J. STITT WILSON HERE WEDNESDAY

SPEAKS IN CHAPEL AT 10:30

All Day Visit To Be Captioned by
Lecture in College Auditorium
In the Evening

One of the most notable figures to visit LaVerne for some time will be entertained on the college campus all day Wednesday, May 11, when J. Stitt Wilson, world-renowned Y. M. C. A. lecturer, makes his second appearance in three years at LaVerne College. He will speak in chapel Wednesday morning, hold individual and group appointments during the day, and then speak in the college auditorium in the evening, at which a very nominal charge will be made to cover expenses.

Those who have heard Stitt Wilson need no urging to persuade them to attend these lectures. He is perhaps the most dynamic, thought-provoking speaker sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. today. The readiness with which he is received at conferences such as are held at Asilomar, illustrate his influence and standing among college groups.

He is on a two weeks tour of Southern California colleges and universities. LaVerne cannot afford to let him pass by or to make a poor response to his appearance under these conditions.

NEW COMMISSIONERS ARE NOW INSTALLED

Retiring Commissioners Receive Pins in Recognition of Service

One of the most important events in regard to the student body occurred Friday morning when the members of the new commission were duly installed in office.

After the retiring president's farewell talk, Dr. Emmert came to the platform and in his address, he spoke of the faithful work of the officers during the past school year, and looking forward into the future, he expressed the hope that the coming year would be a success. He reminded the new commission of their trust and the honor that the students had given them and asked them if they would do their best to prove worthy of it. They responded and Dr. Emmert closed his address with a prayer for a successful future.

At the end of the new president's first speech he performed his first duty for the student body in presenting the retiring commission with their pins.

Our Commissioners---In Former Life

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

Marion R. Boots was born November 8, 1905, at Covina, Calif., where he has lived practically all his life. He entered grammar school at Covina in 1912; and during the course of his grammar school career, he also attended the Ninth Street school in Los Angeles and the Centralia District school in Orange County. He was a member of some grammar school football and track teams which made enviable records.

In 1920 he entered Covina Union High School where he proved himself a letter man in basketball for four years, in football for three, in track for three, and baseball for one. In his senior year he was honored as president of the Student Body Association. He also served as art editor for his high school annual during his last two years.

Boots entered LaVerne College in 1924. Here he filled the position of art editor for the Orange Blossom in his Freshman and Sophomore years, of class treasurer in his Sophomore year, and of first vice-president of the Y. M. C. A. in his Junior year. So far he has captured two letters in football, two in basketball, one in track, and two in baseball.

COMMISSIONER OF WELFARE

Hilda Lois Brubaker was born February 5, 1908 at Covina, California. The latest report has it that this is still her home. She entered grammar school there in 1913. She acted as substitute teacher in kindergarten while in the eighth grade.

Covina Union High School enrolled her among its freshmen in 1921. Here she received a basketball letter in her Junior year, served as secretary of the Awaheha Club, and filled the position of Commissioner of Records of the Student Body Association.

In 1925 Miss Brubaker entered LaVerne College. She was secretary of the freshman class; and in her sophomore year she ably filled the office of class yell leader.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLICATIONS

Nellie Bernice Frantz was born on August 19, 1906, at Firth, Nebraska. She entered Victor grammar school in that state in 1913. Later she also attended grammar school at the John Marshall School in Chicago and at the Park School at McPherson, Kans.

For three years she attended Red Cloud (Nebr.) High School, and graduated from LaVerne Academy in 1924.

Ever since entering LaVerne College that same year, she has been very active as a member of the Y. W. C. A. and of the Campus Times staff. In 1925 she was Undergraduate Representative in the Y. W. C. A., and in her junior year she has been honored as president of that organization. In the Campus Times work she has served as society editor, as edition editor and as news editor.

COMMISSIONER OF FINANCE

Merlin D. Yoder was born August 9, 1904, at McPherson, Kansas. He had a little experience in the kindergarten here, but entered grammar school at LaVerne in 1911. Later he also attended grammar school at Lindsay, California, and at the Rosedale school near Lindsay.

He entered Lindsay High School in 1919, remaining there one year. The next two years were spent at Strathmore High School and the final one at LaVerne Academy, where he earned a football letter.

Yoder entered LaVerne College in 1924. In his sophomore year he served as business manager of the Campus Times.

COMMISSIONER OF ATHLETICS

Mark D. Lehmer was born October 23, 1906, at Los Angeles, Calif., which wicked city has been his home ever since. He entered the Gates Street Grammar School in 1912 and later also attended Placentia school. He was a member of the grammar school track team.

In 1918 he entered Lincoln High Intermediate, attended Fullerton High for one year, and finished at Lincoln. He won letters in track and basketball, was named as a member of the all-city track team and also of the all-city basketball team; served as football manager in his junior year, and as basketball captain in his senior year, and graduated with athletic honors in 1924. He was also junior class president.

Lehmer entered LaVerne College in 1924. Here he has been active in student activities of all kinds. He has been a letter man in football for three years, in basketball for three, in baseball for two, and in track for two. In his sophomore year he was class president, basketball captain, and vice-president of the Y. M. C. A. In his junior year he has been president of the Student Volunteers. He will be football captain next year.

COMMISSIONER OF FORENSICS

Lorell Weiss was born August 2, 1907 at Drake, North Dakota. He entered Spring Grove Grammar School near Drake in 1913. Later he attended the grammar school at Drake, and (moving to the far west in 1919) at College Place, Washington; at Freewater, Ore., and at Outlook, Washington.

He entered Outlook (Wash.) High School in 1921, and served as Freshman class president. He filled the position of Student Body treasurer during his entire time in high school. In 1923 he entered the ministry of the Church of the Brethren. He graduated from high school as valedictorian of his class in 1924 and moved to Portland, Oregon, shortly afterwards.

In 1924 he entered Bethany Bible School at Chicago, Illinois and remained there for one year. During that time he was president of that institution's Livingstone Society. He entered LaVerne College as a sophomore in 1926 and has held the position of sophomore class treasurer.

LANGUAGE DEPT. IN CHAPEL PROGRAM

The Spanish classes gave a most interesting program in chapel last Wednesday morning. They were assisted by members of the French and German classes. Wilma Long told how the Spanish Mission in LaVerne was established and of some of the experiences the Spanish students have had in their visits to "Mexican town."

Alberta Maust and Chester Shirk also gave short talks about the present condition of the Mexican people in LaVerne. Few of the college students had realized just how terrible the conditions really are among these people until they learned of the facts brought out by the sociology department of the college.

A German song was sung by Mary Messamer and a French song by Emerson Button. Verna Sheets led devotions in Spanish. The program was concluded by a Spanish song by all the classes.

Not only was the program entertaining but it also gave everyone an opportunity to learn more about the Mexican problem in LaVerne.

Hoover: Ernie, what are your views on kissing?

Ernie: I have none. Her hair always gets in my eyes.

THE ORANGE BLOSSOM IS TO APPEAR SOON

The long-looked-for, long-hoped-for, long-dreamed-of Annual will soon be completed and ready for sale. The Annual staff, with Lloyd Emmert as editor, has been working hard all year on the book and promise one of the best that has ever been published by LaVerne College. Good pictures, stories and jokes will be found in this year's annual which no one can afford to be without.

The final O. K. was given to the printer Wednesday and the annual will probably be published in about a week. Everyone should have his two dollars ready and his fountain pen filled for signing annuals by that time.

"Every student with an annual" should be the motto of LaVerne for the rest of the year.

MEMBERS OF STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION VISITS SCHOOL

Mrs. Evelyn Clement, a representative of the State Board of Education, made a visit to LaVerne College on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mrs. Clement visited practically all of the classes, and in Dr. Bennett's "School Law" class, gave a very interesting talk on education and the new educational laws passed recently by the legislature.

"THE YOUNGEST" WAS LIKED BY ALL

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY RECEIVED WITH MUCH COMPLIMENTARY
COMMENT

Unaffected Acting Made Junior Comedy Real Success

"The Youngest," a comedy presented by the Junior class on Friday, May 6th, proved to be greatly appreciated by the audience. The play was well coached by Clarence Wheeler, a member of the Junior class.

The story depicts the trials of the youngest of a large family in his attempts to make something of himself. Although laughed at by his older brothers and sisters, he kept on until he had accomplished something in the world.

John Brubaker as "The Youngest," Richard Winslow, won the applause of the audience for his excellent acting; one of his favorite sayings being, "What this world needs is more leisure time and fewer alarm clocks." He portrayed the spirit of the young people of today.

Clarence Wheeler, acting the part of Mark Winslow; and Harold Hoff, that of Oliver Winslow, took their parts as heartless older brothers so well that everyone sympathized with Richard Winslow in his misfortune of having such brothers who were hindrances to his success as an author.

"Muff" Winslow, Lois Ruth Miller, was Richard's sole helper. She stood by him when everyone else was against him. She was a real sister as everyone knows her—always ready to have fun; always ready to "listen in."

The role of Mrs. Winslow, a good, sweet old lady, was played by Olive Shirk, while Milton Brownberger and Grayce Longenecker had the parts of a newly married couple.

Miriam Shirk became the heroine of the story when her theory of treating a "lion like a lamb" proved successful with Richard Winslow.

Ruth Stoner took the part of maid in the Winslow home.

The play, in spite of all of its "ups and downs" in change of characters, was one that will long be remembered by all who saw it because of the excellent acting and the choice of play.

DR. CRUMPACKER SPEAKS IN CHAPEL AGAIN

Dr. Crumpacker was the speaker in chapel today. He gave a very interesting talk on the modern political conditions in China and of the existing relations between the Chinese and the U. S. government at the present time.

On last Saturday Prof. Hollenberg left for Florida to attend the funeral of his father. Mr. Hollenberg and family lived in LaVerne some years ago and John, who is now a missionary in China; Grace, who is now Mrs. Bright of McPherson, Kans.; Quinter, who is on a ranch at Arrowwood, Alberta, Canada, and George, whom the students of L. V. know as their Biology professor, were all former students and some of them graduates of LaVerne.

The student body of LaVerne College wish to extend their sympathies to Professor Hollenberg on the death of his father, Mr. W. F. Hollenberg, who died Wednesday night, May 4.

A PRAYER TO THE NEW COMMISSION

Ah, brave commissioners, to you we submit our government for the next year. Will you not answer the trust we have placed in you? Will you forget the times when you, too, were mere college students? Will you forget your humble vow to work for your Alma Mater? Pray do not do this, for although we honor you with the position you now hold remember that your office carries work with it.

You know LaVerne College is yet small, but that only means that all of us must work the more. So, forget not your campaign vows. Let us see the fruits of your works. Guide us ever towards a bigger and better LaVerne College. Unite us in this that we may all go forward toward the college of our dreams.
—DON C. MILLER.

THOUGHTS FOR THE CRITICS

A Word To the Constituency

LaVerne College has often been criticized in this manner: "Why should I send my children to a small church school when they can go to a state school cheaper and will have better teachers? Why should I send them to LaVerne to learn to go to movies and to the dogs in general? Really I can't see where LaVerne College is any better than any other school, so why should I support it?"

Now listen, friend, the writer is not trying to convert you. All he wants you to do is to investigate a little and then think. Yes, THINK!

Can you send your children to a state school cheaper than to send them to LaVerne College? After a little investigation this is the report: You cannot. Even though there is no tuition to pay at the state school, you will discover many incidental fees which will total far more than LaVerne's tuition. For instance, the writer happens to know fellows attending one of nearly every state college or university in California and they report to him that by the cheapest of living $700 a year is the lowest possible amount anyone can go through any of them. The writer finds that practically all of the LaVerne students go through one year of school for $450.

These friends of the writer attending state schools also report that the crowded conditions in their colleges do not allow them the advantages of good teachers. Of course they have some of the best teachers in the world heading the departments, but only advanced students come in contact with them. Less experienced teachers instruct under-graduates. The universities admit this themselves by their move to drop the first two years of college and allow junior colleges to care for under-class training.

The writer does not care if you wish to pay $250 a year more for less experienced teachers. That is your business.

Then let us consider the other question of LaVerne sending young people to the dogs. First, the moving pictures which the college presents: The college authorities believe that clean movies are all right and filthy movies are all wrong. LaVerne College has been choosing good, clean pictures.

Moving pictures are not nearly all bad. Some of the best inspirations of the writer's life have come from good movies.

This discussion brings us to one point: the matter of choice. You can use your automobile wrong; you can use your Bible wrong, but you can use them right, also. It depends upon your choice.

Now friend—if you have done your share your children will have 99 chances out of 100 of coming out of LaVerne College as good, clean men and women. Your share? What is your share? It is just this: Have you been choosing the good and the bad for your children all their lives? Have you been forcing them to use your "backbone" instead of forming one of their own? If you have been doing this you have failed in making men and women out of your children and it doesn't matter where they go—to LaVerne College or a state school—they have only a 50-50 chance of making successes out of themselves. Why? Because they don't know how to choose the right from the wrong.

LaVerne College does not pretend to say do this or do that. But it does attempt to put the good things of life before the students. However, the world is all around and if you haven't done your share in giving your children a little backbone of their own they have only one guide: what the college sets forth; otherwise they are likely to fail.

The state school makes no pretense of judging between good and bad. Even of your children have had a chance to develop a strong character temptation is set about them on every hand. In hard moments there is no one to guide them. Their chances are small. And if they have no backbone of their own—do not know how to choose for themselves—Oh, why are there so many moral failures anyway? THINK!

MAY MASQUE TO BE DIFFERENT

The May Masque is to be given Saturday night, May 14, at 8 o'clock in front of Miller Hall.

The masque this year is to be entirely different from any given at LaVerne before. Many drills, graceful and otherwise, are given thruout the evening, as well as singing.

Everyone is welcomed. A small charge of 25 and 35 cents will be made.

Are you weary of lectures and discourses? Do you tire of plays and parties and banquets? Then come to the May Masque all ye entertainment-surfeited people, and be soothed—delighted, and refreshed by something new.

By the May magic you will be transported far away to a forest dim and old where flowers and birds, winds and streams, and maidens fair will gather to do homage to the Queen of the May. You will behold the unraveling of the intricate threads of a fairy tale, where dwarfs gambol about on the green; where a wee lad and lassie are lost in the wood and where Night Terrors intrude their grim visages; where dawn comes stealing and daisies nod and white rabbits flourish their long pink ears. When the grand finale of the May-pole breaks the spell, you will be loath to return to this commonplace sphere.

Famous Last Words

It was raining terribly. The grid-iron was a sea of mud. The players came out of every scrimmage like a poor old Ford comes out of a mud-hole. The orange and green had lost their brilliant hues and the nice white pants of the officials were darkly spotted.

First Soph Girl: Isn't it terrible that they should get so dirty. Look at their shirts, how will they ever get them clean?

2nd Soph Girl: Well, what do you suppose they have the scrub team for?

STUDENT LIFE

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

A most interesting talk was the feature of the Y. W. C. A. chapel hour on Monday, May 2, which was delivered by Mrs. Shaw, a representative from Frasher's art department. It was about lamp shades, various styles, materials and how to make them. She gave suggestions for lamps in the girls' rooms, and offered her services to anyone at any time. The hour was a very interesting and helpful one.

HARRIET WOODY SURPRISED

Last Wednesday, May 4, Harriet Woody was given a surprise party as a celebration of her twenty-first birthday. Merle and Harriet had planned (?) to celebrate the occasion by attending the Mission Play in the evening, but upon leaving for the aforesaid place, the porch light was flashed on and Harriet was met by a group of friends and was completely surprised. The party was then transferred to the home of the host, Merle Butterbaugh, where the evening was spent in the playing of games.

The party was climaxed when the lights were turned out and a large birthday cake, bearing twenty-one candles and forming the figure "21", was brought into the room. After the cake had been cut by the honoree refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and punch were served.

Those present besides the guest of honor and host were: Ruth Wilkinson, Hilda Brubaker, Laura Shaver, Cecilia Shaffer, Miriam Shirk, Lola Ramsey, Ramah Maust, Mark Lehmer, Marion Boots, Ross Heminger, Jay Myers, Ivan Betts, Zaphon Hartman and Harvey Emley.

He: Did you sound out your family about you and me getting married?
She: Yes, and dad sounded the worst.

Knowing the disease is half the cure, but how many of us ever suspect there's anything the matter with us?

CAMPUS TIMES STAFF HAVE STEAK FRY

The Rothrocks' cabin in Live Oak Canyon, was the scene of the Campus Times staff party last Wednesday evening. The society reporters were guests of the rest of the staff. The group met in front of the college and started for the cabin about 7:30 p. m.

The evening was spent in playing games and giving stunts. Ralph Schrock and Russell Frantz also entertained with special music.

The editor thanked the staff for their co-operation in the contest and presented Katherine Rothrock with the first prize of $5.00, and Naomi Metzger, with a second prize of $2.00.

The fried steak, pickles and buns were enjoyed by everyone and the reporters went home feeling like continuing to work although the contest has closed.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Arnett presented a LaVerne pillow to each of the Y rooms. These very fitting gifts are thoroughly appreciated by the two organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Miller are moving to Yuma, Arizona. Mrs. Miller, formerly Opal Studebaker, was a graduate of LaVerne Academy.

Wanda and Ernest Carl spent Sunday, May 8th, at their home in Hermosa Beach. Lorell Weiss accompanied them and preached at the Hermosa church.

The Ramona pageant at Hemet proved to be a great attraction to LaVerne students Sunday, May 8. Those who attended were Laura Shaver, Verna Shirk, Irma Heminger, Lola Ramsey, Florence Long, Dorothy Temple, Ross Heminger, Milton Brownsberger, Harold Brubaker, Zaphon Hartman, Orville Brooks and Norval Caywood.

Naomi Metzger and Edith Blickenstaff spent the week-end with Nova Leonard at her home at Hermosa Beach.

Last Tuesday Miss Mildred Seymour, senior in Bonita High School, played several piano solos in chapel.

Miss Seymour is a former graduate of the music department of LaVerne College and has been studying under Mrs. Gray for the past few years.

Dorm Dabs

Mrs. Clement, from the office of the State Superintendent of Education at Sacramento, was a guest at Miller Hall for luncheon Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Holden of Los Angeles spent Thursday at Miller Hall visiting her daughter, June Hershey.

Here's to our good cook, Mrs. Hoke! Although the eats in the dining room have always been very delicious, the students have noticed the fact of several improvements during the last week or two, namely, we have butter instead of the once hated "oleo." Ice cream twice in one week, and best of all, strawberry shortcake!

Nova Leonard spent the week-end at Hermosa Beach.

Mable Royer from Los Angeles, was the guest of Kathryn Strate Saturday night.

Lasting Fame

Mrs. Merritt: "When does a book become classic?"

Mabel Garman: "When people who haven't read it begin to say they have."

Mrs. Merritt: "Chet, you must quit using that kind of language."

Chet: "Well, Shakespeare used it."

Mrs. Merritt: "Then you should stop going around with him."

ANNUAL MEN'S DINNER

Last Thursday evening, May 5, the annual dinner of the "Y" organizations of Pomona Valley was held at the Pomona Y. M. C. A. Representatives from Pomona College, Pomona High School, Pomona J. C., Kauffman Jr. High, the Y. M. D., and LaVerne College were present at the banquet. A five-piece orchestra, consisting of LaVerne and Pomona musicians, furnished the music for the occasion.

During the dinner responses were called for from each school and several group songs were sung. A reading was given by Zaphon Hartman.

The meeting was climaxed by a talk from Ralph Cole, one of the great "Y" leaders of the Pacific Coast. Mr. Cole is an exceptionally interesting speaker as he has a very personal way of putting things. He spoke something of the game of life, and the various factors necessary to make the game a success.

These meetings tend to establish a closer relationship between the various "Y" organizations. LaVerne was represented by Zaphon Hartman and Merle Butterbaugh.

LEOPARDS DEFEAT AZTECS 8-6 IN FIRST CONFERENCE WIN

Pitching of Frantz and Boots; Hitting of Bohn and Boots are Features of Game

Our southern conference sister came a long way to wee small LaVerne to take a defeat home with them last Saturday. It was a decided and important victory for the Leopards, for besides being over San Diego it was our first conference win of the season and perhaps the last. Only one game remains to be played and that is not certain. If it is played it will be Wednesday and victory for the Leopards is the improbable thing as the team yet to be played is "Oxy" who last Saturday defeated Branch to cinch the conference title. So, strange as it may seem LaVerne is to be limited to one win for the season. Saturday's game was a close contest throughout the game and was an exhibition of some real baseball.

The pitching was divided between Frantz and Boots. Frantz chucked the first 4 innings with Boots on the mound the remaining 5 innings. The pitching in itself was a victory for the Leopards, the two chuckers together getting 8 strike-outs to San Diego's 7. At the bat LaVerne men tallied 11 hits to the State men's 8. Thus the resultant score of 8 to 6 in favor of the Leopards.

Boots was the little man with the consistent swat Saturday, getting 3 hits out of 4 times at bat.

Bohn got the big hit of the day and the long-expected home run was the result. Two men were brought home on the hit. Wayne also got a two-base hit his next trip to the bat.

Thus far Hollinger leads the field in batting average with .313. If the Oxy game is played things might change, otherwise the cup that has been placed in the student lobby will be an ornament in the aforesaid Hollinger's room hereafter.

The batteries for Saturday were: San Diego—Geddes and Johnson. LaVerne—Boots, Frantz, and Lehmer.

SENIORS STEP OUT

Last Thursday was Senior Step-Out Day. This, as the president, Lloyd Studebaker, said, was "the beginning of the end." The Seniors are quite busy getting ready for the end which is only three weeks away.

The first number was an address by the Senior class president, Lloyd Studebaker, who gave the history of the class and the future aims.

President E. M. Studebaker gave a very interesting and worthwhile talk on his interest in the class and their work. The program was as follows: Prelude and Recessional—Miss Muir Address—Sr. Pres. Lloyd Studebaker Pianologue—Mae Miller Class Song—

Address—Pres. Ellis M. Studebaker Duet—Lois Martha Miller, Harvey Brubaker

Postlude—Miss Muir

Antiques

Cross and Short-Sighted Old Lady (in antique shop): "And here, I suppose, is another of those horrible portraits you call art!"

"Excuse me, madam," said the shopkeeper quietly, "but that's a mirror."

FROSH FINISH WITH BURBANK

Frosh baseball came to a close last Wednesday after a defeat at the hands of Ray Roots Burbank team. It was a close game thruout and just a little slip or two caused the Frosh to lose by the close score of 8-7.

Captain Mahoney was the king of the swat, getting 3 hits at 3 times at bat.

Miller and Blickenstaff formed the battery. On the whole the team did the smoothest playing of the season.

man who does a little more work than he's asked to—who takes a little more care than he's expected to—who puts the small details on an equal footing with the more important ones—he's the man who is going to make a success of his job. Each little thing done better is the end of a wedge into something bigger.—London Rotarian.

Ernie: "It is a strange thing, but true, that the biggest fools have the prettiest girls."

Verda: "Oh, you flatterer!"
