible Kitten team and it looks as though they will have a winning outfit before very long. A marked improvement was shown in the second game and they seemed to get going.

Snell was high point man in both games. Next Saturday the same team will play a preliminary to the Oxy Game.

Russell Frantz: "I'll bet if I was married I'd be boss and tell my wife where to head in."

Prof. Travis: "Yes, and I suppose when you come to a railroad crossing you honk your horn to warn the oncoming express to get out of your way, don't you?"

Someone says: "Man is born to rule the world." Yeah, but he sometimes gets married.

"Help your wife," says a domestic expert. "When she mops up the floor, mop the floor up with her."

Some girls are like fine-tooth combs—nothing escapes them.

Miss Lenhardt: "Words ending in 'ous' mean full of: as joyous means full of joy, and vigorous means full of vigor. Now give me an example of such a word."

Eddie O'H., raising his hand: "Pious."

LaVerne Squad Expect Even Tussle with Oxy

In the fourth conference game the varsity will meet the Occidental Tigers in the local basketball next Saturday night at 8:00 p. m. The frosh preliminary will start at 7:00 o'clock.

This game will be no easier than the rest of the conference tilts played so far this season. Oxy may have been beaten at Redlands by a large score, but that is no indication of their real strength. Any outfit that loses to a quintet of the caliber of Brigham Young by a matter of four points is not easy to beat. Brigham Young defeated U. C. L. A., the only undefeated team in coast conference competition.

The Oxy cagers have a reputation of being a high scoring combination, and in several games chalked up over sixty points. The Redlands style of play seemed to baffle them so much that their offense did not get going at all.

The game should be a good one that will be nip and tuck from the start to the final gun.

New Advent Pastor Visits Volunteers

The Student Volunteers spent an enjoyable evening last Wednesday at the Thomas home on Sixth street, in spite of rainy weather and various school exactions which kept many from attending.

Dwight DuBois conducted the devotions; Zelda Morelock gave a short reading entitled "Buddie's Rose," after which a few items of business were cared for. Hazel Rothrock was chosen to fill the vacancy on the program committee, due to the absence of Laura Frantz from school next semester; a snow party was discussed but nothing definite decided; an offer from Mrs. Kaylor, furlough missionary to India, for raising money for the Volunteer project, was accepted.

The main feature of the evening was a practical message on personal evangelism from Rev. Brandlin, new pastor of the local Advent Christian church. He used as a text Paul's instruction to Timothy, "Watch thou in all things—," stressing the all-inclusiveness of the gospel in the pertinent application to all the conditions in the world in which we should take an interest and thus make "full proof of our ministry."

The vital need of evangelism thruout America today, no single village excepted, was shown. Only present day methods may be applied to this work. Living up to what one preaches will bring the most lasting results. This "unseen" institution is a powerful one.

Helping others is essential to Christian living, for we lose out if we do not. Rev. Brandlin stated this from his own experience.

Edith: "You'd better not. Pa's as jealous as a cat."

Ma: "Chuch, how many time must I call you before you will come here?"

Chuch: "I dunno; you stand there and holler and I'll sit here and count."
