SENIOR PLAY CAST CHOSEN; WORK BEGINS IMMEDIATELY

Willie Long and Doyle Montz to Play in Main Leads of "The Ivory Door"

Crist, Masterson, Thomason,
Cunningham and Calvert in Other Leading Parts

At a meeting of the play committee and Prof. Laura E. Haugh, the cast of "The Ivory Door" was chosen after the try-outs last Friday.

The committee wishes to express its appreciation of the interest shown by those Seniors who came to the try-outs and also to solicit the co-operation and support of those who did not try out. It wishes to say, too, that it is the earnest desire of all, that the entire class will be satisfied with the cast selection, for greatest credit was taken to choose wisely and fairly.

The cast is as follows:

Miss Wilma Long, who has taken many hours of speech work in college under Prof. Laura E. Haugh, and who plays naturally to her part, will play the role of Princess Lilia, the feminine lead. Doyle Montz, also a student of Miss Laura E. Haugh for several years, and an accomplished dramatic performer, will play in the leading masculine role of Perivale. Catherine Crist, Elizabeth Masterson, Orville Thomason, Ed Cunningham and Everett Calvert, who will fit into their parts well, will make the other leading roles.

Princess Lilia.....Wilma Long
Perivale.....Doyle Montz
Elizabeth Masterson
Orville Thomason
Everett Calvert

Committees are as follows:
Stage manager, Zola DuBois.
Stage setting manager: Alba Montgomery. Assistants, Gladys Ekenberry, Kay Crist.

Costumes, Fern Bowman; assistant, Meryle Thomason.

Music, Gladys Ekenberry.

Advertising manager, Dwight Boiss.

Eddie: "You're too conceited about your looks."

Jerry: "I don't think I'm half as good looking as I really am."

Miriam Dickey: "What's the test?"

Prof. Frantz: "Never mind the test; the test is more important."

Miriam: "Well, I just wanted to have something right on my paper."

Associated Students Entertained 'a la bum'

Dan, Marvin and Tad Turn Dreary, Weary and Sleepy

One of the best programs of the year was presented in the associated student body meeting Friday, April 17, by Marvin Bolinger, Daniel Stover and "Tad" Davis who were presented as the "a la Bum Trio." They took for their stage names, "Dreary, Weary and Sleepy."

The scene was set in a shady glen off in the mountains. A small shack is set in the background, before which a bonfire is built, and over which coffee and flapjacks are cooking. At one side of the yard is a corral fence and an old wagon wheel, and at the other an old piano covered with straw, upon which a picture of a lovely girl (?) stood. The scene was most romantic, and it is no wonder the boys felt as they did!

The scene opened with Weary ("Dan") alone, and feeling lonesome and cooking his evening meal. He starts playing and singing.

ATHLETIC SHOW WED. IN GYM.

Wrestling and Boxing Contests on Tap

The "Tex" Rickard of our school days, Tad Davis, is managing an unusual entertainment. On April 22, at the gym, there is to be a program of unique and novel features. There will be wrestling and boxing and other strong arm acts which will put on display the cream of the masculinity of old L. V. C. As an added attraction there will be some matches by outside and possibly some extraordinary attractive tumbling exhibitions.

This is the first time such a venture has been attempted here, and it is felt that it will be well worth attending. The admission is 25 cents and for such a nominal charge there will be an evening of entertainment worth a dollar. Tad says that the proceeds of the program are going to help the Lambda. Don't forget, April 22, there is to be the greatest show you have ever seen. Come on, girls, and see the boy friend strut his stuff. Come on, students, and see the would-be maulers grunt and groan. There will be a laugh for every squeeze and a side-ache for every punch. Every one get back of the idea and talk it up, and let's see just what our school is made of. Don't forget that you are helping the Lambda as well.

REAL ORATORICAL CONTEST HELD IN TUESDAY'S CHAPEL

160 Attend Mothers and Daughters Ban- quet April 16

Annual Event Held in Fellowship Hall

One of the most successful and beautiful banquets of the year was the Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet held last Thursday, April 16, in Fellowship Hall. About 160 mothers and daughters were present, including a good representation of alumni.

Wilma Long, as toastmistress, introduced Esther Thomason, general manager of the banquet, who extended a hearty welcome to the mothers. The response to this greeting was given by Mrs. Harrison Frantz, who in her thank-you speech likened the daughters to flower gardens of the mothers.

The succeeding program included:

1. Piano solo.....Esther Thomason
2. Reading.....Ardeth Horning
3. Vocal solo.....Gladys Ekenberry
4. Address of the evening.....Mrs. Foster.

Mrs. Foster, a resident of Covina, is prominent in community affairs, and is a member of several important organizations. In her short address she presented a challenge to the girls to look forward to the future, forming an ideal and living up to it, and never forgetting it even on the very busiest day.

As an appropriate addition to Mrs. Foster's thoughts, "Follow the Gleam" was sung in unison, bringing to a happy close an evening of mutual fellowship.

Mary Ellen Lauver, chairman of the Decorations committee, deserves special mention for the delightful manner in which the old-fashioned motif was carried out in the decorations. Old-fashioned dolls with immense hoop skirts held prominent positions on the several tables, and tiny dolls with full skirts hid the candy and nut cups from view. The menus were made to represent a garden gate behind which bloomed lovely flowers of pastel shades. The tables also had bouquets of flowers. Several cages of canaries hanging around in the banquet hall added to the atmosphere of the old-fashioned garden.

The menu consisted of chicken pie, mashed potatoes, buttered peas, daisy salad, ice cream and wafers, hot rolls and coffee. Esther Statler was chairman of the eats committee. The food was served by Bonita high school girls dressed in gingham dresses and old-fashioned bonnets.

Ike: "Do you like conceited men best, or the other kind?"
Ruth Bishop: "What other kind?"

GLICK RECEIVES SEC- OND KEISER AWARD

"The Kind of Education Needed for National Sobriety" was the general theme on which six students of the college gave orations in Chapel Tuesday, April 14. This contest was sponsored by the W. C. T. U. and Mr. E. T. Keiser of Pomona.

Miss Geneva Suttle was awarded first prize of $8.00 by Mr. Keiser; Royal Glick won second prize of $5.00, and Beulah Eikenberry and Doyle Montz tied for third place, $2.00.

Doyle Montz received the W. C. T. U. prize of $25, and will be LaVerne's representative in the Young People's Division Oratorical Contest at Pacific Palisades in July. There was some misunderstanding as to the general subject on which the orations were to be based; and Doyle's oration, "The Brass Rail," was the only one meeting the requirements. He pictured vividly the days of the old village inn with its bar. Then showed how prohibition had brought the downfall of that inn with its brass rail. He said that we must keep that brass rail tarnished, by educating the youth of the land.

Royal Glick spoke on "The Handwriting on the Wall," giving the same warning to people today who are resting on past achievements, as was given to Belshazzar in the days of old—"Ye are weighed in the balance and found wanting."

Geneva Suttle compared Temperance to a great ship out on the ocean surrounded by a sea of liquor problems.

Beulah Eikenberry compared the fight for prohibition to a football game. The prohibition leaders are the players, and we must help them on, and not leaving any holes for the "wets" to get through.

"The Rusty Key" was used as Virginia Stern's subject. She pointed out that by the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment, the door of the saloon was locked, and we of today must see that the key is kept rusty.

Daniel Renke's subject was "Constitutional Ideals." He reviewed the founding of our government and the ideals for which the early leaders stood, urging that these high ideals never be abandoned.

These orations all showed a great deal of work and thoughtful preparation, and were educational for all those who were in the audience Tuesday.

Everett Calvert: "What do you mean by telling me that your dates with me are like a string of pearls?"

Fern Bowman: "Neckless, dearie, neckless."

ASSOC. STUDENT BUSI- NESS MEET. REVIEWED

Winners of Oratorical Cor-test Recieve Awards

The business part of the associated students meeting began with the presentation of the awards for the local Oratorical contest. Geneva Suttle was awarded $8.00, Royal Glick $5.00, and Beulah Eikenberry and Doyle Montz each $1.00, as they tied in the contest. Doyle, out of a generous heart, gave Beulah his dollar. Virginia Stern and Daniel Renke were given highest commendation and honorable mention. Doyle Montz received $25.00, since his oration was nearest the rules and regulations of the W. C. T. U. state rules for the contest. He will compete now in a state-wide contest.

Coach Lee Eisan announced that the Freshman conference track meet was to be held the afternoon of the 17th in Pasadena, with 7 men entered, and the varsity meet in Los Angeles with two entries.

The Varsity Club Jinx was announced for Saturday evening, April 18, in the college auditorium. Admission 50 cents.

Max Forney announced the Sophomore-Senior dinner party for Tuesday evening, April 21, in Ontario, at 7:30. All those planning to attend reserve a place before Monday evening.

Come on, sell an annual and get your name on the cover free, or, pay 50 cents and have it put on in big gold letters.

A contest between our college "heroes" will be held in the gym Wednesday evening at 7:30. Come on and see your "hero" win. Only (Continued on Page Three)

Three One-Act Plays on April 23

Orchestra to Play at Drama Class Program

Thursday, April 23, at 8:00 p. m. the Drama class is presenting three one-act plays. These plays are of unusual worth and have been worked to perfection under the able direction of Prof. Laura E. Haugh. There is to be an added attraction of the newly formed college orchestra, which will play several numbers. This orchestra, under the direction of Howard Greene, is composed of the best instrumental musicians of the school and promises to be very good.

Don't forget, April 23, at the college auditorium, there will be three one-act plays and other added attractions including the orchestra. The general admission is 20 cents, and 10 cents to grammar school students.

The Varsity Club presented program in the college auditorium Saturday evening, April 18. The receipts for the evening were added to a growing loan fund which the Varsity Club is sponsoring. The program was planned and conducted under Coach Eisan's supervision.

The program consisted of several selections by the college orchestra under direction of M. Howard Greene; "The Bozors"—Morton and Harold Brownberg; Francis Crites, Raymond Mahone, Glenn Kreps and Dale Stutzman; "Bottled Music" by Dan Stover and his "Whiskiphone"; "The Magicians," consisting of Herman Moomaw, "Dutch" Brubaker and Ben Hepner; "The Sax Ensemble" consisting of Howard Greene, Herbert Ebersole, Russell Frantz and Doyle Montz; "Two Nuts"—Wayne Bohn and "Happy" Brubaker; "Wild Nell," a pantomime, played by Dale Stutzman, Fred Hubber, Max Forney, Joe Roynon, Ben Ram Jones, Alfred Nicolas; "I and Mike," Marion Roynon and Homer Kreps; "Varsity Warblers" members of the Clarion Four, Russell Frantz, "Happy" Brubaker, Wayne Bohn, members of the Aeolian Quartet, Orville Thomason, Russell Frantz, Doyle Montz, and members of the Apollo Four, Dan Stover, Vernon Heckman and Albert Gnagy; "Pot Boilers," a play composed of Ernie Carl as playwright, Ben Hepner as a would-be playwright, and Jerry Deal, Orville Thomason, Marion Bohn, Ony Leonard and Doyle Montz as actors; "The Finale," consisted of the Varsity Club members singing the new LaVerne March "To Win the Day," written and composed by J. T. Funderburgh.

Various intervals between the main events were filled in by Marion Roynon and Homer Kreps acting as "Hicks," cracking jokes and Dale Glick eating gold fish.

THE AIM OF THE CAMPUS TIMES

is to increase support of, and centralize our loyalties on the five leading activities of The Associated Students of LaVerne College, which are:

1. Feeling a sense of unity as one of The Associated Students.
2. Athletic activities (inter-collegiate and inter-class).
3. The Lambda and the Campus Times, our publications.
4. Forensic activities (mainly inter-collegiate).
5. Associated Student Socials and individual class life.

VOTE INTELLIGENTLY AND ELECT GOOD OFFICERS!

This Friday nomination talks will be made in chapel by the managers of the various candidates for the 1931-32 commission. Then, next week, an opportunity will be given each manager to present the qualifications of his candidate in the Campus Times. The following rules must be observed in the writing of all articles:

1. No article shall contain more than 75 words.
2. There may be only one article about each candidate.
3. Each must deal with the ability or inability of the candidate to fill the duties of his field and the duties of a commissioner as a student leader.
4. If any article s over 75 words in length, the staff reserves the right to cut said article as they see fit.
5. Each article must be in The Campus Times box in the student lobby or on the editor's desk in the Campus Times room by 2:15 Friday, April 24.

After these articles have been read and the talks given in the associated student meeting this Friday analyze each candidate, look squarely at his merits and weak points, and then vote for the candidate that you know will do the most for LaVerne and the associated students. Do not vote for a candidate because he is popular. Vote for the one that will do things.

TO THE PRESENT COMMISSIONERS

In connection with the above articles, each commissioner is invited to write an article, according to rules 1, 4, and 5, giving the duties as he sees them of his office. The characteristics which will aid an officer in his particular position should also be given, disregarding the qualifications of any of the current candidates.—The Editor.

MY FOUR YEARS

By Chuck

As I gaze back o'er my college days
And see four years of glorious life,
I wonder if I have availed myself
Of all the chances that came my way.

Some think the four-year college man

Is one who is of all knowledge a master,
But I see now that my four years are
Only a start to what I may understand.
Yes, my college days are almost done;
And before me vast new worlds lie.
New crowns are mine to be won
From opportunity as she passes by.

Campus Chuckles

Ruthe Bishop: "After you learned to play the saxophone did you receive any offers?"

Doyle Montz: "Yes, several from the neighbors offering to shoot me."

Miss Lenhardt: "And do you like to study this French?"

"Red" Montgomery: "Do I? I'm stuck on every page."

Judge: "Now I don't expect to see you here again, Mr. Howell."

"Shorty": "Not see me again! Why, you're not to resign, are you judge?"

Mr. Greene: "So you've decided not to get the new car you were talking about?"

Tad Davis: "No, someone else held the lucky ticket."

Dora Thomas: "Do you like Mac?"

Mae Fickel: "Mac who?"

Dora T.: "Ma Aroni."

George Weybright: "I'm just a poor boy trying to get ahead."

Prof. Travis: "That's fine; you certainly need one."

Dr. Hoover: "Did you ever know that I began life as a barefoot boy?"

Max Forney: "I wasn't born with shoes on, either."

Kenny Brownsberger: "Why do you call me Ray? You know my name is Kenneth."

Helen Buckley: "Oh, you're such a bright light in my life."

Dr. Shirk: "You certainly have acute appendicitis."

Viola Smith: "Oh, doctor, you flatter me so."

Ronald Bessey: "I dreamed last night I proposed to the sweetest girl in the world."

Myrtice B.: "And what did I answer?"

Cop Epperson: "Pull up to the curb."

Edith Flory: "Yes, sir. Where's the nearest one that's vacant?"

Prof. Muir: "What is an island?"
Edith Eisan: "An island is a place you can't leave without a boat."

R. Bessey: "When I get a job I'll get $150 per."

Jean Bland: "Per what?"

Bessey: "Per—haps."

Miss Lenhardt: "Why did you put quotation marks at the first and last of this exam?"

Ruth Rothrock: "I was quoting the person in front of me."

Geneva Suttle: "Beulah swears she has never been kissed."

Hazel Barnhart: "Don't blame her; I'd swear too."

"How would you like to sign up for a life game with me?" was the way a baseball fan proposed.

"I'm agreeable," replied the girl; "where's the diamond?"

Mrs. Hoke: "Did you empty the pan under the ice box?"

Harriet H.: "Yes, I put fresh water in it."

"Red" Weybright: "I haven't made any plans for this evening, so there'll be no telling what we'll do."

"Mimi" Smith: "I certainly hope there won't be."

ATTENTION! SENIORS ON PARADE

Ruby Saylor is this fair lassie, and she lives in LaVerne. She attended college in Mt. Morris, Illinois, during her Freshman and Sophomore years. The past two years she has been a student here in LaVerne College, and also has served as private secretary to President Studebaker.

Ruby possesses a winsome smile and is a friend to all. She is a member of the Y. W. C. A.

Now Ruby is wearing a fraternity pin and some of us are wondering just what that signifies. She informed me that she will possibly follow the teaching profession this next year. Another "school mom"—enough said.

Kathleen Shaffer is a cute little miss who comes to LaVerne College from a well known village town called "Cucamonga." Kathleen may be small in stature, but she has big "ideas"—ask Kenny.

She is a member of the Y. W. C. A., and has contributed many clever suggestions while serving on numerous committees., during her college career. Kathleen's hobby lies in the field of art and oil paintings. Who knows—some day she may be a distinguished artist.

No, Kathleen announced emphatically that she has no desire to follow the Seniors' line of school teachers. Now, what does the future hold for Kathleen. It is not a secret, as she is wearing a dazzling diamond that Kenneth Deardorff has given her. We wish you both success and happiness.

A lady in the Minneapolis railroad station with two babies in her arms, was trying to get at her purse in order to purchase a ticket. The alert Red Cap, ever ready to assist, offered to hold one of the babies. The woman having obtained the ticket relieved him with a smile of thanks.

"Are those twin babies?" inquired the man in an embarrassed voice.

"Yes," replied the woman; "they were born on election day; we named one Smith and the other Hoover."

"Well," replied the Red Cap, "I guess I was holding Smith."

Professor Brubaker: "And there son, you have the story of your dad and the great war."

Son: "Yes, dad, but why did they need all the other soldiers?"

Carl E.: "Can you spare me a dime?"

Orlin V.: "No, I'm broke. I haven't a penny to my name, and—Great heavens! My pockets have been picked!"

Mr. Yoder (to stenographer): "Take the phone message. I'll get it from you later."

Stenographer: "No, thanks. Your daughter wants to kiss you over the telephone."

Cy Nical Comments

Thanks to the noble person who placed the little poem on the bulletin board about me. I am truly gratified to you for paying me the compliment of recognizing the identity of the person to whom I directed the two comments last time. I am sorry if I hurt some of your pet fancies, but my column is a place for opinion as I see it manifested in the student body, and I did not express my own idea—merely the general consensus of opinion in my words. I am happy to see that I am causing someone to think. That is something.

The Varsity Club Jinx certainly made some startling disclosures the other evening. Who would have ever thought that Prof. Cullen would eat peanuts in a public gathering of such a nature? The most startling thing was the—who would ever think that President Studebaker would—Oh, gee, I can't say it; it was just too funny.

Oh, boy! Wednesday night is the big night. That is the night I am going to see the big maulers of the school grunt and groan. At that carnival there will be the champion pig pushers and bum rushers of this far institution of learning. I am not cynical now; I think we should turn out to see this little show, if for no other reason, to see the Y. M. C. A. tumbling team which will be on hand to give us some real thrills in fancy falling.

"It takes a heap o' livin' in a house to make it home."
It takes a heap o' lovin' in this world to keep it goin'.
It takes a heap o' smilin' from you and me and all of us,
It takes a heap o' toleratin' the other fellow's faults,
It takes a heap o' thinkin' and puttin' others first,
It takes a heap o' mixin' these to make our school the best.

Give Study of E. Stanley Jones in S.V. Meeting

Meet Held at Woody Residence

Members of the "Omlet" apartments of the Woody residence entertained the Student Volunteers in their regular meeting Wednesday evening April 15.

The program consisted of study of the man, E. Stanley Jones as reviewed by Chalmer Fawcett. Cosner conducted the meeting, led in devotions, concluding with duet, "Giving Our All to God," Beulah Eikenberry and Virginia Stern. After the announcement Geneva Suttle sang a solo, "Little Hills Are Calling."

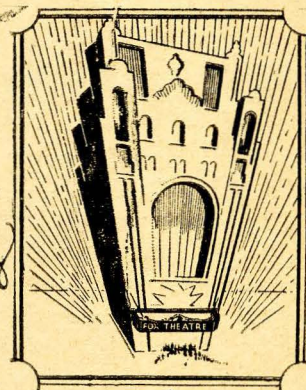

E. Stanley Jones was born 1884 and obtained his first university degree in 1907. He married while still attending school, and in 1912 sailed for India as a Missionary from the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1928 he was awarded the D. D. degree by Duke's University, and the title of Bishop in the same year.

Mr. Jones experienced two conversions: the first he calls a "horizontal conversion," when he married and joined the church and remained on the same plane of life, and the second he calls the "perpendicular conversion," when his life was changed to a higher plane.

As a missionary in India, at the request of a high caste Hindu friend, Jones determined to do mission work among high caste Hindus. (Continued on Page Three)

I once heard a preacher say to "Malice is an evil desire in the heart." It is an evil desire which we harbor in our hearts or keep on ice, so to speak. Then when we see someone getting the worst of a deal and we do not like that particular someone we think we get a big wallop out of it. Wouldn't it be better off if we forgot the little poison darts in the heart cooler?

Experimental School Analyzed by Budding Educators

Dr. Sarafian's class in Philosophy of Education took all day Wednesday to make a trip to Ojai Valley for the purpose of studying the school seven years ago with a view to making a trip to Ojai Valley based on the progressive principles of education.

Mr. Edward Yeomans founded the school seven years ago with a definite aim, which has been carried out more or less. The main criticism of the school is based on the fact that untrained teachers are hired to direct the children.

The school is situated in the town of Ojai, 115 miles from LaVerne. The students started from Founders Hall at 7:45 Wednesday morning, April 15. No trouble was encountered on the way. On the Zelda Sheller entertained a group of college friends at her home in Long Beach Saturday evening. A good time was had by all.

Dora Thomas spent the weekend in Los Angeles.

Notice! New theory for L. V. C. students concerning the future generation through science in the air. For further information, see Mr. Greene. Can you imagine people living on platforms in mid-air.

Blanche Klingaman and Ony Leonard visited Catalina last weekend.

Dayton Stutzman had a date with his best girl Saturday evening. We wonder who the lucky one was.

Ruthe and Frances Bishop spent Sunday at Palm Springs—"pickin' posies" for botany. Lotsa fun, tho'.

Esther Dickey was surprised at a shower Tuesday evening. Remember that Esther is planning on taking the fatal step in June.

SENIOR CLASS MEETING WEDNESDAY

The meeting was called to order by the class president, Orville Thomason. Three items of business were brought up concerning measurements of each member for caps and gowns; a couple class songs were presented, but since the composer of one was absent, nothing was definitely decided upon. Finally, orders were taken for the exact amount of announcements and cards to be purchased by each individual.

The regular chapel period Thursday was spent in taking the Otis Tests and Measurement Examinations. All the students took the test except those who had taken it before during one of Coach Glick's courses. Coach Glick conducted the test.

JUNIORS PLANNING JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

Friday, May 15, Set for Formal Affair

At a recent called meeting of the Junior class, the Junior-Senior banquet was discussed quite extensively, the date for its occurrence being set for Friday evening, May 15.

The chairman of the place committee gave a report on the various prices suitable for the staging of this affair but no location was definitely decided upon.

The business meeting was characterized generally by much discussion and few decisions, but one thing was made certain. That was done by George Weybright who, as president of the Freshman class, announced that the Frosh will treat the Juniors to a beach party at Laguna on Saturday, May 2.

Sunshine Quartette Adds to Program

The Y. girls entertained the Y. boys with very interesting program Monday morning, April 13. "Sing Me to Sleep" and "Honey" were sung by the popular Sunshine Quartet. "Shadows" was sung as an encore number.

Frances Berg gave a reading with Irish dialect.

Vera Flora sang a solo, "Wake Up," Meryle Thomason accompanied her on the piano.

A reading, "In the Usual Way," was given by Ardeth, with Hazel Gilson at the piano.

LaVonne Putnam rendered a violin solo, accompanied by Meryle Thomason. LaVonne played an encore number also.

Coach Glick (to players): "Remember that football develops individuality, initiative, and leadership. Now get in there and do exactly as I tell you."

"This is a pretty snappy suit," remarked the baby, as he was put into his rubber pants.

Charles Snell: "Do you believe in prayer?"

Marie Tingle: "I would have if you'd gone home two hours ago."

ing "That Old Gang of Mine," which, by magic, it seems, drew two more old bums, "Sleepy and Dreary," into the glen to the camp fire.

It was with glorious spirit that the trio could sing once again "At the End of the Lane."

"Tad" Davis then began to feel romantic when he saw that "Sleepy" picture on the piano and sang "If I Hald a Talking Picture of You," to which the picture responded with "Picking Peddles Off of Daisies." This indeed was an inspiration to "Tad" and he responded with "Girl of My Dreams I Love You."

The trio sang "Ain'cha," after which Dan gave the Bostonian version of "Old Uncle Ned." While Weary finished the dinner, Sleepy and Dreary sang "When the Bloom Is On the Sage."

"Tad" Davis produced the main feature of the program with his extremely unique "Spanish Fantanga" dance. This was followed by a solo by Sleepy, "Down the River of Golden Dreams," accompanied by Weary on the piano and Dreary on the bass viol.

At the close, again, the theme song, "At the End of the Lane" pepped everyone up and place a smile on each face.

Study of E. Stanley Jones

Hindus. His plans were frustrated by a break in health. He returned to America to recuperate, but a few months on the field again brought on a relapse. Unable to overcome the weakness, he was about to give up; but putting it in God's hands, a voice spoke to him, saying, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." He completely recovered and has had no more breakdowns in all his strenuous life.

E. Stanley Jones is an author of several books much in demand. The speaker of the evening commented on his style of writing as being very readable. He uses the "speaking style" and clever play on words. He has the power of drawing beautiful pictures; and throughout his writings one feels the author's experience of the presence of Christ.

"Christ of the Indian Road" published in 1925 deals with the Indian concept of Jesus. India is ready for Christ, if they can have him without western civilization and creeds. He must fit into Indian civilization and thought.

"Christ at the Round Table," published in 1928, is an account of round table discussions among intellectuals of India (Mohammedans, Hindus, and others) on "What My Religion Means to Me" in which Christ was repeatedly shown supreme. The Christian is certain and satisfied.

"Christ of Every Road" is his latest book and deals with the subject of "Pentecost" in a new way.

Announcement was made of the spring convention of the Southern California Student Volunteer Union to be held at Redlands, May 1, 2, 3. Miss Lucile Day and Dr. Harry Rimmer will be among the special speakers. A registration fee of $1 is charged. Meals will be served cafeteria style and lodging is given free. The banquet Saturday evening will be 60 cents a plate. As many as can go are urged to attend the conference.

Leopard Nine Loses to Redlands

LaVerne Men Unable to Smack the 'ole Pill

Meet the Oxy Tigers this Week End

The Leopard nine journeyed to Redlands last Friday afternoon, where they suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Bulldogs. The fireworks started early when Redlands turned one walk and three hits into four runs in the first inning. From that time on, the Bulldogs were pretty well masters of the situation. The Bulldogs' attack was led by P. Beiden, the catcher, who collected three hits out of four trips to the plate, among which was a circuit clout.

Rowe turned in a good game, allowing only seven hits and four runs. Although his pitching did not appear first class, the Leopards were unable to bunch hits on him. Thomason started on the mound for the Leopards, but due to the fact that he lacked the usual control he was relieved by Welty in the fifth inning. Welty showed a little more control, but he seemed unable to completely stop the Bulldogs.

The infield showed very little real baseball in the course of the afternoon, turning a total of seven errors. However, the weakest point in the team seems to be in its ability to bat. It is very likely that Coach Glick will put the boys thru a hard week before they meet Oxy next Saturday.

BULL-PUPS DEFEAT KITTENS 6-3

Frosh Tennis Team Makes Good Showing

The Freshman tennis team journeyed to Redlands Saturday morning; and although defeated in their match, they report a very good time. After the match the men dined and were entertained in their opponents' rooms in the men's dormitory. Regardless of the team defeat, the Kittens are to be congratulated for garnering 3 points. Fluck upset Pratt in first singles, winning 6-4, 6-4, and then later paired with Kelly in first doubles to win over Jarvis and Piety 6-4, 7-5.

"Bob" Walker, second singles, lost to Jarvis 6-8, 4-6. Kelly, third singles, lost to Speth, 3-6, 3-6. Weybright, 4th singles, lost to Parker 2-6, 2-6. A. Calvert lost to Bingham 4-6, 3-6. In second doubles, Walker and Butterbaugh were defeated 0-6, 0-6.

The final score was 6-3, which was a good showing for our Frosh considering the fact that the Bull-pups recently beat their own varsity by the same score.

TENNIS TEAM LOSES TO CALTECH

Engineer Squad Takes the 1931 Championship

Last Match for Three Varsity Men

The varsity racquet wielders took another beating Saturday when they encountered Caltech. Caltech took almost every contest without any difficulty and on the whole outplayed and outwitted our Leopard racquet wielders.

Ike played in his regular role as the first singles, and lost his set with ease. Also Calvert, Snell, Paul Funk were taken with ease on the part of Caltech.

Albert Gnagy's set was the most even set of the day. He had his man almost outwitted, but he was forced to take the small end of the deal by 7-5, 7-5. It is the first time this year that Gnagy was playing up to par, and he surely showed his ability in the last match of the season.

The average sets lost this season was quite high, but we must remember that LaVerne has not had a tennis team for so many years, and also we are competing with large colleges, and as a result they can pick their men to a better advantage.

The varsity squad won from Whittier by a large score, and they made Redlands work for their extra win in order to win. As a whole, we have Gnagy and Snell of the varsity squad, who should rank high next season. Young Calvert, Weybright, Fluck, and Butterbaugh of the Frosh should work into a good combination next season.

Bases on balls: Off Rowe, 5; Thomason, 8; Welty, 1.

Hit by pitched balls: Massey by Thomason.

Stolen base: Hubbell.

KITTENS TAKE PLACES IN CONF. MEET

13 Points Scored by LaVerne Men

Five Men Make Numerals

Last Friday afternoon, LaVerne entered a few men (seven in number) in the frosh conference meet. These men were not considered in the dope sheet, but their names were forced into the results. Although the Leopard kittens didn't win the meet, they made a showing that we need not be ashamed of.

Montgomery was high point man among the Kittens as a result of a second in the broad jump, and a fourth. Time: 9.9s. (New freshman record.)

220 yard dash: Won by Plumb (P.); Powell (O.); second; Willman (O.); third; Montgomery (L.V.) fourth. Time: 22.5s.

440-yard dash: Won by Hall (P.); Finley (R.), second; Chapin (W.), third; tie for fourth between Morris (C.T.) and Wyatt (C.T.). Time: 53.6s.

880-yard run: Won by Jones (S.D.); McClain (C.T.T.) second; Saylor (L.V.), third; Haddock (R.), fourth. Time: 2m, 4s.

Mile run: Won by Turner (O.); Caldwell (S.D.), second; Pollard (P.), third; Holland (C.T.), fourth. Time: 4m, 55.5s.

Two-mile run: Won by Turner (O.); Howland (C.T.), second; Whitaker (P.), third; Douglass, (C.T.), fourth. Time: 11m, 4.3s.

High hurdles: Won by Williams (P.); Ball (W), second; Scott (O.), third; Pyle (S.D.), fourth. Time: 16.1s.

Relay: won by San Diego (Hite, Pyle, Fox, Jones); Pomona, second; Caltech, third. Time: 3m, 36s.

High jump: Won by Petit (P.), 5 ft. 9 in.; tie for second between Pyle (S.D.), Dewar (O), and Romoli (C.T.), 5 ft. 7 in.

Varsity Gets Hot in Practice Game

Welty Turns in Good Game on Mound

The Leopard nine turned in their first good game of baseball last Wednesday evening in their tussle with Fullerton Junior College. The Fullerton horsehide tossers are rated well up in their division and the brand of baseball displayed on the LaVerne diamond was not a discredit to them.

Welty pitched good ball the entire game and with a few breaks a win would have been easy. Jewett's homer to left field brought in the winning run of the day. Jones' single to left field, a stolen base, and Bessey's single to center field netted LaVerne their only run of the day.

Hitting honors were divided by Jones of LaVerne and Wachtel of Fullerton. The game was chiefly a pitcher's duel, both teams collecting only six hits:

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE TO START

Monday marks the beginning of Spring football on the LaVerne gridiron. Coach Eisan is calling the backfield men the first week and most of their drilling will be on timing and blocking.

Next week the whole squad will be called and tackling and blocking will be stressed. The following week a new system of plays will be given. All prospective football players are urged to be present at every practice. If you miss the drill on fundamentals and the new plays, it may be the "straw" that will keep you off the team next year.

The final feature of the season will be a punting trophy. The trophy is to be awarded to the best punter, judges considering certain requirements.
