TWO L. V. C. DEBATE TEAMS REACH FINALS

Redlands Team Defeats Two LaVerne Men's Teams in the Finals

"Gift of gab," clever reasoning, and quick wit reigned supreme at the practice debate tournament held at Redlands University December 4 and 5. Thirteen colleges and junior colleges were represented with approximately eighty speakers in all. Twenty-three debates were going on simultaneously on the question, "Resolved, that congress should enact legislation for the central control of industry. (Constitutionality waived.)"

LaVerne College was represented by three men's teams and two women's, all making a very creditable showing. In the men's division, by virtue of winning three debates out of four, two LaVerne teams entered the semi-finals.

Vaniman and Walker drew Redlands and were defeated only after a real battle. Faw and Glick drew a bye for the semi-final round and had to meet Redlands in the finals. This, therefore, proved to be the most interesting debate of the whole tournament, and both Faw and Glick did some very clever debating. However, the judges' decision was for Redlands and they received the cup and medal awards.

In the women's division Virginia Scarisbrick and Helen Heisey chalked up two victories against the two L. A. J. C. teams, while Isabelle Sheller and Virginia Stern defeated the Long Beach J. C. team.

Renke and Replogle, the other men's team, won two victories also and showed fine promise as varsity material.

The LaVerne teams derived a great deal of information and knowledge from the meet and are all keyed up for the conference tournament to be held in February. The tournament was quite a mental endurance test, in that each team debated at least four times and each team had to debate both sides of the question.

Beside the debaters, those attending the tournament were Professor Brubaker and Harry Thomas. Between coaching five teams and judging several debates, Professor Brubaker was a busy man. Harry Thomas acted as chauffeur for the trip.

NEW HYGIENE COURSE IS TO BE OFFERED

A new course in hygiene for women wishing a minor in P. E. was started last Thursday. Mrs. Anderson, who teaches swimming at the Pomona Y., is the instructor.

The class meets every Thursday morning at 9:15 in Mrs. Merritt's room, and all those taking it will receive one hour credit toward graduation. There is a charge of three dollars for all those enrolled.

EXHIBIT BEING SHOWN AT LITTLE THEATRE

An exhibit of unusually stimulating water colors by Harry Johnstone of Pasadena is the current display in the exhibit room and lobby at the Little Theatre in Padua Hills. This one-man show will continue through the month of December.

Mr. Johnstone, architect and artist, has achieved such truth, beauty and variety in his work as is unusual

PEACE CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND CONFERENCE

LaVerne College now has an International Relations Club, the nineteenth to be organized in California and the three-hundredth in the United States under the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The club has received five books on the general subject of Disarmament from the Foundation, among which are "The U. S. and Disarmament," by Benjamin H. Williams and "Disarmament" by Señor de Madariaga. These books will be placed on a special shelf in the library and will be available for student use.

The club sent four delegates to the Pacific Southwest International Relations Clubs Conference at Riverside on December 4 and 5. The principal feature of the conference was a model conference on disarmament, patterned after the coming 1932 Geneva meeting, and conducted by students from approximately fifteen colleges in Southwestern United States and Mexico. Prominent speakers were Herr M. Fischer of Hungary, President von KleinSmid, Chancellor of the Los Angeles University of International Relations, and Miss Amy Hemingway Jones, director of the International Relations Clubs.

LANGUAGE CLUB TO GIVE CHRISTMAS PLAY

"From Our House to Your House," a one-act Christmas play, will be presented in the student body meeting, Dec. 18, by the Modern Language Club.

The play, directed by George Berg, revolves around a young wife, Florence Messamer; a young husband, Harold Hylton; an aunt, Irene Blackerby, and three neighbors, Jay Fyock, Elmo Holl, and John Booth. The usual Christmas scene is presented showing gay packages, but they give their personal comments upon the "two-bit" present "Mrs. So-and-So" gave to "Mrs. This-and-That," and a tragic situation that ends happily.

Besides this play, there are to be musical numbers: quartets, solos, duets and the like by various members of the club. It is also rumored that some famous Spanish entertainers will be present.

STUDENTS ACCEPT AWARD AMENDMENT

The student body meeting last Friday was mainly a business meeting.

Esther Thomason, Commissioner of Welfare, announced that the faculty has agreed to grant a holiday for the students to go to the snow on Thursday, Dec. 10. Everybody is urged to meet at the school at 7:30 o'clock on that morning.

Homer Kreps, Commissioner of Athletics, read the new amendments of awards for women athletes. The amendments were accepted by the student body.

Russell Frantz rendered a saxophone solo, accompanied at the piano by Evelyn Wine.

Education pays. Very few educated people are unwise enough to become educators.

to find in the medium of water colors. To those who appreciate and find their greatest enjoyment in these inspirational qualities of art, this exhibit should prove of great interest.

SNOW DAY TO BE THURSDAY, DEC 9

To Be an Annual Affair if Successful

Holiday! Hooray!! Thursday, Dec. 10, is the big snow party at Big Pines.

Snow day is one of the big events of the year. This is a new thing and will be lots of fun. Meet in front of Founders Hall 7:30 a. m. Thursday morning and there will be cars enough to take the whole student body. There will be a small charge of 50 cents per person for transportation. Each one is to pay his driver. At 12:00, noon, dinner will be served to everyone, somewhere around the main lodge.

Here is a secret; now don't tell anyone: the faculty says if this is successful "snow day" will be an annual holiday, so now it's up to you.

Esther Thomason,
Commissioner of Welfare.

SCANDAL!

Well, we hope there isn't any on or off the campus, but if there is—why not get out the old camera and snap it a few times. 'Course we don't want all scandal—anything that represents, or can be juggled into representing, an interesting slice of the real good old L. V. C. student life will be just wahn — wahn — wahn — wahn-derful. Soon as you get your films developed, shoot us the choice bits and get in on the big GOLD WHOOPEE CONTEST!

Prize? You bet—three big juicy ones:

First prize, $2.50 gold piece.
Second prize, $1.00 in latest style currency.

3rd prize, name engraved on annual free.

Here's the dope:

1. Drop snaps (each person as many as you please) in the snapshot pot in the hall.

2. If you want 'em returned, put your name on the back and if they are not used in the annual, we'll return 'em.

3. The winners of the GOLD WHOOPEE CONTEST will be judged by three disinterested outside the annual staff.

4. No member on the annual staff (or member of his family) is eligible.

5. Choose your own subjects, in any environment—just get some L. V. C. flavor in it.

When do we start snapping? NOW! Snow Day is coming, old girl, old girl, and whatta chance to get a picture of your favorite whattaman with his ears full of snow. We need a Snow Day page in the annual, don't we? I'll say we do.

DR. MILLER DONATES BOOKS TO LIBRARY

New supplies of books have been added to our library. Dr. S. J. Miller recently donated about fifty-five books on literature. In addition to these, approximately one hundred and twenty-five books have been bought and donated, most of these being in the field of Education and Bible.

CHORAL UNION TO PRESENT PROGRAM

The Choral Union will present the following program Tuesday, December 15, at 8 p. m. in the LaVerne Church of the Brethren.

"Bring a Torch" (Gevaert)..

"All Hail the Virgin's Son" (Dickenson).

"The Holly and the Ivy" (Thiman).

"I Saw Three Ships" (Mackinnon).

"God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" (Lefebvre).

"Hallelujah," "Glory to God" from the "Messiah" (Handel).

Solos will be given by Anna Emmert, Edith Flory and Robert Walker, and selections by the Apollos.

Organ number: "Holy Night," (Buck); Pastorale Symphony" (Handel), Ralph Travis.

A group of old Christmas Carol melodies from France and England to modern settings.

This same program will be given on December 17 in the Pomona Church.

CHI DELTA CHI TO GIVE ANNUAL BANQUET

Chi Delta Chi, dramatic society of LaVerne College, will hold its annual banquet at the Padua Hills Little Theater Wednesday evening, Dec. 9.

The banquet is to be given in honor of the six new "bids"—Steward Allen, Evelyn Wine, Constance Horning, Russell Frantz, Max Forney and Johnny Heiser, who will then be full-fledged members of the society.

Jerry Deal will serve as toastmaster and arrangements as to the program are in the hands of George Berg, vice-president and social secretary of Chi Delta Chi.

REV. CLAY SPEAKS ON ECONOMIC PROBLEM

Rev. Russell Clay, pastor of the Florence Avenue Methodist Church in Los Angeles addressed the students and faculty in chapel last Tuesday, Dec. 1.

Rev. Clay said the problem of the age is an economic one. Thousands of people today are hungry and unemployed while the granaries of the nation are bursting with surplus wheat. He lamented that the nation needs amore equitable distribution of food.

He said that obedience is what the people need. Practice what we already know about the Bible, for it is the practice that makes the people realize that they must live today instead of tomorrow. Everyone must strive to live a Christian life and exemplify that aim in everyday pursuits.

FEAST OF NATIONS TO BE SATURDAY

Don't forget the Feast of Nations, to be held Saturday, Dec. 12th, in Fellowship Hall.

According to Ruth Gregory and Johnny Heiser, who have charge of the booths, the plans have all been made and the affair promises to be a complete success.

Come, bring your friends, and help the Y. W. and Y. M. make up the quota required of them by the national organization. We promise you good eats and a good time.

150 ATTEND ANNUAL FOOTBALL BANQUET

Max Forney Elected Captain; Sidney Hunter to Be Senior Manager

Football heroes with memories of the past and present gathered in Fellowship Hall Saturday evening, Dec. 5, to pay honor to the football men of 1931.

Leland "Dutch" Brubaker was the toastmaster of the evening. He made his first great contribution by allowing everyone to eat their meal in peace and enjoy the program afterwards. After various satirical exchanges between the toastmaster and Prof. Ray Cullen, the program was started.

Ben Hepner told how the first football team was organized at LaVerne. Seventeen men turned out in 1921 to make history for L. V. C. They played their first game in the mud against Montebello high school and won by a large score.

Another incident of the first team was a game with Riverside J. C. Ray Root got away for a long run, and only had ten yards more to go for a touchdown, when he stepped in a gopher hole and dropped the ball.

Ben said he couldn't forget Ernie Landis' sixty yard run. Ernie took the ball and ran clear across the field and couldn't get through, so he ran back and still couldn't get thru. He ran sixty yards and it was still second and twenty.

The next on the program was Sir Harry Lauder in the person of "Happy" Brubaker. He sang "Wagging of the Kilt" and "Nanny."

BUILDING FOUNDATIONS SUBJECT OF ADDRESS

"The best buildings and the best men are not builded on material things," was the theme of Thursday's chapel talk given by Rev. Edgar Rothrock.

We must first build our foundation and there is nothing in life for which we can be more thankful, than the stock from which we came. But foundation alone is not enough. A very good comparison was given between the Sea of Galilee, which continually receives and continually gives, and the Dead Sea, which always receives but never gives out anything. Some people can be compared to these seas. Life starts out pure and it is our duty to keep it pure.

AEOLIANS ENTERTAIN ALUMNI OF U. S. C.

Entertaining alumni members of the University of Southern California with such favorite numbers as "Honey, Honey, Honey," and "On the Sea," the Aeolians enjoyed an evening of congeniality, wit and humor at the Y. M. C. A. home-coming banquet in Los Angeles, December 2.

Later the boys attended the stag rally for the Washington-U. S. C. game. Among the prominent men who spoke was Howard Jones, football coach who gave a review of the Notre Dame-U. S. C. game.

Several personages of moviedom contributed to the evening's entertainment. As Ina Claire was the only girl represented, the Aeolians were unable to give any other name to the reporter.

TUNE IN ON THIS

Publication of the Campus Times is supposed to be an activity equal in rank to sports and forensics. Two or three persons, so far this year and in previous years have managed to cut classes and receive F notices so that a paper could be presented to the student body. We have had to go around begging on our knees asking students to write news and hand it in on time. Many times there is not enough news written to fill even a 6 by 8 sized sheet.

Yet, when we have filler articles in the paper that you do not like, and that we do not like, you remark, "Now I think that article is so dumb." There is nothing more irritating to a staff member than to know that this very person refuses to work on the Campus Times. If you would offer to work on the Campus Times and take some of the grief off our shoulders, possibly we could have news and feature articles that you will approve. Perhaps you think we are paid for risking graduation in order to present a paper to your scrutinizing eyes. Perhaps you think we put out a paper each week in order to have our names in it. Why do we spend our time putting out a paper when the rest of you are studying and when we should be doing the same thing? The Lord knows; I don't.

Also, if I had time to keep a notebook of all the waterproof excuses that students can give when asked to do something, I would have valuable material for my future education. No one will take any responsibility, and it is easier to do it yourself.

You "Blaa Blaa" critics, if you are so good let's see you take over the paper and make a perfect sheet out of it. We would like to have your valuable assistance. If you are not willing to help, then forever keep silent.

We want constructive criticism. We want competition for reporting positions. We don't want anyone on the staff who is not willing to co-operate. When we do have spirited competition then we will be able to put out an ideal paper and keep our studies up at the same time.

MY TRIP TO THE ORIENT

By Maurice Shirk

Pekin is our next place of interest, and as it is purely Chinese, there are very few modern buildings. We were met by a customs official who took us right through the custom station without any trouble. This man went with us when buying anything and told us the difference between the imitation and the real thing.

It was very queer to see so many rikishas instead of automobiles. We rode in rikishas practically all the time except when we wanted to go quite far. The drivers would take you all day long for the big price of thirty or forty cents. Each day while we were in Pekin we visited many different places. One day we took cars to the Great Wall, which is about forty miles out from the city. The whole day was taken up in going and coming the eighty miles. This may seem slow to you, but if you could see the roads you wouldn't think so.

We visited the Summer Palace, the Forbidden City, Winter Palace, Coal Hill, Ming Tombs, and many shrines and temples. Each day, each place, we found something different and interesting. Funerals and weddings happened every day. We saw as many as four a day. They parade the streets in gaudy colors, their bands playing American marches. The only difference between a wedding and a funeral is that in one they carry the dead body and in the other they carry a live one.

Meat shops and restaurants are out in the open to flies and dust. We often wondered if the meat we ate came from these open air meat shops.

In Nanking we visited the Sun Yat Sen tomb. This tomb is a beautiful large all cement building with a hundred steps leading up to it. Everyone is very reverent while going through the building in respect to the father of their country.

Shanghai is a place I will never forget. It is a very modern city. At night you can see miles and miles of lights for Shanghai is certainly a night life city. There are about thirty-three thousand foreigners living in the city. Shanghai is not owned by China, but by other nations. Chinese are not allowed to own land or property there. There are a great number of colleges and universities in the outskirts of the city.

We had several Chinese dinners while traveling from place to place which we enjoyed more from curiosity than anything else. These dinners consisted of about thirty to forty courses, including very delicate dishes like spinal column, stuffed arteries, sea slugs, bird's nest soup, shark's fin soup, and many other similar dishes.

After leaving the Orient we did a lot of thinking of those people whom we had visited all summer. They are human and we should think of them as neighbors, not just dumb, ignorant people, as many people believe them to be.

AN APPRECIATION OF A FINE SPIRIT

We do not know what others may think, but we feel that there is a finer, friendlier atmosphere in school this year and less of the "cliquishness" current in other years. Whether or not this has come about through the efforts of the commission, the social aims of the various organizations, or the special co-operation of the leaders of all these organizations, which have made more spontaneous the "hello" spirit, we know not.

But we like it!

Let's keep it going!

REVIEW

"PASSING BROMPTON ROAD"

In one of the brightest comedies of this season, the Pasadena Community Playhouse scored a decided success with the English comedy, "Passing Brompton Road," written by Jevan Brandon-Thomas. Its wealth of clever, snappy lines and seemingly unending series of unexpected novel situations, kept the audience in a state of continual mirth.

The captivating action aroused by the intrigues of Dultitia Sloane centered around that highly nervous, egocentric head of the family who, in attempting to enter society by any possible means, had, after numerous unsuccessful attempts, decided that the only way left was through startling scandal and "front-page stories."

Margaret Clark, a well-known favorite at the Playhouse, gave an admirable characterization of the difficult Dultitia. The meek but ever gratifyin' ghusband, played by Samuel S. Hinds, the adolescent daughter, Veronica, portrayed by Ruth Covell Levison, and George Fielding as Eric Sloane, the collegiate son from Oxford, who settled his affairs by marrying the secretary, Mary Mason. Addison Richards was outstanding in his portrayal of the would-be correspondents and Sharlie Simpson was every bit his equal when she eliminated him as a correspondent and appropriated him as her husband.

STORE MANAGER GETS ON HIS EAR

Students! Do you know that there is a sad, almost tragic happening about to take place within the walls of our institution if you do not act and act quickly?

The student manager is getting agitated, aggravated, exasperated, and even hot and bothered, or in other words, he is getting up that appendage which protrudes from the side of his cerebral sphere, vulgarly referred to as the ear. The reasons for this sudden flurry of righteous indignation.

You know the student store isn't organized on a starvation army plan where its all give and no take. Consequently remuneration secured in any form or manner will be graciously received with an open "till." Also no further bills will be contracted at the student store without the signature of both husband and wife—get wise and get married.

Now, can you blame the student manager for all this sudden flurry and upheaval which is being brought to action. This goes for every student who owes a bill at the store or who is even thinking of starting one. Take heed and act quickly or the student manager might bring things to a tragic ending.

A depression generally does its greatest pressing upon the pocket-book.

AMONG OTHER THINGS

The Frosh, true to their threat, won the interclass basket ball, and they sure looked flashy doing it.

Jones, not to mention Kerr, Elder, Smith, Reed, etc., played "bang-up" games, but Sammy Rothrock "stole the show" and was fighting all the time, besides being high point man.

It would take too much space to mention all the individual stars, but everyone seemed at top form except Cecil Brooks, and from his walk we couldn't tell if he was getting ready to fly or fall down.

In case any one has been wondering why so many women are limping around school, they are learning to play speedball, and learning to kick is crippling them fast.

We missed Frankie Elders, Peewee Lathrop, Maurice Shirk, Ed Ohan- esoin and Bob Welty at the bnquet Saturday night.

Basket ball has started but there isn't anything much doing yet. The exercises of the coach re causing the squad as much trouble s they did the "five horsemen"—Nick and Red take notice!

Red Montgomery and Bert Jones are nursing sore knees. Bert has been going to the doctor at San Ber- nardino—but Bert has compensation and consolation there and doesn't mind a bit.

For those who weren't at the ban- quet we furnish some definitions that were given there:

A lineman—all brawn and no brains.

A backfield man—a lineman with brains knocked out.

A referee—a backfield man gone blind.

Don't know it is wos planned or not, but the coaches' idear and Po- moner were one of the good jokes of the evening.

George Weybright has lots of pos- sibilities when, in the absence of Capt. Elder, he could make such a fine speech.

Noticed that some of the men from the "varsity house stepped out" to the banquet. The only thing we noticed was that they took their food so seri- ously that their ladies didn't rate at all.

Many a man worries more about his falling hair than his failing heart.

CASABA SQUAD HAS GOOD OUTLOOK

With the first practice basket ball game but a week away, Coach Eisan wil put his men thru a stiff practice schedule this week.

Although the entire first team of last year was lost thru graduation, five letter men have returned. Out- standing among the returning letter- men is Chuck Snell, forward, and one of the highest scorers on last year's team. Other returning lettermen are Jerry Deal, Bert Jones, Max Forney, and Maurice Shirk.

Nineteen men reported for the first practice last Thursday. Many of these candidates, however, are inex- periented. There are many promis- ing men from last year's Frosh team, including Swihart, Brooks, Calvert, Montgomery, and Weybright.

Many comments have been heard around town that LaVerne is going to be a weak sister in the casaba sport this year. Now is a good time to get this out of our heads. The en- tire second team from last year is back and this team held its own in practically every game they entered last year, and that's saying a whole lot. The team this year will be es- pecially strong defensively.

The following men have reported for the team:

SPEED BALL TO BE NEW WOMEN'S SPORT

Now that the first women's basket ball season has ended succesfully, the fair co-eds are turning their at- tention to speedball.

If one should look out on Arnett Field on Mondays and Wednesdays, he might think football season had arrived again by the way passes, punts, and drop kicks are seen sail- ing over the turf.

To the majority of the girls, speed- ball is a new game, but they have al- ready high hopes of developing two crack teams. Instead of having four class teams, Mrs. Merritt has decid- ed that by combining the Frosh and Sophs, Juniors and Seniors, two real teams may be developed. The team winning two out of three games in the finals will be declared champions.

Among other things, the W. A. A. is developing into a pep club under the leadership of 'Libbet' as song leader, and "Shepp" as yell leader. It will be seen and heard a 100 per cent strong at the basket ball games this season.

LA VERNE MEN RATED ON CONFERENCE TEAMS

On the first all-conference football team as picked by the Occidental Reporter's staff there was no mention made of any LaVerne men. On the second team, Flynn at guard and Montgomery at quarter are mention- ed. As we know, these two men are both Sophomores and as the competi- tion in the conference this year was very strong, we are lucky to have two men such as these for two more years.

In the honorable mention column, Adams as end, and Brooks and For- ney at halves, were mentioned.

All but one of these men are back next year and much will be expected from them, from our college, and other colleges of the conference.

As to the individuals' playing time in the four conference games with Santa Barbara, Whittier, Redlands and Caltech, Montgomery heads the list with 238 minutes, lacking just two minutes of playing full time. Other men's time is as follows
Flynn, 226 min.; Calvert, 225 min.; Jones, 184 min.; Brooks, 177 min.; Adams, 171 min.; Vaniman, 195 min.; Ferree, 163 min.; Noll, 138 min.; Wil- kerson, 114 min.; Deal, 99; Ander- son, 88; Deeter, 85; Heckman, 93; Lathrop, 102; Forney, 140; Bessey, 79; Brownsberger, 55; Weybright, 50; Swihart, 15; Shirk, 11; Stover, 21.

BOB ORTH TO HOLD BIG ATHLETIC SHOW

Another big show is to be held at Bob Orth's Gym, 260 South Gordon street, Pomona, December 10, at 8:15 p. m. Manager Harry Nichols states he has two extra good acrobatic acts from vaudeville, as well as four fast bouts of boxing and two or three real two weight lifters from L. A. A. C. Paul "Peewee" Lathrop meets a big baker boy from Ontario by the name of Ted Meyers. Mr. Nichols says he has better talent lined up for this show than any previous ones.

FROSH WIN INTER CLASS BASKET BALL

Basket ball season was started out last Tuesday afternoon with the various classes assembling all of their eligible players and having four games in which the Kittens came out in the lead. Letter men were not eli- gible and the Juniors and Seniors had to get anyone who knew what a basket ball was like to play.

The first game was between the Frosh and the Juniors. Although there was much puffing, fouling, and time out, the game was a hot and scrappy one with the Juniors leading until the last five minutes of play, when the Frosh seemed to wake up and begin to sink baskets, winning the game 21 to 13.

Heiser	RF	Albers 2
Howell 4	LF	Harshbarger 5
Wilson 3	C	Hylton
Stern 4	RG	Jones 4
Ebersole	LG	I. Smith

Substitutes: Juniors: Stover 2, Fy- ock. Freshmen: Rothrock 7, White, Butterbaugh, Reed 4, R. Smith.

Second game was between the Sen- iors and Sophomores. As in the other game, there was much fouling, with plenty of time out. Calvert was the high point man in this game with 11 points to his credit. At the end of the first half the score was 10 to 6 with the Sophomores leading. Dur- ing the second half Calvert got hot, as well as Montgomery, and they net- ted up enough points to make the final score 31 to 12 in the Sopomores' favor.

Adams 4	RF	Saylor 3
DeHart 3	LF	Anderson 2
Welty 4	C	Brownsberger

On Wednesday afternoon losers played losers, and winners played winners of the day before. The Sen- iors and Juniors started off the af- ternoon's game in a well matched scramble, with every man shooting high, wide and handsome, and most- ly wide. Welty, the Seniors' center, rang up most of the points, with 12 to his credit. The Juniors were well in the lead at the end of the half with 19 to 11. The last half things seemed to go against the Juniors' ability in hitting the baskets as they only made 4 points to the Seniors' 10. At the start of the game there were only four Juniors on hand, so in order to have a full string, Nord- strom of the Freshmen was put in at center. Dan Stover arrived at the end of the first half, so he was put in to finish the game. The last few moments of the game were exciting, with the Seniors only two points be- hind and trying to tie the game. Time was called, to the relief of the Jun- iors, with the score 23 to 21 in their favor. The line-up:

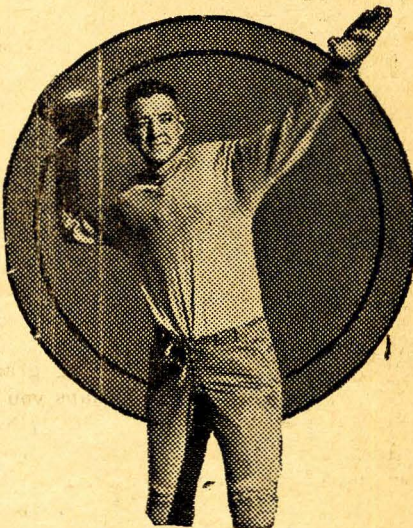

Seniors 21		Juniors 23
Thomas 4	RF	Wilson 9
DeHart 2	LF	Howell 8
Welty 12	C	Nordstrom 2
Adams 3	RG	Stern 4
Gnagy	LG	Ebersole
Substitutes Seniors: Ferree; Juniors, Stover.

The next game between the Frosh and Sophomores proved to be the

MAX FORNEY ELECTED CAPTAIN FOR 1932

Last Saturday evening at the foot- ball banquet the crowd was held in suspense as Coach Eisan arose to an- nounce the next year's football cap- tain. When he said Max Forney, everybody knew that the fellows had made a wise choice in selecting Max to lead them next year. From For- ney's playing on the field we all know that he has the interest of the team and college at heart.

The first time Max was seen around the college was about four weeks after classes had begun three years ago. Max turned out for Frosh foot- ball, having played at Pomona High for two years, and put his whole self into helping put that team of twelve men on the map. Next year as a Sophomore Max again came out for football and made his letter, playing at halfback. This year he again filled this position and did it in such a way that he had honorable mention on the all-conference team chosen by Occi- dental.

During these three years Max was gaining the respect of every man on the squad. His clean playing, good sportsmanship, and willingness to co- operate for the good of the team made the fellows realize that he was the man to lead them next year. Lets get behind Max, and we can be as- sured that he will do his level best.

Coach Eisan also announced the new Senior football manager next year, Sidney Hunter. The managing job is a tough position (ask Homer Kreps) and we can feel assured that the best man for this position has been picked. Sidney has worked up, first as Sophomore manager, and this year as Junior manager. He has al- ways been on hand when needed and he can be counted on to be watching over the equipment and fellows next year.

Dan Mahoney and Frank Saylor were also appointed Junior managers. There is a lot of hard work to this job and we are lucky to have two reli- able men to fill this position.

fastest game of the series. At the end of the first half the score was 14 to 12 in favor of the Frosh. The Frosh, although not having the ex- perience of playing together as the Sophomores had, soon showed them- selves as having a strong team. Rothrock led the men in scoring with nine points to his credit. During the second half the Frosh made eleven points to their opponents 6, winning the game 25 to 18. The line-up:

Sophomores 18		Freshmen 25
Saylor 4	RF	Rothrock 9
Montgomery 1	LF	Elder 3
Calvert 7	C	Kerr 4
Anderson	RG	Albert 3
Weybright 4	LG	Jones 4

VARSITY HOUSE BOYS VISITED BY WIGGINS

Displaying a very hospitable spirit, the boys from the Varsity House on Lincoln avenue received a call from Officer Wiggins last Monday. The Frosh had ditched a few classes that day and gone to the snow above Camp Baldy. Coming home in the afternoon, they brought a large amount of snow.

The boys were enjoying a snow-ball fight on the front lawn, but an intended victim ducked and an unsuspecting motorist received the icy pellet.

The motorist happened to be a health officer and she considered the boys a menace to public safety. She called Officer Wiggins, who in turn called the boys down to meet their accuser. The members of the house had changed their clothes and the motorist was unable to identify her assailant. Officer Wiggins departed with a friendly admonition to be careful in the future.

SENIORS HAVE HARD TIMES PARTY THURS.

"And a hard time" was had by all at the senior class meeting and party held at LaVonne Putnam's home Thursday evening, Dec. 3.

The dignified seniors came dressed in their rags and patches. President and Mrs. Studebaker took the prize for the best (or worst?) costumes.

A few important business matters were taken care of before the fun began. A report was given on caps and gowns and a committee was appointed to take charge of securing them. Two other committees were appointed: one to select a senior play, and the other to make arrangements for the Senior Ditch Day.

Albert Gnagy had charge of the entertainment and the eats. The boys were given newspapers and pins and were told to dress the girls. Miriam Murray, dressed as a bride by Orlin Vaniman, received the first prize. The refreshments were—not toothpicks and water—but beans, gingerbread, coffee and wafers.

As an example to the rest of us, the Seniors want us to know that the party was over and they were home by eleven o'clock.

150 ATTEND FOOTBALL BANQUET

and '25, when LaVerne first entered the conference. Dale was the first captain for L. V. C. after admission to the conference and gave several interesting item of various games. One was a place kick that tied a game. The ball hit one goal post, bounded over to the other, fell onto the crossbar, and then toppled over on the right side. The score was L. V. C. 7, San Diego 7.

The Aeolian Quartet gave two numbers, "Listen to the Lambs" and "Kentucky Babe."

Captain "Hobbs" Adams reviewed the 1931 season and expressed his sincere thanks and appreciation to the squad and coaches and his best wishes for the coming season of 1932.

Captain Frank Elder of the Frosh squad failed to appear, but he was happily supplied by Geo. Weybright, who was sitting in Frank's place. George, although unaccustomed to public speaking, imagined what Frank should have said, and thanked each man on the Frosh squad for his teamwork and loyalty.

Robert Harris and Bill Clinkenbeard played two delightful violin duets, "Festival March," by Mendelssohn, and "My Old Irish Mammy." Doyle Montz sang, "In Luxemburg Gardens" and "No Limit," in which he kissed her in the bathtub—his six months baby girl.

Coach Eisan called on the five graduating seniors and Homer Kreps, to say a few words. He announced the senior manager of 1932 as Sidney Hunter. His next announcement had been the main speculation of the evening, "Who will be captain for next year?" Coach answered the question by announcing Max Forney as captain for '32. Amid cheers and clapping, Max was congratulated and wished the best of luck. Coach Eisan concluded his talk by saying that the outlook for '32 is better than ever. He felt encouraged in every way.

The final gun was the combined Aeolians and Apollos singing "Win the Day," and the entire group singing the Alma Mater.

The 150 persons attending the banquet were all agreed that it was one of the best on record.
