ACADEMY SOPHOMORES MAKE "HOME RUN"

STUDENT LIFE IS SADDENED

Student life was saddened during the past week by the death of Harper C. Vaniman, fellow student and friend. Harper was a member of the Academy graduating class of May, 1922. He entered College this year, but was compelled to quit school at the Holiday season, on account of failing health. To everyone Harper was a friend, and a very willing worker in all school activities. The entire student body extends its heartiest sympathy and regrets to the bereaved family, and especially to Velma, who expects to finish her Academy course this year.

There's a cloud before the sun
As it shines out on the world;
There's a drooping of the flowers
As their petals are unfurled;
There's a sadness in the songs
Of the birds so blithe and gay;
There's a lonesomeness among us
In our home across the way.

Nestled back among the bushes
Is the house in which we dwell;
Father, mother, sisters, brothers,
How our hearts with love did swell.
All were safe within the portals
Of a home made up of joy;
Then there entered one unbidden,
Beckoning to our oldest boy.

Harper answered without a murmur,
And passed on across the bar,
Here we sit with hearts all broken,
Yet it seems that he's not far;
Just gone on that last long journey,
Across that wide, unfathomed sea,
To a home prepared by Jesus,
Where he waits for you and me.

Around our fireside when we gather
A chair we there will place,
Even though it will be vacant,
Yet we'll see a kindly face.
His a life of sweet contentment,
Grace and peace, and so serene,
With a faith in Christ the Savior,
In a friend he had not seen.

The years will quickly fly away,
The children older grown,
But in the heart of each remembered
Some good seed that he has sown.
Even though the life was short—
Nineteen summers were his lot—
Love he gave and kind affection
Will not soon be forgot.

—By Harper's uncle, J. E. Throne.

Bob H.—"A narrative is a tale."
Elva—"Correct. What is a ripple?"
Bob—"A ripple is something that runs."
Elva—"Right. Make a sentence using narrative and ripple."
Bob—"The dog went running down the street with a tin can tied to his narrative."

Prof. Frantz—"What is steam?"
Lola S.—"Steam is water gone crazy with the heat."

X, Y, Z PROGRAM SPLENDID SUCCESS

"The best program that ever has been, ever was, or ever can hope to be given," says Roynon, was rendered Friday evening in the College Auditorium.

In the opening speech Mr. C. E. Davis explained that the X. Y. Z. program was given in behalf of the Annual, and humorously told the audience to be prepared for anything which might come. A piano duo, "La Baladine," was played by the Misses Vera Hoover and Lois Miller. A stunt put on by the "dorm" girls, "An M. T. Evening," could not be surpassed, especially the poetry in which it was given. A Male Quintet, consisting of Truman Funderburgh, Jesse Frantz, Harvey Brubaker, George King and Wayne Bohn, was a delight to all. Another very cleverly given stunt, "Dormitory Life," was put on by Marion Roynon and Frank Gillette. One of the most touching (?) incidents of the evening was the alphabetical sermon by Marion Roynon. "Springtime," a vocal duet, was delightfully given by Lucile Beckner and Wanda Carl. Olive Deardorf showed her dramatic ability by the reading, "Aunt Sophrona Tabor at the Opera." But among all these delightful numbers, the one-act play, "Our Aunt from California," was the best and most appreciated by all. The cast was:

Felicia Needy.....Florence Landis
Rosalie Needy.....Maurine Miller
Sally Needy.....Lucile Beckner
Mrs. Mary Muntapurn.....Wanda Carl
Miss Widenecker.....Norma Roynon
Mrs. Needy.....Ruth Emily
Maid.....Beulah Fink

The X. Y. Z. program certainly proved to be a success, and we know that you will be equally interested by the Lion-tamers, whose program will be given April 6, and we certainly hope you will give them as hearty support as the X. Y. Z.'s received.

MUSICAL DELIGHT

The Zedeler Quintet, which composed the fifth number of the College Music and Lecture Course, afforded a most pleasurable evening to a large audience Friday, the sixteenth. In the introduction Mr. Zedeler said that the music would be "classics," and they would try to emphasize the class and exclude the sies if possible. From all appearances their plan worked very well. He also said that they would play music which appealed to the intellect and heart, a kind which makes the soul thrill, and so it was.

Most of the selections were taken from operas, such as Il Trovatore and William Tell. Before each number Mr. Zedeler gave an interesting setting, which made the music much more appreciated. During the evening Miss Fortune sang several selections which delighted the audience.

CONVENTION AT 1ST BRETHERN CHURCH

Friday evening a banquet was held at the Brethren church as an opening to the "Young People's Convention" held there Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Harold Cross, from Los Angeles, was toastmaster, and some lively toasts were given by Roger Robinson, Lura Hixson and Ralph Clay. After the toasts everybody went to the church auditorium, where a message was given by Harold Cross on "The

ACADEMY SOPHS WIN JOKE CONTEST

If you were around the halls on Tuesday, the sixth, about noon, you probably heard something like this: "Goodness me, haven't they finished counting those jokes yet? I do wish they would hurry," or, "I heard the Juniors turned in about two thousand the last minute," or yet, "I sure hope the Seniors get it," but alas! the one o'clock bell had to ring, and still suspense. Somewhere near the third period the victory was announced for the Sophomores, and then such talk! "Who'd ever thought those little Academy Sophomores would have done any thing?"—"I wonder where they got them all"—or a Junior might say, "Well, I'll bet they'll be sorry they won it before that paper is finished; I'm glad we didn't get it"—such was prevalent. As for the Sophomores, they were all glad they won, and went in to do their best, as is their custom in all such cases.

Not only the staff have worked faithfully, but the others in the class have had a large share of the work to do, and these have shown the real La Verne spirit in everything they have done.

This class not only wishes to thank the real staff for the honor of printing this edition of the "Campus Times," but wishes to set an example of perseverance in attacking the task which you have to perform with the greatest diligence and self-will that you have, and you will come out victor in the end.

DR. JONES GIVES SCIENTIFIC LECTURE

The fourth number of the Music and Lecture Course was given Monday, March fifth, by Dr. Hilton Ira Jones, a noted scientist. He showed that the old-fashioned idea that science and the Bible do not agree, is false.

All were eager for the evening program to begin, as the apparatus on the stage looked very interesting. Dr. Jones proved to be extremely entertaining. In his experiments he showed many things that seemed wonderful, but in the scientific world it is really quite simple. Life soon will be nothing but ease. You will be able to accomplish your tasks by simply pressing an electric button.

All who were not there missed a very educational and instructive address.

The purpose of his leaving his laboratory in the University of Alabama and giving these lectures is not only for entertainment, but also to let the people know that they should let their scientific men help the government and not to crowd out this ability because it looks unimportant on the surface.

Successful Life," which was the theme of the convention.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Rogers gave the Juniors a blackboard talk, and the Juniors, led by Rev. Tay, gave a sword drill.

Saturday night Miss Lois Miller rendered a piano solo and Mrs. Pierson a vocal solo, after which Rahme Haider gave a dramatic impersonation of "Ruth and Naomi." Sunday morning Princess Haider again gave a very interesting talk, at the close of which she and her companion, Miss Burgess, sang a duet in the Syrian language.

If the Princess comes again, all are welcome.

TRACK TEAM BRINGS HOME MEDALS

Claremont took first honors in the Tri-County Track Meet held at Redlands Saturday, March 17th. They annexed 52 points.

La Verne Academy finished second with 41; Corona third, with 21; Chino fourth, with 15; and Colton fifth, with 13.

The Academy boys established three new school records. Orville Broks set a new mark in the low hurdles. His time was 28:4.5.

Bohn made a record that will probably stand for some time unless he breaks it himself. He cut the time for the 4:40 yd. dash down to 53:4.5 sec. The championship relay team are Otie Broks, Orville Brooks, Galen Root and Wayne W. Bohn.

The league showed some real class this year and gave a cup for the meet, a cup for the relay, medals for the first three places in the events; ribbons for the first four places in the events, and gold medals for the winning relay team. Our fellows got eight of the gold medals. Bohn was high point man in the meet. He took three first besides running on the relay team.

THE LATIN CLASSES HAVE A CHANGE

Mrs. Marie Brubaker, who has been teaching Latin this year, is now touring northern California with her husband in behalf of the College. Miss Williams, the French and Spanish teacher in the College department, is taking her place and is seemingly getting along very well. Latin II. would say: "Even though the teachers change, Caesar stays just the same."

Mr. and Mrs. Dyck motored to La Verne, arriving her Thursday. Mr. Dyck left, but Mrs. Dyck will stay here with Dorothea for two weeks.

Academy Sophomores Hail In!

A party, did you say? I should say so. At least you'd have thought so if you had happened around Mable Griggs' home Saturday night about seven thirty.

When all the happy group had collected, they were divided and each group played to their hearts' desire the games of "pig," "animal," and various others. From one table might be heard, "Oh, you're a hog and we can't talk to you," or "there, that makes you two pigs," or from another, "dog, dog, dog!" or "elephant, elephant, elephant!" until one might think he was in a menagerie.

After these had been played for a time, punch and wafers were brought in and everyone did his utmost to live like Jack Spratt and his wife for a few minutes. Soon checkers were the style, and if you couldn't play checkers, give-a-way would do—at least some thought so. It was soon noticed that the clock was going around entirely too fast and it was time to depart. Good-nights were said and all left for their respective homes hoping for another such event soon.

THE VANIMANS WRITE FROM CHINA

Ping Ting, Shansi, China,
Jan. 28, 1923.

Dear Volunteers at La Verne:
Your school year is more than half over and it is time we are getting a letter off to you.

This year finds us busy as usual. In fact I think my husband has a little more than his share of duties. For in addition to his school, he has the mission treasurer's work to do. I have been trying to relieve him a little by teaching the English classes in the Boys school, and I discover that there are many peculiar and unexplainable things about the English language that one never thinks of until he tries to teach it to someone who doesn't know anything about it. The way they get the English twisted reminds me of how we must get the Chinese twisted, too, at times.

We still use our Chinese teacher one hour each day. The study of the Chinese language is something I never expect to graduate in. In fact I think very few foreigners learn to speak the Chinese language as the Chinese themselves do, unless they were born in China. That is one consolation, our children, if they remain in China, will never have the tussle with the

BE LOYAL TO LA VERNE

Have you ever stopped to wonder
As you go life's rigid way,
How some people get along
By the things they do and say?

Some will crab and say they can't,
When you ask them for a favor,
When you know down in your heart,
Compared to you they are the better.

Others still will frown and say,
"Oh, I'm too busy with my work,
And besides, I've got a headache"—
That's the kind who always shirk.

Are you the crabber, the man who can't?
If so, reverse your mode of life;
You can do it if you try,
Without so much as added strife.

La Verne wants men who've tried and proven
The old, old maxim o'er and o'er.
Do your best, and do it faithful,
Even though you're asked for more.

CHAPEL NOTES

Tuesday, March 6th, Dr. Miller spoke about the poetry in the Bible. He read the twelfth chapter of Ecclesiastes, showing how full of imagery it is and how well it describes an old man who has come to the place where life is no longer a joy to him.

Miss Babcock gave a very interesting talk on names and their meaning, Wednesday, the 7th. She told the meaning of a number of familiar names, as Europe, Asia, Africa, Chile, Catalina and Los Angeles, in some cases showing how they received their names.

Thursday, March 8th, Chase Harper, president of the newly organized College Y. M. C. A., had charge of the chapel hour. The speaker of the morning was Mr. Hand, director of religious education at Pomona College. He gave a very inspiring message, based on I. Cor. 2: 16—"We have the mind of Christ." He said this means the Christian has Christ's attitude and looks at life's problems from Christ's point of view.

On Tuesday, March 13th, the school practiced a song to sing at the funeral of Harper Vaniman, who was a member of the College Freshman class.

Mrs. Haugh spoke on Wednesday of the cantata "Belshazzar," which is to be put on by the Choral Union as the last number of the lecture course. She pointed out a number of difficulties in the way of its presentation as a dramatic cantata, and suggested a simplified production as an alternative. It will be decided soon in which form it is to be given.

Thursday, March 15th, a talk was given by Prof. Lefever about the discovery of the tomb and mummy of the Egyptian Pharaoh, Tut-Ankh-Amen. He told how archeologists have been digging around Luxor for about twelve years with little result until this discovery. Several rooms stored with furniture and valuables of various kinds have been opened. One of the most interesting facts about the discovery is the wide-spread interest it has aroused among all classes of people.

Dr. Miller—"Did you ever read "To a Field Mouse?"

Mary B.—"No, I can't get them to listen."

Eva—"I kept my head when I fell into the water."

John—"Good; it must have helped you to float."

More Truth than Poetry

OUR SOPHOMORE ALPHABET

A stands for Alberta, big and strong;
B stands for Brubaker, thin and long;
C stands for Chester, with feet like spades;
D is left out, like some knife blades;
E is for Evelyn, and Elsie, too;
F is for Frost, and what can't she do?
G is for Griggs, and likewise for Garber;
H is for Homer, a pet of the Barber;
I is for Ikenberry, dainty and small;
J is left out; now please don't go bawl;
K is like J, a minus quantity;
L stands for Lillian, known for her sanity;
M is for Milton, who'll some day be famed;
N is for Neva, who wisely was named;
O stands for oil, which now is in style
But none of our class have thought it worth while;
P stands for Pearl, in base ball keen;
Q must have fanned out; he nowhere is seen;
R is for Royer, a favorite with all;
S is for Shaffer, who's brilliant but small;
T and U must be loafing around—
Perhaps in some other class they'll abound;
V is for Verna, with red hair, one might say;
W is for Woody, the same every day;
X, Y and Z we forgot and left out—
You'll imagine the rest, beyond any doubt.

Frank—"There's something dove-like about you."
Minnie D—"What's that?"
Frank—"You're pigeon-toed."

To Editor of Campus Times
A school paper's a great invention—
The staff gets all the fame,
The printer all the money,
And the Editor all the blame.

Hazel B.—"What good will ever come of Norma Roynon if she continues sleeping in my class."
Orville Brooks—"Perhaps a good chaperone some day."

Harold B.—"I wonder how much money there is in this world."
Paul R.—"Try to borrow a quarter and find out."

Miss Sanger—"How much time did you put on your lesson?"
Harriet W.—"About one hour—train time."
Miss B.—"What kind of time?"
Harriet—"Including stops and delays."

Spec Beckner—"No perpetual motion machine has ever been invented."
John Price—"Then how is it that Maurine Miller can talk all the time?"

Johnnie B. was sitting in front of Brownie at church and was scratching the fringe of his remaining hair. Brownie became interested and leaning over said, "Say, Johnnie, you'll never catch him there; run him out in the open."

EVERY DOG HAS HIS DAY

The grass was never greener or skies bluer than last Thursday, Ditch Day for the College Seniors. The Seniors were in excellent spirits because they had succeeded in getting away without anyone having the least inkling of their going (?) The crowd in John's Peerless and President Funderburgh's Chevrolet had for its first stopping place San Pedro, to visit a battleship. Everyone enjoyed this part of the day, but on leaving all were of the opinion that they preferred a life on dry land.

Venice was next visited, after having made a short stop at Redondo for the purpose of buying dogs, both hot and otherwise. Most of the afternoon was spent in the plunge and on the beach, where leap-frog, crack the whip, and digging for crabs formed a large part of the amusement. Later in the afternoon the Seniors again took up their journey in the direction of Los Angeles, stopping at Culver City to go thru the movie studios. It was only after positively and definitely refusing to sign any contracts that the group was able to get away.

They went from there to Exposition Park, where among other things, they watched a base ball game and inspected the new stadium. By this time everyone was beginning to get hungry so the next move was to the Rosslyn Hotel. After everyone had satisfied their wants it was too late for the first show at Grauman's Metropolitan Theatre, so the time until the second one was spent in window shopping (for the special benefit of the boys).

After the show, then home again. When? Perhaps it will be sufficient to say that the Seniors took two days instead of one.

Hazel B. (in English)—"Paul, you misspelled the most words in your story."

Paul—"Yes, I am going to be a dialect writer."

VERDA ENTERTAINS

Verda Brubaker entertained at dinner, Sunday, March 18, Misses Verna Shirk, Alberta Maust and Cecelia Shaffer. The girls were met at the Cub Pharmacy by Verda and the Briscoe and were taken to Sunday School, as all good little girls should be. After a delicious dinner Verda again hitched up the Briscoe and away they went to the South hills. The main event of the afternoon was taking snapshots. After having played a number of games of laudo the aforesaid company was once more loaded into the Briscoe and borne home.

"AN INDIAN EVENING"

Mr. and Mrs. Woods and Miss Olive Deardorf entertained the members of the Mission Band on last Thursday night. The first part of the evening was spent in making dates, after which the partners talked about various subjects regarding College life and the aims of the Volunteer. Mr. Emmert told a number of interesting stories about "the funny experiences of a missionary." The group was divided in two sides and then instead of having a spelling match, questions were asked about missionaries and the work of the General Mission Board. D. W. Lefever was the lucky man, as he succeeded in standing up the longest. After this game all were told to sit on the floor. Chase Harper made an excellent Hindu waiter. He served the group with some foreign bread and rice cooked in Hindu fashion.

After that, the Hindus turned

A. W. S. HAVE A NIGHT OUT

About six-thirty Saturday evening a group of nineteen girls started to the Dickey grove for a house party. The way being practically unknown to most of the girls, much trouble was had in the form of plowed ground and darkness, but they finally arrived at the small frame house in the middle of the grove. Here, to the great surprise of all, nobody had any matches or light. What was to be done? A few of the crowd soon solved the question by going to the fruit stand on the corner, where they were questioned as to their good intentions before receiving the much wished for article. When these were returned to camp, a huge bon-fire was built and everyone busied herself by collecting sticks and fuel. When all was prepared for the night, Margie and Mollie and Eunice arrived with a sumptuous tamale pie. After this was devoured, apple pie was brought in and likewise done away with. When eats had been eaten, the dishes were washed (?) and each one took her place about the fire. Here gossip prevailed as gossip can when a crowd of girls are together, and if your ears burned perhaps you were under discussion. The evening passed quickly and soon beds were made, and after a short devotional, all retired. Early in the morning, a delicious breakfast of bread, butter, eggs and cocoa was partaken of, and then all started for home, thanking Margie for such a good time.

Americans and were served delicious banana pie. The group enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Woods and thank them for it.

He formerly resided in Washington, but since the death of Mrs. Cline has made his home with his daughter Mrs. Root, in Long Beach. COLLEGE MEN START BASE BALL

College base ball started out with a bang. On Monday evening, March 12, the diamond seemed to be full of all sorts of rookies, from frosh up to seniors. They were all trying to learn to swat the old apple square in its nose and drive it over the fence (what ain't).

Coach Arnett has a hopeful outlook for the team this year, as he is scheduling games with such conference teams as Oxy, Redlands, etc.

His hopefuls are: J. Price catcher, "Hop" in the box, John B. 1st base, Spec B. 2nd base, Roy R. short stop, Harper, Roynon, Dickey and a few others for field. So far third base is not filled, but Landis or Hepner are going to try to fill that position. The Academy Sophs wish them good luck.

ATHLETICS

GIRLS LOSE TO CLAREMONT CORONA vs LA VERNE

Through misfortune, our baseball girls lost to Claremont by a score of 5 to 2. The game was called off in the sixth inning on account of a heavy rain (which only lasted a few minutes). The Claremont girls were ahead and so the game had to be forfeited because six innings had already been played.

The part of the game that was played was very good. Our girls held them down, and it began to look like a real struggle, with a few thrills, such as the home-run by our captain, Miriam S., and the fielding of our girls at times.

Although the girls did not have full support of the school, they did their best and are wishing for more support next time. Line-up:

ACADEMY BOYS WIN DUAL MEET FROM BONITA

The Academy track team defeated Bonita tracksters in a dual meet held March 4th on the home field. Although our men were held to three events, and in spite of the fact that they forfeited twenty-seven points for lack of men, they beat their old rivals.

Bohn and Otie tied for the 100 yd. dash; Orville Brooks took the low hurdle; Bohn won the 220 and 440; Otie took shot put and discus, and ran in the relay, which was made up of Bohn, Root, Orville B. and Otie B. Gillette and Kreps took first and second respectively in the 880.

YOUNG PEOPLE GO TO MORENO

Sunday, March 11th, the Young People's Christian Workers' Society went to the little town of Moreno to give a program. There were about sixty in the crowd, several of whom left early in the morning and enjoyed the day visiting the springs and various places of interest. The rest left at 2:30 and arrived in time to spend a couple of hours with "Grandpa Henry," an old friend of the students. Mr. Henry has been ill more than a year, and the songs and readings were greatly appreciated by him.

An enthusiastic crowd was present to hear the program in the evening. The subject "Life" was presented by Raymond Root.

"Discouragements and How to Meet Them," Marion Roynon.

"Love that Will Not Let Me Go," Lucile B., Martha B., Wayne B., Byrl H.

"Joys of Christian Living," Herman Moomaw.

Duet: "Life's Railway to Heaven," Rose Landis, Eva Brownsberger.

"The Future," Vera Hoover.

"Lead, Kindly Light," Quartette. Readings, Ruth Barnhizer.

The program was very much appreciated and a cordial invitation extended to the students to come to Moreno again.

LAURELS FOR THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Do you know that there are eight girl baseball stars in the Sophomore class? Five on the regular teams and four subs.

Do you know that we have three out of six of the red-haired students in school?

Do you know that we have an inexhaustible supply of jokes?

Do you know we have the tennis championship for girls' doubles?

Do you know that we have a second Plato?

The La Verne girls journeyed to the wild and wind-tossed Corona Friday only to again have had luck. Friday seems to be an unlucky day for our team, but:

"It isn't always the team that wins that's worth while, But the team that takes defeat with a smile."

Minnie Dickey (our star pitcher) pitched the whole game and did good work, but was outclassed by the Corona pitcher. During the first part of the game the score was rather even, but at the last Corona tightened up and our girls were unable to score. The game ended 7-17 in favor of Corona.

The next game is the last of the League and will be played on our home diamond with Chino. Better luck next time, girls!

The line-up was as follows:
Catcher—Frances Arnold.
Pitcher—Minnie Dickey.
1st Base—Harriet Woody.
2nd Base—Verna Shirk.
3rd Base—Pearl Van Horn.
Right Short—Olive Shirk.
Left Short—Miriam Shirk.
Right Field—Elsie Booth.
Center Field—Ruth Dickey.

VANIMANS WRITE FROM CHINA

Chinese language that we have had.

We are nearing the Chinese New Year, which comes near the close of February this year. At that time our schools will close for a three weeks' vacation, as that is the great holiday time of the Chinese and a time when all wish to return to their homes. At that time most of our educational people will go to Peking to attend the Educational Conference of the North China Education Association.

Shortly before Christmas we had the yearly baptismal service, at which time eighty some were received into fellowship with our Lord. We hope that all may be living witnesses for God and the truth. They yet need much teaching. These people, picked out from heathendom have a long way to go and much to hinder them before they reach our standards of a clean, honest, upright life. At the close of the inquirers' class and baptismal service we had our communion service, at which time all the seating capacity of our church was full.

We had a busy and happy Christmas as usual. All four of the schools (Men's and Women's Bible Schools, and Boys' School and Girls' School) had programs. Then on Sunday we had a Christmas program in the church, in which each department of our work was represented. Then on Monday, Christmas day, the missionaries had a community dinner at the home of Bro. Overholzer, our nearest neighbors. Before dinner we had a Christmas service and after dinner the children had their program, culminating in old Santa making his appearance. The children as well as the grown-ups, had a delightfully happy day. How much joy the children bring to us at the Christmas time. They all had such a good and happy Christmas.

I want to tell you about Mrs. Tang, one of our eager learners in the Women's Bible School. She is an old woman, sixty-two years of age, and she walked all the way from her home, a distance of ten miles, to come to school. Think of walking all those ten miles on little bound feet. School closes this week for a month's vacation and she expects to walk home now and back again for school. She seems to be a real earnest seeker for the truth. She, too, was baptized when the others were, before Christmas.

We watch with interest the LaVerne

Do you know that we have two unshirkable Shirks?

Do you know that three-fourths of the boys in our class were on the Academy football team this year?

Do you know that we have a hundred other things that no other class has or ever will have?

He who whispers down a well
About the goods he has to sell
Never reaps the golden dollars
Like he who climbs a tree and hollers.
