Clarion Four Give Home Concert

JUNIOR CLARIONS APPEAR IN THREE NUMBERS

Home-coming Night for the Clarion Four was last Thursday night. The church was packed. Even the seats in the choir were occupied and still some had to stand. This shows what a glorious welcome they received from the folks who know them best and appreciate them most. They belong to LaVerne College and we are glad and proud they do.

Every minute of the program was enjoyed. People sat in appreciative silence while their voices filled the church with wonderful, harmonious melody.

Welcome home, Clarion Four!

The program was as follows:

Pastor Rothrock announced the Clarion Four and offered the invocation.

Wayne Bohn introduced the members of the quartette, making witty remarks about each one, then Urbin Hartman introduced Wayne Bohn with an equally witty remark.

Songs were sung in the following order: "Men of America," "Lassie of Mine," Urbin sang a solo, "I Hear You Calling Me," accompanied by Beulah Smith. A group of negro spirituals was next, "Sweet Chariot," "Ain't It a Shame?" and "When I Think How They Crucified My Lord." Following this the Junior Clarions made their appearance, introduced themselves, and gave three numbers which were loudly applauded.

The Clarion Four again made their entrance, singing "Moonlight on the Lake," "Bells of Shandon," "Mulligan Musketeers," and "The Green Grass Grew All 'Round."

"Happy" Brubaker sang two different solos, giving two different views of life, "Invictus," and "Face to Face."

Then followed another group of songs by the quartette, "The Drum," "Eight Bells," "What Did He Do?" "Press Toward the Mark," "I Want My Life to Tell for Jesus," and "Jesus Satisfies Me."

An offering was taken to help the Clarion Four pay their expenses and the program was concluded with "Praise, All Ye People."

Casford Concert Co. in Lyceum Number

The Casford Concert Company, musical entertainers, gave the first number on the Lyceum Entertainment course Wednesday, October 12. The company was composed of Fern Casford, pianist and reader, and also manager of the company; her sister, Winifred Casford, violinist, and Miss Byrne Smith, harpist.

They played several trio numbers with the harp, violin and piano besides solo numbers on the harp and violin. The readings by Miss Fern Casford were especially interesting. She gave a selection from "The Mason Family," by Bess Streeter Aldrich, and also told the beautiful story of "Humoresque." They closed the program with a costume number. Dressed as dainty colonial maids, Miss Byrne Smith and Winnifred Casford played the stately Minuet in G by Beethoven while Miss Fern Casford gave the reading, "Long Ago."

Soph: "It's all over the school."
Frosh: "What?"
Soph: "Why, the roof, of course."

Professor Nininger Addresses Students

Professor H. H. Nininger, who is professor of biology at McPherson College and who is on a biological tour across the states, spoke to the student body in chapel on Tuesday morning. His theme is summed up in the following poem, with which he closed his address:

New times demand new measures and new men,
The world advances and in turn out-grows
The laws which in our fathers' days were best.
And doubtless after us some better schemes
Will be shaped up by better men than we,
Made wiser by the steady growth of truth.
The time is ripe and rotten ripe for change.
Then let it come, I have no fear of what
Is called for by the instinct of mankind,
Nor think I that God's world will fall apart
Because we tear a parchment, more or less.
Truth is eternal and her changing effluence ever fitted to the hour.

Traveling Class Visits Quarry Canyon

On Monday, October 10, Professor Hollenberg's class and Professor Nininger's Traveling Natural History class from McPherson College went to Quarry Canyon to view fossil remains of prehistoric life. Many specimens of fish, leaves and seaweed were found. The formation of the rock was also noticed. The zoology class took special interest in a few snakes and lizards that ran across their path. Professor Nininger's class took considerable note of the various trees and other plants adapted only to California foothills and canyons.

Although the weather was warm, everyone seemed to have had an enjoyable and worth while trip. The zoology class considered it a great privilege to spend a few hours under the direction of such an eminent biologist as Professor Nininger.

SENIOR CLASS ADDS NEW MEMBER

Then Senior Class now numbers one more for they have as an addition to their ranks Leota Witmer. Miss Witmer is now living in Pomona. She comes to LaVerne as a student from the State University of Iowa, Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, and Northwestern University. As a student from so many different schools of prominence, Miss Witmer will no doubt be able to contribute much to the student life of the school this year, both in class and extra-curricular activities. The student body is proud to claim her as one of their number.

"What? Late again?" said the teacher, as a wise senior glided to his seat. "Have you ever done anything on time?"

Senior: "I bought a car."

Two Scotchmen wrote a musical comedy. It called for one of the choruses to come out dressed in kilts and throw pennies into the audience. The name of the play was "The Miracle."

LaVerne Registers Minors

Registration of all minors in the state of California is required by a state law.

The registration of minors in LaVerne is under the direction of Prof. R. R. Cullen. His assistants are the Practice Teachers' class and the Spanish class of the College.

Members of the practice Teachers' class organized and visited each house in LaVerne proper, each student being assigned his portion of a street in which to work.

The Spanish class organized in groups of twos and threes and visited their assigned districts in the Mexican section of the city, each being given a square block to canvass. This class had a little more difficulty in homes where no English was understood, but some of the Mexicans helped them.

All under eighteen come in the list of minors, and a record of their schooling, or lack of schooling, is kept. This census has been nearly completed by the students.

Religious Education Convenes in Los A.

The Council of Religious Education for Southern California held its annual convention in the city last week. On Wednesday night, October 12, at 6:00 o'clock, a banquet was given for the college people. Among the thirteen who represented LaVerne there were the Misses Reatha Rensberger and Mary Messamer, Ailene Rothrock, Pastor Rothrock, Dr. and Mrs. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Frantz, the members of the Clarion Four, and President Studebaker.

In the program that was planned each school gave a stunt. C. C. C. won the ten cent prize for having the best number.

LaVerne was represented in the musical service by a quartette from the Clarions.

C. C. C. gave a xylophone number. Occidental, a vocal solo.

Pomona, a vocal solo.

U. C. L. A. gave several popular duets on guitar and mandolin.

Whittier presented a harmonica stunt.

The general secretary of the council, Dr. E. MacGill, gave a lecture on "Spiritualizing Education." Another speaker of the evening was Dr. Woellner from the Education Department of U. C. L. A., whose topic was "Religious Education."

It is reported that the talks proved very interesting and that those who were in attendance returned with much enthusiasm.

Associated Moustache Growers Hold Banquet

The annual banquet for the Associated Moustache Growers of LaVerne College was held Friday evening, October 34th, at 7:65 P. X, at the Hartman Tonsorial parlors on South D street. A sumptuous repast consisting of boiled turnips, spaghetti and apple sauce was served in an efficient manner by members of the Barber's Union. The incoming president, Russell Frantz, was presented with a souvenir moustache cup, while the retiring president, Avery Dunning, received a gilt-edged razor and accessories.

Professor Griffing gave the main speech of the evening, telling of some of his hair-raising experiences in China on account of the profuse growth on the upper labial surface of his face. Results were compared by the different members and talks were given telling of tested methods by which best results might be obtained. Plans for an exhibit at the World Fair in 1977 were made.

This is an exclusive association, membership being confined to Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors only. Outstanding members are Wayne Bohn, Russell Frantz, Avery Dunning, Merlin Yoder, Carl Rupert, Webster Albright, Merle Butterbaugh and Drs. Hoover and Emmert. The latter two are honorary members.

L. V. C Students Give Radio Program

One of the best programs given so far this year was the one given Friday evening, October 14, by the L. V. C. students over Radio Station KNX. The announcer was Lorrell Weiss. Some of the numbers were given by the "Campus Wonders," Clarion Four, Girls' Trio, Harvey Brubaker and Emerson Button. A demonstration of yelling was given, also the Alma Mater was sung. A piano solo by Mildred Seymour was another feature of the program. Harold Hoff gave an appropriate reading and the program was fittingly concluded by a number from the Clarion Four.

GREEK STUDENT HONORS LA VERNE

LaVerne is honored by a Greek student, Alexander Melledes, who arrived here Wednesday evening, Oct. 14. He is a graduate of '26 in the Anatolia College, Salonica, Greece. There, he was very highly distinguished as an honor student and was prominent in the Anatolia Club, which is similar to our literary clubs. As an athlete he took a leading part as a track man, as a soccer player and in water polo. He has been working with the Y. M. C. A. during the past year at Athens.

LaVerne heartily welcomes Mr. Melledes as a member of the student body, and wishes him all success during his college career.

Urbin Hartman: Will you have anything on your face when I'm finished?

Howard Frantz: Well, it doesn't seem likely.

Ellen Edmister: I'll be yours on one condition.

Jay Fyock: Easy! I entered college on six.

A man's actions form a good picture book of his creed.

There is power in enthusiasm.

Senor Aldino Castro Speaks to Spanish Class

Thursday, October 13, the advanced Spanish Class was highly entertained by Senor Aldino Castro, recently from Mexico. He had come up to the College to talk with Professor Sarafian, and was urged by the class to take up the class period telling of Mexico and his experiences there. As Senor Castro is unable to speak English, all conversation was carried on in Spanish. He is from Guadalajara, the capital of Calisco, a very rich farming district with many stock ranches and orchards. There is some manufacturing done in the city also. The political conditions are still critical. Mr. Castro does not seem to be in favor of President Calles' policies. Although he is not a revolutionist in action, he is one in spirit. He has come to the United States to study our language and become acquainted with our system of government.

On being asked his opinion of California he replied that California was the heart of the world and that he was very favorably impressed by her industry, agriculture and beautiful parks.

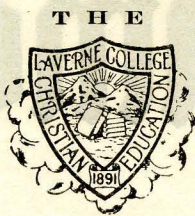

How many times have you heard this one? "Really, I haven't anything to wear."

COACHING COACHES

The importance of our coaches is brought to us very forcibly once we stop to think about the subject. They are the directing forces in our school life, expressed in athletic energy. A coach can, sooner than any other person, ruin or make a school. They are looked upon as the leaders.

Through observation of coaches the writer would say that the greatest of coaches are those who work for more than their salaries. (And, in fact, the greatest in any line may be measured in this way.) They must love the game they are coaching so well that their fingers itch to get hold of the ball. They must know the game as well as love it. They must love the school for which they are working and be able to instill into the players the same love. They must know people and understand the characteristics of those athletes under them. They must have a winning or compelling personality so that the players under them are attracted to them. They must, then, have 1st, a love for the game and the school; 2nd, an understanding of the game and the players, and 3rd, they must have a winning personality.

With these three requisites a coach can direct his school to great things and above all he can give the players a moral backbone which no other person can possibly do.

A coach who has all of these things and can say, "Fight, fight, for your school, because you love your school and because I love the school," is bound to win games no matter whether he has star athletes to work with or not.

While you are thinking on this line, gentle reader, why did little Centre College become one of the greatest football contenders in the East, and how was it that last year LaVerne, with a group of 39 men eligible for the varsity, beat Redlands U with about 200 eligible men? Or, why did LaVerne beat U. C. L. A. a couple of years ago and in the same season swamp Caltech?

If you answer these questions you must say it was the spirit, the fight. Where did it come from—the coach? Anyway, the fellows had it.

DON C. MILLER.

A CONTAGIOUS GRIN

Not long ago I noticed in the decorations of a certain young girl's room an interesting sign at the lower part of her mirror. It read something like this: "Ain't it funny? I look just like you." That sign has a great hidden truth in it. It set me to wondering what the mirrors of life are and what we give them to reflect. The only mirrors in life are the people with whom we associate. If we find our companions reacting to our companionship in a way that shows they are on a higher and better plane of living for having been our friends, we may well feel proud that we are not dead weights in society.

Just a day or two ago this same thought again came to me when a certain young man who is not very popular around school and for whom I entertain a hearty dislike, of which he is conscious, passed me in the hall and with a contagious smile called out such a cheery hello that I beamed back forgetting for the time being my dislike for him. Now this student I have since observed has an "eternal grin." And it's a contagious one, too. He has raised himself mightily in my opinion because he can smile with a real good will at those whom he knows dislike him. I've come to the conclusion he's a real sport. If he keeps it up, he'll soon be the kind LaVerne is proud to own.

Let's have more "eternal grins," more grins that will be contagious. Don't look like you've lost your last friend, even if you have. Never accept defeat, for the very acceptance is a pretty sure sign you won't rise above your defeat, and that is after all the real disgrace. Grin and bear it, and that will help your life's mirrors to do the same. Be courageous and it will make it easier for your mirrors to reflect and radiate cheer and courage, even when everything goes dead wrong.

—ONE OF THE STAFF.

A CALL FOR WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

It has been said that women are standing behind men in athletics. La Verne College has no organized athletics for women. But why should that be? The coach has a very small number of men to choose from in picking his football, basketball and track teams and practically all of them have been letter men in high school. Could not the same thing be done by the women of the women of the College?

If an attempt were made, letter-women in basketball very probably could be found who would be interested in organizing and forming a team. Although they might not be able to compete with other schools, they could at least have inter-class games for the first two years.

In high schools scheduled games for girls are becoming as common as those for boys, and there is no reason why the College cannot keep up the good work.

The feminine personnel of the College may exert its interest and enthusiasm by supporting the men, but aside from the loyalty shown, how else can they be benefitted? It is just as important for women to be in training and have regular practice hours as for the men. A woman's team could be assured that it would be well backed by the men, as it came out upon the floor to fight, for they are already keenly interested in sports.

Why not make the beginning now?
An H. S. Letterwoman.

IMPRESSIONS OF AN "OUTSIDER" ABOUT LA VERNE COLLEGE

By Sam Babcock

Editor's Note: Perhaps the readers of The Campus Times noticed the letter from Sam Babcock to the editor, printed in last week's edition. For this issue Mr. Babcock has written "Impressions of an 'Outsider' About La Verne College."

Mr. Babcock is well acquainted with several of the LaVerne students through his great ability to make friends. He first came to know of La Verne as a representative of the Weber-McCrea Company, cover manufacturers of Los Angeles. He sold his first order of covers to the La Verne College "Orange Blossom" and since that time has been rooting for LaVerne. As Mr. Babcock has been connected in a business way with nearly every college and university in America, and is very quick to gain impressions of the life of the students on their campuses, it would be difficult to find a better judge of school life, and for that reason this article by Mr. Babcock, sales manager of the Weber-McCrea Company, is a very valuable one, especially since he backs his article by his presence at La Verne's football games, instead of going to the games of other schools.

My many friends at LaVerne, during the past four years, have always asked me the question, "Why is it you take such an interest in LaVerne? What is it that you like about our school?"

I am going to try to answer this question finally, Mr. Miller, as best I know how.

The first thing is the lack of fraternities and sororities. May LaVerne never have them. In my travels around various universities in the country, and I have been in most of them, I have found that frats and sororities were the curse of any college.

The second impression is the clean-cut men and women on LaVerne's campus. We find good and bad everywhere, but I can truthfully say that I have yet to find the man and woman at LaVerne not up to the standards set by your institution. I have never seen one act, or heard one word spoken, that would change my opinion. Four years ago I told a couple of your members who have since graduated that my daughter would attend LaVerne. I mean it. This will be many years from now, however.

The third was the brotherly and sisterly feeling. You are like a large family. A school small enough for everybody to know everybody, and faculty and pupils personally acquainted. We all know that knowledge comes better in small classes, rather than one small duck in a large puddle.

The fourth: The Christian atmosphere prevailing there. You live religion, and practice it without hypocrisy.

May LaVerne never give me cause to change my opinion. Perhaps it would surprise you to know that La Verne College has also helped me. While I have never attended your school, my contact with your students has aided me. I will explain it to you some day.

Being a salesman, not a writer, I trust you will forget any errors.

May the spirit of that sterling student, hard-fighting athlete, popular comrade, "Howdy" Hoff, remain with us forever.

Jeweler: "Of course you want the girl's name engraved on the ring?"

Francis Crites: "Surely—but—ah—not too deep."

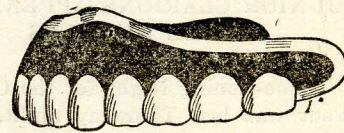

Eoline Johnson: "How do you wish your steak?"

Professor Sarafian: "Very much!"

MARK LEHMER TELLS OF HIS TRANSCONTINENTAL TRIP

Monday, October 10, Mark Lehmer told of his experiences on the transcontinental trip this summer. The full period was given over to Mr. Lehmer's talk, for he said he had enough experiences to furnish subjects for a three or four-days talk.

Mr. Lehmer, with two companions, Don Miller and Zaphon Hartman, started on their eastward trek immediately after school closed last spring. The general route of their trip took them through the southern border states, then north into Indiana, thence east to Virginia, Washington, D. C., New York and Pennsylvania. They came home via the northern route.

They visited all places of note along the way, also the various sister schools of the east. Mr. Lehmer told of all the sights and compared them with the local wonders, as he also did with the school. His presence here now is evidence of the fact that California and LaVerne are still supreme.

Mr. Lehmer used a unique method in presenting his lecture. He used the snapshot pictures taken on the trip, arranged chronologically, as notes, and talked from this pictures. As a result of this talk, many embryonic plans of trips have been laid.

FRIDAY CHAPEL THE SCENE OF A PEPPY RALLY

Chapel period last Friday morning was the lively scene of a peppy rally. Yells of the most "uncultural" sort and songs of piercing peppiness made the rafters ring.

Only such a peppy rally as this can proclaim the loyalty and confidence of the student body in the team.

The two yell leaders inspired even the frosh to rend the air with the dear old L. V. C. yells, and Miriam Shirk as a song leader made Carusos of all present.

Word was received at Miller Hall that Lucile Anderson's uncle, with whom she has been living, died early Sunday morning.

Owen Gibbel spent the week-end in LaVerne.

Ruth Massey spent the week-end in Miller Hall as a guest of Edyth Miller.

Gladys Larimer was Mary Messamer's guest over the week-end in Miller Hall.

Viola Smith entertained at supper Sunday evening Aileen Rothrock, Glenn Rothrock, Horner Eby, and Roland Brownsberger.

On account of poor health, Ellis Colburn has quit school for the remainder of the year.

Some of our college students were present at McFarland at the District Meeting of Northern California. They were Ed Cunningham, Vernon Weybright, Alma Linebaugh, Francis Crites, Glenn Harmon, Kathryn Hanawant, Glenna Betz.

Friday afternoon, Miss Isabelle MacLean entertained at a delightful tea at her home, the Misses Miriam, Olive and Verna Shirk, Florence Long, Alberta Maust, Edyth Miller, Ruth Massey and Ruth Blocher.

Several of the college students enjoyed Sunday at Hemet. They attended the Promotion Day program rendered there by the Sunday School of the Church of the Brethren. After a very inspiring service of songs, recitations, drills and a short illustrated talk by the pastor, a most delicious basket lunch was served. During lunch several talks were given concerning the work of the Sunday School. Those present from LaVerne were Marie Tingle, Neva Snell, Lois Rupert, Crete Heiny, Bertha Fyock, Mary Platt, Ellen Edmister, Avery Dunning, Melvin Rothrock, Jay Fyock, Ivan Edmister and George Swank from McPherson, Kansas.

Merrit Garman and family were dinner guests at Ira Yoder's home on Sunday.

The Girls' "Y" had a very interesting and helpful meeting Monday. Verda Brubaker conducted devotions and the discussion about "Campus Problems" which LaVerne College women are facing. Everyone received many practical ideas. The social life among the students is splendid, which gains for us high respect from other colleges.

WEDDING BELLS FOR FORMER LA VERNE STUDENT

Marguerite Teter and James Corbet embarked on the great matrimonial ship Sunday evening, at 6 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Teter of Pomona. Pastor Rothrock of LaVerne performed the ceremony. The best man was the bride's brother, Glenn Teter. The maid of honor was Miss Corbet, a sister of the bridegroom. Miss Laura Shaver played the wedding march. Miss Ada Teter sang "I Love You Truly."

Some of the people present were Mr. and Mrs. Rothrock, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Teter and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and child, Miss Laura Shaver, Miss Ada Teter, Miss Corbet, an uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Teter.

STUDENTS ENJOY READINGS BY CHILDREN

Mrs. Haugh turned her chapel talk into a surprise for the students. She brought Beatrice Harvey and Tom Francis to speak for her. She had heard them at a speech contest in Pomona, and was so delighted in them that she wanted us to hear them.

Beatrice Harvey read "The Little Outcast's Plea," and "His New Brother."

Tom Francis read "The American Flag" and "The Overworked Elocutionist."

Mrs. Bridey (at 1 a. m.) "Oh, Jake, wake up! I can just feel there's a mouse in the room."

Hubby (drowsily): "Well, feel there's a cat, too, and go to sleep."

"Y" Men Go "Fishing With Worms"

Monday morning all the "Y" men reverted back to their early boyhood days and enjoyed a blissful hour of "fishing with worms" during school hours.

The men gathered in the "Y" room and were led in some snappy songs by Harold Hoff. Dr. Arnett then was "introduced" as the speaker of the occasion. He gave a very interesting and uplifting talk on the subject of "Fishing With Worms." His talk was full of humor, inspiration, sincerity, and original ideas. He based his discussion on the parable of the fish and the worm. Among other things he told of how life must not be one continuous process of digging for worms, nor can it be one continuous process of catching fish. Our lives must be used both in digging and catching, and every service to be done, and everything accomplished by the individual must be preceded by hard digging for "worms," or material with which to perform that certain task.

College in America is not a place for digging only, but is a place where we learn where material may be found, and how to use material after it has been found. In other words, college is a place to learn how to prepare for a life work—"how and where to dig for bait."

These are some of the conclusions that have been drawn by those who heard Dr. Arnett's splendid address Monday morning.

Glenn Vaniman, second vice-president, announced that the regular monthly bean feed will be held in the near future. Last month's feed was postponed, due to various reasons, so all "Y" members are looking forward to a double feed this month.

MRS. GRACE MILLER ENTER- TAINS WITH A SURPRISE PARTY

Thirty-two of the girls were entertained by Mrs. G. Miller at a delightful little surprise party on Wednesday afternoon. Those present were the girls rooming in the dorm, and as additional guests Flossie Page, Lova Eikenberry, Martha Baer and Jessie Longnecker.

After all the girls had arrived they went on a treasure hunt. The treasures were four boxes; in each box was a puzzle. After solving the puzzles they learned that the party was given in honor of five girls having birthdays in September. Those honored were Martha Baer, Jessie Longnecker, Merle Thomason, Olive Throne and Verda Brubaker.

The girls were much surprised. After they had recovered sufficiently the group was served with cake and ice cream. They were then entertained by the Junior Clarion Quartette, much to the delight of all present.

"Y" WOMEN GATHER AROUND CAMP FIRE

The "Y" girls met around the blazing camp fire Monday night, October 10. There are always special treats for those who attend. Everyone was delighted with the talk given the girls by Mrs. Leland Brubaker, who is a returned missionary from China. She gave some very good "pointers" on how college opportunities may be used to great success by having before one an ideal for which to strive and hold fast to the end.

There is at the best so little that can be done in one short life that it is necessary to make use of every good opportunity which is presented in college.

The song leader introduced the group to some peppy new songs, after which every one of the jolly group was soon busy roasting weiners. Thus ended a unique and interesting meeting.

Sports Snorts

The fact that the Frosh were defeated by Redlands is not discouraging because it was their first game, and the team had to feel itself out. Even then they outplayed their opponents and lost only on a few bad breaks. It looks as if the 1927 conference championship in football would be fought out between U. C. L. A. and Pomona, for they are the only two undefeated teams.

The strong Oxy Tiger was humbled to the tune of 8-0 by the U. C. L. A. Bruin Saturday in a hard game of fumbling. Although rumbling the most, U. C. L. A. won the game.

In all previous years we have made it our one real task of the year to beat

Bull Pups Take 13-6 From Frosh

Although the Redlands Bullpups beat the LaVerne Leopard Kittens by a 13-6 score, it is no evidence of the type of game that the Frosh played. It was only a victory as a matter of technical score for the Bullpups.

The Kittens showed more fight and football in one quarter than the Redlands outfit did in the whole game. A few breaks at critical points gave the Pups the larger score.

The Kittens scored twice and were brought back for offside penalties, and were unable to do it the second time.

The Frosh are preparing some very good men for the varsity for the years to come. The outstanding star of the day was "Pewee" Lathrop. This man in his first football game generated a good contest from the quarterback position and filled the position of a triple threat man. But this outstanding football virtue was that of a defensive player. The writer in all his football experience has seen no one back up the line as did "Pewee" last Friday. This was the consensus of opinion of all the spectators also. Absolutely no ground was gained through the line, for "Pewee" could prophesy as to the whereabouts of a play and dive bareheaded through the line and nail the ball carrier back of the line of scrimmage. Thomason and Hubble were good open field runners, and Captain Weybright showed up as a good line smasher.

The line had all the aspects of a good group of linemen. Miller and Peters at ends; Porter and Feree at tackles; Roynon and McArthur at guards, and Nicolas at center, made up a good line combination. Not a substitution was made in the whole game.

CONFERENCE STANDING

| Team        | W | L | Pct.  |
|-------------|---|---|-------|
| Pomona      | 2 | 0 | 1.000 |
| U. C. L. A. | 2 | 0 | 1.000 |
| Cal Tech    | 2 | 1 | .667  |
| Whittier    | 2 | 1 | .667  |
| San Diego   | 1 | 1 | .500  |
| Occidental  | 0 | 1 | .000  |
| LaVerne     | 0 | 2 | .000  |
| Redlands    | 0 | 3 | .000  |

Redlands. This year we will probably have a harder time than ever. Conclusions can be drawn from the fact that Whittier defeated the Leopards 19-6, while the score with Redlands was only 7-0.

The Leopards play the Redlands Bulldogs Saturday at Redlands, and everyone should go and support their team.

Redlands and LaVerne Meet on Even Basis

ANNUAL GRUDGE GAME TO DECIDE CELLAR POSITION

The Leopards will send a somewhat crippled team against the Bulldogs as a result of injuries in Saturday's game with the Sagehens. Boots, who acquired a badly injured knee, will be out of the Redlands game. Either Kreps, Yoder or Mahoney will take his place in the backfield.

Bohn was knocked "cold" in the Pomona game, but that is to be expected of him. It seems to be a habit. Capt. Lehmer had his jib sail smeared all over his face and will have to spend some time taking care of his anatomy during the game.

But as these men are handicapped by injuries, there are others who are convalescing and will be in better trim than they were Saturday. Betts, Carl, Brownsberger and Hartman will be back in condition to do battle.

The squad are due for all the work-out that they can stand this week in order to enable them to make a "come back" next Saturday, Oct. 22, at Redlands.

The outcome of the LaVerne-Redlands game at the present is in the hands of dopesters and prophets, and as the dopesters have nothing to go on, we will leave it to the prophets.

According to the present conference standing, this game is to decide the conference cellar champs for the football season. The Redlands game is always a hardfought game, with only a small margin between scores.

Redlands has not beaten LaVerne for four years and it would be a bad time to start such a precedent. The decisive beating given the Leopards last Saturday has made them all the more determined to win the next two conference games, especially the game with Redlands. The beating did not give the team an inferiority complex but rather made them more anxious and determined to make good.

But if defeats make a team more determined, Redlands should outclass LaVerne on that point.

Sportorial

LaVerne's present football slump began about two years ago and is not wholly the relapse of a new year.

This is an apparent fact when we consider a few statistics which Coach Arnett has taken the trouble to formulate into an astonishing and hitherto unrealized compilation of facts. The gist of the matter is this: In the last three years, LaVerne has lost by graduation, desertion and tragedy, exactly five and one-fifth times as many football players of varsity caliber as have been secured by entrance.

The elucidated facts are these: Since the football year of 1925, there have been exactly eleven men who have played their last game in an orange and green suit. Since that time there have been but two new recruits that are on the varsity deck this year. The last class to enroll in the college that produced any real material was the group which Chet Shirk, Orville Hollinger, Milton Brownsberger, Ernie Carl, and Orville Brooks now represent.

This means that for two years Coach Arnett has been compelled to build a team from the scanty supply of reserves of previous years who were expected to step into the positions of experienced veteran players. There must always be a goodly bunch of sophomores in suits each year else the graduates will leave the ranks considerably depopulated. That is exactly the case this year. So far, there has been only one sophomore

Leopards Crushed By Pomona Sagehens

The LaVerne Leopards came out of their second conference game with the Pomona Sagehens Saturday completely crushed under a 52-0 score. This is the largest number of points chalked up against a Leopard grid team since the first year of football at LaVerne in 1921.

In the first quarter the LaVerne team looked good, holding the Sagehens for downs once on the ten-yard line and again on the twenty-yard line, but early in the second quarter the Leopards were held for downs on their own 20-yard line and attempted to punt out of danger. The kick was blocked by Miller, Pomona guard, who fell on the ball across the goal line. Another touchdown came in the second quarter when Judy intercepted a pass on the LaVerne 30-yard line and galloped across the goal line.

To start the third quarter the Sagehens began a drive which so completely overwhelmed the Leopards that three touchdowns were scored and in the fourth, three more were put over.

During most of the second half Pomona took to the air. Nearly all the passes were completed and netted substantial yardage. The Leopard aerial attack did not work so well but occasionally a good gain would be made.

Poke Hartman and Merritt were the best ground gainers for the Sagehens. The LaVerne backfield looked good at times but were unable to gain much because of the Pomona line breaking through.

Fumbles were in order all afternoon. First one team would fumble and then the other. One noticeable feature of the game was the poor tackling of the LaVerne team. Time after time the LaVerne line would break through and should have thrown the Sagehen ball packer for a loss, but couldn't seem to hang onto him. Taking everything into consideration, it was a very ragged game.

The lineup:
Pomona 52 LaVerne 0

Mitchell LT M. Brownsberger
Miller LG Hartman
Archbald C Betts
Russell RG Hollinger
Mayes RT Leonard
Notland RE Lehmer
Manildi Q Brooks
Merritt LH Bohn
Williams RH Boots
Hartman F Shirk

Score by quarters:
Pomona 0 14 18 20—52
LaVerne 0 0 0 0—0

Substitutions: LaVerne—Kreps for Bohn, Carl for Leonard, Vaniman for H. Brownsberger, Kurtz for Carl, F. Mahoney for M. Brownsberger, Yoder for Boots, R. Mahoney for Kreps.

For Pomona—Too numerous to mention.

who has made the varsity squad, and there were five regulars who didn't return. Inexperienced men are being called upon to fill in and fight against apparent odds. And so on, ad infinitum.

This is the hope: That this year's scrappy bunch of Leopards may fight their way into the win column in the remaining conference encounters; that next year, with a complete team of ex-frosh who are nearly capable of grabbing every varsity berth, the proverbial tables will be inverted.
