Armistice Day to be Annual LaVerne Home Coming Day

On Tuesday, November 11, LaVerne will celebrate its twelfth annual Home Coming and celebration of Armistice Day. This has always been a day for fellowship with old-time friends in LaVerne. Arrangements for the celebration are in charge of members of the Chamber of Commerce. To list the following items of entertainment for the day:

10 a. m.—Educational parade down D street to City Park.

11 a. m.—Sports for boys and girls on College Field. Prizes for winners.

1:45 a. m.—Basket lunch in city park. Free coffee, cream and sugar. Music by college quartets.

2:30—Address by Past Commander Chas. C. McGonegal, of American Legion.

3:30 p. m.—Name plates for memorial trees in city park.

4:00 p. m.—Baseball game. Rival teams captained by Bob Williams and O. L. Marshall.

8:00 p. m.—Evening program given by students of LaVerne College at the college auditorium.

Let's all turn out to the homecoming program next Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. and enjoy the homecoming that L. V. C. is going to give in this entertainment put on by the student body.

The homecoming program is an annual affair at LaVerne College and is usually staged on Armistice Day. It is sponsored by Associated Students and is especially for the pleasure of the students, but everyone is welcome. Among special features of the program are the Apollo and Sunbeams Quartets, readings by Wilma and Gladys Ikenberry, saxophone and clarinet solos by Elwyn and piano duets by Esther Tomason and Edna Brubaker. Orlin Vaniman will have charge of the business management and E. M. Montz of the stage management.

Miss Day Tells of Life in Turkey

An insight on the life and customs of the Turkish people was given to the LaVerne students Tuesday morning in a chapel talk by Miss Lucile Day, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteers, who has seen five years active service in Turkey, and who is now in California taking postgraduate work in the sociology department at Berkeley.

The changes which have taken place in Turkey in the last eight years along religious and social lines have changed it from an eastern to a Western nation. For example, dress has become modernized, the fez and veils being prohibited. The tombs which were formerly considered sacred have been closed. The decline of Mohammedanism is a result of the translation of Koran from Arabic to Turkish. Thus the people have been enlightened, and the

YELL LEADERS AROUSE SPIRIT FOR GAME

The meeting of the Associated Students of LaVerne College was called to order by President Dale Stutzman.

Several announcements were made. The Varsity plays Cal. Christian on the Loyola field in Los Angeles, Saturday at 2:15. All students are urged to attend and yell with all their might. Professor Hoover announced an educational movie, at the Fox California, on Africa.

The first number on the program was a vocal solo by Tad Davis. He sang "Dear One, the World Is Waiting for the Sunrise," and was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Lehman. The second number was a vocal solo by Miss Gladys Ikenberry. She sang "Little White Lies" and was accompanied by Jean Bland.

The rest of the meeting was turned over to a snappy rally. The first yell was finished when, pop! the balloon bearing Cal. Christian's name burst. That was a good sign that LaVerne is going to burst through Cal. Christian's lines and win the game.

"Chuck" Manning announced that a $2.50 prize was to be given to the composer of the best, long, snappy college yell suitable for raising pep and enthusiasm at the games. He also announced that there was to be an orchestra at the games to lead the students in their pep songs.

The meeting was closed by the singing of the Alma Mater.

SUPPORT OUR HOME GAMES

There are two games left on the Leopard schedule, and both of these are on our gridiron. The team has made its best showing in four years and will furnish real battles in these two remaining games against Whittier and Redlands. There are also Frosh preliminaries to both games starting at 12:30, which are real drawing cards too.

Tell your friends and help get a big crowd for both games. Extra bleachers will be supplied for the north side of the field.

The two largest crowds in LaVerne's history are expected to see the Leopard's play Whittier Saturday, Nov. 15, and Redlands Nov. 22.

most intelligent of them no longer attend the mosque, saying that they do not believe in fairy tales.

Although the Turks have rejected Mohammedanism, they will not accept Christianity, and consequently they are without a national religion at the present time. They judge Christianity by the Catholics, whom they come in contact with and by those whom they encountered in the Crusades. Many of them are eager, however, to become followers of Jesus.

There are some things which (Continued on Page Four)

SOUTHERN CALIF. VOLUNTEER UNION TO MEET AT L.V.C.

For the second time in the history of the LaVerne Student Volunteers, the conference of the Southern California Student Volunteer Union will be entertained at LaVerne by the local group, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 14, 15, and 16.

This Union consists of groups organized in Occidental, Whittier, Redlands, Calif. Christian, Pomona, U. S. C., U. C. L. A., Bible Institute of Los Angeles, and LaVerne Colleges, and a representative group of about 75 members are expected to attend the conference.

The meetings will be held at the Church of the Brethren, the first one convening at 7:30 p. m., Friday, and the last one being in conjunction with the regular church services Sunday morning at 10:45.

The general theme of the conference is, "Bringing Christ to the World of Turmoil," and the problems of the world will be presented Friday in the first meeting, probably by Rev. Harry Rimmer.

Saturday an early morning watch is planned to be held in the tower of the church, followed at 9:00 o'clock by another address on the theme.

At 10:00 o'clock the meeting will be divided into smaller groups for discussion of the problems and their solutions brought out in the previous addresses. An hour later they will meet together again.

Saturday afternoon is given over to recreation, and it is planned to attend the football game between LaVerne and Whittier. The evening program includes a banquet for which a fee of about 75c will be charged, and another address on the responsibilities of the present generation of young people.

Sunday morning the local members will entertain the guests at a breakfast in Ganesha Park, Pomona, and at noon a picnic luncheon is planned, probably to be in the local park.

The Aid Society of the Church of the Brethren will prepare the meals for the visitors at the Aid Society rooms, and the first one will be served Friday evening at 6:00 o'clock.

The co-operation and attendance of LaVerne students and friends will add much to the success of the conference. Prominent speakers are being secured and much attention is being given to detail of the program, such as music and special items.

LELAND BRUBAKER SPEAKS TO Y. M.

EMPHASIZES THE NEED OF GOING FORWARD

Leland "Dutch" Brubaker met with the College Y. M. C. A. last Monday morning during their "Y" period. He addressed the fellows on the subject "Go Forward," and it proved to be a delightful variation for a Y. M. C. A. program, as well as a great inspiration to the men. "Dutch" is pastor of the Covina Church of the Brethren, a LaVerne alumnus, and a general good friend to all the college students.

His address was especially timely in view of the many advances the college has made this year, and also with the general spirit of moving forward manifested in the Y. M. C. A. itself.

He took as a basis for his thought three incidents recorded in the Bible.

He first painted a word picture of the Israelites as they journeyed from Egypt—three million strong—with all their property, with many miles of desert road to travel, with only a vague notion of their destination; but still the command came to them to "Go Forward."

The speaker referred to the disciples who had fished all night and had caught nothing, and yet the command of Jesus came to them—"Launch out into the deep." And the results were that a wonderful draught of fishes was brought in, because the fishermen went forward in spite of prevailing circumstances and past failures.

The same message comes to college men today. Sometimes we think all is lost, sometimes we think difficulties are absolutely insurmountable, and we look at past failures and say there is no use. Still the command comes to us to "Go Forward," and wonderful results come to those who heed the command and hear the Master's voice.

Young People Enjoy a Banquet of Fun and Inspiration

ROY E. CREIGHTON, FIELD SEC. OF C. E., SPEAKS

Last Tuesday evening, November 4, at seven o'clock, the young people of the LaVerne Church of the Brethren, including the college C. W. organization and the High School C. E., met in the College (Continued on Page Four)

MRS. MERRITT IS CHAPEL SPEAKER

MISS MALLAY DEEMED GREAT MODERN POET

The works of Edna St. Vincent Mallay, who is considered the greatest modern poet of the United States, were briefly discussed and criticized by Professor Merritt in chapel Thursday morning.

Miss Mallay gained her first recognition in clever, sophisticated verse which was edited in a book called "A Few Figs from Thistles." Some selections in this edition are characterized by a noticeable vein of thought in which the author makes cynical remarks about love. A good example of this mood is "Thursday." The thought of escaping reality in travel, and the ultimate consequence, which is finding nothing more than one has at home, is expressed in "The Unexplorer."

These two selections show Miss Mallay's ability at writing light, witty things only and do not reveal her talent in writing heavier and more serious poetry, which is very well demonstrated in "The King's Henchman." This became the libretto of the first All-American opera.

Although she can write the clever type of poetry better than most people she has changed the tone of her writing until now she is not only a master of light irony, but also a master of the deep and serious. The serious strain began to show more in her writing after the war.

There is an evident bitterness in

BONFIRE RALLY

Friday evening at 7:30 a big bonfire rally will be held for the Whittier game Saturday, and a real program is being arranged; so it won't be like the last rally.

Coaches Eisan and Glick will be there and give talks, as will Captain Hubbell and representatives from the LaVerne Chamber of Commerce.

A gigantic bonfire with some symbol of a Quaker or Poet will start the pep meeting and yells, songs, and other tonsil tickling activities will be engaged in.

The team is fighting for LaVerne and our Alma Mater! Let's show the men we're behind them! It's the best team we have had for at least four years.

Come to the bonfire rally Friday night at 7:30 p. m.

some of Miss Mallay's works which people rather deplore. She is not always bitter, however, and intimates that she would rather live in the world with all of its adversities than to miss all the beauties and interests of life. She also says that when her heart is hungry for beauty that it is always easy to satisfy this desire.

According to Miss Mallay's philosophy, a person can make himself as big a world to live in as he desired. This thought is expressed in the following lines with which the speaker closed her talk:

LEOPARDS VS POETS SAT.

Game Called at 2:15 Arnett Field; Frosh Preliminary at 12:30

LaVerne Has Second Chance to Upset Strong Team; Whittier vs. Pomona Tomorrow

This Saturday, the LaVerne varsity meets the Whittier Poets on Arnett Field at 2:15 p. m., following a Frosh preliminary with the San Diego first year team at 12:30.

This game offers the Leopards their second chance of the season to upset a team which is in the running for the conference pennant, Eisan's men failing to accomplish this feat against San Diego a few weeks ago.

Whittier has lost only one game that to Occidental in their first conference game. Since then they have had ups and downs, but right now they seem to be up, having defeated San Diego 19-13 two weeks ago to remain in the running for the flag, providing San Diego conquer's "Fox" Stanton's Engineers and the Poets pluck the Sagehens tomorrow.

Before the San Diego encounter they defeated Cal Christian 33-13 and lost to Santa Barbara 13-7.

If we made a comparison between the two teams with LaVerne playing like they did against Cal Christian and Whittier like the Poets battled the Aztecs, LaVerne wouldn't have much of a chance, but if the Leopards snap out of this week, there's going to be a real battle on Arnett Field Saturday. It's just up to the men as to what kind of a game we will see. They can play good enough to win if they will.

There is one factor decided for LaVerne, though, which is this: The Poets have scheduled a game with Pomona for Nov. 11, which is Armistice Day; and from the look of things they will have their hands full to pluck the Sagehens tomorrow and then be in shape for a A-1 performance against our Leopards Saturday, with just three days between the two contests.

Nicolas, stellar guard, will be back in the line-up also, which will strengthen the line considerably.

This should certainly make quite a difference and Eisan is going to drive his men to the limit in an effort to get them back to their old form to upset the Quakers.

The probable starting line-up for the Leopards: Jones and R. Adams ends; Ferree and Deal, tackle; Nicolas and Funk, guards; Montcenter; Capt. Hubbell, quarterback; Smith and Forney, halves, and Weybright, fullback.

"The world stands out on either side
No wider than the heart is wide
Above the world is stretched the sky—
No higher than the soul is high
Preceding the discourse the audience was favored with a solo by Miss Gladys Ikenberry.

WHAT IS YOUR PROGRAM FOR ARMISTICE DAY, TOMORROW?

Tomorrow, the people of the world will again celebrate one of their many holidays. Many have only hazy ideas as to why November 11 is a national and an international holiday and will seek some form of recreation for the day so they can bury the thought of their daily routines for a short time and enjoy a little change and relaxation from their regular duties. Others will think nothing of it at all, and keep on having a good time. Thousands in our own United States will attend football games, and will be glad for the holiday because they can watch two teams battle on the gridiron. Still many others will visit friends and relatives, take trips to the mountains or beaches, play a few rounds of golf, tennis or some other sport, or perhaps work on their hobbies.

On the other hand, there linger in the minds of many, thoughts of the horrors of the war when the men and women of different nations foolishly built gigantic armies, fleets, and squadrons of aircraft, to bring about the greatest catastrophe that man has ever experienced and to fall shorter than ever of internationalism, world peace, and world unity. These people realize that Armistice Day isn't only a day to lay off and relax, but a time set aside for definite work and careful thinking about the problems of world disarmament and world peace. This thinking class has prepared programs for the day that will educate the youth of the land to realize the value of peace and international co-operation, and the foolishness of war, large armies and navies, and other armaments. In fewer words, they are wisely educating for world peace.

This latter group is to be commended in its work, and we should all either be in this class or at least supporting their programs.

LaVerne is extremely fortunate in that the majority of its citizens realize the values of peace and are working for it, and the leaders of the community have prepared a real educational program for tomorrow.

If at all possible, support this program and do your part as one of the thinking classes of America to insure the world for world peace!

By their Tests Ye Shall Know Them

Mid-semester exam week is the time to become better acquainted with the various whims, moods, and hobbies of the professors of the college. They are as different as any people could possibly be, therefore it behooves grade-seeking students to do a great deal of research into the little eccentricities of the professors before writing an exam. Here are some instances which may be cited as illustrations of the wide differences existing: "Be brief and to the point." "Write two lines only on each question—no more." "There are only four questions, at write all four of them." "Answer the questions in as few words as possible. It's no fun to read over thirty, long, dry exam papers." "We will have a comprehensive examination; answer the questions fully, specifically, and in detail." Because of these attitudes which the professors hold toward exams, a student who, for instance, ranks first in Dr. Sarafian's class may receive the lowest grade from Dr. Hoover, or vice versa.

"Why follow the whims of the professors? I'll write what I know and write it in whatever way I choose." However, after the first exam grades are handed out, those students will usually be found meekly joining the ranks of the grade-seekers.

Should this be necessary? Why should students' originality and creative power be cramped in this way? Think it over!

The little girl was a very timid little soul, and her father was trying to reason her out of her fears. He tried to tell her that that there was nothing to fear in mice and frogs and bugs.

"Papa," she asked, "ain't you 'fraid of bugs?"

"No, dear."

"Papa, ain't you 'fraid of nothing else in the whole world but just mamma?"

Bring your friends to the Whittier game here Saturday.

Campus Chuckles

Professor Cullen asked the Sociology class if any of them were morons. For awhile no one stood up. Then Ed Cunningham stood up and Prof. Cullen asked Ed if he really thought he was a moron. Well, professor, Ed replied, "I hated to see you standing up there all alone."

Man on a train—Porter! 50c for another pitcher of ice water.

Porter—Sorry, suh, but if I takes any more ice, dat corpse in the baggage car ain't goin' to keep.

Dayton Stutzman—Dale, will you help me with this mathematics problem?

Dale Stutzman—Don't believe I should, Dayton. It wouldn't be right.

Dayton—It wasn't right the last time you helped me, but I'll take another chance.

Harriet Hoke—I've been asked to get married lots of times.

Arnelia Brubaker—Who asked you?

Harriet—Mother.

Ruth Piper—Why do you put powder on your face?

Francis Horner—To make me look pretty.

Ruth—Then why doesn't it?

Willie Long—I suppose you are on the football team?

Ralph F.—(proudly) Well, yeah; I do the aerial work.

Willie—What is that?

Ralph—I blow up the footballs.

Zelda Sheller—I wish I could change the alphabet.

Buck Feree—Why?

Zelda—I'd put "U" and "I" closer together.

Telegram—Washout on line, can't come.

Reply—Never mind. Come anyway. Borrow some clothes.

Beth Masterson—I don't like these pictures. They don't do me justice.

Photographer—Justice! Lady, what you want is mercy.

Athletes may come, athletes may go.

And fade as in a dream.

The horsefly is the best of all, He's always on the team.

Royal Glick—(after long argument) I wonder what would happen if you and I agreed on anything. Hazel B.—I'd be wrong.

Bob Welty—Thinking of me, dear?

Mollie W.—Was I laughing? I'm sorry.

Evelyn Deardorff—Why did you give up pipe organ lessons?

Anna Emmert—I felt so childish, playing with my feet.

Cy Nical Comments

Ain't it a grand and glorious feelin'? I imagine that is what a certain Frosh thought when he discovered that Arnelia Brubaker wasn't Harriet Hoke, and that he had had a date with Arnelia and thought it was Harriet. When did they get to be twins, or where did the Frosh get it?

I never saw it to fail. Some people expect a Packard to be made out of a Ford, and then kick like the old Gray Mare when it isn't done. Hannah, help the photographer, he did his darndest.

I imagine the editor of the Lambda appreciates the cooperation which a certain elderly member of the faculty gives him when he refuses to have his picture taken at no cost to him. It seems to me that the faculty would be willing to help a production which is attempting to represent L. V. C. Oh well, I suppose it is rather difficult to wiggle into a new stiff collar and a patronizing expression at the same time, even if it doesn't cost anything. I imagine that the editor of any publication needs the patience of Job and the ability of a dog catcher.

I see that the newest affair to take up some of the time is the newly formed press club. Say, if that bunch think they are original in being the first press club in our neck of the orange groves, they are mistaken. It is true they are the first to go in to the pressing business on a wholesale scale but there have been press clubs all the country ever since school started. If you don't believe me, I will take you around to some of the best places some moonlight night.

I wonder if the reason some girls go without stockings is because, as the chapel speaker suggested, they can't afford them or are they too hot with them on? I think such a deed is the height of cruelty. I actually saw a fly slip and bust his neck, and it wasn't from gawking, either.

I noticed a sign on the bulletin board advertising for two young men or women to sell some kind of an article. It said they could make $3.00 per day, but did not say what they were to sell. Someone suggested undershirts. I thought the optical club scare was all over. After reading the sign, I looked around and decided the person would make more selling colored glasses instead of the mentioned article.

"Let's get Sansouci." That expression is better than "Let's get associated." The person who takes all his cares and troubles with him can not get associated if he tries; so let's get Sansouci to get associated. Try it and see how your digestion improves.

If I could have a beak to beak conference with someone the other day I certainly would have stepped all over his toes. I parked my car parallel to the white lines and some whatchamaycallit parked beside me, but at right angles to the curb. When I wanted to leave I had to do a Persian square dance to get out. grrrrrr.

In my little comment last issue about the ultra modern method of securing apples. I did not mean to support stealing. I was merely directing my whistle at a person's tactless attempt at reform. If I felt, as the Turks do, that all Christians were dishonest I would run right home and take all the pennies out of my little china piggy.

Nick says that his arm is getting along fine and he can almost straighten it. Wasn't she lucky that it was bent instead of straight? It looked to me as if it were bent in a most inviting and comfortable position—underneath the moon.

If I must stop and wonder each time I stub a toe just why my kismet was arranged that way I never would get through wondering. I certainly pity the Turks. I believe the best thing to say when we get hurt is kisme instead of kismet. Try it and see how your heart speeds up.

Of all the disgraceful sights I have ever seen, the curtains in chapel took the piggy's whiskers last Thursday. They looked as if someone with the palsy had tried to tie a bow knot in them. I believe it is the moral duty of the commission, or someone with a smell of authority, to make someone responsible for the way the stage and curtains look during the chapel periods.

Isn't it pathetic that a certain student in this school cannot afford 25c for a volume of valuable information? Especially when he could contribute one sixty-fifth to the volume, yet 25c is too much. He should be thankful that the professor said he would make arrangements for him. At least that is something.

I would be rather surprised to see a modern youth tip his hat, even if he tried to tip it from the back as they did once in a while in Turkey. The reason is so few wear hats; they are so hard on dandruff.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—

1. An average person requires 12 lbs. of salt per year.
2. An island off the Malay Peninsula, with quite a population, recently sank out of sight?
3. Peanut hulls have been used in the manufacturing of paper.
4. It required 2000 men three years to carry a single stone from Elephantine to Sias for use in one of Egypt's pyramids.
5. From Maine to Porto Rico nearly 300 lights aid navigation.

STUDENT SOCIAL LIFE

Faculty News

A house warming surprise was given for Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Brandt in their new home by the faculty on Tuesday evening, Nov. 4th. All the faculty members were present. A few of them were called upon for contributions to the program.

President Studebaker made a speech in appreciation of Prof. and Mrs. Brandt.

Prof. Haugh sang "Mandy and the Spiders" and "Philosophy," Mrs. Haugh read "Home" by Edgar Guest and gave an inscription for the bedroom ceiling; and Prof. Travis played several piano solos.

Dr. Emmert will give an address at the Church of the Brethren at Covina on Sunday, Nov. 16. He will speak on the subject "Our Best Selves."

President Studebaker addressed the San Bernardina Junior College Assembly, Friday, Nov. 7. His subject was, "The Value of a Liberal Arts Education."

He will preach at the Belvedere Church of the Brethren on Sunday morning, Nov. 9th. He will officiate at their communion service in the evening.

Dr. Hoover is to represent LaVerne College in the Academic Procession during the inaugural occasion of the in-coming president, Dr. Cheverton, of California Christian College, at LaVerne, Sunday, Nov. 16th.

On Sunday evening, Nov. 16th, President Studebaker will speak to the men of the Navy Fleet and citizens of the San Pedro Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Harper Frantz attended the registrar's convention, which was held Nov. 6th, 7th and 8th at the University at Berkeley.

Mr. Yoder and Mr. Will Dick of Reedley, who is an old friend of the college, went to Long Beach Friday, Nov. 7th on business.

The I. W. Butterbaugh family were dinner guests of I. D. Yoders last Sunday. Ronald Bessey and Alexander Mallides were also guests.

Work on Lamda Progressing

The editor of the Lambda is more than pleased with the program of the book. Last Thursday evening at the staff meeting several important issues were decided upon. One of them was the type of cover which will be used this year. The editor believes it is the most beautiful that has ever been used. Another thing which should make the Sophomores happy is the fact that their bright and shining faces will be given a little more prominence this year than previously. There is one thing which the editor urges you to do, and that is jar loose with your kodaks and turn in pictures to Boly. The book is to be your book, so make it real. The snaps are to be mounted in an altogether new way this year, so make the snap section one of your chief interests.

Choral Union Presents First Program

WORK ON "MESSIAH" NOW IN PROGRESS

The Choral Union gave its first programme last Sunday morning, November 2, at the Church of the Brethren during the preaching hour.

The number given was "Te Deum" by Buck. Professor Haugh the director, and the president of the club were very much pleased and are ready to start hard work on further projects.

The new project is part of the "Messiah" which will be given the latter part of December. This is a big number, and all students who have tried out, or have not tried out and can sing, are requested to come out to the practice.

The practices scheduled for each week, until the "Messiah" is to be given are:

Boys—Monday at 7 p. m.
Girls—Tuesday at 3:45 p. m.

Student Volunteers Meet at W.H. Neher Home

"HAPPINESS" SUBJECT OF EVENING PROGRAM

Last Wednesday, Oct. 29, The Student Volunteers met in the home of W. H. Neher, where the subject of the program was "Happiness" led by Dwight Du Bois.

The leader conducted the devotional period, reading several inspirational poems, followed by several poems of optimism and happiness given by Vera Hoover. Two books were then reviewed: "The Pursuit of Happiness" by George Hodges was sketched by Royal Glick and the "Epicurean Philosophy of Happiness" was presented by Guy Jordan.

In the first review the essentials for happiness were: determination, peace, proportion, vision, ministration, and religion; and the application of these was well brought out. The Epicurean Philosophy made pleasure an end and the aim in life. It consists in the absence of pain and trouble, and the virtues of a pleasant life are prudence, honor, and justice.

Between the book reviews a duet, "I Need Thee, Lord", was sung by Grace Brubaker and Dortha Gans. Letters of greeting from sister organizations in Elizabethtown College and Mt. Morris College were read.

Further business consisted in the approval of Martha Baer as vice-president of the S. Calif. S. V. Union and Glenn Harmon as treasurer of the same. Ed Cunningham already holds the position of deputation chairman in the organization.

After the meeting, the cabinet met at F. D. Yoders to plan for the conference which will be held here Nov. 14, 15, and 16. Dwight Du Bois was named lodging committee chairman, Virginia Stern as head of the eats committee; Glenna Betz, chairman of the banquet; Martha Baer, reception committee; Pearl Niswander, music; and Ed. Cunningham, program. The conference is expected to be a big success.

LUMNI NOOS

Mary Blickenstaff Brubaker and her husband of Los Angeles attended the 60th wedding anniversary of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Eikenberry, Thursday evening. Edith Blickenstaff Peters and Margaret Price Blickenstaff served refreshments to the guests who called to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Eikenberry during their open house hours in the afternoon.

Harry and Margaret Blickenstaff have broken ground for their new home on east Third street, LaVerne.

A recent letter from J. W. Fox, in India, tells about 23 inches of rain falling in 24 hours in Bulsar where he is at work in the hospital.

Herman and Hazel Landis are both assisting with the religious education work in Garden Grove where Herman is teaching.

Miss Estella Landis spent the week-end at Big Bear in company with a group of Camp Fire Girls leaders. Estella has a fine group of Camp Fire girls at Puente where she is teaching school.

Miss Mina Throne reports a pleasant summer at Asilomar, where she worked in the book store a few hours a day and attended conferences during other hours. This was her second summer as a "stuck-up." Her sister, Mary, was a "stuck-up" this summer also.

The little daughter of Byrl and Alida Harper is slowly convalescing from her recent serious illness.

Letha Irwin Mishler and her husband, Galen Mishler, are spending some time at Lindsay before coming to LaVerne for an extended visit.

PROFESSOR MUIR ADDRESSES Y.W.

TELLS EXPERIENCES AS A FOREIGNER IN EUROPE

"In Prof. Gladys E. Muir's address to the "Y" girls, she explained that the reason everything was so interesting on her trip was that it was different. Other nations admire nationalism, according to Professor Muir, and feel that they have something to contribute to the world. They look down upon us Americans because they say we have never given anything to the world. They say that we go to Europe and enjoy their countries' accomplishments, but give nothing in return.

When Professor Muir first landed in Europe she felt very exhilarated and free, but after a while the newness wore off and she felt a sense of loneliness as she was unable to understand their language. Miss Muir also pointed out to us that the foreigner must feel much the same way when he comes to the United States, and that we should all try more to be friendly to him.

Glenn Harmon resigned his position of Practical Service Chairman because of his numerous other duties, and Fred Butterbaugh was appointed in his place.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 4, in the social hall in the form of a banquet in conjunction with the C. W. and C. E. which are entertaining Rev. Roy Creighton at 7:00 p. m.

NEWSETTES

A group of students of LaVerne College journeyed to Antelope Valley for a hunting trip. They report having killed two coyotes and a few rabbits. In all the party consisted of 16. Those from college were: Frances and George Berg, Dorothy Page and Buck Ferree.

SENIOR MEETING

The Seniors held their bi-monthly meeting Tuesday evening at 8:15 in the men's "Y" room. Points of interest brought up concerned senior garb and a possible class gift to be left to the school. The treasurer announced the closing of orders for the rings and pins on Friday of this week, and urged all to report whether ordering or not. Refreshments consisting of fruit salad and sandwiches were served with the Funk brothers acting as waiter and head waiter.

The Student Volunteer Cabinet entertained Miss Day, traveling secretary, at a luncheon given at the home of Edna Phillips. Miss Day plans to be in Pomona Friday, Whittier and Long Beach Saturday, and then to leave for Berkeley, where she plans on continuing her school work. Those present were E. Cunningham, Dortha Gans, Harry Thomas, Martha Baer, Pearl Niswander, Virginia Stern, Lucile Forney, Fred Butterbaugh, Chalmer Faw, Evelyn Deardorff and Edna Phillips.

The English Club met Wednesday at 10:25 in the English room to make plans for the year. It was decided that the club would study current literature.

Alba Montgomery reviewed the play "Green Pastures" which was the Pulitzer Prize winner for 1929.

A number of new members were present at the meeting and it was decided that effort should be made to increase the membership.

The Spanish Club held a meeting at 12:45 Wednesday, November 5, to discuss plans for the foreign language program at Christmas time.

Anita Bowman was elected secretary, and Mildred Adams, Hazel Kennedy and Hazel Gilson were appointed to find a suitable name for the club. Anita Bowman, Edith Coffman and Eva Satterberg were appointed to make arrangements for the Christmas program.

It was decided to have one meeting in Spanish and the next in English, etc. It was also decided to have the regular meetings once a month, after school on Wednesday. However, the next meeting will be held at 12:45, November 19.

WEEKEND RESULTS

Caltech 6, Occidental 0

The Engineers continued their wrecking tactics at the Rose Bowl Friday night and battered the Oxy Tigers for a 6-0 win which makes them a strong favorite to win the conference pennant, since they have only one game yet to play, which is with San Diego.

Fox Stanton introduced his real laterals against Occidental, and they had the Tigers baffled most of the time. Caltech has a good team and deserved to win.

Redlands 6, San Diego 0

San Diego suffered their second unexpected defeat in two weeks, this time 6-0 at the hands of the growling Bulldogs.

Hank Beiden of Redlands intercepted an Aztec pass in the last five minutes of play and scored the only touchdown of the game after galloping 21 yards to the goal line.

Frosh Thirst for Revenge

After the Sherman Indian Defeat

The Leopard Kittens are anxiously looking forward to their fray with the Aztec Papooses Saturday at 12:30 preliminary to the varsity struggle with Whittier.

The contest will take on the nature of a championship game, since the San Diego yearlings are, as yet, undefeated; and beat the Oxy Frosh 20-7 two weeks ago. The Kittens are out after that championship, but not only that. They are anxious to make up for the stinging defeat handed them by the Sherman Indians in their last start, and this will mean plenty of trouble for the Aztec Babes Saturday.

Lots of hard work is on tap for the squad in preparation for this game, which ought to take on a different aspect than the Indian game.

The probable starting line-up for the Frosh will be: Montgomery, quarter; Davis and Brooks, halves; Vaniman, fullback; Messie and Wilkerson, ends; A. Calvert, and Noll, tackles; Deeter and Aeschbocker, guards, and Sweihart, center.

Come for the preliminary at 12:30!

Y. P. BANQUET

Social Hall for a general good time together. An "organized" pot-luck supper was served which was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present. The meal was one of the main features of the evening, but there were plenty of other good things in store.

"Lindy" Landis and Ruth Miller led the group in C. E. pep songs which helped considerably in settling the meat loaf and salad.

Glenn Harmon, the president of the college group, was toastmaster and kept things going in good shape.

Grace Gans presented a group of exceptionally humorous readings, Robert Walker fiddled two selections, and Dorothy Frantz presented another humorous reading entitled "The Englishman at a Ball Game."

After this program Ed. Cunningham led the group in a few hymns after which Mr. Roy Creighton, the field secretary for the Los Angeles Christian Endeavor was introduced. Mr. Creighton is a very forceful speaker, and he presented the C. E. movement to the group in a very fine way. Many of the group were led to a determination to follow Christ and to endeavor to do his best in true service.

There were about 80 young people present.

The LaVerne Leopards played the California Christian College Panthers, and after a poor exhibition of football the final score was 6-6. The showing made by the LaVerne team was very disappointing in comparison with the brand of football they produced in the San Diego game. However, the fellows were not keyed up as they were for the conference games.

The battle Saturday started off very inauspiciously for LaVerne. LaVerne received the opening kickoff and ran it back to the 40 yard line, where Adams fumbled and the ball was recovered by Cal-Christian. Cal-Christian carried the ball down the field on a series of bucks and carried it over without any trouble or noticeable opposition from the LaVerne team. The touchdown was made three minutes after the opening whistle, but this is no precedent, for in every game LaVerne has played this year the team has dropped into a period of stupor for the first few minutes.

After this touchdown the teams battled on more or less even terms for the rest of the half. Although LaVerne's plays failed to click, they were able to keep the Panthers from showing any great drive toward the goal line.

The second half started out to be another battle on even terms until Calvert uncorked a pass from his own forty yard line to Bert Jones on Cal Christian's 40 yard line. Bert drew the ball to his bosom and turned and outdistanced the Panther backs to the goal line. LaVerne had had a chance to forge into the lead by converting the extra point, but a bad pass from center ruined this chance, thus ending the game in a tie.

The showing of the team as a whole was very poor and the men are due to get a lot of work in practice this week to get back into their old-time playing form.

"Hobbs" Adams again played a strong game at end and was undoubtedly the best player on the field Saturday. It was unfortunate that he fumbled the opening kickoff, for it leaves a bad blemish on an otherwise good showing. "Hobbs" tried his hand at carrying the ball and showed up better than the backs. Smith played a hard, consistent game at half. Jones did some good work on the play that resulted in a touchdown. Otherwise the playing was very mediocre.

Nicolas was missed a great deal in the line and his return to the line-up for the Whittier game will give the Leopards a much stronger team than they put on the field Saturday.

The line-ups:

Cal-Christian		LaVerne
Newman	LER	Adams
Jones	LTR	Deal
Smith	LGR	Roynon
Carter	C	Montz
Wright	RGL	Heckman
Burns	RTL	Ferree
Garland	REL	Jones
Thompson	Q	Hubbell
Allensworth	LHR	Forney
Grodinsky	RHL	Smith
North	F	Weybright

GRID PREDICTIONS

Redlands upset San Diego, Stanford pulled a surprise by taking the Huskies, and the Leopards failed to come through, which gives us a rather poor percentage for last week's forecasts. Four were right and three predictions went haywire for a percentage of .570. However, Whittier may help us out by trimming the Sagehens tomorrow, which would boost our percentage to .625.

This week's games and predictions:

Whittier at LaVerne—Leopards, if they play like they can.
Cal Christian at Redlands—the latter by two or more touchdowns.
Caltech at Stanford—the Cards.
Nevada at California—Golden Bears.

Oregon vs. Oregon State—Oregon by one or two touchdowns.

Washington State vs. Washington—Cougars are best bet.

Bonita vs. Claremont—close game; Bonita has good chance to win.

El Monte vs. Puente—El Monte best.

COAST CONFERENCE GRID NEWS

Stanford 25, Washington 7

Stanford snapped out of it and got their passing attack going to defeat the Huskies 25-7 at Palo Alto Saturday.

To say the least, the result was a surprise, if not an upset, and Pop Warner should feel better now.

Jimmy Phelan's men scored first in the opening stanza, but the Cards came back with an attack that netted two scores in the second quarter and two more in the second half.

Trojans 74, California 0

If there was any doubt left as to the strength of the S. C. team after the Stanford landslide, it was completely dispelled in the minds of all intelligent grid fans Saturday when the men of Troy humiliated the Golden Bears with a 74-0 lacing, probably the greatest score for any major game in the country this season.

The poor Bears couldn't even catch the scent of the mighty Trojans and with all due respect to Eisan and other Cal alumni, the California team looked like a bunch of grammar school dreamers, from all reports.

Oregon 7, U. C. L. A. 0

U. C. L. A., although unable to gain many yards themselves, held the strong Oregon team for downs short of their own goal line all but once Saturday, which was a very good showing for Coach Spaulding and his Bruins.

Washington State 33, Idaho 7

Washington State earned a 33-7 decision over the Idaho Vandals at Moscow. The Cougars have only Jimmy Phelan's Huskies left between them and a championship now, and they will seek to eliminate this last obstacle Saturday in the north's "big game."
