BODY OF BENNY ANDERSON FOUND

FUNERAL SERVICES TO BE HELD AT ALHAMBRA

After a period of four long days and nights, the body of Benny Anderson was found at Puddingstone, Sunday afternoon about 2:30.

Beny, who was a college sophomore, with Miriam Dickey, Ruth Bishop, and Serg Stowell, was rowing at Puddingstone last Tuesday. The boat sprang a leak and started to sink. The two girls and Serge escaped with their lives, but Benny was drowned. Since that time county life guards from Manhattan and friends of Benny have been working constantly to retrieve his body. Finding that dragging was doing no good and that blasting failed to bring results, a diver was finally sent down Sunday afternoon and after working for some time the body was found. The Fred E. Brown ambulance took the body to the Brown Funeral Home in Pomona.

The services have been arranged as follows:

Rosary service, 8:00 p. m. Wednesday at the F. A. Ulter & Son chapel, Alhambra.

Services by LaVerne College at the Elks Temple in Alhambra at 9:00 o'clock Thursday morning with the following tentative arrangement:

Piano solo by Ralph Travis; Apollo quartet; scripture and prayer; vocal solo by Orville Thomason; obituary and sermon by the Rev. Rothrock, and the Apollo quartet.

Mass service will then be held at San Gabriel Mission at 10:30 Thursday morning.

CHALMER FAW WINS ORATORICAL CONTEST

Chalmer Faw, speaking on the subject, "Alive to the Times," took first place in the Keiser Oratorical Contest held in chapel Thursday.

To promote oratory, this contest is sponsored annually by Mr. Keiser, for which he donates a sum of $15, to be presented in prizes of $8, $5, and $2.

The other contestants were Fred Brunk, speaking on "Internationalizing the Christ," who took second, and Joe Pratt, talking on "A Menace to World Peace," who took third. Mr. Pratt took second place, but this was a mistake due to an error in quick adding of points by the judges.

Mrs. Holsinger also spoke, not wishing to be entered in the contest, however. The subject of her oration was "The Bar to Success."

APPOINTIVE POSITIONS FILLED BY COMMISSION

Miss Ruth Rothrock has been appointed editor of the Handbook, with Rulin Bruesch as business manager by the newly elected commission which held its second meeting last Monday evening with the president, Max Forney, presiding.

Other appointive positions were also filled. These included the store manager for next year, Everett Myer; stage manager, Wilson Gillingwater, and faculty chapel representative, Marvin Bolinger.

After the usual full session, the meeting was adjourned. Cleo Beery, Elizabeth Lehman, Elwin Wilson, Arnelia Brubaker and Torchy Samson were present.

VARSITY CLUB GIVE JINKS SATURDAY NITE

Lots of things happened Saturday night when "the chimney flew," the villain "stole second base," and all this in "And the Villain Still Pursued Her," which was one of the features of the Varsity Club jinks program presented Saturday night.

Red Montgomery scored big as the heroine and Max Forney scored as the villain who couldn't kiss—in fact, everyone came in for his share of laughs.

The program started off with Happy and Wayne, who had plenty of good jokes, and ended by causing Coach Eisan to do some explaining.

The rest of the program: The King of Magic—Dwight Welch. The Ventriloquist—A. Brower. The Operation—Dr. Weybright. And especially Kings of Song were enthusiastically received.

Coach Eisan is to be congratulated on the management of the program and the fine manner in which it was presented.

SENIOR PLAY TO BE PRESENTED MAY 25-26

For the first time in years, LaVerne students are challenged with questions which confronted the minds of such men as Columbus, Cortez, and DeSoto. Even in more recent years, Admiral Byrd found an undiscovered country at the North Pole and the late Sir Oliver Lodge thought he discovered a new world.

Is there yet an undiscovered country? If so, where it is? This interrogation is all the more pertinent in this, our age of modernity, for we are inclined to view the situation very conclusively that all new lands which can be discovered have been unveiled to human eye. Yet astronomers at Mt. Wilson and ambitious botanists are finding new worlds.

Perhaps there are spheres in the realm of the supernatural? After death? Where are you when you dream?

Citizens, are you afraid to think of the undiscovered country? Are you willing to explore it? Are you going there?

Most assuredly! On May 25 and 26, when the senior play cast presents "The Undiscovered Country," a three act play, at the "exploration fee" of fifty cents.

JENKS LAKE TO BE SCENE OF "Y" RETREAT

LaVerne will be quite without its men, that is, its faculty and student body men, over next week-end for they will be enjoying their annual spring retreat at Jenks Lake.

Leaving Friday afternoon they will be gone until Sunday afternoon. There is more snow at the lake this year than last. Eats will be had in abundance as Dick Maley has repeated endlessly. Coach Eisan is supervising the recreation which will include volley ball, indoor, hiking, rowing and stunts of one's imagination.

On Sunday morning there will be a devotional service led by President Studebaker.

Much as the girls enjoy the boys these few days of fun, they can't help thinking of the dateless Friday and Saturday nights; but then, can you blame them?

A pianist, Frank LaForge, has never played from notes in 25 years of public appearances.

FROSH TAKE THIRD IN ALL-CONF. MEET

SAN DIEGO TAKES FIRST; CALTECH SECOND

San Diego Frosh upset the dope last Friday when they won the conference meet with a total of 56½ points, just 19 points ahead of Caltech frosh, who had 37½ points. LaVerne frosh came next with 29 points, the most that any LaVerne frosh track team has scored in a conference meet.

Pomona frosh took 19 points, Occidental 15, Redlands 10, Santa Barbara 9, and Whittier 0.

Two new frosh records were set along with good marks in all the other events. Larson of San Diego broke the high jump record, set in 1927, of 5 feet 11¼ inches when he jumped 6 feet ⅝ inches. The pole vault record was also smashed by Rand of San Diego when he cleared 12 feet 3¼ inches. The former record was held by "Shorty" Ingram of Pomona with a height of 12 feet. Phil Newman, captain of the Sagechix squad of Pomona, ran the high hurdles in 15.4 sec. while the former record was 15.8 sec., but the judges would not rule it as official because of the strong wind that was blowing.

Newman and Field of Caltech tied for high point honors with 10 each. Newman won both the low and high hurdles. Field won the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes.

Roy Smith of LaVerne frosh who has collected many points in the other meets of this season took 9¼ digits, placing him high point man for LaVerne. "Peanuts" Roberts ran him a close second with 8¼ digits. Smith took first in the 440 yard, third in the 100 yard, fourth in the broad jump, and also ran a lap on the winning relay team. Roberts, LaVerne star distance runner and captain, led most of the way in the 880, but could not keep his lead over Nicholas of Santa Barbara, with whom he tied in (Continued on Page Three)

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Any student, male or female, who thinks he can, or has, or can, or will, or wants to be the next year's yell leader, please see Max Forney as soon as possible.

At the meeting of the Southern Intercollegiate Public Speaking Conference which will be held in the college auditorium at LaVerne Thursday, April 28, at 7:30, Chalmer Faw will represent LaVerne with his oration, "Alive to the Times."

This oratorical contest is held at LaVerne once every seven years and the other schools participating are Redlands, Whittier, Cal-Christian, Occidental, California Technical School, and Pasadena College.

"WHOOPIE SNAPSHOT" WINNER ANNOUNCED

Mr. Ernest Swihart has been selected as the snappiest man on the campus in the recent "Whopie Snapshot Contest." Along with this distinctive honor goes a first prize of $2.50 which the Lambda has offered for the best snapshot of the season. Much of the credit for Ernie's phenomenal success goes to Miss Ida Kinney, who co-operated with the winning snapper in producing the banner snap of 1932.

Chuck Manning won the second prize of $1 with a masterpiece of color, line, and harmony. Mr. Max Forney and a very small but very winsome puppy dog assisted Chuck by acting as models for the artist. Elmo Holl is the third prize winner and will have his name nicely engraved in gold lettering on his copy of the Lambda (providing he has paid his annual assessment). Elmo won third place by his portrayal of the "Milk Age." Reproductions of prize winning snaps will appear in the Lambda.

The snapshot editor wishes to express his appreciation for the large number of snaps contributed. Although he frequently took an "awful slaughtering," nevertheless the job had its compensations.

SENIORS HAVE STEP-OUT DAY

SENIORS DON CAPS AND GOWNS IN TUES. CHAPEL

The annual senior step-out ceremony was held in chapel Tuesday, April 26. The Seniors, wearing caps and gowns, filed in an impressive procession to the platform, while the Juniors, as is the custom, honored their presence by standing until they were seated.

The scripture and prayer were read by Chalmer Faw, and a piano solo was rendered by Esther Thomason, after which the president, Orlin Vaniman, spoke on behalf of the Senior class.

The class of '32, according to the class president, is a most unique group. They are unusual for several reasons. (1) They are the only class to be pulled thru the "Frosh-Soph" mudhole twice; (2) they didn't make a point in the girls' track meet; (3) theirs is the first class to graduate during such a depression; (4) they have a one-man track team, Bert Jones; (5) they were the first class to get a league championship for LaVerne, for they were basketball champions in 1928, and (6) they have in their group one married, 8 having filed intentions of marrying, and 8 more likely to at any time. That this class been active in school activities is shown by the fact that there is in the group 7 commissioners, 2 Lambda editors, 1 Lambda business manager, 1 Campus Times editor, 1 Campus Times business manager, presidents of ~~XXX~~, Choral Union, Student Volunteers, and Foreign Language clubs, Senior basket ball, baseball and football managers, 5 varsity football men, 4 varsity basket ball men, and 4 debaters.

There is one thing they have in common with the other classes, however, and that is the fact that they have the true LaVerne spirit, and will cherish always the memory of their college days.

Following the speech of Orlin Vaniman, President Studebaker addressed the students. He chose for his text 1 Corinthians 13:13: "And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love." It is his belief that the Senior class must have a measure of faith in themselves, in this institution, and in God, in order to have reached this far. He counseled against influence entering our lives that will detract from faith and fellowship with Christ. In speaking of hope, Dr. Studebaker expressed it as a "big strong wish." He hopes that upon leaving this institution the students will continue to strive and hope, ever increasing the breadth of their wishes; for it is only through strong ambitions and desires that the greatest contributions to life are made. Love, says Dr. Studebaker, is the greatest of all three. True family life, the church, and everything worth while in life is based on love. It is hoped that as the years roll by, the students will grow to love and appreciate LaVerne College the more, and above all to live up to its standards of service and love for humanity.

University of California co-eds must be in by 12:15 on their nights out.

Nevada University has begun a skiing class.

IN MEMORIAM

Oft-times a tragedy will reveal the true worth of mankind. When Ann Rutledge died in Lincoln's arms, his very soul seemed crushed by profound sorrow. But instead of being daunted by the loss of what to him meant more than life itself as he paced alone in the deep shadows of that night, he determined to be guided by the memory of the one for whom he had cared. And he did, as that memory seemed to shine forth in his later years of trouble. In the years that followed when the disappointments of failures laid their burdens upon shoulders wearied by many duties, he thanked God that he had that one cherished memory to guide him, to spur him on just when he felt most that he could not go one step further.

This past week, our own college has experienced a deep tragedy which has grieved us exceedingly, but it has also endeared us and ennobled the splendid rise emergency displayed by our students. Coach Eisan and many men students willingly and lovingly spent hours and hours in the raw cold, and sometimes rain, endeavoring to locate the body of their fellow student friend. The women prepared hot food and drink for them and made numerous trips to the dam transporting it. The local stores donated some of the food supplies and the administration took over the other expenses. Professors dismissed their classes or excused those who were eager to give of their time and energy. Thus the memory of the one who, only a few days ago, was smiling and talking among his classmates, kept them going on and on until their goal was reached.

And now that it is all over and the task is finished, only the appreciation of the family of our schoolmate for the respect and love and courage that was shown by all is left—left with the pleasant lingering memory for which we all can, as Lincoln did, thank God for, and be ably guided across the on-coming burdens of the future years.

The Faculty of LaVerne College wishes to express its appreciation to all those who aided in the search for the body of Benny Anderson, sophomore, whose tragic death occurred last week: to Coach Eisan who organized the work of rescue, to the men of the college who gave their best efforts to the task, and to the women who supplied the necessary provisions to the rescuing party. This expression of helpfulness and sympathy is greatly appreciated.

Gladdys Muir, Secretary of the Faculty.

HIAWATHA'S PARODY OF LOVE

By the shores of Cuticura,
By the sparkling Pluto Water,
Lived the Prophylactic Chiclet—
Dandarine, fair Reo's daughter.
She was loved by Instant Postum;
Sun of Sunkist and Victrola;
Heir apparent to the Mazda;
Of the tribe of Coca Cola.
Through the Tanlac strolled the lovers—
Through the Shredded Wheat they wandered—
"Lovely little Wrigley Chiclet,"
Were the fairy words of Postum.
"No Pyrene can quench the fire,
Nor an Aspirin still the heartache,
Oh, my Prestolite desire,
Let us marry, little Djer-Kiss."
—Proof, DeMolay Deacon.

How much did Philadelphia Pa?
How much does Columbus O?
How many eggs did Louisiana La?
What grass did Joplin Mo?
We call Minneapolis Minn,
Why not Annapolis Ann?
If you can't tell the reason why,
Perhaps Topeka Kan.

NOISY SILENCE

Paul, who made his home with his grandmother in a large house in the country, missed his older sister while she was at school.

Trying to dispel his loneliness, he resorted to conversation with his grandmother. This had gone on most of the forenoon one day, when his grandmother in desperation asked him:

"Paul, why don't you keep still for a while? You are about to talk me to death."

"Well, grandma," he replied, "when I don't talk, the clock ticks so loud."

GLORIES IN HIS LONELINESS

A woman's kiss was never experienced by Alfred Blythwaite, of Birmingham, England. The 87-year-old bachelor lives alone, darning his own socks, sewing buttons on his shirts, and doing all his own cooking and housework. "I'm healthy, happy and have money in the bank," he says. "And the reason is that I've never kissed a woman."

EDITORIALS and FEATURES

CHUCKLES

Bob: "I went to the railroad office today and got that umbrella I left on the train last week."

Arnelia: "That's good. Where is it now?"

Bob: "Eh? By Jove, I, really, my dear, I'm afraid I left it in the train."

Did you know that Betty Shaffer broke up the swimming class the other afternoon? She was so engrossed with walking around the block with Elvin that she completely forgot to take her carload of girls to the "Y."

Van: "I once knew a man who went hungry in order to buy feed for his horse."

Chuck: "I can understand his sentiments. Many is the time I have cut down on meat and potatoes in order to buy gasoline."

Church proved very unique Sunday evening—Wilbur Jones was there with Frances Nix.

Virginia Matthews got in very late the other evening. Her cheeks were quite flushed and her hair was tousled. "Oh, Betty," she murmured ecstatically, "I'm so thrilled. You know, I didn't accept Ike the first time he proposed."

"No," replied Betty, "I don't suppose you did. You weren't there."

Evelyn Edmister seems to have a way with engaged or nearly engaged men. Last Sunday evening it was Harry Thomas.

Shepp brought her big black dog to the dormitory the other day to show him to Opal, who, wishing to seem interested, asked, "Do you give him any exercise?"

"Of course," answered Shepp scornfully. "He goes for a tramp every day."

Frances Bishop seemed to be having a gay old time in the hall Tuesday afternoon with Bob Haris and Bozo Replogle.

Mary (passing confectioner's window): "Doesn't that candy look good?"

Pete: "Uh-huh. Let's stand here and look at it a while."

Charlotte Shaffer is getting rushed via the mail. Two letters came one day and four the next from a mining college in Colorado.

"How did Jones happen to fall downstairs?"

"Why, his fiancée said, 'Now, Bert, be careful,' and as he is not the man to be dictated to by any woman, down he went."

Virginia Scarisbrick and Ruth Rothrock agree that there is at least some advantage in being editors. They have been quite thrilled over the good looks of the printer for the annual.

"Nobody likes Dietz."

"Oh, yes, somebody does."

"Who?"

"Dietz."

Kathryn Blickenstaff has been cutting classes lately even oftener than Betty. I wonder if Hylton is guilty—he's been absent, too.

Stew: "Have you a minute to spare?"

Torchy: "Sure, tell me all you know."

Since the Varsity Club Jinks we hope that Vera Mae has quit wondering why Paul stayed away so long.

SPASMETTES

Following a lead to what was supposed to be a demonstration of "Thought Photography," we found the lecture to be held in a hall that looked like a combination Theosophists' Temple and Spiritualists' den. After the proper amount of announcements and delays, the "Doctors and Professors" were herded in by a bull-necked, red-headed woman, and a gold-toothed, saccharine-toned ballyhoosers. The atmosphere and stage properly set, a large floor-walkerish individual with spots on his dinner jacket came forth with a lantern slide and showed the curious how he was able to combine the various elements of the body and subjecting them to the ultra-violet and infra red rays of his lamp produce growing organisms. Later he said that the matter they produced was not living tissue. Choose one. The doctor claimed that the elements in the body of a fish, when combined and exposed to their lamp would slowly take on the form of a fish, and so with the elements in the body of each animal. As a conclusion, the audience was told they might have the healing benefits of this marvelous development by taking a course of treatments of this wonderful compound in their school at Los Angeles.

LATEST COIFFURE

Dame Fashion's latest wrinkle is the Olympic bob, presented by blonde Carole Lombard. The hair is about two inches above the shoulder-line. A light fringe of bangs covers the forehead and is slightly curled upwards at the ends. The remainder is combed back severely off the face and ears, with one slight wave at a line parallel with the ears. If all goes well, feminine fans will be wearing this coiffure at the Olympiad in August.

As a result of winning the golf tournament which was held by the LaVerne Varsity Club, Wayne Bohn is the possessor of a cup given by Adam Goodman's sporting goods store.

Dutch Brubaker came in a close second and six new golf balls were given to him. Dutch says that six golf balls is mere chicken feed when he starts losing them.

Ernie Landis was the winner last year.

OXY CAPTURES ALL SO. CONFERENCE MEET

Last Saturday at Patterson field, Occidental won the conference meet, with Pomona taking second, Redlands third and Caltech fourth. Whittier also collected nine points. LaVerne failed to place in any of the events, altho several men had been entered.

Three new records were set during the meet. Skoog of Caltech ran the mile in 4 min. 26.3-5 sec. to break the mile record held by Bill Himrod since 1908. Leonard of San Diego put the shot 46 ft. 8 in. to beat the record made by Bob Shuler last year of 45 ft. 11 1/2 in. Dick Finley of Occidental threw the discus 139 ft. 5 in. to beat the old mark of 138 ft. 6 in. held by Johnny Brose of San Diego since 1930. The pole vault record held by Jensen of Oxy since last year was broken by McAllister, when he vaulted 13 ft. 2 3/4 in. beating the old mark by 5 3/4 inches.

Summary of events:

100 yard dash—Won by Belman (O), Carr (P) second, Hind (R) third, Powell (O) fourth. Time, 9.8 sec. (Ties meet record.)

220 yard dash—Won by Hind (R), Belman (O) second, Carr (P) third, Todd (O) fourth. Time 22.2 sec.

the time of 2 minutes 6.4 seconds. They again battled in the mile with Nicholas winning narrowly in another close finish.

Myer of LaVerne fought his way to an outstanding triumph in the two-mile, which turned out to be one of the most exciting races of the meet. Myer led most of the way but he had to stave off the determined finish of Vancil of Redlands who passed him twice in the last 50 yards. Hylton, who took second in the 220, was the fourth scorer of the meet. LaVerne also won the relay with Smith, Hylton, Roberts and White running.

San Diego was especially strong in the field events, in which they collected most of their points, taking five first places and a good share of the minor places.

We don't believe that it's the faculty's fault that eighteen members of the senior class are unattached. The others seem to have gotten along all right.

Mae F.: "You may not believe it, but I said 'No' to seven different men during the summer."

Irene B.: "Oh, I don't doubt it. What were they selling?"

SPORT GOSSIP

by EDE

Guess the frosh are "front page" this week since they were third in the conference meet.

Our weakness was in the weight events, since we couldn't even squeeze a point out of the discus, hammer, pole vault, javelin, high jump—not to mention the low and high hurdles—but that's another story.

Nicholas from San Bernardino chased "Peanuts" all the way in the mile but couldn't pass him, and then finally managed to take the race from him in the last 50 yards. "Peanuts" came back to run the 880 in his best time of the season despite a very bad wind. He made 8 3/4 points, which is darned good.

Roy Smith, handicapped by an infected leg, did a fine day's work to make 9 3/4 points. His 440 race was a winner. "Boxed" in all the way around, he managed to get out and in the last few yards managed to take it.

Myer sure had a scare (so did we) in the 2 mile. The man from Redlands trailed him and held back till the last 50 yards thinking he'd pass then. The only thing wrong was that Myer had a better finish.

Hylton ran like heck to take second in the 220, and then came right back to run the third lap of the relay. Oh, Harold, what a little training would do.

Personally I think the story of the relay should be in the headlines. Our team, composed of Roberts, Hylton, White and Smith, is one to be proud of. Smith running last, was 10 yards behind when he started giving all he had and then some. He managed to close the gap and win the race.

Jones, Booth, and Sammy were shut out of the high jump with San Diego taking the first three places—but they had to break the conference record to do it.

Ish Smith would have taken second in the discus if he could have stayed in the ring.

The varsity isn't thru yet, since they will take a trip to Santa Barbara and will burn up the track then.

It was noon and Marion Noll gallantly escorted Bernie Brubaker to the lawn. "May I sit on your right hand?" he asked. "No," she replied, "I eat with that. You had better try a cushion."

"I would be willing to work," said George Weybright, "if I could get the sort of job I want."

"What would that be?"
"Well, I wouldn't mind calling out the stations on an Atlantic liner."

Give Him His Diploma!

Dr. Sarafian: "What would you do in the case of a person eating poisonous mushrooms?"

Ed O.: "Recommend a change of diet."

Ouch!

Joe: "A noted doctor says that ill health always attacks one's weakest spots."

Lucile: "You do have a lot of headaches, don't you dear?"

Frankie: "Have you given Ony his final answer yet?"

Blanche: "No, but I've given him his final 'no.'"

The cast:

LAVERNE GIRLS ATTEND Y. W. TRAINING CLASS

Mary Hollinger, president of the Y. W. C. A., accompanied by four members of her cabinet, Harriet Hoke, Anna and Florence Messamer and Edna Samson, attended the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet Training convention at San Diego April 22-24.

The meetings were held at the downtown Y. W. C. A. on Friday night and Sunday morning. The Saturday round table discussion was held on the San Diego State campus. Mr. George Coe and Rabbi Strauss were the main speakers of the convention.

Eight schools were represented: U. C. L. A., Redlands, Whittier, U. S. C., Cal-Christian, LaVerne, Pomona, and San Diego.

EDUCATION CLASS VISITS BROAD OAKS

Under the leadership of Dr. Sarafian, the Philosophy of Education class visited the Broad Oaks School in Pasadena Thursday afternoon, April 21.

Broad Oaks is one of the most modern schools for the training of pre-school and kindergarten teachers. Broad Oaks is now affiliated with Whittier College, so that a B. A. degree may be secured there.

One of the girls there took the class through the entire school. There are children who attend the pre-school grade and the kindergarten so that the cadets, or practice teachers work continually with the children. Most all of the classes for the children are held outside, using old materials to make new things. That is one of the policies of the school. Another interesting feature of the school is that very extensive data is taken of every child, at the very least, three times a week. The data includes the reactions of the child to the different kinds of work, personality, what they talk about, especially to themselves. By doing this, much may be found out about the child and his parents.

After an address by Mrs. Barrett, child psychologist, on "Creative Languages," tea was served in the dining room of the dormitory for the entire group.

MR. RUTLEDGE SPEAKS IN TUESDAY CHAPEL

Mr. Rutledge from U. S. C. spoke in Tuesday's chapel on the "Economic Problem of Today."

According to Mr. Rutledge, if you want to live happily and without fear a study of the economic history of human life is necessary. The trouble today, as in all similar periods of depression, lies in the fact that the majority of people "don't know what it is all about." Ninety per cent of the people are working for the other ten per cent, while the ten per cent dictate to the other ninety per cent.

Another important factor contributing to our present difficulty is the tendency of the older generation to exploit the younger. This situation has been going on for centuries. We have had depressions about every 20 years, which is, according to Mr. Rutledge, the cycle of youth into old age.

The solution lies in the general population waking up to the situation about them to avoid exploitation and to establish a more equal distribution of wealth.

MR. LORBEER SPEAKS TO Y. W. C. A. FRIDAY

Mrs. Lorbeer, leader of the Pomona Camp Fire Girls, was the speaker at the Y. W. last Friday. Mrs. Lorbeer is interested in girls' work, and for many years has served as a leader in the summer camps. To make her talk more interesting, Mrs. Lorbeer showed motion pictures of the life at camp.

Virginia Scarisbrick, vice-president, had charge of the program. Florence and Anna Messamer, and Vera Mae Shafford sang a trio before Mrs. Lorbeer spoke.

"I LOVE AN ACTRESS" TO BE AT PASADENA

James Ellison, popular young stage and screen actor, will play the romantic lead opposite Sharon Lynn, motion picture actress, in the production on a major scale of "I Love An Actress," crackling romantic comedy by Laslo Fodor, to be given at its first western presentation with a cast of sixty-five at the Pasadena Community Playhouse April 28 to May 7.

Sharing honors in the production with Ellison will be one of the most distinguished actors of the Playhouse, Samuel S. Hinds. Among a score or more roles, the actor's most recent were in "Passing Brompton Road," "Constant Nymph," and "What Every Woman Knows."

The popular young actress, Peggy Campbell, who played a leading role with Will Rogers in "Business and Pleasure," is announced by Gilmor Brown in the cast of the play, as also Winifred Hanley, English actress, late of the Theatre Guild, who created the role of Mrs. Lincoln in John Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln."

BERT JONES FILES INTENTIONS TO WED

It's being done, so they say. This time it happened to hit one at our own institution of learning. It read like this: "Intentions to marry."

Jones - Hawkins - Robert Dana Jones, 22, California, resident of Colton, and Elizabeth Hawkins, 22, California, resident of Upland." And in case you don't happen to recognize the Robert Dana Jones—just see if Bert Jones knows anything about the whole affair. (Oh, Bert, how could you!)

Bert, who is a senior, came to LaVerne after attending San Bernardino Junior College for two years. He has been an outstanding athlete, making the varsity team in football, basketball and track. He is a member of the Varsity Club and the Y. M. C. A.

In an interview, Bert said that he wasn't worrying yet—thought he has plenty enough time for that later! (Why, Bert!)

MRS. HAUGH TO BE SPEAKER AT BANQUET

Mrs. Haugh is to be the main speaker at the Mothers' and Daughters' banquet to be held May 5 in Fellowship Hall, according to Mary Hollinger, president of the Y. W. C. A.

Although the Y. W. C. A. is sponsoring the affair, the banquet is not for members only. All the girls of the student body are invited to attend and bring a mother, their own or someone else. And if for some reason a girl has difficulty in finding or choosing a mother, Mary Hollinger will have suggestions.

The oldest operating theater in the United States is the Savannah Theater in the Georgia city of the same name.

Y. W. C. A. Saturday, April 30 to Sunday, May 1.

In this crisis, not only to our pocketbooks but to our whole economic structure, it is vitally important that students should meet to discuss the foundations of our modern social-economic society. Voorhis, headmaster of Voorhis School for Boys; H. Bruce Anthony, professor of Economics, U. S. C.; and Richard Pomeroy, president of Junior Council on International Relations.

A BOOK REVIEW OF "WAY OF THE LANCER"

"Way of the Lancer" by Helen Boleslavski is a dramatic account of probably the last company of lancers ever to be used in civilized warfare. The peculiar dilemma of honor these Polish nobles found themselves in when the Czar of Russia, to whom they had sworn allegiance, abdicated, is related with full dramatic effects. The Lancers' return to Poland from Russia is a war in itself. If you have the time and the place, don't miss the opportunity to read this book.
