FOREWORD

This 1932 edition of the Lambda is opened by every reader with expectation. May it be closed with satisfaction and approval. May it be opened and re-opened as the years pass and memory dims, that the reader may recall and live again the happiest moments of his student life.

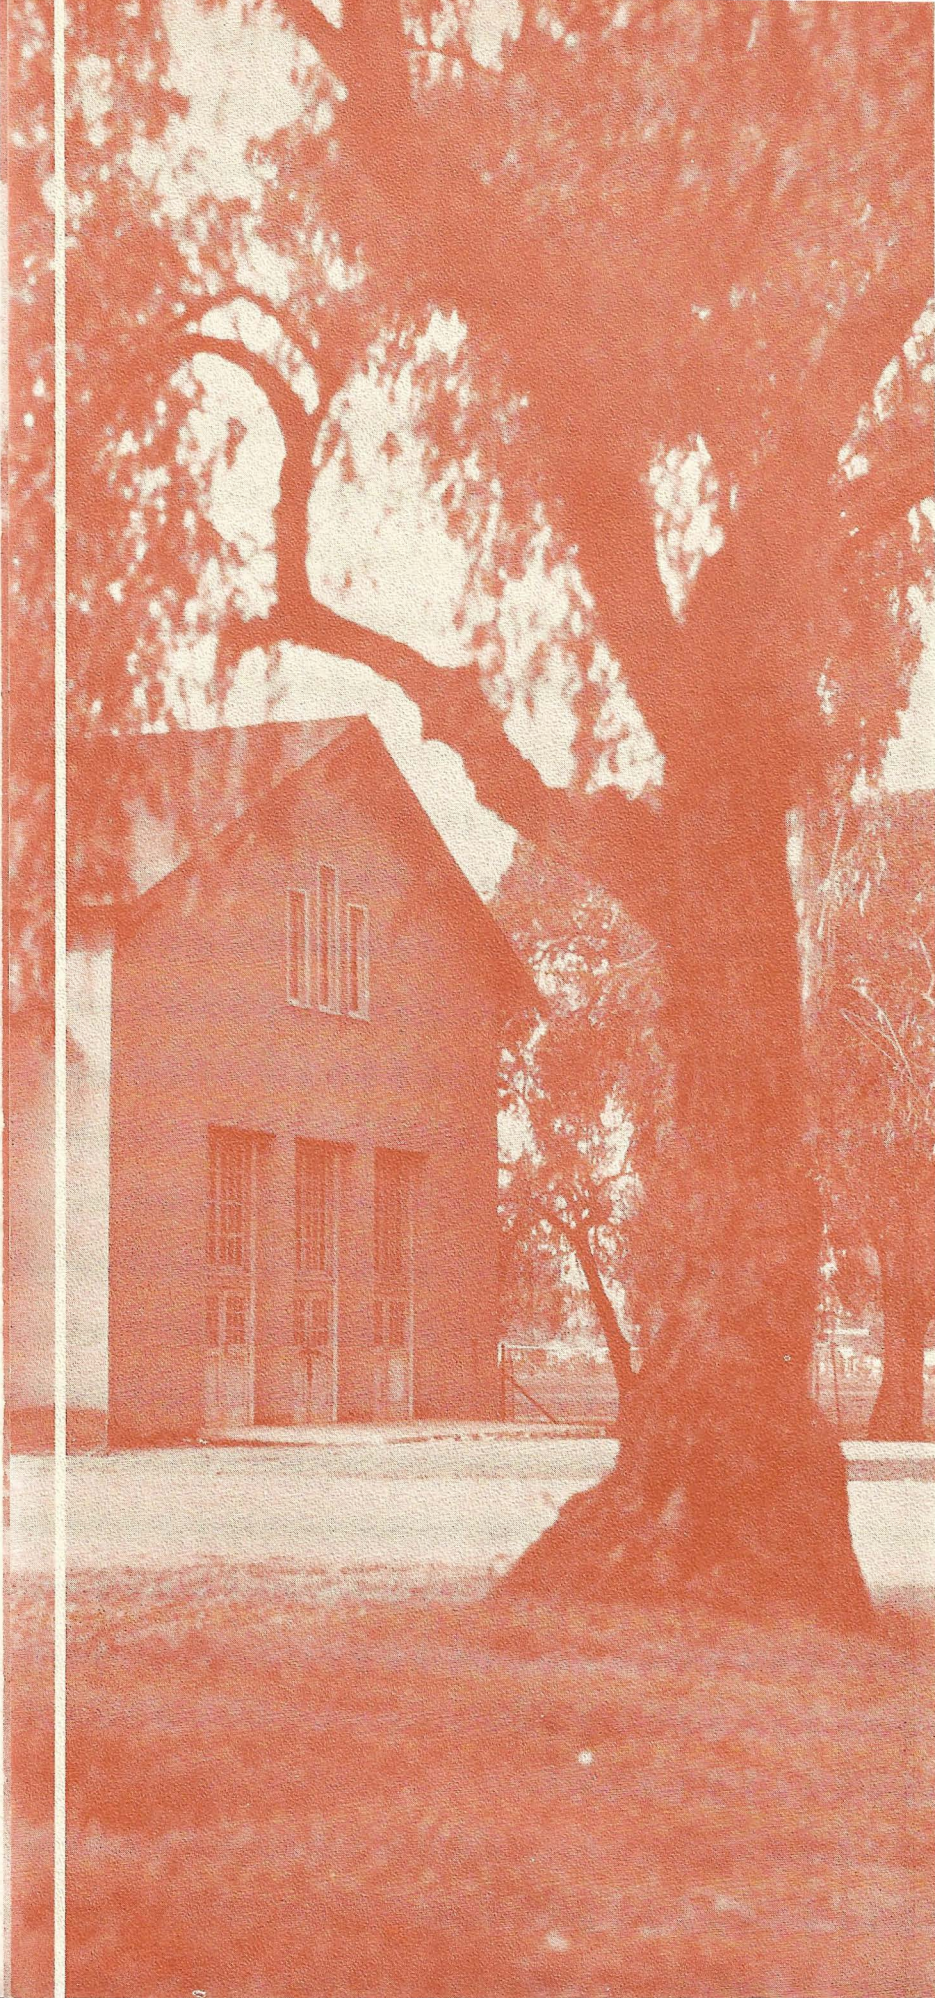

DEDICATION

The small Liberal Arts College is a distinctly American institution. It has character building as its basic purpose. It holds scholarship as a primary objective. It counts men more important than facts.

To the spirit of the small
Liberal Arts College which presents a broad, rich student life, providing the greatest opportunity for the fullest possible development of the individual, this book is dedicated.

"And so I find it well to come
For deeper rest to this still room,
For here the habit of the soul
Feels less the outer world's control.
The strength of mutual purpose
pleads
More earnestly our common needs;
And from the silence multiplied
By these still forms on either side,
The world that time and sense have known
Falls off and leaves us God alone."

JOHN GREENLEAF WHITTIER.

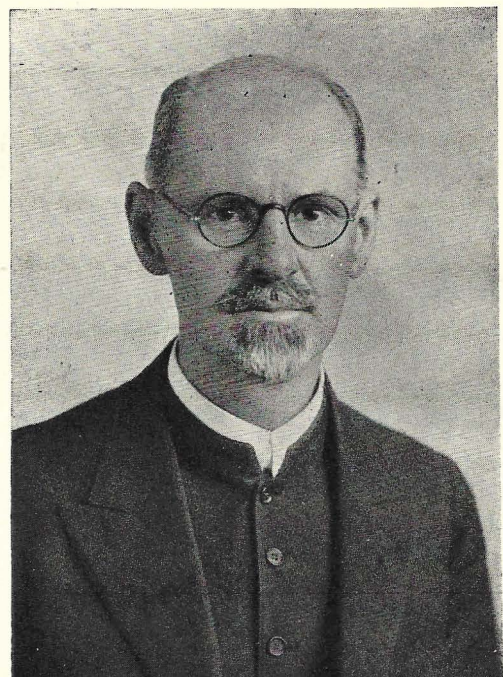

"Four things a man must learn to do
If he would make his record true:
To think without confusion clearly;
To love his fellow-men sincerely;
To act from honest motives purely;
To trust in God and Heaven securely."

MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT

Students and faculty alike have been busily engaged in the regular routine of school work during the academic year 1931-32, but as we look forward to the demands which will be made of us because of our school experience, we reflect and wonder what it all means. Facts have been learned, skills acquired, and attitudes developed. New ideals have seized us and a more vigorous stimulation of initiative in personal, social, and creative experiences is pressing us forward.

May we in a state of mind like this allow Christian ideals to have their rightful place in all of our relations. Opportunities for advancement have brought upon us definite responsibilities in relation to the existing social order. Let everyone take a vital interest in community affairs, such as doing church work, club work, and leadership in civic institutions. Be truly patriotic with that concept of human relationship which seeks the common good. React toward society in a manner which involves the idea that you are a part of a larger group and, therefore, should maintain an attitude satisfactory not alone to yourself but also to the whole organism. May your concept of citizenship have a world wide scope in which you seek to promote the highest interests of all races and all nations.

It is indeed a pleasure to assure the students of La Verne College that they will have my sincerest support in their effort to develop an inter-communication and exchange with all people which will promote the highest welfare of the whole race.

Under the splendid guidance of Orlin Vaniman, the class of '32 attributes this year's success to the loyal co-operation of its members, to the untiring efforts of its leaders, and to the willing assistance of its advisors.

The class has been fortunate in having capable leaders during the other three years. Kenneth Deardorff filled the difficult post of Freshman president. John Kindy was successful as Sophomore president. Jerry Deal wisely directed the Junior activities.

Outstanding events of this year were the Senior-Sophomore party, Ditch Day, "Our Day in Chapel," Step-out Day, and the Senior Play. All agree that the Seniors acquitted themselves admirably in each undertaking.

An interesting survey of the class reveals many talents, although it is a comparatively small group. Well on the road to success are representatives of many fields of endeavor, among which are: Music, Drama, Journalism, Education, Ministry and the Medical Profession.

Kenneth Deardorff deserves special mention for the efficient manner in which he has conducted, for the past two years, the Student Body Store. This institution has proved to be indispensable to the college campus.

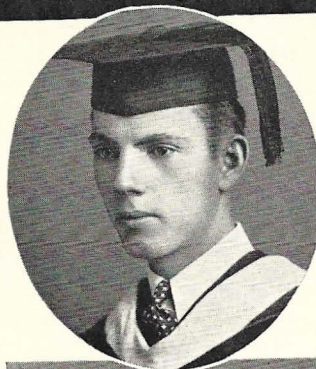

This class has been instrumental in advancing the Honor Spirit. Friendliness on the campus has been a watch-word. In all ways, the class of '32 is an outstanding product of the cultural environment of La Verne College.

The Junior Class has had a successful year. In every organization to which Juniors are eligible, they were found carrying away their share of the honors.

The year started out with the annual Junior-Frosh "shindig," held at the San Dimas Canyon Playground, in order to promote better acquaintance between guardians and wards and to introduce the Freshmen properly into the college activities.

Next came the "L" Day program, successful in spite of tired bones and aching muscles. Who could forget Coach Eisan as Pyramus!

As actions speak louder than words, it is needless to say that the Juniors contributed their share to the football squad, and again in basketball they were well represented on the varsity five.

It was also found that in the debate squads they had plenty to say.

The Juniors have worked well together, and a spirit of comradeship and loyalty has existed among them which has made every activity a pleasure; so in looking back as they advance to take the duties and responsibilities which will be theirs as Seniors, they say, "Yes, it has been a good year."

The Class of '34 is composed of fifty-four ambitious young students and for the past two years has been an active part of the La Verne student body.

The members have put forth fine and sincere efforts towards perpetuating the La Verne spirit and the campus has apparently been glad to accept their contributions to its activities.

The Sophomores have been especially well represented in athletics. Ten received sweaters or letters in football this year; five Sophomores turned out for basketball; and the Sophomore girls placed second in an inter-class girls' basketball tournament.

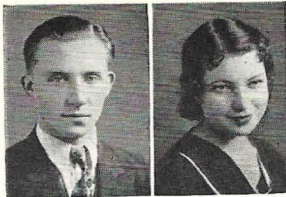

In debate, dramatics and music the Sophomores are outstanding in number as well as talent. Three members of both the Harmony and Dorian quartets are of this class.

Aside from being known for their intellect, the Sophs, too, have amazing strength. They succeeded in rolling the Frosh through the mud and in making them step around in good shape; in fact, the Frosh were so scared of them that there was not much war between the traditional enemies.

Outstanding parties of the Sophomores include a moonlight beach party given by the Seniors, a class bunco party and a leap year theater party.

The Sophomores are proud of their accomplishments thus far and have no apologies to make. For them the future looks especially bright and they are happy that two more years are still left at dear old La Verne to show what more can be done by the Class of '34.

"Onward!" has been the cry of the Freshman Class since it was first organized at the beginning of the year and onward it has marched through hardships and difficulties to victory. The class has given its officers splendid co-operation and has worked loyally for the success of each undertaking whether it has been academic or social.

The two most outstanding social events of the year were a theater and a leap year party.

Indomitable has been the courage of its victorious football team and its never-give-up basketball men.

The class is quite versatile in the talents displayed by its members. Two students are part of the string trio and one sings with the Dorian Four. One girl debated on the varsity debate team. So fine was the play presented by the class in Student Body assembly that Chi Delta Chi recognized the talent and voted several Freshmen into membership. Seven of the class served on the Campus Times Staff.

In all these fields of endeavor, "Onward!" has been the watchword. There has been no shirking of duty, no sacrificing of ideals. But best of all, the class has caught the true nobility of the La Verne spirit, and from the heart of each member it is able to say, "Alma Mater, La Verne, we are true to you."

THE COMMISSION

The Commission, the governing body of the Associated Students, has had many important problems to meet this year, and the Student Body as a whole owes them more thanks than they perhaps realize.

The Commission consists of a president and five commissioners, who take charge of Welfare, Publications, Finance, Forensics, and Athletics. These departments have been efficiently managed during this past year under the leadership of the President, Gerald Deal.

Credit is due this body because of its earnest attempt to encourage the honor spirit. A tribunal was established this year for the purpose of dealing with those who have offended La Verne principles and regulations. The Commission also instituted an annual snow day, and through its efforts the library was open evenings during this past year.

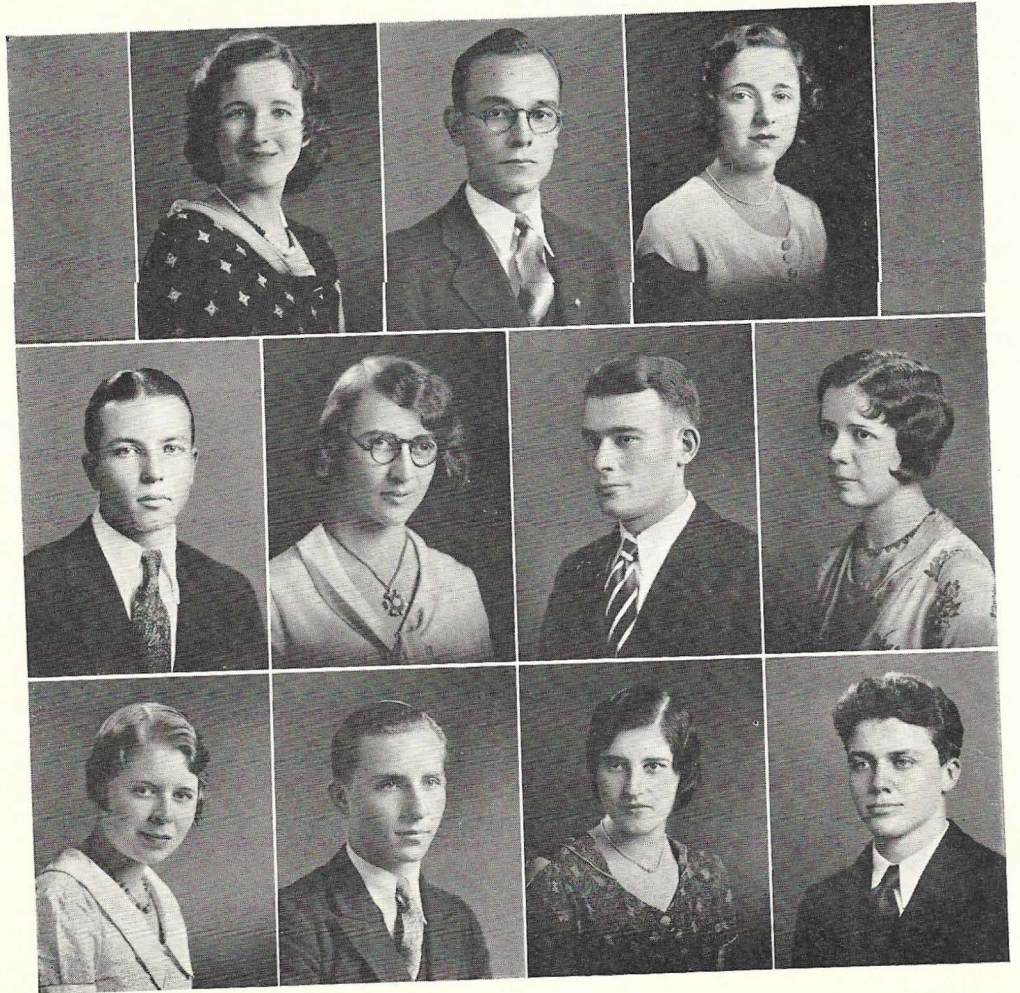

To do constructive work has been the aim of this body, and it has realized its aim to a great extent. The Commission has appreciated the cooperation which has been given it by the students, faculty, and other campus organizations.

Commissioners for next year have been chosen as follows:

MEN'S DEBATE

This year the Southern California Public Speaking League chose the Pi Kappa Delta question for debate: "Resolved that Congress should enact legislation providing for the centralized control of industry."

Orlin Vanniman, Commissioner of Forensics, and Prof. C. F. Brubaker, Debate Coach, superintended the selection and preparation of three men's teams for the season's activities. The first major contest came December 4 and 5 in the form of an invitational practice tournament at Redlands. La Verne placed two teams in the finals and won second and third places respectively, Redlands taking first. The three teams representing La Verne were: Robert Walker and Orlin Vaniman, Royal Glick and Chalmer Faw, and Ellsworth Replogle and Dan Renke. Each team debated both sides of the question.

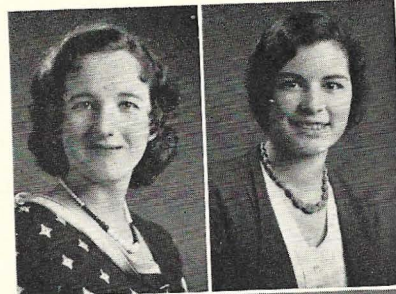

Following the tournament a number of practice debates were held, chief among which were the dual contests with Southwestern and U.S.C. With the former the honors were split and with the latter there were no decisions.

The main event of the year, however, was the Conference tournament held at California Christian College February 19 and 20. Here Walker and Vaniman upheld the affirmative and Glick and Faw the negative of the centralized control question. The results of the two days' debating showed that La Verne had tied with Redlands for second place, and Cal Christian and Whittier tied for first. One distinction that La Verne enjoyed was that her affirmative team was the only one of the twelve to win all its debates.

Elbert Ebersole completed a very efficient year's work as debate manager.

WOMEN'S DEBATE

For the first time in a number of years the women's forensic conference chose the Pi Kappa Delta question for debate. Thus, both men and women were debating the question: "Resolved, that Congress should enact legislation providing for the centralized control of industry."

The season opened with a practice tournament at Redlands December 4 and 5. La Verne was represented there by Virginia Scarisbrick and Helen Heisey on the affirmative and Isabelle Sheller and Virginia Stern on the negative. Both teams proved to be a credit to their school by their effective and clever work.

In the Conference tournament, held at California Christian College February 20, the line-up consisted of Misses Scarisbrick and Heisey, affirmative, and Misses Stern and Brubaker, negative. La Verne placed third, with U.C.L.A. and Redlands leading, respectively.

Due to the fact that none of the women debaters are graduating this year and that some are even underclassmen, La Verne may well look forward to big accomplishments in women's forensics next year.

With the growth of interest in forensics activity in La Verne College, the Forensics Club was organized. The chief purpose of the organization is and has always been to develop interest in speech work among the students. To achieve this purpose the club has a limited and qualified membership. In order to be eligible for membership, one must manifest sufficient interest to win a forensics award. This is done either by placing in an oratorical or extemporaneous speaking contest or by participating in one conference debate.

The club is one of La Verne's newer organizations and because of this and the rigid entrance requirements, the membership is comparatively small. At present there are twelve members in the club including the faculty advisor, Prof. Brubaker. Last year six of the members were graduated, several of whom were the most active participants. Consequently, the club was crippled for this year. At the beginning of the term Aubrey Calvert, Fred Butterbaugh, and Robert Walker were admitted to the club because of their splendid work in Freshmen debating last year.

Meetings are held from time to time with the purpose of having a good social time and of transacting all business connected with the carrying on of the club. It has a real field in campus life in sponsoring forensics activity and always strives to satisfy this need.

The Choral Union is one of La Verne's most unique musical organizations, and one of its youngest. It was organized in an attempt to combine the best musical talent of the college into a mixed chorus capable of producing some of the greater religious and secular masterpieces. This organization has made it possible for the community at large to enjoy the rendition of good music and to gain a deeper appreciation for this type of art.

Under the guiding genius of Professors Haugh and Travis, this group of singers has produced The Messiah by Handel and The Seven Last Words of Christ by Dubois, both Oratorios having been presented to the community during the current season. At the holiday season, several programs featuring Old English and French carols were given, and a secular production was presented at the close of the term.

COLLEGE ORCHESTRA

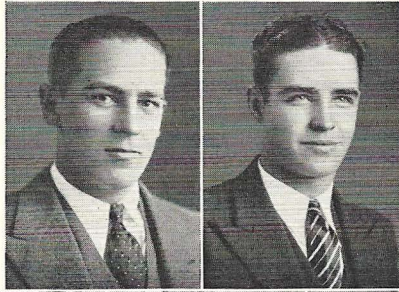

HOWARD A. GREENE	- - - - -	Director

La Verne College is indeed proud of her orchestra which has progressed very rapidly this past year under the able guidance of Director Greene.

One of the important events in the history of this organization was the gift of $141.50 presented by the former La Verne Band shortly after the holiday season. The orchestra thanks this former organization for such a splendid gift, but especially does it thank Mr. Perry Schrock who was influential in making the La Verne College Orchestra the recipient.

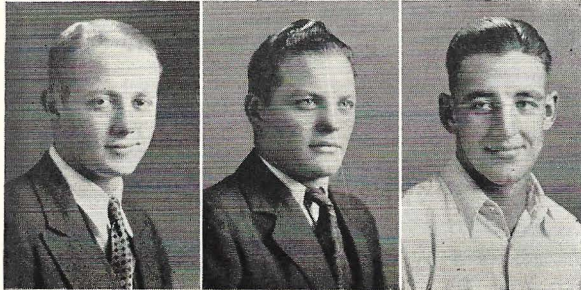

During the past year the orchestra gave two concerts which demonstrated the progress made by this organization and furnished some very delightful entertainment for the college and its friends. A large and appreciative audience was present at the first concert given October 29, 1931. The second concert was given April 7, 1932 and was equally well attended and enjoyed.

La Verne College now boasts a junior orchestra, organized by Director Greene for the purpose of preparing the beginning student for his place in the regular college orchestra. This group gave a recital in the auditorium on the evening of March 3 and demonstrated its ability to produce a most entertaining program.

The activities of the Y. M. C. A. started with a steak bake at Ganesha Park, the object of which was to orient newcomers into La Verne's social life. This affair was followed a little later by a roughhouse in the gym.

For the first few programs the cabinet decided to have men of various professions present their experiences to the group. This proved to be instructive and beneficial, as well as interesting. Later programs were more varied in nature, dealing with religious, social, and educational problems of campus life.

During the Christmas holidays, the "Y" was represented at Asilomar by the Apollo Quartette and four other delegates.

By March, plans for the week-end at Jenks Lake were well under way. A program sponsored by the "Y" was given at the College Auditorium which contributed materially to the funds necessary for the trip. As usual, everyone had the time of his life.

One of the most important features of the year's work was the arrangement for an Exchange Scholarship with the University of Hawaii. Robert Walker was chosen to represent La Verne and to carry her ideals to that institution.

"Y" Cabinet meetings were held weekly, and it was largely due to Richard Maley's efforts that this year was so profitable for the organization.

"To realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God" is the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. The cabinet has endeavored to keep this spirit in the foreground during the past year. Judging by the progress made by the organization this term, prospects for next year's growth are promising.

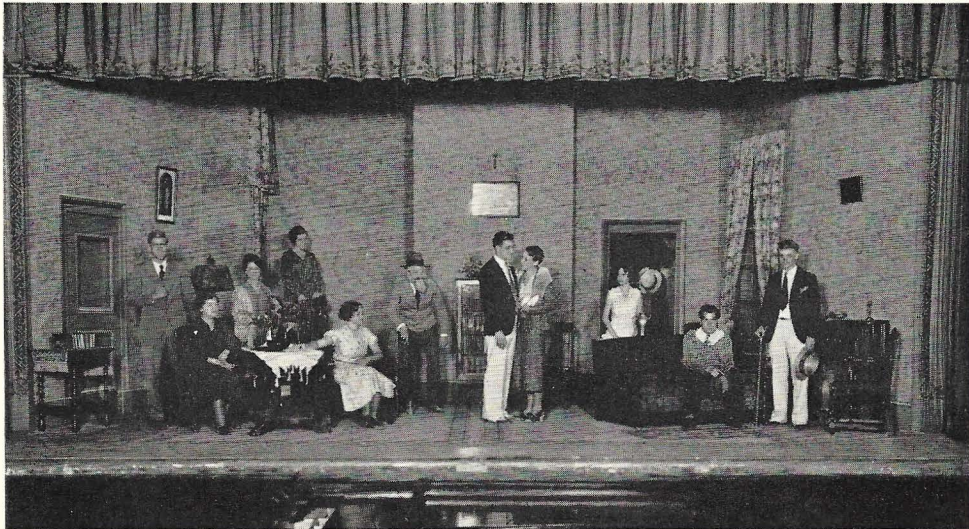

With a cabinet which was able and interested, the organization was lead in many interesting projects. Some of these were: The Little Sister Movement, Vesper Service, Feast of Nations, Mothers and Daughters Banquet, Silver Tea for the Asilomar Fund, and the Hi-Jinks Party.

The World Interest Committee was particularly active this year and was largely responsible for creating an interest in world affairs among the women. It was due to its work that a world map was installed in the lobby, on which the activities of the day were followed.

Committee chairmen included: Socials, Frances Nix; World Interest, Virginia Scarisbrick; Welfare, Marie Pobst; Publicity, Mildred Smith; Membership, Blanche Klingaman; song leaders, Mary Throne and Ruth Gregory, and pianist, Elizabeth Lehman.

On the night of December 8, the Junior Class presented "Skidding," a three-act play by Aurania Rouveral.

The play takes place at the home of Judge Hardy, who has served twenty years as District Judge of Idaho, but who is in danger of not being re-elected because he will not side in with corrupt politicians. When the young daughter, Marian, comes home from college full of ideas about politics, and engaged to Wayne Trenton, whom the family has never seen, Mrs. Hardy is duly shocked. Andy, the sixteen-year-old son, manages to worry his mother and his Aunt Milly half to death, and furnishes many good laughs. The two married daughters leave their husbands and come home to live, one because her husband is too practical and the other because her's is too impractical. This state of affairs is too much for the poor mother, who packs up and leaves the family for a long enough time for the girls to realize that they were better off in their own homes than they had supposed. When Mrs. Hardy returns, things begin to clear up, as the two girls go back to their husbands. Grandpa presents hand-made "wedding slippers" to Marian, who has broken her engagement in favor of politics, and this act changes her mind and leads her to accept Wayne. The Judge is elected to the Supreme Court, and happiness once more reigns supreme.

The Southern California Premier Production of the play "The Undiscovered Country," by Anthony Merryn, was presented by the Senior Class during Senior Week.

This play was "different." It deals with the return of one from "The Undiscovered Country." The setting is St. Mary's, Scilly Isles; time, the present.

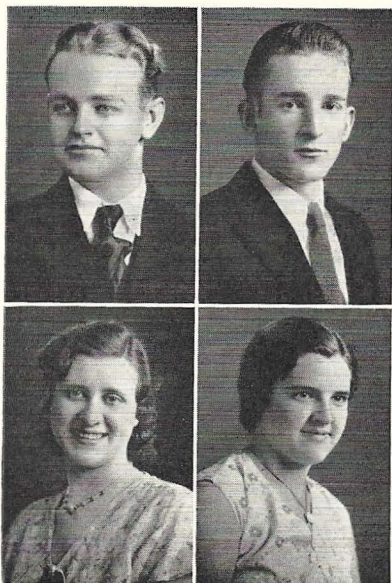

Doctor Dorset, the scientist, speaks, "My power is only a tiny fraction of the power that future men will have. They will master this earth. They will make the winds and the elements obey them. They will be lords of the universe."

Stella, "But that other country . . ."

Doctor Dorset, "That must be discovered and conquered, too."

The play deals with Doctor Dorset's attempt to discover and conquer the "undiscovered" spirit realm.

The success of the play was due to the able and efficient coaching of Mrs. Laura E. Haugh and the splendid cooperation and work of the various committees.

The modern Language Club was organized in the fall of 1929 under the supervision of Miss Martha Lenhardt, professor of modern languages.

The objectives of this organization which are to promote the study of modern languages and arouse interest in the study of international relations, have been undertaken in a very definite educational program. Speakers have been secured for various social functions by the club. It is customary for the club to give a Christmas program on the last Friday before the holiday vacation.

During the past year the Modern Language Club gave several very enjoyable parties, picnics, and excursions that were well attended. The club membership was supplemented by the addition of twenty new members.

Plans have been made for a larger club which can sponsor a more varied program for next year.

STUDENT STORE

The Student Store was an entirely new venture launched by the students and commission of 1930-31. Previous to that time the store had been managed by the administration, and books were practically all that was kept in stock. Under the efficient management of Kenneth Deardorff, the store was put on a paying basis, and by the close of the 1931 school year it was a proven fact that an Associated Students Store was a practical thing.

At the beginning of the 1931-32 school year the store was moved from its crowded quarters to the large convenient room which it now occupies. The stock was increased and an excellent assortment of student necessities was made available to the students at the lowest possible prices.

By the close of the first semester the stock was so enlarged as to include everything in the way of stationery, writing equipment, books, felt goods, belt buckles, candy, stickers, and various other handy little articles. At this time, because of his graduation Deardorff was replaced by a new manager. The new man was Carol Aeschbacher, and he has continued the good work. He has enlarged the stock just as fast as business has permitted.

It is certain that the store will continue to be of service to the students as long as they make it their store and support it in every way possible.

It is a decidedly valuable asset, and the students this year have been realizing this, due to the increase in business done over last year. It is hoped that it will pave the way for a bigger, more complete store which will call for larger quarters and which will accommodate the students even more.

Hylton, a Frosh, has also assisted in the management during the second semester.

Members of the Alumni Association, the La Verne College of yesterday, greet with pride the La Verne College of today. The Association takes pleasure in extending congratulations for every gain made by her Alma Mater, in equipment, in athletics, in uplift of morale, in breadth of outlook, and a wish for the continued successful development of the school.

The genuine interest of the Alumni in the activities of La Verne College can best be judged from the large number who have appeared at the games to support the Leopard teams this year. As an evidence of its loyalty, the Association has given fifty dollars toward the installation of new lights in the college gymnasium.

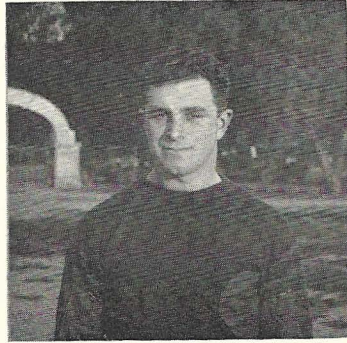

In order to keep in close touch with the school, the members of the Alumni Association must keep in touch with each other. Accordingly the friendly ties of college days were renewed when the Alumni held their annual mid-year reunion in February. Jollity and good-will were the order of the occasion. The Alumni news letter, which was inaugurated last year, has been successfully continued this year as a means of binding the Association more firmly together and keeping it in touch with the college.

As our Alma Mater continues to make progress, may under-graduates and Alumni be one in spirit, working together tirelessly for the building of a finer La Verne College.

ATHLETICS

COACH "LEE" EISAN

Before Coach Eisan came to La Verne a year ago, we were considered a weak sister in the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in football. La Verne had not won a football game for three years. Last year "Lee" started the season with a squad of practically all green men and very few substitutes and managed to instill the University of California system of coaching in both frosh and varsity so well that La Verne experienced its first championship football team in its history; this was won by the frosh.

This year La Verne witnessed the most successful season in its history. "Lee" took the former frosh champions and the varsity men and won half of the games played. Through his enthusiasm, the Varsity Club was able to have Arnett Field equipped with floodlights, thus giving the field a rank among the best lighted fields in the conference.

Coach Eisan also coached varsity basketball. Although we were not able to place in the conference, Coach Eisan gained the reputation of putting out a hard fighting bunch of Leopards who were able to come from behind to win. We can also say that we beat the champions once and were nosed out by one point in an extra period playoff the following night.

"Lee" was frosh and varsity track coach and due to his initiative, track was voted as a major sport at La Verne College.

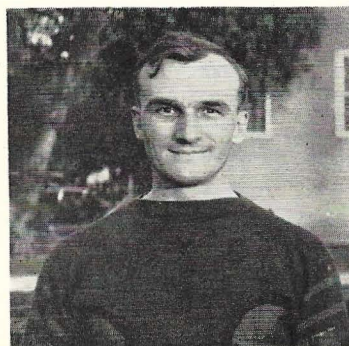

Coach Eisan is a man of keen foresight and executive ability as well as one who can gain the close friendship of his men.

"Lee" was ably assisted by "Pat" Patterson as head line coach. "Pat" hails from Washington & Jefferson University where he gained recognition as All-American guard. Under his leadership the line became one of the hardest charging lines in the conference as well as tricky on defense. We wish to express our appreciation to Coach Patterson.

COACH DALE I. GLICK

Assistant Coach Glick has finished his second year as line coach and coach of the frosh football and basketball teams at La Verne. "Lee" could ask for no better man to cooperate with than Coach Glick. Dale, an alumnus and three-year letterman in football from La Verne College, was known as a tricky quarterback while in college and now he is proving his ability as a quick-thinking, clever coach. Under his leadership, the frosh suffered only one defeat during the season, which was to Redlands.

Coach Glick also took over the reins as frosh basketball coach and developed some promising players who will hold their own next year in varsity competition. Coach Dale I. Glick has proven himself to be a man of ability in leadership.

Dale was assisted by Alfred Nicholas, who was an All-Conference guard last year for La Verne. He acted as line coach for the frosh and proved to be of much worth to the kittens in developing a hard charging forward wall for the backs to follow.

Glick, baseball star in his college days, also coached that sport for the second year and turned out a good squad, though it was not a conference sport this year. The exact outcome of the games played is not known as this goes to press.

The frosh material which he has developed will come in handy next year, and he has this material well started toward championship teams for next year.

Dale has also served efficiently as graduate manager for the students and in this capacity has proved a value to the associated students. He has been in a position to aid materially in bettering athletic conditions at La Verne, and it has been largely due to his backing, interest, and able coaching that La Verne is coming to the front by leaps and bounds, athletically speaking.

Dale is a real coach, admired by the fellows and respected by the student body, from whom much can be expected in the future.

VARSIY FOOTBALL

This year experienced the greatest football season in La Verne College history. First, La Verne won fifty per cent of her games. Second, the Leopards won their first conference game in four years. Third, we scored in every game played. Fourth, and most important, the Leopards gained the respect of every team in the Southern Conference.

Fullerton J. C. 12 vs. La Verne 12

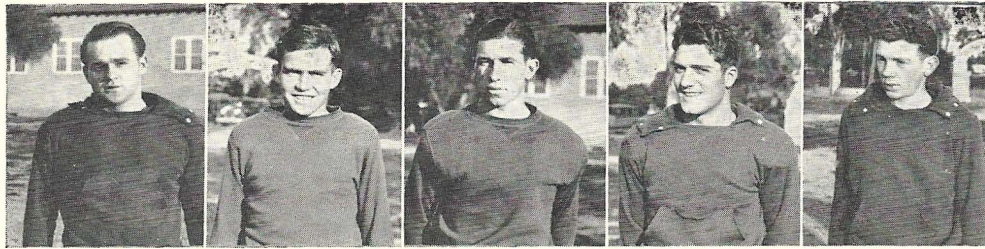

The Leopards started the season out in a non-conference game by tying the strong Fullerton Hornets. In the second quarter "Red" Montgomery, sophomore quarterback, broke through tackle to ramble forty-five yards for the first touchdown. Then by a lucky untimed long pass, Fullerton tallied to tie the score. Both teams converted. Again the Hornets got a break and intercepted a pass on their 15-yard line and galloped 85 yards for their second score. Late in the fourth quarter, with La Verne rooters expecting defeat, the ball was snapped to Montgomery and repeating his act of the second quarter, he carried the ball 45 yards to the Hornet's 12-yard line, where Brooks took it across in three plays. The conversion was low; thus a tie score resulted.

Citrus J. C. 0 vs. La Verne 13

In their second game, the Leopards showed much better team work and drubbed the Citrus eleven 13 to 0 in inaugurating the new arc lights on Arnett Field. Wilkerson made the first touch-down by scooping up a partially blocked Citrus punt and carrying it across the last stripe. Vaniman plunged across for the extra point. Brooks scored the second tally after a series of line plunges by himself and Forney. The superiority of the Leopards was shown by the fact that the entire second-half was played by La Verne reserves.

Fresno State Teachers College 6 vs. La Verne 7

Exhibiting their most brilliant game of the season, the Leopards outwitted and outfought the Bulldogs to pull the greatest upset of the season. At the outset of the game, the Staters marched from midfield to make the first tally by a pass over the goal line from the La Verne 25-yard stripe. Their try for the extra point went wide.

It wasn't until the second half that the Leopards tuned up their war song with a tang which meant they were out for a kill. At the opening of the second half, Brooks received the kick-off and returned it 33 yards to our own 42-yard line. From there Brooks and Vaniman alternated in advancing the ball to State's 10-yard stripe. Montgomery tossed a pass over the goal line to Jones who was waiting for it with outstretched arms. On the second try for points—(State was offside the first time)—Vaniman plunged across to make a final score of 7 to 6. What a game it was! Boy, how Bessey's brothers stood up and took notice!

Whittier 26 vs. La Verne 13

This proved to be the most exciting conference game of the season, regardless of the score. Due to several colds and injuries resulting from the Fresno State game, the Leopards were somewhat handicapped. At the end of the half, La Verne was leading 7 to 6, but due to Whittier's reserve power, the score was reversed the second half. The most sensational play of the game was a 68-yard run by Montgomery, resulting from a fake pass play.

Santa Barbara State 13 vs. La Verne 18

The Leopards continued their hunt, this time on a soggy dirt field where they managed to crush a scrappy flock of Roadrunners. Many costly fumbles occurred during the fray, thus holding the score down considerably. The Leopards fumbled eleven times. The superiority of the Leopards was plainly shown by the fact that the Roadrunners were only able to chalk up nine first downs to La Verne's twenty-four.

Caltech 20 vs. La Verne 6

The Leopards scored in the first six minutes of play against the conference champions, as a result of a blocked Caltech punt on their one-yard line. Vaniman bucked it across on the next play to tally. The attempted conversion went wide. Caltech scored just before the end of the half after a La Verne fumble. Try for point was blocked by Calvert, and the half ended with a tie score of 6 to 6. The off-tackle and lateral plays were too much for the Leopards the last half and Caltech was able to tally twice in the second half.

Redlands University 13 vs. La Verne 7

Two Redlands passes proved disastrous to La Verne in their encounter on a poorly lighted field. In the third quarter, Forney heaved a beautiful 40-yard pass to Brownsberger for our only tally. Heckman converted.

Cal Christian 7 vs. La Verne 33

The Leopards ended their 1931 football season in a brilliant display of glory by trouncing the Panthers 33 to 7. The Panthers threatened only once, when the ball was advanced for them by penalties on the Leopards. So ends a great season of football.

Seniors—Six football veterans ended their football career this year. Three of them are three-year lettermen. They will certainly be missed on the team next year when the Leopards turn out in the fall. They include Captain "Hobbs" Adams, left end; Bert Jones, right end; "Buck" Ferree, left tackle; Ronald Bessey, fullback; Bob Welty, right end, and Jerry Deal, tackle.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Although La Verne basketeers didn't place in the conference this year we can still say that the 1932 basketball season was a decided success. Handicapped by the fact that our whole team, namely the "Five Horsemen," was lost by graduation, Coach "Lee" Eisan developed a team which was considered one of the hardest fighting teams in the conference.

The Leopard's quintet started the season out with two victories, taking Pomona, 26-21, and Santa Barbara, 35-26. "Chuck" Snell was high point man, in the Pomona rough and tumble game, with 13 points, while Wilson took the same honor in the Santa Barbara game with 12 digits.

The Leopards then journeyed to Redlands to meet defeat by quite a large margin. The following night the La Verne men took the floor as the underdogs. At the end of the half, Redlands was leading 15-10. The second half was well on its way with the locals trailing 25-12 with only ten minutes left to play. Brooks then went in the game, soon after being followed by Weybright and Calvert. From then on, new life struck the team and Snell started sinking them from every position. The La Verne quintet chalked up 16 points while Redlands was watching them swish through the basket. The gun sounded leaving a score of 28-25 in La Verne's favor. Captain-elect Snell got hot and enjoyed high point honors with 19 digits and certainly played a wonderful game. The game was probably the most sensational ever played at La Verne College.

After this game the Leopards hit a jinx which lasted until five games were lost—two to Whittier, two to Oxy and one to Cal-Christian. However, the Leopards had a characteristic which found them fighting till the final gun.

The last two games were with San Diego, the conference champions, in our local pavilion. The Leopards took the game 29-25 and in the next game led the Aztecs until a minute or so before the gun sounded. The score at the end of the game was 25 up so an extra period was necessary. La Verne made the first three points and as a result of a muffed pass, an Aztec got an open break to the basket for a set-up just before the final gun, to win by a one-point margin. The fact that San Diego took the championship and we outplayed them in two games shows that La Verne had a team of fighting Leopards not to be ashamed of.

The final combination found Snell and Calvert, forwards; Forney, center, and Welty and Jones, guards. This was probably the last possible combination which could be organized since there were various combinations during the season. Captain Welty always played a consistent game at guard. His long arms disappointed plenty of forwards who had hopes of hitting the bucket. Welty is a senior and his position will be hard to fill. Snell, captain-elect, was the most consistent scorer and much is expected of him next year. Forney, at center was always known to keep the fighting spirit in the team and hogged the ball consistently. Max will be with us another year. Montgomery, Brooks, and Calvert, three sophomore forwards, proved to be valuable men. Much is expected of them next year. Jones, a senior guard showed that he was a valuable big man, after his dislocated knee healed up. Wilson and Howell are two fast, front rank men and will be back next year. Adams and Deal, guards, were always quick on their feet and certainly will be missed next year as they are graduating. George Weybright, another sophomore, played guard and is known as tricky Weybright because of his deceptive style. John Heiser and Frank Saylor were always dependable at the guard positions.

BASEBALL

Due to the financial condition prevailing, baseball was not classed as a conference sport at La Verne this year but, nevertheless, several fellows went out with much enthusiasm and formed a team which held its own against any of the J. C. or college teams.

Both frosh and varsity were combined, and a firm foundation was built for the team next year, when this sport will probably be reinstated as a conference sport.

The season was still young when this book went to press so the results of only a few of the games can be recorded. Pomona J. C. defeated the Leopards in the first game of the season by a score of 4 to 1 and later was forced to acknowledge defeat to La Verne with a tally of 3 to 1. Riverside J. C. also took a victory of a 4 to 1 count. The Leopards were badly defeated by Chaffey J. C. with a score of 9 to 3 but another game is scheduled which will give the team a chance to come back. We also defeated Bonita High School 8 to 4 in an easy tilt. Caltech just barely eked out two victories through errors on the part of the Leopards by scores of 5 to 4 and 11 to 9. Games have been scheduled with Pomona College, Chaffey J. C. and Pomona High School.

The squad is as follows:

Saylor was the head "chucker" and showed up well, being assisted by Gillette and Welty. Lathrop, catcher, was the outstanding player on the team. The bases were played by Calvert, first base; Elder and Montgomery, second base; Kelley and Bessey, third base; while Martie Carter played a nice game at shortstop. The fielders were: "Hobbs" Adams and Elder, left field; Crites, center field, and Bessey and Stern, right field.

Since there were only three seniors on this year's squad, La Verne is expected to have a banner year in baseball for 1933.

VARSITY TRACK

This year La Verne College experienced her first track team and track victory.

So far the varsity has participated in three meets, taking one of them. The first meet was with the strong Riverside J. C. tracksters. The meet ended, leaving them with a lead of 79 to 42. Next was a triangular meet with Pomona J. C. and Pomona Novice, in which the Leopards were victorious. Scores: Pomona J. C., 60 1/3, Novice, 22, and La Verne, 72 2/3. Then the kitten team defeated the varsity on visiting day by a score of 76 1/2 to 56 1/2. A dual meet with Santa Barbara State is anticipated.

There were several outstanding men this year. Forney put the shot and heaved the discus his best marks being 41 feet 3 inches, and 121 feet, respectively. Jones ran the dashes and hurdles. Montgomery ran the 100 yard dash and also broad-jumped. His best leap is 20 feet 4 inches. Brownsberger ran the 440 yard dash and hurdles. "Chuck" Manning ran the 440 as well as the 220 yard dash. Bessey and Lathrop also heaved the discus. Calvert tossed the javelin and also pole vaulted. Kelley jumped for altitude and Noll was a shot man. Wilson was a javelin man and also ran the relay.

Much is expected of the team next year since there are only two men being graduated. So track hopes for 1933 are very promising.

VARSITY TENNIS

Handicapped by the lack of a coach the Leopard racket wielders showed no mean ability and much interest was created in the sport within the school as well as in intercollegiate competition.

An all-school tournament was held which eliminated all but six contestants. These were Snell, Howell, Wilson, Calvert, Weybright, and Walker. Due to the urgency of putting this book to press, a definite rating of the team could not be secured. In all probability, judging from the fellows' experience in the sport, "Chuck" Snell will be first singles man, Wilson, second singles, Howell, third singles, Calvert, fourth singles and Weybright and Walker fifth and sixth singles. In the All-conference tournament which is to be held after this goes to press, "Chuck" Snell and Wilson will be first and second singles men respectively with Howell and Calvert playing first doubles.

Next year we are hoping and expecting a banner year in tennis since there are no seniors on this year's team and also we are expecting a regular coach for the sport.

FROSH FOOTBALL

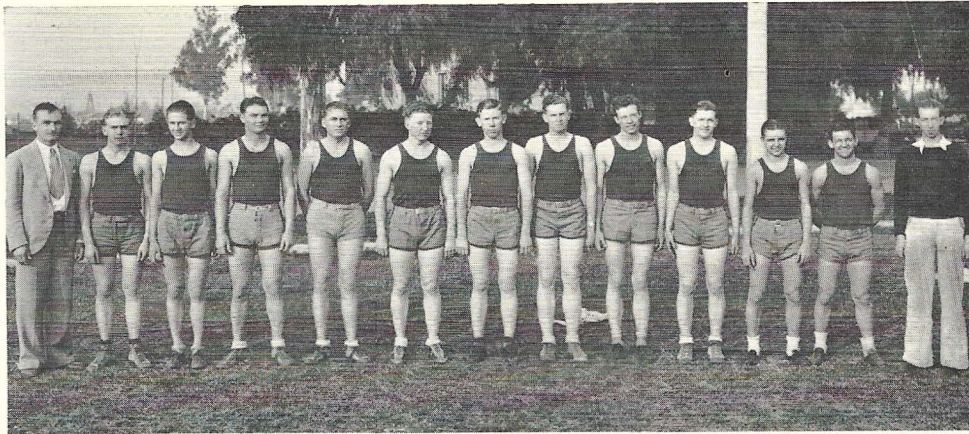

Even though the frosh did not acclaim the title of conference champions, they made a record which is remarkable, by tying for second place in the conference contests.

With only a few substitutes the Kittens made the Caltech Frosh bow to a score of 24 to 0. It was first down and the ball was on the two-yard line when the gun ended the Whittier game, cheating our little Kitten fighters out of a touchdown and leaving the score 0 to 0. The only game in which our Frosh met defeat was against the strong Redlands Bullpups who pushed the score 27 to 0. The season ended with another tie of 6 to 6 against the San Diego Papooses. Not only are the Kittens responsible for a splendid showing in conference games, but they defeated a number of high schools by unbalanced scores.

Obviously we can see the reasons for the successful season. It was due to the team's easy co-ordination and our outstanding ball carriers. Shifty Captain Elder of Bonita Hi filled the quarterback position very efficiently, making outstanding plays continuously; while speedy Albers and Roberts of El Monte as halfbacks, nosed the ball ahead for many yards. Kerr, Rothrock, and Crites played high class football as ends, snatching Elder's passes out of space and making long gains. "Red" Reed was always responsible for a bang-up game. Nordstrom with his long punts kept the ball out of dangerous territory. In the line we find Dickey, center; Harshbarger, guard; Booth, tackle; Jones, end; Stowell, guard; Ish Smith, tackle.

FROSH BASKETBALL

The Frosh started out with a bang this season, first winning the interclass championship and turning right around and winning their first conference game with Pomona 44 to 13. But due to the ineligibility of some of the players, the team lost some valuable men, causing our Kittens to come out with 500 per cent in the conference standings.

Elder and Jones starred in every game, ringing up points continuously. Rothrock was high point man in several contests. Dickey and Crites played a good floor game. Ish Smith also contributed to the success of the team, alternating with Dickey at guard. R. Smith, Harshbarger, Nordstrom, Hylton, and Myer were good standbys, event though they were not first string men this year.

FROSH TRACK

This year our Kittens put out one of the best leaping, jumping, and running squads that La Verne College has ever produced. The Frosh started out by taking the inter-class track meet by a large margin. The first real work-out was with the varsity against San Bernardino Junior College. The second meet was with Whittier Frosh and Covina High School. In this meet the Kittens nosed Whittier out of second place. Even though the Kittens did not defeat Cal Teck in the third meet, they showed themselves superior by taking the greatest number of first and second places. The fourth meet was with the Redlands Frosh which proved the most successful dual meet of the season. The Kittens defeated Redlands almost two to one. In this event several tracksters showed improvement.

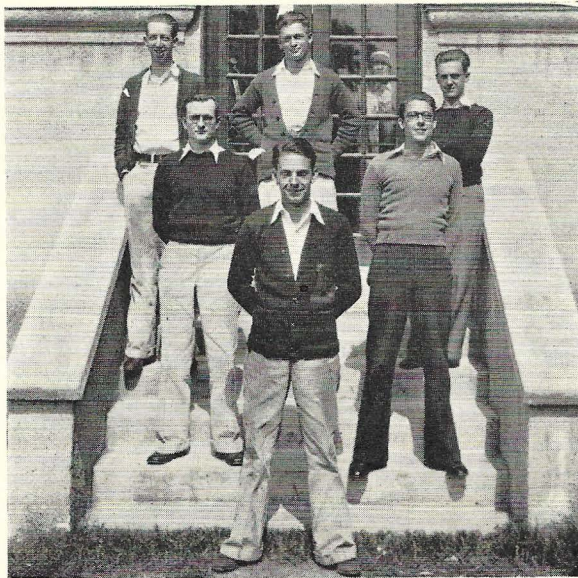

Outstanding members of the squad were Meyer who ran the two mile race, and Smith who could always be counted on to win the hundred yard dash, the broad jump and the four forty yard dash. Other outstanding members were Jones, Rothrock, Hylton, White, and Umschied, who had numerals in the dual meets.

Lee is very proud of this squad and expects to make a real varsity team next year.

MANAGERIAL SYSTEM

Under the new managerial system which was instituted last year, the athletic teams have been served with the best of hospitality. Our managers have been on hand to meet every emergency and have completed a most efficient year of service.

Managers for the past year were:

HOMER KREPS	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Senior Football Manager
SIDNEY HUNTER	}	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Junior Football Managers
ELVIN WILSON		-	-	-	-	-	-	-
LESLIE DEHART	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Basketball Manager
DANIEL RENKE	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Frosh and Varsity Track

THE VARSITY CLUB

The purpose of the Varsity Club is to reflect the real spirit of La Verne, in its organism, its aim, and its influence. The men who compose the club are alumni and student athletes who have received the award of the Varsity "L."

The club boasts a membership of over ninety. Half of these are active members because of their proximity to the college, while the other half are ardent boosters for La Verne.

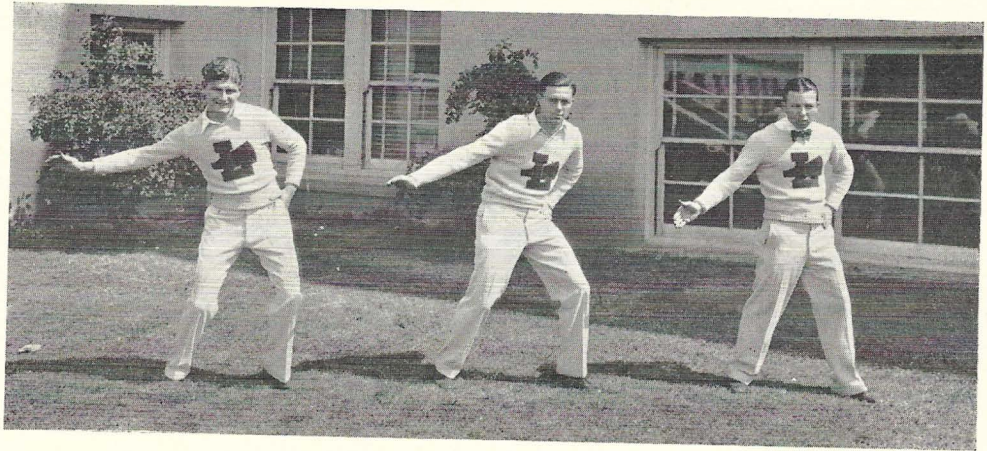

Much of the success of the club is due to the interest, foresight, and efforts of the instigator, Truman J. Funderburgh, a member of the class of '21.

While in its regular meetings the club strengthens and develops a mutual relationship between the alumni and student Varsity men, it also helps to solve school problems, especially those concerning athletics.

The paramount aim is to attract students of high character to La Verne College and aid them in every way possible. Every athlete should aspire to membership in this club which promulgates the La Verne spirit and stands for good fellowship.

ROOTING

This year two important rallies took place. The first one was a rally at the Pacific Electric depot, sending the football fellows off to victory at Fresno. The second was a big bonfire rally in which a Whittier poet was consumed in flames. Rallies were also held in student body meetings preceding each conference athletic contest.

Next year an organized class of yell-leading is anticipated for prospective yell leaders, and school enthusiasm is expected to be greater than ever before.

This year a new yell was instigated by the W. A. A. Here it is:

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

Although just getting a good start this year, Women's Athletics has proven an important phase of athletic activity, due to the able training of Coach Merritt and the interest shown by the W. A. A.

The first sport of the season was basketball, in which competition was probably the keenest. The teams were selected, with the following captains: Edith Roberts, Senior; Alice Butner, Junior; Mildred Adams, Sophomore; Alice Strate, Freshman. The Juniors were triumphant in this sport, with the Sophomores their close runner-ups.

There was also a school basketball team which entered the local Civic League and won a great per cent of their games.

Speedball proved to be a new sport for most of the women, but was popular. Three teams were selected—Senior, Junior, and Frosh-Soph teams, with Edith Roberts, Edith Coffman, and Isabelle Sheller as captains. In this sport the Juniors were again victorious.

Hockey followed speedball, with quantities of new equipment. The following captains served: Ruth Van Fleet, Senior; Eleanor Shepp, Junior; Virginia Scarisbrick, Sophomore; Bernadine Beauregard, Freshman. The Sophomores and Juniors proved to have the best material in this sport.

The season was closed with baseball play-offs and a tennis tournament. Among the minor sports for girls were swimming and horseback riding. Swimming lessons were given at the Y. M. C. A. in Pomona, while Mrs. Merritt gave instructions in horseback riding.

Even more interest is expected next year, and it is hoped that more sports may be added, with additional equipment.

SEPTEMBER

After today's session in the business office everybody is just like his neighbor—broke. But doesn't it seem wonderful to be back again? And some of the cutest freshmen! Did you notice all the changes around the school? The cafeteria, our improved library, the student store—bigger and better. Let's make this one of the keenest years that La Verne has ever had!

Next day. Well, school began today—and those awful 7:25 classes! Imagine, FIVE of them!

The first social event of the year was sponsored by the Big Sisters for their Little Sisters. Everybody seemed to have a good time.

And the same night: the Y. M. C. A. gave a "steak bake" in Ganesha Park.

The Student-Faculty Reception, with the customary "handshaking" uniting everybody in a friendly spirit.

September 25, the supreme court of La Verne College convened. The offenders were all Frosh who had charges ranging all the way from failing to wear Frosh Dink to general cockiness.

The final score of the La Verne-Fullerton J. C. game was in our favor, 12-12.

The bleachers were practically filled to capacity as a very expectant crowd watched twenty-six motley attired men arrange themselves on either side of a twelve-foot pit filled to the brim with the most luscious brown fluid it had been our privilege to see for many a day. The battle waged high, but the Frosh didn't have a chance against the brawny Sophomores.

OCTOBER

Things happened here at La Verne College football-ically speaking. Under the new lighting system, and with our bleachers filled to super-capacity, La Verne defeated Citrus J. C. 13-0.

The photographic department of this Lambda began a very busy season.

The nature books say that leopards do not go about in herds or droves. But the La Verne Leopards invaded the kennel of the Fresno Bulldogs and outfought that animal, to emerge with a 7-6 victory.

The sophs enjoyed a swim in the Ganesha Park plunge. Hot tamales and crackers seemed delicious after the immersion in the frigid waters.

Apples, hot-dogs, frolic! Young couples, fresh couples, married couples, and staas. ~~all gathered for~~

Apples, hot-dogs, frolic! Young couples, fresh couples, married couples, and stags, all gathered for a common purpose at San Dimas Park—the Junior-Frosh Mix-up.

Library to be open evenings, so get library-minded.
The La Verne Leopards lacked the scoring punch in the early part of the game with Whittier and were nosed out in a hard-fought battle, 26-13. The Kittens tied.

The Apollo Four presented their second annual Home-Coming Concert last Saturday evening, showing great ability and talent.

Ooooohhh! It's cold! I'm freezing to death! At least that's what the Seniors and Sophomores said at the Huntington Beach party. The "truck" idea surely was a good one—lots of laughing, singing and "hollering."

"L" Day was one of great inactivity around our institution, for everyone left at six o'clock.

Stiff and sore from yesterday.

Our Leopards showed strong offense in the first conference victory of the season. We met unexpected opposition at the hands of Santa Barbara State, but finally emerged with an 18-13 decision.

Hallowe'en was celebrated amidst the pomp and glamor of fair ladies, fond knights, bold pirates, ghosts, goblins, and witches, in the gymnasium.

Frosh Enjoy Theatre Party. Professor Brandt's home is the retreat of fun and eats.

NOVEMBER

The La Verne Leopards met the onslaughts of the Cal-Tech Engineers with all the fight they had, but were unable to stop the assault of the Cal-Tecs ball packers (20-6).

Redlands managed to batter out a 13-7 win over the La Verne Leopards on the Redlands grid field. This was the last Southern Conference clash for the Leopards.

Friday, November 13, La Verne played Cal-Christian there.

Campus Times Staff party.

Modern Language Club party.

Sophomore party.

A very beautiful wedding took place at the Brethren Church with Lucille Forney, alumnus of La Verne, and Joe Cosner, the happy participants.

Wednesday, November 25, vacation started at 3:45. Nearly everyone went home, but we La Vernites were too busy eating turkey to really miss them.

DECEMBER

And were you surprised to hear of the engagement announcement of Miss Mildred Smith to Vernon Weybright? We're with you, "Mimi" and "Red."

"And a hard time" was had by all at the Senior class meeting and party held at the home of La Vonne Putnam. You should have seen the "tacky" looking seniors eating beans, gingerbread and coffee.

Miss Martha Darkes, former La Verne co-ed, was married at a quiet ceremony a few days ago.

On Christmas Eve Miss Flossie Page became the bride of Mr. Lloyd Rider. She is an alumna of 1931.

Dorothy Page announced her engagement to Ralph Hopwood.

There seems to be an epidemic that has stricken students of Alumni of La Verne. At a New Year's watch party Miss Verna DeHart announced her engagement to Alfred Adams.

Ivan Edmister and Lois Rupert, recent alumni of La Verne, were married during the Christmas vacation. All of these marriages are certainly getting me down.

Mr. Lloyd Cunningham and Ellen Edmister were married the same day.

JANUARY

Everyone is back from home, ready to study for exams. They began Monday, January 18, Year of Our Lord, 1932. Time 7:25.

The Sagehen's felt Leo's teeth when we beat Pomona in the first conference basketball game of the season, 26-21.

I was so busy with my exams that I didn't have time to put anything down in the calendar.

In a wildly scrambled and semi-football game, the La Verne Leopards met and successfully outpointed Santa Barbara, 35-26.

Moonlight tobogganing, skiing under the stars, ice skating on the lake, and eats by the carload were the result of a combined Leap Year party and the Y.W.C.A. retreat of a week-end to Lake Arrowhead.

Football heroes with memories of the past and the present gathered in Fellowship Hall Saturday evening to pay honor to the football men of 1931. Max Forney is the captain-elect for the team next year.

"Skidding" was presented by the Junior Class to a full house.

SNOW DAY. A perfect day. A perfect crowd. A perfect time. What if we DID get snow down our necks, and had icy feet! Let's have more Snow Days.

Nine nations were represented in the annual Feast of Nations sponsored by the Y. W. and Y. M.

Another! Chuck and Esther have announced their engagement! And that was so unexpected!

Christmas! Home, the folks, the old gang, presents, lots of eats, everything good, vacation!

With the most thrilling last minute rally ever seen on the local court, the Leopard varsity came through with a surprise win over Redlands in the last game of the series, 28-25. The night before we lost to them a rough and tumble fight.

The La Verne "step-outs" completed their victory over Redlands with a ballyhoo at St. Charles Grill. "What a marvelous time!" "Let's have more!"

FEBRUARY

Kenny Deardorff starred in the Chi Delta Chi production, "New Brooms," a portrayal of the conflict between the theories of the younger generation and the experience of the older.

The Bible Institute traditionally ended with the New Era banquet.

"Appreciation Notes" were distributed the other day in Y.W. It's very nice to know that someone notices our good qualities besides ourselves.

The Dorm girls invited the boys to a Leap Year party, with Professor Travis the party's "leap year speciality."

The "Fifty-fifty" idea was carried out in the Student Body theatre party. This is one way to make the boy's dates.

MARCH

The Rollerdrome was the scene of much excitement and many spills, and what fun to skate to pipe-organ music! Fifty-fifty, too.

Next day: No school, but we're cleaning up all the little soiled spots.

APRIL

April 1. This is no April Fool joke: We all went to the beach, had a gloriously scrumptious time, got all sun-burned, swallowed a lot of the Pacific, but wouldn't have missed it for the world.

Senior Progressive Party. Now isn't that a funny kind of a party for dignified Seniors to be having?

Y. M. C. A. program.

Y. W. C. A. hi-jinks. You'll have to go to one of them to really appreciate the affair—it's lots of fun.

Ditto, only the Varsity Club sponsored it this time.

Hobbs Adams—How is that?

Bert Jones—They always make a fuss when a famous man dies but never when a famous man is born.

Dr. Hoover—Mr. Wilkerson, what is a mugwump?

Ray Wilkerson—A mugwump is a curious bird that sits on the fence with his mug on one side and his wump on the other.

Question—What is wetter than a woman with a wave in her hair, a ripple in her laugh, a cataract in her eye, and falls (false) in her teeth?

Answer—A woman with an ocean (a notion) in her head.

Martie Carter. Why do banks send out statements with the exact balance of your account every month?

Jerry Deal—That's for my protection. If the bank goes broke, I know just how much I lose.

Homer Kreps—They're faking all those pay-as-you-leave cars off the line.

Amos Ikenberry—Why?

Homer Kreps—Two Scotchmen starved to death in one.

Elvin White—My, that's a sad looking library.

Ish Smith—Why, because it has panes in the window?

Elvin White—No, because the books are in tiers.

Edith Roberts and Molly Warrington were discussing a member of the stronger sex.

"How do you find his conversation?" asked Molly.

"Like the waves of the sea," replied Edith.

"Ah! you mean you find it rolling, irresistible, vital ——?"

"No, it makes me sick."

Dr. Sarafian accompanied his small daughter to the barber shop.

Daughter—I want my hair cut like my daddy's.

Barber—How's that?

Daughter—With a hole on top.

Prof. Travis—What is your idea of harmony?

Kenneth Brownsberger—A freckle-faced girl with a polka-dot dress leading a giraffe.

Bob Welty—What do you do when you get tired of hearing a girl's empty chatter?

There was a young man from the city,
 Who saw what he thought was a kitty,
 He gave it a pat,
 And soon after that
 He buried his clothes—what a pity.

Ernie Swihart—Yes, I started out in life with the theory that the world had an opening for me.
 Aubrey Calvert—And did you find it?
 Ernie—I certainly did. I'm in a terrible hole now.

Mrs. Anderson—Which one of you children ate the grapes I had in the cupboard? No use denying it—I saw the seeds and skins on the floor.
 Benny—It wasn't me, mother, 'cause I ate skins, seeds and all.

Peewee L.—Why did France make the little finger of the Goddess of Liberty just eleven inches long?

Helen Van Fleet—I can't imagine.

Peewee L.—Well, if they made it twelve inches long it would be a foot.

Mrs. Rothrock—Sammy, there were three pieces of cake in the pantry and now there is only one. How did that happen?

Sam Rothrock—Well, it was so dark in there I didn't see the other piece.

"Well, Bidly, what was it your husband died of?"

"Sure, ma'am, I can't tell you. You see, I hadn't time to get the doctor to him and he died a natural death."

Visitor—Where's the other windmill gone to?

Native—We only had wind enough for one, so we took the other one down.

Doctor—I wonder if I could get my tools?

Nurse—I'm sorry, Doctor, but Mr. Smith is sewed up for the evening.

Kenny Brownsberger—It costs a great deal more than one would think to become a broad minded and intelligent man of the world.

Elizabeth Lehman—I suppose so, and I don't blame you for saving your money.

Benny—You look simply charming tonight, Miriam.

Miriam—Flatterer!

Benny—Honestly, I didn't recognize you at first.

Dear Hazel: Three years together has meant a lot to me - they have been such happy years - yet we have had so much to do! But down memory lane when we shall walk side by side in years to come I shall think often of you. I shall often pick a rose bud - pure and unspotted and say - "This reminds me of Hazel - a perfectly wonderful jewel, ~~also~~ ^{and} because of her quiet ways and inguardy appearance, many have passed by without admiring."

I'm looking forward to a very lovely year next year + some interesting work with you. Sincerely -

Evelyn Cleardoff.

Dear Hazel: Above all places - don't have a blowout in a sand storm. I'm glad we could be in classes together yet the way you took notes surely showed me up. More success and honor to you in the days yet to come. - A class mate -
