MR. MILLER TO BE NEW INSTRUCTOR

MR. MILLER IS FROM VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY

Mr. L. Paul Miller from the University of Virginia is to be the new instructor in the Romance languages next year.

Mr. Miller comes to us as the most outstanding man in the romance languages in the graduate school at the university. He received his bachelor's degree at Bridgewater before taking his master's degree in the university.

In addition to his scholastic attainments, Mr. Miller will be welcomed because of his youth—he is about the same age as Prof. Travis—and his clean-cut, handsome appearance. He is not married.

NEW COMMISSION TO BE INSTALLED MAY 13

Installation service will be the feature of the student body meeting May 13, 1932.

The newly elected officers will take office at this time. They are: President, Max Forney; Commissioner of Forensics, Arnelia Brubaker; Commissioner of Finance, Cleo Beery; Commissioner of Welfare, Elizabeth Lehman; Commissioner of Athletics, Elvin Wilson, and Commissioner of Publications, Edna Amson.

Another event of this meeting will be the awards in Athletics and Forensics.

FULL HOUSE GREET ORCHESTRA CONCERT

A full house greeted the orchestra at its second concert last Wednesday night. The orchestra, through the efforts of Director Howard Greene, has grown to one consisting of fifty pieces. Besides college students, there are six Bonita students, a Pomona J. C. student, the coach of the California Junior Republic and several outsiders playing in the orchestra at the present time.

A feature of the concert was the presentation of the piece, "Damasus," which featured a storm. Esther Thomason gave two readings, and the Apollo Four sang two numbers and an encore.

President Studebaker complimented the orchestra on its work. Pastor G. K. Walker gave the invocation.

A silver offering was taken to help pay the expenses connected with the orchestra.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CABINETS MEET JOINTLY

Both the old and new Student Volunteer cabinets met in joint meeting Friday noon to discuss next year's policies.

They determined to have a sustained membership drive throughout the year rather than one great effort which soon is forgotten.

There is to be a continuation of the personal giving idea so that money for the mission project may be raised by this means rather than being dependent upon the offerings lifted by the deputation team at their programs. This year the project was the support of Pastor Yen in northern China, who is a Chinese pastor in our own denomination.

It is hoped that this personal giving idea will continue to succeed until no deputation team will ever need to lift an offering and thus they will be able to do more good in the district.

MRS. MERRITT PLANS TO PURSUE INTERESTS

After seven vivid years on the faculty of LaVerne College, Mrs. Merritt will pursue other interests.

Hers has been a real contribution to the college, made possible by her own brilliant personality. Who ever was bored in one of her classes or went to sleep during one of her lectures, regardless of the latest of hours on the preceding night?

Mrs. Merritt has not definitely decided which one of her many interests she will engage in first except that for several months she will spend much time riding horseback with the wind blowing through her hair.

But in whatever field she may choose, let her always remember that the president and faculty and students of LaVerne College are wishing her unending success and joy.

C. E. HOLDS ANNUAL WHITTIER CONVENTION

The fortieth annual Los Angeles County Friendly Christian Endeavor convention convened in Whittier May 6, 7 and 8. Twentyeight hundred seventy-two registered delegates and many visitors attended this convention where every one had a good time and many decisions were made for Christ. The theme, based upon Gal. 2:20, was "Not I, But Christ."

Several noted speakers, among them Dr. Cortland Myers and Rev. Louis Talbot, spoke during the convention on the convention theme. Harold Cross was the convention music leader and he made it colorful with fine selections and enthusiasm.

Those of LaVerne College who were in attendance are Fred Butterbaugh, Jennie Werkman and Marguerite Pederson.

DR. GILBERT DONATES FOSSILS TO COLLEGE

Dr. Gilbert has given a unique gift to the school in the form of fossil material from the Brea pits.

The gift consists of many specimens representative of a large group of prehistoric animals and is valued highly by the biology department and the administration. A number of the fossils have been used during the past year in connection with Dr. Gilbert's lectures. Such unique illustrations lend peculiar interest to study.

Dr. Gilbert is the rediscoverer of the material in the Brea pits and many of his findings may be seen in the Los Angeles Museum.

STUDENTS FILE NEXT YEAR'S PROGRAM TUES.

Pre-registration was completed yesterday during the chapel hour. The blanks had been issued a week ago so that there would plenty of time for meditation.

Next year's sophomores met with Miss Muir; juniors with Dr. Sarafian, and seniors with President Studebaker. This year's senior's met with themselves as undignified as they pleased.

These programs are not binding for next year as they are merely tentative and may be changed at the beginning of the semester.

There were a few minor changes made in the list of subjects offered including the classification of Bible subjects under the heading of religious education.

God made us with ears on opposite sides of our heads so the prof's words can go straight through without hurting us.

PROF. HOLLENBERG TO RESUME WORK

PROF. HOLLENBERG TO RECEIVE PH.D. DEGREE

Next semester will see the return of Prof. Hollenberg to the LaVerne campus to again take up his work as head of the Department of Biology.

Ever since the close of school last May he has been taking advanced work at Stanford University in preparation to receiving his doctor's degree.

Two summers ago while taking summer work there, he discovered that there had been an error in the accepted idea concerning a certain form of algae. The professor under whom he was studying thought that this was a wonderful discovery sufficient to warrant a doctor's degree. He even asked Prof. Hollenberg if he might use his name in connection with the correct idea in an address which he was to give in London.

Prof. Hollenberg has carried a heavy program at the university in an endeavor to complete his residence requirements for the degree. Last semester he carried nineteen hours of work, which kept him exceedingly busy.

When Prof. Hollenberg returns in the fall, he will not have received his Ph. D. However, he will be a candidate for the degree in December, 1932.

MISS LENHARDT TO END VALUED SERVICE

Within less than three weeks the valued, active service of Miss Lenhardt at LaVerne College will have come to a close.

Miss Lenhardt has taught in the college for three years. She has given unstintedly of time and effort to her work. Teaching the languages which she loved was real joy to her and her enthusiasm continually bubbled over in interesting ways.

Although Miss Lenhardt has not decided exactly as to the near future, she may know that always the college will wish her success and happiness.

Y. M. INSTALLS NEW CABINET FRI. MORNING

The new officers of the Y. M. C. A. were installed Friday morning, May 6, in their regular meeting. Jerry Deal took charge of the installation.

Jerry talked of the duties of each officer after which the new officers took the seats of the old officers. The old officers were: President, Dick Maley; vice-president, Jerry Deal; second vice, Orlin Vaniman; secretary, Ernie Swihart; treasurer, Max Forney. The new officers are: President, Charles Snell; vice-president, John Heiser; second vice-president, Elvin Wilson; secretary, Bill Clinkenbeard; treasurer, Ernie Swihart. They say when John Heiser spoke he was so long-winded Jerry had to ask him to sit down.

Next year LaVerne College is going to be honored by having an exchange student from the University of Honolulu and Bob Walker is going to be in the University of Honolulu. This was brought about by Dick Maley. Dick gave a talk asking each fellow to treat the exchange student just as we would Bob, if he were here. Dick said that Bob's letters to the school would be read in the Y. M. meetings once a month. He said one thing to be stressed was that Bob's letters to the school would not be mixed with the letters to his friend(s).

Y. W. C. A. HAS ANNUAL MOTHER'S BANQUET

The annual Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. was held in Fellowship Hall Thursday, Feb. 5.

Ruth Rothrock served as toastmistress. The program, arranged by Ruth Gregory, was as follows:

Welcome to Mothers—Mary Holinger.

Response—Mrs. John Throne.

Lyric Quartet—"Little Papoose."

Reading—Helen Frantz.

Violin solo—Lavonne Putnam.

"Woman's Life, a Joyride or a Job"—Mrs. Haugh.

Lyric Quartet—"Mother Machree."

Mrs. Haugh, the main speaker, gave a very helpful and inspiring talk upon the relationship between mothers and daughters and presented a picture of the ideal girl as a product of a mother's careful training. She concluded that woman's life, although not devoid of joy-rides and pleasures, is largely a job.

The hall was decorated to carry out the idea of May Day. In the center of the room was a large Maypole and the tables were circled about it. At each table was a miniature Maypole. The whole effect was very beautiful, thanks to the hard work of Evelyn Deardorff, who had charge of the decorations.

There were 136 mothers and daughters present.

DR. GILBERT TO RESUME L.A. WORK

DR. GILBERT ENJOYS YEAR AT LAVERNE

After a successful year as head of the Biology Department of LaVerne College made possible by a leave of absence from the Los Angeles public school system, Dr. Gilbert will return to the city to resume his work there.

Dr. Gilbert says that the year has been a pleasant one. He has enjoyed the opportunity of doing advanced work with advanced students. He has noticed that the discipline problem here is of little consequence and that the students are always eager to make up back work.

An interesting fact, based upon the observation of Dr. Gilbert, is that it is necessary to apply the same method used in high school to the freshman and sophomore years in college when presenting material—discussion rather than lecture.

Dr. Gilbert has taught in the public schools of Los Angeles since 1904, but he feels that he has a personal interest in LaVerne College. Two of his children, Mary and Walter, have attended school here and the high type of training which they have received has appealed to their father.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert have influenced others here by their own lives and deeds, and it is with deep feeling at our loss, and with best wishes for their continued success, that we give them up.

DR. KURTZ OBTAINS NEW FLAG FOR COLLEGE

A beautiful new flag, a gift from John C. Detra, Okla., Pa., and obtained through the influence of Mr. Frantz and Dr. Kurtz, now floats over the college campus.

Immediately following chapel service Tuesday, May 3, the students assembled in front of Founders Hall to participate in the flag-raising ceremony. The old wind-worn and tattered flag, a gift from the class of '25, was lowered with reverence and the new one was raised in its place. Dr. Kurtz then spoke a few words and the ceremony was closed with the salute to the flag by the entire assembly.

This new flag measures 8 x 12 feet and is especially constructed to be sunfast and rainproof. Its donation is greatly appreciated by LaVerne students and faculty.

DR. KURTZ DONATES 300 BOOKS TO LIBRARY

Dr. Kurtz has given almost three hundred volumes to the school library.

These books, which pertain mostly to education, have been used by the students for some time although they belonged to Dr. Kurtz's personal library. Now that he is going east to take the presidency of Bethany Bible School in Chicago, he is leaving the books to LaVerne permanently. The student body is very grateful for this gift.

Here is more about Mrs. Robert Dana Jones.

She was a journalism major at U. S. C. and was graduated from that institution in 1930. During the next year she took more work for which she received her master's degree in June, 1931. During this same year she served as a fellow in journalism.

Miss Hawkins (her maiden name) belonged to both Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi.

It was a glorious moment Tuesday morning when a new flag was given to the school, but that glory grew dim because we did not know how to respect the flag by observing the fine points of flag etiquette.

During the ceremony of raising or lowering the flag, or when the flag is passing in a parade, "all persons present should face the flag, stand at attention and salute." The main difficulty, however, with many Americans, seems to be in not knowing which salute to give. There are several. The right hand salute is only for men in uniform—soldiers, sailors or marines. Any other man should remove his headdress with his right hand and hold it at his right shoulder. If he is not wearing a hat, he should merely stand at attention. A woman should salute by placing her right hand over her heart. If the flag is passing in parade or review, the salute should be rendered at the moment the flag passes.

There are several other points of flag etiquette which are interesting. The flag should only be displayed in fair weather, not during rain or storms. It may be dry cleaned or washed when it becomes soiled if it is handled reverently. It should never be allowed to touch the ground. Nothing may ever be placed above the flag, not even an electric light bulb for illumination—besides, it is not considered proper to display the flag at night. There is one exception to this rule of placing anything above or on the flag—the widow or nearest relative of a United States official may place a wreath on the flag when it covers the casket of her dead.

In connection with the speaking of the death of an official of the United States, it might be interesting to note that he flag should be half-masted or dressed with crepe only when it is appropriate to show that the nation mourns. If a state, club, organization, or society wishes to show that it mourns, it may do so by half-masting or dressing with crepe the flag of the state, club, organization, or society.

It is only by rendering due respect to the flag that people can visibly show their thoughtfulness to

Your flag and my flag,
And oh, how much it holds
Your land and my land
Secure within its folds.
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight—
Sun-kissed and wind-tossed
The red, and blue, and white.
The one flag, the great flag,
The flag for me and you,
Glorified all else beside,
The red, and white, and blue."

SEEN ABOUT SCHOOL

Harold Hylton seems to have introduced a bobby sock fad around school. Everett Stowell has adopted it already. Others may follow.

Ernie Swihart and Ida Kinney have spent many long hours together in Dr. Gilbert's laboratory pasting pressed wild flowers.

Prof. Hoover (uttered 11:35, May 6, 1932): "Does the book say they had ram, lamb, sheep meat or mutton?"

For want of a car, Virginia and Ike occupied Travis' Ford one whole afternoon last week.

Evelyn Deardorff surely has a way with men. Even Doyle Montz did her bidding Thursday afternoon in decorating Fellowship Hall for the Mothers' and Daughters' banquet.

It looks as though Elvin Wilson spends about two more minutes a month keeping the lawn of the dormitory respectable since he's been going with Betty. Evidently he wants to be proud of her domicile.

The Apollo Four is planning to sing at the Anaheim Christian Church next Friday evening. The music will be secular.

The library has acquired some more shelves in an endeavor to provide room for the increasing number of books. These new shelves have provided atmosphere in more ways than one.

"THE UNDISCOVERED COUNTRY"

While climbing the tallest of mountains one day, I stood on my tiptoes and accidentally peaked into heaven. I promptly forgot the mountain, my climb, and even myself, so interested was I in what was going on about me. The scene before me was the essence of beauty—not line, color, and harmony alone, but the indefinable end of beauty itself.

While I tried with my dull mind to ponder all this, I was startled by a voice. I looked quickly over my shoulder and was quite perturbed to see within a stone's throw, Abraham Lincoln and George Washington seated side by side on a log. Before I decently had time to hide the obvious embarrassment which I felt at finding myself an intruder on such an august company, I heard another voice, and this time I did gasp, for, stepping slowly toward my log came Aristotle, lantern in hand. He saluted the other two and dropped wearily on the log.

Aristotle: "My friends, I fear I have made the greatest of mortal errors."

Washington: "Oh, come now, Art, from what I have been able to gather, your vacation on the earth was quite a success. Really, old chap, when you started the age of science you started something."

Aristotle: "Yes, I know; but they are carrying it too far. Frankly, George, this fellow Einstein has me worried. Four score and seven years ago the aim of science was to understand the laws of God; now it seems to be trying not only to understand His laws but to strip Him of His eternal power."

Aristotle: "You are right, and to think I started all this. Why, they are attempting to conquer death itself. What fools men are. Don't they know that the real life is eternal life? Do they want to robe themselves of eternity?"

Washington: "I have an idea. If we could get some mortal to write just the right kind of a play, maybe we could get the idea across."

Lincoln: "I agree. But who can we get? This can't be an ordinary play. It must grip the imagination as no play has ever done before."

Gabriel (enter blowing trumpet): "Fellows, I just couldn't help but overhear your conversation, and it just occurred to me that Anthony Meryn is the right man for the job of writing the greatest drama of the century"

Aristotle: "Never heard of him."

Gabriel: "That's all right. He's wonderful, just take my word for it. Now if you'll pardon me, I'll slip down to earth and put the idea into his head."

Abraham: "Fine, and be sure and give him all of my understanding of human nature."

Exit Gabriel (banishing trumpet).

Washington (rising and stretching himself): "I feel better."

Aristotle: "Maybe you don't think I don't. I feel like a great load is off my mind."

Gabriel (from afar): "It's done. He is going to call it 'The Undiscovered Country.'"

SPASMS

"Torch-Bearers," as produced at Padua Hills did not fill the public desires by a long shot. As a whole this sure fire comedy failed to click along at its usual speed; in fact, several flat tires were entirely too obvious. Fortunately the play closed by schedule.

—O—

For something different, I listened to a sermon recently. The minister happened to be talking about the success of those who having found a purpose in life exert every effort to accomplish it. The great difficulty in most of our cases is that we are not able to decide which one of our talents we wish to pursue.

—O—

The theory is advanced by some one in an article, whether or not we should make our children commonplace; that if they are just average they will never be unhappy. The writer also points out that they will never be very happy either. Individual experience will alone prove the advisability of great happiness and unhappiness, which after all are degrees of the same emotion. The prospect of a monotone emotional existence, with no highlights of pleasure or pain, is as safe as three per cent interest, but not very alluring.

Ten thousand dollars was the price paid in one form or other for failures, conditions, and incompletes last semester at the College of the Puget Sound, according to the registrar.

JOAN BLAIR TO BE FEATURED AT PASADENA

Joan Blair, New York actress, now in Hollywood, will be featured with Victor Jory and Jean Inness in the production of what is said to be a new type of mystery play, "A Murder Has Been Arranged," by Emlyn Williams, at the Pasadena Community Playhouse from May 12 to 21.

Miss Blair played the feminine lead in the New York production of "Torch Song" among numerous roles.

The cast includes Susanne Leach, English actress, seen recently in "Rope's End" at the Vine Street in Hollywood and in pictures; Frankie Mack and Eleanor Vogel, known for years as a black face team in vaudeville and now in pictures; David Phillip Dare, formerly of the dramatics society of Oxford, England; Frederick Stover, dramatics director of Stanford University; Sharley Simpson, Playhouse favorite, Jack Rea, who played the lieutenant in "Censored," and Helen Kent.

The action of the play takes place on the stage of a haunted theatre. It is a ghost story with no detectives, clues, shots in the dark, clutching hands or screams.

Two co-eds at the University of Idaho are students of Icelandic. One of them plans to study the country's interior decorating there.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET IS DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Formality (of a sort), surprises, delightful experiences, and uniqueness may best be used to describe the annual Junior-Senior banquet held last night at the Elite, in Los Angeles.

Charles Snell, as toastmaster, entertained the students according to the rules. Elvin Wilson welcomed the Seniors and the Faculty, and Orlin Vaniman replied. Edith Eisan sang two songs, accompanied by Ralph Travis. Other musical numbers included a vocal solo by Vernon Heckman, a piano solo by Ralph Travis, and songs by the trio—Anna and Florence Messamer and Vera Mae Shafford. President Studebaker gave the talk of the evening which proved to be the embodiment of his wittiness. When he wasn't pulling jokes, he was giving out free advertisements—especially to the four fellows who took great delight in tagging.

But, of course, what every one is really interested in is the various gowns that were worn by the women students. All were charmingly dressed, so only a few words of comment about some of the gowns need be mentioned.

Ruth Gregory was very attractive in a frock of turquoise with a peeping ruffle here and there. Her wrap was of a contrasting shade of velvet. Opal Kuns wore a dark off shade of green with a cowl neck, and crystals as her jewels. Eleanor Shepp was becomingly dressed in a lavender crepe gown which contrasted very delightfully with her orange-lined evening wrap. Esther Thomason wore a peach gown with white accessories.

Frances Sandblom wore a blue gown made in a charming French manner with adorable ruffles, off-the-shoulder sleeves. Anna Messamer was charmingly delightful in a pink frock made with tiny puff sleeves and tied with a pert sash. Fred Brunk was her escort. Florence Messamer, her sister, was gracefully gowned in blue crepe with a flippant bustle effect.

Mary Hollinger was delightful in a black chiffon dress with a black velvet wrap. Arnelia Brubaker wore peach taffeta with net inserts. Grace Ward was attractively dressed in a figured chiffon. Blanche Klingaman was charming in her ensemble of a white satin gown and a black velvet wrap.

Mrs. Studebaker was very well gowned in a frock of tan with a bit of lace at the neck. Mrs. Glick was her own natural self in a pink georgette and a black wrap. Hester Cox wore a yellow lace gown, while Charlotte Shafford was adorned with a very "Frenchy" looking dress of pink lace and a blue belt. Vera Mae Shafford wore a light green formal which looked very attractive.

Vera Mae Shafford and Edith Flory spent the week-end at their homes in Pasadena.

ORCHESTRA HAS PARTY AFTER FINAL CONCERT

Immediately following the orchestra concert Wednesday night a party was given in Fellowship Hall for the members.

Entertainment consisted of such mirth-making games as "swat-aswat can," "musical pen" (you should have heard Kenny tell Dan he didn't know how to spell), and "barnyard." For this game, Rulin received the prize, unanimously awarded by the judges, for imitating a chicken and, oh, Rulin, how could you! After the games, partners were chosen and refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, ice cream, wafers, punch, and mints were served. At a late hour the orchestra members departed still giggling and with tummies and pockets bulging. For the bounteousness of the refreshments, thanks go to Mr. Simpson, who gave the food to the orchestra in appreciation of the concert.

Y. W. C. A. HAS TEA PARTY FRIDAY MORNING

"Little Sisters" evidently wandered astray this year because next year "Big Sister" will keep an eye on "Little Sister" during the entire year. Such was the announcement made by the Y. W. C. A. president, Mary Hollinger, at a prettily appointed tea in the Y. W. rooms last Friday morning.

The special entertainment numbers were a medley of popular songs, played by Miss Zelda Sheler; songs by the Lyric Quartet; "Mother Machree," sung by Miss Edith Flory, and group singing led by Florence Messamer and Edith Flory.

Sandwiches, nabiscos and tea were served by the hostesses, Helen Heisey and Edna Samson.

FROSH GIVE JUNIORS TREASURE HUNT MAY 9

Friday evening, May 6, the Freshmen entertained the Juniors at a treasure hunt which started at the college and ended at San Dimas park.

Mary Emmert and Alice Strate announced themselves the winners since they arrived at the park first and found the last card, but it took Cleo Beery to really find the treasure, which proved to be a box of chocolate suckers.

The treasure hunt then turned into a weiner bake. Hot chocolate and marshmallows were also served. Chuck Snell established a new record which he challenges any one to try to break. He ate five marshmallows all at once. By the time the fifth one was in his mouth he couldn't even move his jaws.

After the eats everyone gathered around the fireplace for group singing and a little impromptu program arranged by Harold Hylton. With the singing of Alma Mater the fatigued freshmen and jaded Juniors started home.

Joyce Deitz, Harold Hylton and Bernie Brubaker helped Helen Heisey who planned this most entertaining and successful party.

CHI DELTA CHI TO HAVE DINNER MAY 16

Chi Delta Chi is furthering plans for a progressive dinner on May 16 to round out the affairs of the year. This is to be a purely social affair.

Misses Mary Hollinger, Kathryn Blickenstaff and Evelyn Wine have furnished clever ideas regarding the motifs and menu. This committee, with the combined group members will work hard to guarantee a worth while affair for the satisfaction of each individual.

Chi Delta Chi members will reply to the secretary, Opal Kuns, of their absence or attendance by May 12, so that all arrangements can be nicely finished.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET HAS PARTY IN MOUNTAINS

Last Friday evening, members of the outgoing Y. W. C. A. cabinet, their boy friends, and the guests of their advisors, Mrs. Glick and Mrs. Brandt, were found at Ye Olde Faculty Cabin in San Dimas canyon.

After a marvelous supper of the usual "picnicky eats," every one journeyed down to the stream to wash his own dish and silver before he could have any ice cream and cake. Supper over, games to suit each individual whim were enjoyed. Esther and Chuck could be found off in a corner supposedly grappling with the problems of sinking battleships and Mary and Howard busied themselves in that novel pastime of washing dishes. Others played ping pong and bridge, and some one—it must have been one of the boy friends—provided great meriment by falling in the stream.

After a most enjoyable evening, Mrs. Glick and Mrs. Brandt were acclaimed perfect hostesses and the girls could not help but have a feeling of regret when the farewells were said.

Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Glick and Mr. and Mrs. Brandt were LaVonne Putnam, Esther Thomason, Blanche Klingaman, Elizabeth Lehman, Francis Nix, Virginia Scarisbrick, Ruth Gregory, Mary Throne, Whitcomb Overholtzer, Chuck Manning, Onie Leonard, Kenny Brownberger, Wilbur Jones, Bob Welty, Ronald Besey and Howard Pederson.

MIRIAM MURRAY GIVEN SURPRISE PARTY

Miss Miriam Murray was pleasantly surprised Sunday evening, May 8, when a group of her friends gathered at the home of Miss Edna Phillips to celebrate the birthday of Miss Murray.

Congeniality replaced the customary games with the Misses Hazel Rothrock and Vera Hoover acting as hostesses. The group, however, devoted some time to music, after which simple refreshments were served.

Those present, besides the honoree and hostesses, were the Misses Rothrock, Rensberger, Marie Pobst, Mary Ellen Lauver, Verna Cooney, LaVira Rothrock and Mrs. Edna Phillips and Messrs. Fred Brunk, Ira Metzger, Claude Rupel and Everett Myer.

W. A. A. HAS ANNUAL BANQUET MONDAY

The first annual W. A. A. banquet was held Monday night, May 9, at the Crystal Cafeteria in Pomona. The cafeteria was decorated with hockey sticks, basket balls and balloons which were the source of much meriment throughout the evening.

A program, announced by Toastmistress Frances Nix, was given in which Gladys Yoder, Edith Coffman, and the Lyric Quartette participated.

In a word of farewell, Mrs. Merritt, who will not return to LaVerne next year, pleaded with the girls to learn how to play. She stressed the idea that if people learned the spirit of real play while they were young, old age would be a long time overtaking them.

Mrs. Merritt announced the all-star hockey team as follows: Gregory, Pence, Coffman, Butner, Shepp, Nix, Ward, Rothrock, Scarisbrick, Roberts and Isabelle Sheller.

At the meeting it was decided that the standard W. A. A. sweater should be of LaVerne orange and the letters should be LaVerne orange on a LaVerne green background. Mrs. Merritt announced the girls who have won awards this year as follows: Shepp, Kuns, Roberts, Ward, Eisan, Blickenstaff, Buttner, and Coffman.

SPORT GO

by ELNA

It seems, in spite of everything, that baseball and track are finished and that spring practice will "get going" at last.

LaVerne's last two baseball games with Pomona furnished thrills for everyone and at least one thing is settled in my mind.

For, after watching one of our batters get up and then rub his hands in the dirt, tie his shoes, pull up his socks, pull down his cap, and pull up his pants, I finally found out he was n't in danger of losing his suit but merely giving a bunting signal.

The day before the first game I heard Hobbs say he couldn't get a hit this year, and then he went out and hit the homer that brought in the two runs that gave us the lead and the win.

Frank says he wasn't nervous with the bases loaded and none away in the last of the ninth. But he missed some classes the next day and they said he had nightmares all night.

I started to keep a record of who made thru. A hits in the second game, but after the seventh, when Peewee, then Bessey, and then Crites got them, I lost count. It got so bad that even "Fuzz" Merritt began yelling for everyone to hit.

Roy got to second twice and then sat on the base to get a rest. The second time he had to 'cause they yelled "slide" and he was too tired to get up.

Couldn't pull the Santa Barbara meet out of the fire, but it was mighty close all the way.

"Chuck" Manning took first in 220 and 440 races and said 10 points entitles him to a "blick," which represents plenty of hard work this season.

We're not "belittling," but marriage slowed Bert down to the extent of second in low and high hurdles and third in the 10 yard.

Peewee was so afraid that the hammer was going to throw Brooks away that he didn't think he'd find him before the 2 mile race started. But things went per schedule and Peewee took a second.

Max came thru with his best throws of the season with the shot and discus to take first, and then took second in the hammer, and it was the first time he ever threw it.

LaVerne had a swimming meet last week with Chaffey J. C. and high school and did mighty well, Bert Jones scoring the majority of the points.

Kenny Brownsberger took first in the diving, which is very much worth mentioning.

Well, as I said before, it's adieu to all this and now football. Personally I doubt if there's enough time left to tire them out. They're in pretty bad condition—think of the mental strain of spring fever combined with the coming finals.

LEOPARD NINE WINS OVER SAGEHENS 13-6

Last Thursday afternoon the Leopards and Sagehens played their last baseball game of this season on the LaVerne field. From a very close game in the first five innings, it turned into a batting spree for LaVerne, when they collected 11 runs in the last four innings. The team has improved a great deal and the outlook for a team next year is good. "Peewee" at catcher is the mainstay of the team as he fills that position in a brilliant manner. It seems that several pitchers have been developed this year also. Elder filled the position last Thursday, and he struck out seven men. Frank Saylor, who has done most of the pitching this season, is also developing into a good pitcher and can be counted on to be doing his part next year. Calvert at first has developed into one of the most valuable players on the team. He snagged some almost impossible pegs to first last Thursday, also he collected a home run and three base hits beside. Montgomery at second is a natural ball player and he helps the infield a great deal.

Carter at shortstop plays a brilliant game at that position and works with Montgomery at second in a fine manner. Wilkerson also makes a good fielder, and Crites filling the position at center field also does his share in the outfield work.

Adams and Bessey will be the only men lost from the team next year, and although the have been valuable men on the team, there should be enough material to choose from to make a well rounded team for the following year.

In Thursday's game Montgomery, the first man up for LaVerne, was able to make three runs, although he only got one hit. Carter collected one hit and also one run. Calvert's home run was made in the second inning. He also made another run in the seventh inning.

In the fifth inning Bessey and Adams each got a run while in the sixth, Montgomery, Crites and Lathrop each collected a run. The next inning was about the same with Montgomery, Carter, Crites and Calvert making runs, and in the last inning Adams and Wilkerson made the circuit of the bases.

The team deserves a great deal of praise for their faithfulness in prac-

ROADRUNNERS DEFEAT LEOPARDS IN DUAL MEET

The Leopard track squad led by Bert Jones, their captain, went to Santa Barbara last Saturday, where their last meet of the season was held. The meet was evenly matched until the javelin, in which Santa Barbara took all three places to put them ahead with a lead that LaVerne could not overcome.

Max Forney took the high point honors for LaVerne, taking first in the discus, first in the shot, and second in the hammer throw, it being the first time he had ever thrown a hammer. Chuck Manning, the Leopards' star 440 and 220 man, easily winning these two races and running a lap on the winning relay team, took second high point honors with 11 1/4 points. Bert Jones made 8 1/4 points, taking second in the low hurdles, second in the high hurdles, and third in the 100 yard dash. He also ran the first lap in the relay. Bert fell over the first hurdle in the high hurdle race but he was able to finish second.

The big surprise of the meet was "Peewee" Lathrop who entered the two mile and finished second. It was a real treat to see Peewee trot off those two miles. The rest of the team was afraid Peewee "would" play out when, after gaining one whole lap on one of Santa Barbara's men, he started to beat him to the finish. Kelley also entered the two mile and took third.

"Red" Montgomery ran a nice race in the 100 yard dash to finish second; he also took third in the 220 yard dash and second in the broad jump. "Kenny" Brownsberger took

EISAN AND LATHROP TO PROMOTE BOUTS

Local fistic fans will be given a demonstration of the amateur art of self defense, if plans by Promoters Eisan and Lathrop are completed. The C street arena will be roped off for elimination and final bouts some time during this next week.

This tournament was greeted with great enthusiasm by the boys down on Cauliflower boulevard. Intensive training by the aspiring Tunneys has been going on all semester under the eagle eye of Trainer Peewee Lathrop. Lathrop reports the boys are on razor edge, trained down to a fine fighting fettle.

There will probably be three weight classes: below 140; 140 to 165, and above 165. All unattached pork and beaners interested in getting a bout see Lee Eisan.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT CREATES INTEREST

The tennis tournament that various fellows around the college have been playing in has created a great deal of enthusiasm, and a good tennis team should be developed next year if the fellows will practice.

Two groups were appointed by Coach Eisan to play. In this first group, Howell, Crites, Nordstrum, Weybright, Walker, Gnagy, Wilson Miller, and Replogle were chosen. Wilson won out in this group.

In the second group, Butterbaugh, Dickey, Clinkenbeard, Kelly, Harshbarger, Rothrock, Calvert, Saylor, Frantz, Renke, Hylton and Snell were chosen. Calvert and Snell were able to come out in the lead and they will play of their match some time this week. Then the winners of the other group and of this second group will play off for the final winner. A can of new tennis balls will be given to the winner.

Come on, all you tennis players, and let's have a team next year that will be able to take some matches in the conference.

Inauguration of a waiters' training school was organized at Ohio State and diplomas will be awarded when students acquire sufficient agility in manipulating dishes and trays to insure the safety of the diners.

second in the 440, third in the low hurdles, and ran a lap in the relay.

The first half of the meet Santa Barbara collected most of the first places, with LaVerne taking the seconds and thirds, then the Leopards were able to collect nearly enough points to even the meet when they were shut out in the javelin.

In the mile Holl took second and Stern took third. In the half mile Holl took first and Stern took third. Stern made a wonderful attempt to place second, but just failed to pass the Roadrunners' man after he had come from away behind.

The Leopards missed Calvert, who, having an injured side, was unable to compete. Noll also failed to make the trip, and he would have been sure of a second place in the shot.
