Y. M. C. A. ROUGHHOUSE GOES OVER IN A BIG WAY

FIFTY OF THE COLLEGE MEN PARTICIPATE IN GALA EVENT

Personal Combats and Mass Production of Bruises Staged in Gym

"Bud" Wilson and "High Pocket" featured the Y. M. C. A. rough house Monday evening in a level balloon boxing event. About fifty balloons were tied on each of the boxers, and between slugging and kicking, Jones was declared the winner.

Shorty Howell, "the Chino Farmer" struggled with Pug Saylor in a thrilling wrestling match in the other featured combat. Saylor subverted "Farmer Howell" several times and Saylor was declared the winner.

A basket ball game without any rules was also on the schedule. About fifty men in all played. Naturally several men were trounced, bumped on, slugged, and clawed, and as a result they nursed some bruises.

Relay games furnished the balance of the program, and cider and doughnuts topped off the enjoyable evening. It was declared by those who attended to be one of the most successful "rough houses" ever staged at college.

Those responsible for the program were: Red Weybright, Joe Lynon, Dick Maby, Cecil Huff and J. McDonald of Azusa.

The roughhouse followed a Varsity Club basket ball game with the Throne's Business College quintet, and as a result, a number of alumni stayed and enjoyed most of the latter proceedings.

Who said Mrs. Eisan could not cook? Anyone entertaining such thought may have it easily and quickly dispelled by mentioning the fact to any member of the Five Horsemen. For the Five Horsemen were entertained at dinner by the Eisans Thursday evening. They know different.

The dinner was scheduled for six o'clock and the last guests arrived at six-thirty. After "Red" Stutz offered up their excuses for being late, the guests went down to a dinner—what a feast. There was roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, macaroni and all accessories. After being regaled, they ate two pieces of pie. They ate the first piece to polite and the second piece because it was good.

The fellows sprawled on the floor in a sort of a stupor. About eight o'clock the rest of the basketball squad arrived and the rest of the evening was spent

DR. WIEAND GIVES CHAPEL TALK

Bethany President Discusses "Is America Safe for Democracy?"

There was a visitor from Bethany in chapel Thursday morning who was none other than Dr. Wieand, president of Bethany Bible School, or Bethany Biblical Seminary, as the school is now known.

He took the thoughts for his talk from a book entitled, "Is America Safe for Democracy?" which is composed of a series of lectures once given at Harvard University.

His first direct words were, "I wish to pledge each of you to this: making America safe for democracy." This task lies in the hands of the individual and depends upon individual character development, because the stability of a nation is based upon moral principles.

The two essentials of a character which can work toward making America safe for democracy are ability and dependability. J. P. Morgan once testified in court that he had often lent money on no other security than good character.

The downfall of civilization has always been the result of mental development not being balanced by character development. The students of LaVerne College are fortunate in being in a Christian institution where both mental and character development can be attained to the fullest extent.

The assembly was favored by two instrumental numbers by Howard Greene previous to the lecture.

FRESHMAN THEATRE PARTY IS HUGE SUCCESS

Refreshments Served at the Brandt Home

Judging from all reports, the Freshman theater party at Ontario was a great success. About forty-five Frosh turned out to see "Stolen Heaven," starring Nancy Carroll and Philip Holmes. After the picture, the class took advantage of the hospitality of Prof. and Mrs. Brandt and enjoyed a second round of the evening's entertainment in the form of games and refreshments. Everyone had such a good time that it was decided to have a number of other Frosh affairs before the close of school.

First Stranger (at the party): "Very dull, isn't it?"
Second: "Yes, very."
First: "Let's go home."
Second: "I can't; I'm the host."

CALENDAR
Tuesday — Annual mid-year banquet of young people, Calvary church.	Friday — Y. M. C. A. One-act Play, "The Bachelor Club." Everyone there and see "Lee" perform.
Dorm — St. Patrick's Day party.	Saturday — Varsity Club at Chocolate Tavern.
Wednesday — Student Volunteer meeting.	Sunday — Pre-Easter services.
	Monday — Orchestra practice.

THE CHI DELTA CHI BANQUETS

View Rehearsal of "Cauzan" after Dinner

Seven Guests Among Attendants

A banquet unique and colorful was given last Wednesday evening by Chi Delta Chi at the Padua Hills Little Theater. Besides the regular members, seven guests were invited. They were Dan Stover, Ruthe Bishop, Leslie DeHart, Ardit Horning, Tad Davis, Ruth Rothrock and Kenneth Deardorff.

During the meal, which was served in the low Spanish dining hall by gaily costumed Spanish waitresses, plays and productions of various kinds were discussed. When the last course was served, the atmosphere was pervaded with general good humor and some one began telling jokes, the members telling a joke on each guest, while the guests retaliated with vigor, which only added to the fun.

After the meal the group adjourned to the lobby, where a cheery fire-burned in the huge fireplace.

The guests furnished the entertainment. Different groups presented amusing stunts and skits. Then each guest gave an individual stunt. These numbers were highly entertaining, some being readings, others songs or piano numbers.

The evening's climax came when an unexpected invitation was given to the club to see the dress rehearsal of the play, "Cauzan," then being directed in the little theater adjoining the lobby.

The students enjoyed the rehearsal and felt that they had learned a great deal from their observation of professional technique.

FEROCITY OF LEOPARD DISPLAYED

Leopard and Python Fight to the Death

Possibly many of our new students do not appreciate the emblem which the Associated Students of LaVerne College has picked as a mascot. In order to give some idea of the ferocity and unconquerable spirit of the Leopard, I give here an excerpt from a newspaper article describing a fight to the death between a Leopard and a python which was watched by F. W. FitzSimons, a noted naturalist of South Africa.

"One of the rarest sights is a battle to death between a python and a leopard. Pythons do not deliberately attack leopards and leopards do not as a rule seek a fight

BASKETBALL QUEEN ELECTED

Miss Sandbloom Victor in Final Contest

Basketball queen! Who is she? What is she? What is it all about, anyway?

Students have been wondering and waiting to discover the final results of the Basketball Queen contest staged by the Lambda Staff for the benefit of the college annual. And here is the outstanding result—Frances Sandblom was chosen as this year's Basketball Queen!

Each class was instructed to elect one candidate to represent the class in this contest, the choices being:

Seniors—Myrtice Butterbaugh.
Juniors—Frances Sandblom.
Sophomores—Frances Nix.
Freshmen—Elizabeth Lehman.

Interest and enthusiasm were created during the rivalry, as each candidate was well worthy of the honor. But each vote for a person cost one cent, and there seemed to be a number of Scotchmen in several classes, as their candidates failed to win.

The Juniors chose a good representative and then co-operated in putting her at the top of the list. Three cheers for "Frankie"!

Tuesday Chapel Period Devoted to Singing

Marvin Bollinger Wields Baton; Stover Tickles the Ivory

Singing was the theme of Tuesday's chapel hour, but contrary to the usual custom of having it discussed by a single person, it was expressed by the entire assembly with Marvin Bollinger wielding the baton and Dan Stover playing the piano.

The song session opened with "True Hearted, Whole Hearted," and was closed by singing the Alma Mater. The intervening choruses included pep songs and Southern melodies, some of which were "It Isn't Any Trouble Just to S-m-i-l-e," "John Brown's Baby," "Alouette" (led by Alex Mallides), and "Dixie Land."

At first the voices sounded weak and rusty, but before the period was over they became quite agile and warmed up for some real singing. It might be well to have more singing sessions in order to keep in practice, for according to all appearance, everybody seemed to enjoy this one.

Big Crowd Attends the Presentation of Three One-Act Plays

Dramatics Class Puts on "Hunger", "The Terrible Woman", and "Ile".

Student Volunteers Explore Mountains

Dr. Wieand Gives Talk

Last Friday, after school, the Student Volunteer band went to Ice Hot Canyon for a week-end of play and inspiration.

J. F. Fyock who had charge of the transportation, succeeded in getting every one up to the lodge. The group then had a three-fourths of a mile hike up to Dr. Allison's cabin, where they spent the night.

Dr. Wiend from Bethany gave a very inspiring and uplifting talk in the evening, and with contentment and gay spirits the band retired.

Morning watch was at 6:30, followed by breakfast.

Everyone played around and explored the hills until 9:00 a. m. Dr. Allison gave a talk followed by Dr. Emmert, who gave another talk at 11:30.

Evelyn Deardorff was responsible for the eats. Her work was appreciated very much. Martha Baer was in charge of the program.

FRESHMEN DEBATE STARTING

Varsity Men to Coach Individual Teams

The Frosh debate rally held last week was a success with ten Frosh men present and five more sending regrets. Every one was in high spirits and it looks as if the Frosh class is going to have a real team.

At the Friday meeting, Coach Brubaker suggested that each team select a varsity debate man, as their coach, to help them prepare their material. The majority of the men have had no experience and this help will be valuable. The squad heartily agreed to the suggestion and the following arrangements were made:

Royal Glick and Aubrey Calvert—coached by Everett Calvert, Ellsworth Replogle and Ernest Swihart—coached by Ed Cunningham. Robert Walker and Fred Butterbaugh—coached by Orlin Vaniman.

In order to have a well rounded squad another team is needed and Coach Brubaker is "hot on the trail" of every Frosh man in school. Practice debates within the squad are scheduled for next Monday and Wednesday afternoons. The teams must be selected and whipped into shape for

Plays Directed by Students of Advanced Dramatics Class

The Advanced Dramatics Class of LaVerne College presented three one-act plays on Tuesday evening March 10. Many students and residents of the city attended the presentations and were well pleased with the results.

One of the plays given was fantasy, "Hunger," by Eugene Pi lot. Orlin Vaniman directed the play, assisted by Opal Kuns. The cast consisted of:

The Beggar—Glenn Harmon.
The Poet—George Berg.
The Man—Doyle Montz.
The Girl—Constance Horning.
The Satisfied One—Opal Kuns.

"The Terrible Woman," a comedy by Wilbur D. Steele, was directed by Ardeth Horning, assisted by Catherine Crist. The players were:

Martha (Cris' wife)—Gladys Ikenberry.
Mary (house guest)—Constance Horning.
Tubs (their son)—Spurgeon Rothrock.

The last play presented was the most interesting of the three. It was so well acted that there were many wet eyes in the audience at the close. The play was a tragedy, "Ile," by Eugene O'Neil. "Ile" is a mispronunciation of "Oil."

This play was directed by Elizabeth Masterson, her assistant being George Berg. The cast members were as follows:

The Cook—Glenn Harmon.
Benny—Orlin Vaniman.
Second Mate—Doyle Montz.
Second Mate—George Berg.
Annie (captain's wife)—Frances Bishop.

Harpooner—Max Forney.

All the actors did their work pretty well, especially Frances Bishop, as the captain's wife, in "Ile." This was a tragic figure and was very realistically portrayed.

Most of the scenery was contributed by the efforts of Homer Krep and Fred Mahoney.

Several members of the cast showed great versatility in their acting, as they appeared in more than one of the plays.

LAMBDA NEEDS MORE SNAPSHOTS

TURN YOURS IN NOW

The editor of the Lambda wants you to know that there are only about three weeks to get the Lambda put together. This means that you will have to get your snaps all in within the next two weeks or it will be too late. Efforts are being made to get the book out on time and as early as possible, please be prompt and co-operate.

THE AIM OF THE CAMPUS TIMES

is to increase support of, and centralize our loyalties on the five leading activities of The Associated Students of LaVerne College, which are:

1. Feeling a sense of unity as one of The Associated Students.
2. Athletic activities (inter-collegiate and inter-class).
3. The Lambda and the Campus Times, our publications.
4. Forensic activities (mainly inter-collegiate).
5. Associated Student Socials and individual class life.

How About a Spring Vacation?

The Annual Clean-up-Day and Inter-class Track meet reminds the writer of a practice that certain other colleges and universities practice in the form of an annual spring vacation. Perhaps, there are several advantages in not having one; but we would like to see the results of a vote on the subject. If correct information is at hand, a two-thirds or three-fourths majority of the students was in favor of the idea a few years ago; and yet we had no spring vacation. If our students needed an opportunity to get over such diseases as "spring fever" and monotony, it is along toward the end of March or the first part of April.

Annual Clean-up Day and Inter-class Track-meet Wednesday

An opportunity to carry out the aims given in the box above will be given each individual student this coming Wednesday in the form of the first Annual Clean-up Day and Inter-class Track-meet.

The men will be divided into gangs to improve certain parts of the campus not taken care of by student gardeners, and the women students will furnish lunch to the workers (of course the women "can" and "may" wield a hoe or two if they wish.)

Then, in the afternoon, a long missing cog in student life will be filled for the first time—an inter-class trackmeet will be held which should hold the interest of all students and cover several real athletes.

Now, it will be possible for a few students to get out of the dorms to work in the forenoon and to ditch the trackmeet in the afternoon; but in face of the aims of student leaders and campus opinion, we believe that few will follow such a course of action.

Everyone cooperate with student leaders Wednesday and make the day a success. Don't forget to remember—it includes three of the leading activities of the Associated Students, (No's. 1, 2, and 5.)

Thanks For Your Cooperation! Keep It Up

The Associated Students as a whole have co-operated in the same way with the staff in putting out a good weekly as has the faculty; and this co-operation is certainly appreciated.

We thank everyone for their support and seek the same co-operation for the remainder of the year. Don't forget to give the Newsette editor information about house parties, private socials and week-end trips. Speak to the news editor a week in advance pertaining to important club, class and other meetings. And always feel free to give us your suggestions or criticisms. We want to make the Campus Times even more so than it has been, a weekly by, for, and of the Associated students.

Campus Chuckles

Ruthe Bishop: "I thought you took Spanish last year."

"Ike" Funk: "I did, but the faculty encored me."

Gladys Ikenberry: "Will your folks be surprised when you graduate?"

"Buck" Ferree: "No, they've been expecting it for years."

Marvin B.: "I love you as no one else has ever loved you before."

Anna Emmert: "I can't see much difference."

In the parlor there were three, She, the parlor lamp, and he; Two is company, there's no doubt So the little lamp went out.

Orlin Vaniman: "Scientists say mosquitoes weep. Do you believe it?"

Ardie Horning: "Sure, I've even seen a moth ball."

Francis Bishop: "All good looking boys are conceited."

Russell Frantz: "Not at all; I'm not."

Clerk, "Yes, madam?"
Virginia Scarisbrick: "I would like to try on that dress in the window."

Alfred Adams: "My dog died the other day."

Charles Snell: "What did he do, swallow a tape measure and die by inches, or run down the alley and die by yards?"

Alfred A.: "Why, no, he went under the bed and died by the foot."

Prof. Cullen: "I tossed the baby out of the window last night."

Mrs. Cullen: "Why, what did you do that for?"

Prof. Cullen: "For crying out loud."

Ray Wilkerson: "I have Washington's watch."

Bert Jones: "That's nothing; I have Adam's apple."

"Red" Weybright: "I consider kissing unhealthy."

Mimi S.: "Well, I've never been—"

"Red": "Kissed?"

Mimi: "No. Ill!"

Ralph Vaniman: "I hear you're an artist."

Elwyn Boly: "Yes, I can draw the picture of a hen so well that when you throw it into the waste basket it lays there."

Clarence Brubaker: "I've eaten beef all my life and now I'm as strong as an ox."

Joe Pratt: "That's funny. I've eaten fish all my life, and can't swim a stroke."

Prof. Brandt: "George, you have been in class for half an hour and haven't found out how to work this problem yet."

Dora Thomas: "He has nothing on me; I have been working on it for a semester."

Cecil Brooks: "Do many fellows bring you candy?"

Zelda Sheler: "Everyone but you."

Cecil: "Well, trot some out; I feel hungry."

Customer: "Give me four pork sandwiches to take out."

Waiter to Cook: "Dress up four grunts to go walking."

Frosh: "What do you mean by 'beastly weather?'"

Senior: "When it's raining cats and dogs."

ATTENTION! SENIORS ON PARADE

Cecil Huff comes to LaVerne College from Imperial Valley. He attended his freshman and sophomore years in El Centro Junior College. Cecil is a quiet, bashful fellow, and oh, how we like to see him blush.

He is treasurer of the Y. M. C. A., and last year he was circulation manager of the Campus Times.

Cecil informed me that he is not going to be a "school teacher," but has ambition to live a quiet, secluded life on a farm. Don't stray too far away, Cecil—

Gladys Ikenberry is another LaVerne-ite. Last year she attended San Diego State Teachers College, where she was a member of a Greek letter sorority, while this year she is completing her Senior studies here in LaVerne.

Gladys has a unique personality, and is a very mysterious and interesting character. That's right, keep people guessing.

"Ikie's" chief interests lie in the realm of music and drama. She has a beautiful soprano voice, and has been selected as soloist in the cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," which is to be presented by the Choral Union.

Gladys made the remark that some day she is expecting to attend graduate school in order to secure a music and drama credential. Possibly next year we will find "Ikie" teaching in the elementary school some place—who knows? Luck to you!

'Tis no one else other than Fred Hubbell, who domiciles in Pomona. Fred is an all-round fellow, as well as an outstanding athlete. He may possess that sleepy or dreamy look in his eyes, still we all know he is different.

Fred was captain of our football team this past season. Due to his remarkable ability he proved to be worthy of this honor. He has been a valuable member on both the varsity basketball and baseball teams for the last three years. LaVerne will lose a real athlete when Fred closes the college gate. He also is a prominent member of the Varsity Club.

If you know Fred, you realize he is a secretive type of person, and does not say much. Nevertheless, I did learn that he is planning to teach in junior high school this year. What else does the future hold for Fred? Your guess is as good as mine. Remember, he has an attractive girl friend!

Barber: "Is there any particular way you'd like your hair cut?"

Mildred Adams: "Yeah, off."

"Frankie" Sandblom: "Will these shoes wear long?"

Clerk: "Wear long? Nobody has ever come back for another pair!"

Cy Nical Comments

I understand that I have been severely criticized for speaking of the stage as I have done in the past; also, that the appropriations for the next year have been passed and the stage was not included and that it was not for me to talk about when there was no provision made. Exactly; I guess I have not made myself clear so this is to be very plain. I have been hollering about the lamentable fact that the appropriations are always passed and the stage left out in the cold. I beg anyone's pardon if I have hurt their feelings, but we do need some stage equipment.

I found a pamphlet in the student lobby advertising everything from deodorants to wall dusters, and from coco door mats to cuspidors. I wonder if some firm thinks our seniors are going to graduate as full fledged janitors or were they thinking only of the prospective housewives?

I wish all the women in our fair institution would read the article on page 234 of the North American Review for March. I hope the reading will accomplish two things. First, that there will be more evidence of the mentioned womanly wiles; second, that there will be a decrease of some of the tactless and sour grape attitudes that some are taking.

Have you tried to sharpen your pencil lately? I believe some of the girls could turn in their P. E. reports as climbing and unclimbing three flights of stairs twice daily to sharpen a pencil. There are only two or three sharpeners in the whole building that are still in existence, and only one of those will do a half job of sharpening. We might remedy the situation by all buying the old fashioned slate.

Prof. Cullen asked us to write a definition of goodness. Well, I used to think I used to know what goodness was, but since I have taken ethics and philosophy I couldn't do it to save me. Oh my goodness, woo—, there I went, but I didn't know what I meant so it was all right.

Prof. Cullen says that 90 per cent of the men carry their pocket books in their right hip pocket. Shorty Harmon says that the pocket who picks his pocket will get his handkerchief, but at that he will get more than if he got his pocketbook because his handkerchiefs holds more than his pocketbook.

Well, the basketball queen, she done ban picked. Let's give three cheers and our heartiest regards to the little lady; she deserved it!

Whoops, my dear! Have you noticed the way the front lawn has been transformed? Boy, oh boy! I really believe spring is here. I certainly does my heart good to see the student gardeners out and making the weeds look pale and the grass short. Keep up the good work, boys. All that is needed is to put a tack under one of the laboratory janitors and things will begin to get their heads up in the air again.

Reduction through deduction. B deduction May and Dora figure that a quarter mile gallop each night would accomplish reduction. Just to make it interesting the chase a couple of boys around each night. Well, well, I used to feel young and foolish, too.

One of the chapel speakers once asked what mankind meant to women. I imagine that we are considered as a handy accessory to the whole doggon world. Oh, well, it is our fate, so vot you dink?

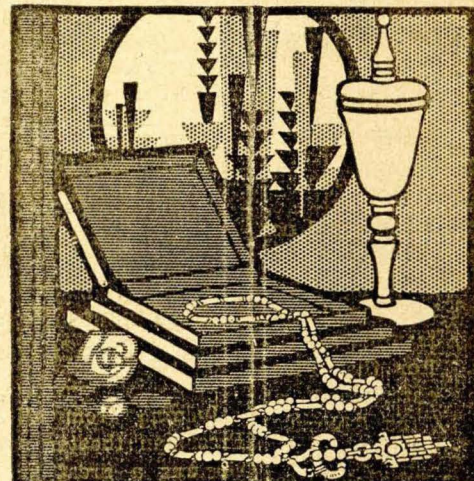

I get tickled every time I think of the Y. W.'s appreciation notes. They are more like depreciation notes. You can't tell me that those notes are written in sincerity. Many of them are written because the writer is afraid that she might get one from some one she did not write to. Oh, my deah, how appreciate you.

A guilty conscience is the mother of invention.

THE POPULAR SUIT SHADE FOR SPRING

NOPE, we haven't gone into the jewelry business. That picture is just to illustrate Platinum Grey. Other popular shades for Spring are Balmoral Blue, Arab Drab and Sherwood Green. We won't mention that Hart Schaffner & Marx never before made such good looking, such really good quality clothes for such a price ($35 to $50)—you can see that for yourselves. OLD Y. W. C. A. CABINET ENTERTAINS NEW CABINET

Officers Turn Over Keys to Successors

Monday evening, March 9, the old Y. W. C. A. cabinet entertained the new cabinet at a potluck supper held at the home of the outgoing president, Miss Esther Dickey. The elections were held two weeks ago, and on Monday morning, March 9, the new members were formally installed in office and the old cabinet gave place to them.

After the delicious supper was served, the meeting was turned over to business in which the outgoing officers turned over the keys and the books to their successors with a few last minute instructions as to the work to be done by each member.

Profiting by the mistakes and successes of each cabinet, the next cabinet is expected to work to a better advantage than any before. With Miss Muir, Mrs. Jesse Brandt, and Mrs. Dale Glick as advisors, and LaVonne Putnam at the helm as president, another good year is looked forward to and planned.

Those present were: President, Esther Dickey, LaVonne Putnam; vice-president, Wilma Long, Esther Thomason; secretary, Verna Minor, Frances Sandblom; treasurer, Lenna Betz, Mary Hollinger; music director, Myrtice Butterbaugh, Helen Buckley; membership chairman, Edna Brubaker, Blanche Klingaman; social chairman, Mildred Smith, Frances Nix; social welfare, LaVonne Putnam, Marie Hobst; publicity, Catherine Crist, Mildred Smith; world interest, Arnelia Brubaker, Virginia Scarisbrick; pianist, Elizabeth Lehman; advisors, Mrs. Ray Cullen, Mrs. Jesse Brandt, Mrs. Dale Glick. Miss Muir sent regrets.

The first program to be put on by the new officers will be at 10:25 Monday morning, March 16, in the Y. W. C. A. room.

Seven of the outgoing cabinet members are seniors and several have seen much service in the Y. W. C. A. of the college. Myrtice Butterbaugh and Verna Minor have served in one capacity or another for three years of their eligibility and have been splendid workers. Esther Dickey has served two years, and is to be commended in her work. The other seniors also will be missed, but on the new cabinet are several officers entering upon their second and third terms of service with capable new workers who will quickly train to their new duties with their experience in offices elsewhere.

STUDENT SOCIAL LIFE

Faculty Notes

Dr. Sarafian had the pleasure of attending a luncheon in Claremont Colleges, under the supervision of the Department of Education, in honor of Dr. Boyd Bode, the eminent critic and philosopher of Education of the Ohio University. Dr. Bode gave a very interesting talk on the problem of liberal education.

Saturday night a group of the students met at Coach Eisan's home after the Pomona game for a bridge party. Lots of fun and good eats were reported. Those present were: Dale Stutzman, Orville Thomason, Vernon Weybright, Mildred Smith, Whitcomb Overholtzer, LaVonne Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lehmer, and the host and hostess.

Professor and Mrs. Brubaker and family spent the week-end at Compton with Professor Jamison.

Professor and Mrs. Haugh took President Wieand to San Clemente for lunch Saturday, March 14. They are taking Mr. Wieand so that he may bask in California sunshine.

Dr. Emmert was the speaker at the Glendora church Sunday night, March 8.

Dr. Wieand Talks to Stud. V. on "Ideals"

"Student Wollies" Entertain Distinguished Guest

The student Volunteers, who met in the Y. W. C. A. room last Wednesday evening, enjoyed an inspiring hour of music by one of the new male quartets, and the well defined talk by Dr. A. C. Wieand, president of Bethany Biblical Seminary of the Church of the Brethren in Chicago.

"Ideals" was the subject of his talk. Success in all fields is determined by four types of ideals: the supreme ideal, the major ideal, subsidiary ideals, and collateral ideals. Thus, the Student Volunteer, conceived as "onewholly consecrated to God," must have the fulfillment to the highest degree of God's plan for his life as his supreme ideal—that cause to which he has given his life. His major ideal must then be chosen as that definite way by which he can best reach the supreme ideal. Those things which must be done in order to carry out the major and attain the goal of the supreme ideal will constitute the subsidiary ideals. Then collateral or minor ideals will necessarily have to be selected according to the individual traits of character and the natural laws governing his purpose, such as harmony in conduct.

With such a purpose, divine guidance is essential. It can be gained by means of the Bible, the Holy Spirit, providential circumstances of the individual, and by human intelligence. Above all, there must be full surrender of self to the divine will.

Glenn Harmon led the meeting and introduced the speaker; the quartet, Mr. Green, Elmo Hall, Bob Walker, and Chas. Snell, sang three numbers: "Where My Caravan Has Rested," "So Near and Yet So Far," and "Love Forevermore." Virginia Stern led the opening songs.

The group was glad to have Drs. Studebaker, Emmert, and Miller present.

LUMNI NOOS

Levi Dickey of Chino is getting the boys work of Camp LaVerne shaped up for the coming summer.

Miss Florence Long and Orville Brooks spent the week-end with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Long, in McFarland.

Miss Ellen Edmister reports that she is enjoying her work in the Laton schools very much.

Mrs. Ruby Crumpacker, who is teaching at Fantana, had vacation last week and spent a part of it visiting other schools. She visited the Lincoln school Thursday. She reports that she is getting along nicely and enjoying her work.

Harvey Brubaker had charge of the music at a five dollar a plate banquet in Dr. D. W. Kurtz's church in Long Beach last Tuesday evening. This was sponsored by the men's brotherhood of that church.

Doris, little daughter of David and Hazel Brubaker Bomberger, has been removed to her home in San Diego. She was in the Pomona Valley hospital from the Christmas holidays until about ten days ago. She was removed to the home of her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. A. O. Brubaker, where she remained a week before she was taken to San Diego. She underwent a series of operations and her life hung by a thread for many weeks, but she is now getting along nicely.

Varsity Club to Stage Program

Official Date of "Jinx" Set for April 18

Reports of the Varsity Club Jinks, which is to be staged in LaVerne College auditorium at 8 p. m. on April 18, have been officially announced.

The Jinks, is to consist mostly of a vaudeville program, the chairman of which is none other than Coach Lee Eisan, while the master of ceremonies is Wayne Bohn.

Such old-time actors as Ben Hepner, Ernie Carl, Marion Boots, and "Dutch" Brubaker will make their appearance in this program. Reserve the evening of April 18 for this event.

Junior: "Does the senior play have a happy ending?"

Senior: "Sure, everyone will be glad when it's over."

NEWSSETTES

Ruthe Bishop, Frances Berg, George Berg and "Buck" Ferree spent a delightful week-end at Antelope Valley with a group of outside young people.

Max Forney, Shorty Howell, Elwyn Wilson, Bonnie Bessey and Bert Jones were among those present at Winter Green Ice Garden in Los Angeles Friday night. Did you all fall down, boys?

Coach Lee Eisan entertained the "Five Horsemen" at dinner Thursday evening. After dinner, in addition to "Red," "Nick," "Stutz," "Freddie" and "Tommy," Coach Eisan entertained the following: Bert Jones, Maurice Shirk, Shorty Howell, Max Forney, Elwyn Wilson, Bob Welty, Fred Mahoney, Joe Roynon, Jerry Deal, Dale and Florence Glick. The host was assisted by the better half, Edith Eisan.

Ray Wilkerson saw "Paris in Spring," at the Hollywood Playhouse Thursday evening. He didn't go alone though, folks.

Isaac Funk went to Pasadena again Friday night. This time he went "to see a man about a horse."

Frosh Coach Entertains Casaba Squad

Players and Girl Friends Given a Good Time

One of the jolliest informal parties of recent date was that given by Coach Dale Glick and Mrs. Glick in honor of the members of the Frosh basket ball team and their girl friends. The party was held in the Faculty cabin in San Dimas canyon, bridge, hearts, ping pong and other games being the diversions of the evening.

Since basket ball season is over, the refreshments, pie and ice cream, were in order. Those present were "Red" Montgomery, Cecil Brooks, Frank Saylor, Benny Anderson, Ernie Swihart, Dayton Stutzman, George Weybright, Jack Singer, Aubrey Calvert, and Misses Esther Statler, Helen Buckley, Miriam Dickey, Fern Glick, Elizabeth Lehman, Edith Coffman, Marion Steves, Zelda Sheller, Virginia Scarisbrick, and the host and hostess.

"Everyone is crazy over me," said the inmate of the first floor of the insane asylum.

Foreign Club Changes Dinner Party Date

Progressive Party Planned for March 24th

"Interrupted Meal" to Be Consumed in LaVerne

Notice is being given of the change in date of the dinner party planned by the Foreign Language Club. It is to be given Tuesday, Mar. 24, at 6 o'clock.

This will be a progressive party with the group meeting at Founders hall and proceeding down Third street, stopping at homes of different members for each course of the dinner and finally concluding with a program at the home of Miss Lenhardt.

A menu of dishes typical of different nations is being planned, something as follows: Les hors d'ouvres, sopa, sauer kraut und wieners, apple pie and Swiss cheese, coffee, and tidbits. The program which follows will be of songs and readings and possibly a speaker will be present.

A paper will be posted in the language room, 215, and all those who plan to attend the social are asked to sign it, or make their intention known to the committee.

A nominal charge of 25 cents per person will be made.

GETTING OUT A PAPER

Getting out a paper is no picnic. If we print jokes, folks say we are silly.

If we don't, they say we are too serious.

If we publish original matter, they say we lack variety.

If we publish things from other papers we are too lazy to write.

If we stay on the job we ought to be out rustling news.

If we don't print contributions, we don't show proper appreciation.

If we print them the paper is filled with junk.

Like as not some fellow will say we swiped this from an exchange—so we did.—W. G. V. Long Book.

The Vogue Cleaners

I've had my share of grief with things
Proclaimed "as cure of" cleaning thing.
I gave each one a thorough test,
But all I reaped was costly dress.
AND THEN WE HAD OUR LUCKY DAY
WHEN VOGUE CLEANERS CAME OUR WAY.
Besides a lot of fancy frills,
They cured a lot of chronic ills.
They'll stop your worries then and there,
And stop your clothes from looking bare.
What perfect cleaners did for me,
They'll do for you—TRY THEM AND SEE.

home the bacon in any of the sets played. The Sagehens took all eight matches by a comparative La Verne varsity racqueters took their first conference defeat Saturday. Calvert Paul, Ike Funk, Gnagly and Snell failed to bring large score.

Ike Funk played Hahn of the Sagehens and Ike annexed one set while Hahn won two. The scores were 6-4, 2-6, 8-6.

Paul Funk played Almon in the second singles contest and was taken down with ease 6-2, 6-0.

Calvert struggled with Gerard and after going the rounds was forced to take the short end of the score 6-1, 6-4, indicating that they were somewhat equal terms.

Snell in the fourth singles lost to Higman 6-1, 6-1, and Gnagly in the fifth singles donated his match to Dashbury 6-1, 6-2.

Paul and Ike Funk played together in the first doubles match and lost to Alman and Higman 6-2, 9-7. Calvert and Snell paired together in the second doubles match, and they also lost 6-4, 6-1.

All in all the racquet wielders need to get in some hard practice and get their playing down to a system. It seems that there is not too much harmony on the squad. The Leopards will have to buckle down and control themselves if are going to take Redlands, April 11. The schedule is as follows: March 14, Pomona vs. La Verne at La Verne College. Cal. Tech vs. San Diego at San Diego. March 21, Pomona vs. Redlands at Redlands. San Diego vs. Pomona at Pomona. Whittier vs. Occidental at Occidental. April 11, La Verne vs. Redlands at Redlands. TRACK MEN START
WORKING

Frosh Outlook Bright--Varsity Prospects Not So Good

Training began in earnest last week for the fast approaching track season. The varsity prospect seems mighty slim, but the frosh hopes loom higher than they have for many years. The turn out in numbers is good, and judging from several high school records these boys have ability. The work of Noll and Swihart with the weights, although not so bright at first seems to be improving rapidly. The sprinters' class seems to be filled to overflowing—Brooks, Montgomery and Peterson running the hundred and Hall and Peterson the two-twenty. Brooks and Wilkerson have both shown ability in the hurdles during high school days, and though they haven't looked so good yet, they may strike their old stride with a few weeks of hard training. Montgomery has set some high school records in the broad jump and he seems to be running true to form.

Both the varsity and frosh track men will get a good chance to show all their skill, ability, or speed next Wednesday afternoon. The big event is inter-class track meet. The Frosh are favored to win the meet, but they may find more competition than they plan on. Besides a lot of good track men, the spectators will see a lot of milers running the hundred, pole vaulters high jumping, and weight men broad jumping.

Co-Eds Enter Championship Playoffs

Defeat Pomona M. E. By 65-9

Frances Nix ran riot last Thursday evening to lead the La Verne Co-eds in a 65-9 victory over the First M. E. Church of Pomona.

This victory gives the La Verne girls the right to enter the play-off series for the championship in the girls' basketball series.

Nix seemed to be able to score whenever the notion siezed her and she amassed a total of 26 points. This seems not so large, however, when it is noted that Hollinger and Dickey made 14 and 17 points respectively. Flory made 8 points to account for the remainder of the La Verne score.

Landis, Glich, and Roberts played a good game at guard when it was necessary and kept the M. E. score down to the minimum.

The good passing of the La Verne guards and the team play of team as a whole was par excellence.

Horsehiders on Wrong
End of Score

Team Due to Have Some Hard Work

La Verne played Pomona Hi a practice session of the national pastime last Friday evening and emerged on the wrong end of a 7-0 score.

The La Verne outfit showed an intensive need of practice and Coach Glick intends to give them a lot of work during the next couple of weeks. The fielding was not so good—in fact it was terrible. The boys haven't yet gotten the kinks out of their backs nor have they got the range on first base. This is a condition that only a lot of hard work will remedy.

"Shorty" Howell started at first base and showed up as a likely prospect to continue at the keystone sack for the rest of the season.

Forney played first base for one inning and will undoubtedly be assigned permanent duty if his arm doesn't shape up so that he can work on the mound. He is agile and will be a good target for the other infielders to toss to.

Freddy Hubbell turned in a good game in the center garden territory and went after a couple of fliers that really didn't belong to him.

The playing of Weybright behind the bat was A-1 and he is destined to remain in that position for the rest of the season.

Welty pitched a good game but lack of support and the facts that his mates gathered him no runs accounted for his downfall.

Only one hit was gathered in by the La Verne team against Pomona's third string pitcher so no doubt the boys will get more wafting the willow in the next few days.

La Verne meets San Berdoo Hi on the local pasture Tuesday afternoon so come out and get your first view of the boys in action.

Hurrah for the Co-Ed Athletes!

GIRLS GET GOOD START

Some certain feminine members of our group of students have been trying hard to start some sort of women's organized athletics for several years, but until lately all efforts seemed in vain. About two weeks ago a group of these girls began to work toward a basketball team. Under the coaching of Alfred Nicolas, a well known member of the "five horsemen," they have developed rapidly. They have become a member of the Pomona Valley Civic League and are making a strong bid for the league title. The first two league contests were annexed with great ease, the first by a score of 28-12 and the second 59-16. This puts the La Verne co-eds in high standing in comparison to the other seven members of the league.

Subs—La Verne: Shepp, Dicky (17) Adams.
First M. E.: Wilcox, Schuck.

SPORTLIGHTS

Baseball seems to hold the limelight around La Verne about this time of year, judging from the results of Friday's game, we won't have such a good team, but I don't think we can put much stock in such a game. When the whole squad gets warmed up a little more and our pitchers hit their stride, it will be a little different. One thing certain, is that the boys need some good batting practice, and it is very likely they will get plenty this week. In short, we don't have much of a ball club, but we hope to develop one.

A report that seems to run parallel with baseball (in season at least) is track. Years previous La Verne has had and has not had a track team, and even when they did have one it wasn't anything to write home about. We don't seem to have very many track men eligible for varsity competition this year. The greatest interest in school right now seems to be in the Freshmen class, and by the way, we have some Frosh that don't look so bad in a track suit. We will see them all in action next Wednesday, and some of them have records and rumors to live up to. Let's watch the Frosh Wednesday.

In case some of you don't know it we have a varsity tennis team on the campus. I have heard several fellows remark that they would like to have a chance to make this tennis team. Now I don't know just how this whole thing is managed, but it seems to me that the spirit of competition ought to be outstanding. I, for one, would like to see some of you fellows get out there and make those fine fellows that are already on the team play the game like they really meant it; team spirit is what we need, not longing for individual honors.

Another question that seems to always be pushing itself forward is "why don't we have a frosh tennis team?" I have noticed that we have about ten men that are all in favor of such a team—and several of these men in the frosh class may be grouped as among the best in school—so why not push the thing and try to have a team? I don't think we should hold them down just because they are frosh in playing games and trying to figure out Eisan's tricks. Throughout the evening, candy was in reach so that the young men could stave off the pangs of hunger.

"Red" Weybright received the prize for being the best gamester of the evening and Max Forney received the booby prize.

Refreshments served about 11 o'clock and the boys ate enough to tide them over until they could get home and get a snack to eat.

Those present for the dinner were:

"Red" Weybright, Dale Stutzman, Oraville Thomason, Fred Jones, Jerry Deal, Max Forney, Elvin Wilson, Melvin Howell, Shirk, Bob Weltz, Joe Koynon. Alfred Nicolas sent regrets.

FEROCITY OF LEOPARD

with a python," explains Mr. F. Simons. In the instance he describes, the snake struck and attempted to secure a strangle-hold before it realized what its intended dinner consisted of. It caught the big cat in a three-coil grip and protected its own head under a fourth coil. Then the snake settled down to squeeze the life out of the beast.

But that leopard had no intention of furnishing a meal for any reptile, no matter how large. The animal was so constricted that it could not use its jaws to best advantage. One forepaw and one hind foot were free, however. With these it lashed out at the encircling coils and was slitting the skin of the snake into ribbons. The reptile never winced, never moved, except to tighten imperceptibly, or show its embrace. Presently the leopard was on its back, snarling and gnashing the air with its formidable jaws, while it tried to get leverage with its free foot.

Then the python made a fatal move. Driven at last by pain, in order to secure a better hold over the leopards' lungs and finish the fight quickly, it withdrew its head from the protecting coil. Instantly the leopard snapped its neck of the python between its jaws. The battle was over. The great coils relaxed, then unwound.

The leopard's hind legs a lower body lay crushed, helpless and shapeless on the ground. But the beast was unconquerable. Relying on its forelegs, it watched every movement of the python, death-throes—ready, if necessary, to renew the fight. When the head spectator emerged, gun in hand, the brave animal arose on its forefeet, snarling fiercely, and actually dragged its mangled body a few feet toward this new enemy. A bullet ended its suffering.
