ASSOC. STUDENTS AMEND CONSTITUTION

Primary Election of Officers to Be Held on Tuesday Following First Friday in April

By a unanimous vote the Constitution of the Associated Students of LaVerne College was amended last Friday. The amendment affected the election of officers, Article VI, Section two—Primary Election Clause No. 1. "The primary election of the officers of the coming year shall be held on the Tuesday following the first Friday of April of each school year."

In this amendment there is nothing stated concerning the installation of officers, therefore the installation will remain the same, the first Friday of May. The object of this amendment was to provide a means for the new commission to meet for some length of time with the old and thus be enabled to carry over the affairs of one year more effectively to the next.

At the same time the constitution was amended, the Table of Awards was amended for the inclusion of a minor sports letter. The only minor sport enumerated in the amendment at present is swimming, but provision was made for further addition.

To win a letter in swimming:

Varsity

1. Anyone placing in an all-conference meet, or winning a sum of eight (8) points in any conference dual meet, or is a member of a conference championship team.

2. The award shall be a script "L."

Frosh

1. The requirements shall be the same as of the varsity.
2. The award shall be a special class numeral.

Description of Awards

The major sport award shall be a six-inch block "L" of LaVerne green with a background of burnt orange. The minor sport award shall be a five-inch script "L" of LaVerne green on a background of burnt orange.

The major sport frosh award shall be a four-inch block numeral of LaVerne green on a background of burnt orange.

The minor sport frosh award shall be a monogram numeral of LaVerne green on a background of burnt orange.

NOTICE

All women who are interested in going to Asilomar this summer, please see LaVonne Putnam as soon as possible.

TODAY IS CLEAN-UP DAY ON THE CAMPUS

In accordance with our annual custom, clean-up day is being observed today for the purpose of cleaning and beautifying our school.

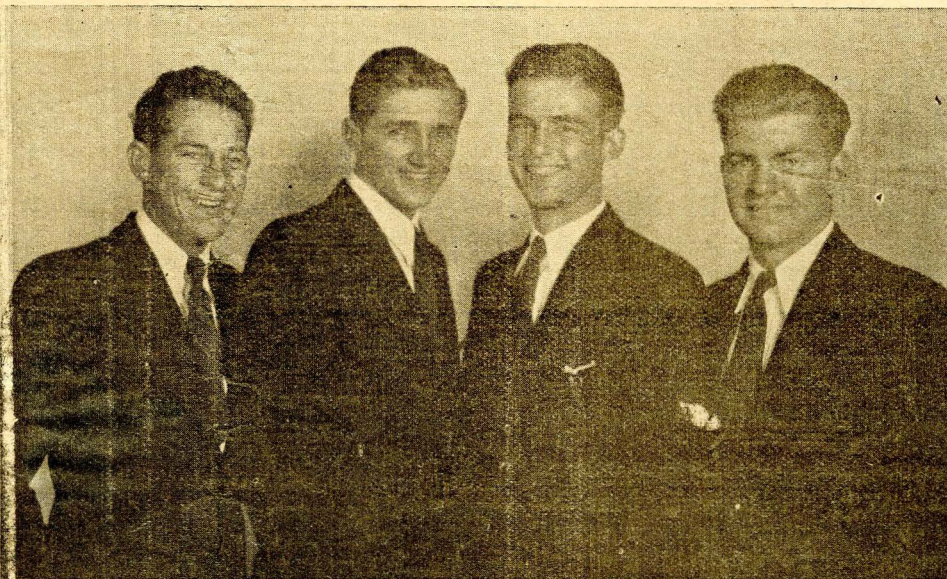

Jerry Deal and Homer Kreps are supervising the assignment of tasks systematically so that the work of renovating buildings and grounds will be accomplished with the utmost efficiency. Weeds and smudgy windows and sagging tennis nets are only a few of the many things which require attention.

Lunch will be served at noon by the school, under the direction of Esther Thomason to all those helping. Of course, this includes every student, for a check is being made of each absence and all ditchers will suffer the penalty of extra work.

APOLLO FOUR TO TOUR SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

As official quartette of the college, the Apollo Four will make a one-week tour through San Joaquin Valley, starting Monday morning and returning the following Monday. The quartette will touch such cities as Fresno, Bakersfield, Porterville and other valley towns. They have engagements at high schools, service clubs, churches, etc.

As an advertisement, the quartettes the college sends out are the most satisfactory and efficient form it is possible to secure. At their various programs they are a source of information for all those who are interested in LaVerne College and many students have been reached through these organizations.

ORATORICAL CONTESTS ARE SCHEDULED

A number of oratorical contests for LaVerne College students are scheduled to take place soon, for which attractive prizes will be offered to the winners.

The W. C. T. U. is sponsoring one of these contests offering $25 to the winner. The subject must relate to prohibition. The oration should range from within 1200 to 1500 words and will be judged on thought, composition and delivery. There must be at least four contestants entering. This contest will take place on or before June 1st.

The Collegiate Contest, which is open to any man or woman passing in twelve semester hours, is scheduled for April 28th. Any subject may be chosen and is limited to from 1200 to 1500 words. The oration should be in the hands of the commission at least two weeks prior to the date of the contest. The award for first, second or third place will be a varsity award.

A third oratorical contest is the Keiser Contest in which three prizes of $8.00, $5.00 and $2.00 will be offered, April 21st. Any subject may be chosen and the speech will be limited to from 1200 to 1500 words. The manuscript should be handed in to Mrs. Haugh two weeks prior to the contest. The Keiser contest is open to any man or woman. Any student desiring to enter any of these contests should notify Mrs. Haugh immediately.

JUNIORS ENTERTAIN IN STUDENT MEETING

The Junior class had charge of the entertainment in Student Body meeting Friday, March 4.

Before the program a number of announcements were made and a short business meeting was held in which the two new amendments to the constitution were voted on and passed by the student body. The meeting was then turned over to Charles Snell, president of the Junior class.

Evelyn Wine announced the following program:

Gondola Song, Anna and Florence Messamer and Vera Mae Shafford.

Piano Ensemble, Dan Stover, Lucy Trostle, Evelyn Wine, Vernon Heckman.

One-act play, "Columbine," Constance Horning.

Vocal solo, "Chuck" Snell.

DR. DAY SPEAKS ON RUSSIA IN CHAPEL

The main value of our attempting to understand Russia and her problems today is that we may improve our own institutions, making them more helpful and social. This was maintained by Dr. Day, the speaker of Thursday's chapel.

The outstanding effect of the five year plan is that personal ambition is stifled and subordinated to the common good.

Noting religions before the new regime, the speaker stated that every Russian upon entering church assumed a very deep sense of reverence. Dr. Day was very much impressed by the singing of the Russian choirs. Even though Russia has now overthrown all forms of religion, Dr. Day expressed the feeling that Russia will make a definite turn back to their old religion.

The main problem of making the five-year plan a successful enterprise seems to be that of converting the masses of peasants. However, the leaders feel that their plan is working successfully and they are already making plans for another like procedure.

A number of interesting posters were shown in regard to politics, religion, etc.

The Lyric Quartet sang "Lovely Night," preceding the address.

The Cotton Blossom Singers have been here in previous years and the enthusiastic appreciation of their renditions attested to their ability. The admission for this entertainment will be only thirty-five cents.

FROSH WIN INTER- CLASS TRACK MEET

Frosh Take Meet With 46 1-3 Points; Sophs Come Second With 24 Points

Last Thursday afternoon at the Bonita track, the annual interclass track meet was held, the frosh taking first place with 46 1-3 points, the Sophomores second place with 24 points, the Juniors third place with 15 1-3 points, and the Seniors last with 12 1-3 points.

Roy Smith proved to be the "iron man" of the day, taking first in the 100 yard dash, the 440 yard dash, the broad jump, and the low hurdles. Other first places taken by the Frosh were the pole vault, won by Elder; the high jump, won by Hylton, and the mile, won by Myer.

Bob Flynn won the shot put for the Sophomores, and Calvert won the javelin.

"Peewee" Lathrop won the discus giving the Juniors their one first place. "Bert" Jones, who won the meet last year for the Juniors, was held back by a bum knee that he got in the last game of football this season, and he was unable to make the marks that he set last year, although he took first in the high hurdles. "Red" Montgomery was also handicapped with a sore knee or he probably would have taken first in several of the events.

Everybody enjoyed themselves immensely with all the puffing, funny falls, and the "marvelous form" shown by "Kenny" in vaulting.

From the marks set by the Frosh, it looks as if they should place in quite a few of the events at the Frosh Conference meet.

Due to the limited time Thursday, the girls were unable to have their meet, therefore it will be held this coming Wednesday afternoon, at LaVerne.

Events

100 yard dash—Time 10.5 sec. Smith, first; White, second; Jones, third.

440 yard dash—Time, 56.5 sec. (Continued on Page Three)

VISITING DAY AT COLLEGE MARCH 24

Taking another step forward, the student body, with Jerry Deal, president, has announced that March 24 will be set aside as Visiting Day, at which all high school seniors, junior college students, and alumni will be entertained by the college.

Classes will be regular that Thursday until chapel at 10:10. The chapel hour will be conducted by the students, with the balance of the day given over to the entertainment of the guests. A picnic lunch furnished free to all visitors and LaVerne College students will be served at noon, with a football game and social hour following in the afternoon. For all those not particularly interested in athletics, an interesting afternoon program will be arranged.

As invitations will be sent out from the office under the direction of Mr. Frantz, all those who know of some students who are interested in LaVerne College please hand their names to the office as soon as possible.

Jerry Deal, student body president, has appointed Bob Walker, chairman, Elizabeth Lehman, and Helen Heisey as the program and social committee. It is hoped that every present college student will have a guest for the day.

BACK STAGE ROOMS—TO BE OR NOT TO BE

While I am in a dramatic frame of mind I might just as well get something off my chest. Now I will try not to wax profane, but I have neared that state several times in the past. It concerns those heavenly blessed rooms back stage. With all due respect too the designers and Professor Haugh's studio, I say those rooms are more of a hindrance than any one other thing on the stage. Now, contrary to my usual procedure of just griping, I have a remedy to offer. This remedy would not be expensive and would benefit the stage tremendously.

In the first place you would ask me where would Prof. Haugh go if his studio were removed, as it should be. Ah ha, I fooled you, I have the place all picked out. In the lower floor of the dormitory there are several rooms which are not being used. These rooms have windows and one of these windows could be transformed into a door and, presto, Prof. Haugh would have a much roomier and better studio than at present. Next you would say, where would you place the dressing rooms? Easy, the ping pong parlor would have to be moved, but what difference would that make? The advocates of the social parlors, so called, have failed to follow up their chance and nothing further has been done except pile up a bunch of chairs. The dressing rooms could be built very cheaply and not require a great deal of space in the room beneath the stage, the ping pong parlors. A stairway would have to be built, but that is simple, and what would be the result? With those two god danged rooms gone a few of the very few drops we now have could be preserved. Yes, sir, that nice one the choral union donated would not have to be rolled up. It does now, and if you think it is standing the wear and tear, mostly tear, of rolling, go take a look at it sometime. With those rooms gone, god dang 'em, there would be room enough to do something else on the stage except fall down over everything else on the stage. What do you say—away with the rooms.

DEPRESSION—BENEFICIAL AT ALL?

We see columns in the dailies headed as "Depression's Bright Spots." I suppose some people think there cannot be any bright spots in the depression, but aren't there? For instance, I noticed in one of the papers the other day that in a southern locality the stores were taking produce in place of money in exchange for goods. A daily paper found that its subscribers could not pay for subscriptions, so they collected chickens as pay, hired a hall and auctioned off the chickens. They averaged seven cents a pound. That was one way of getting money. The best part of this little account was that the banks were getting rid of all worthless paper and were starting all over from scratch. They were beginning to stabilize themselves, and a better time could be seen for the future.

I have noticed something right here in our midst that makes me think there has been some good come out of this so-called depression. Last Saturday we had a conference here for the furthering of peace. Three denominations, somewhat divergent yet somewhat kindred, united in a common cause. I have noticed that this is becoming more frequent all over the land. People are more willing to lay down some of their old and worn out prejudices and come together in a common cause and be really sensible. Quoting Stewart Allen, "The depression has had a tremendous socializing effect on America," and I believe "Stew" has said a mouthful. If it has taken such a shake-up as that to bring us to our senses, then I for one am thankful for its happening. We are in a democratic country and we must necessarily be tolerant and considerate of our fellow men.

THE INK WELL

By Chalmer Faw

Those few LaVerne College students who were privileged to see Tolstoy's "Redemption" at the Little Theatre in Padua Hills were, in my estimation, privileged to see one of the masterpieces produced in near perfection. Francis Shaw cannot be commended to greatly for the superb manner in which he played one of the most difficult character parts. I am absolutely sincere when I say that it was the finest sample of acting it has been my privilege to witness.

I feel that there was a certain element of dramatization in that production which would do well to creep into our productions here at college. There is such a thing as a deeply suppressed emotion which has a tremendous effect and I think that was achieved several places in "Redemption." I do not agree with the idea that emotion is all a burst forth bluster affair, but rather believe that suppressed emotion is much more effective and true to life. I am in favor of having some more of that in our student productions.

A BOOKKEEPER'S MEDITATIONS

Just now, for a little while, we want to get our first introduction to the bookkeeping department of the student government. At the outset, I want to make it clear that what I say is not directed at any one person or group of persons, or at anyone who has been connected with the bookkeeping department in past years. I believe that those bookkeepers were sincere, honest students, who did the best they could, but that they, like myself, were victims of an inefficient system.

Imagine yourself on the first day of school being ushered into the details of your new and most sacred office—a bookkeeper. You approach the books with that mystical feeling which overwhelms you when you join a lodge, yet with the solemn assurance that you are carrying forward the banner of your Alma Mater. Someone, possibly your boss, assures you that your job will not take much work, that there is only a little to do, and that you can easily do it by spending half a period or so each week. But look at the books! Try to find a balance if you can. Try to find a statement as to whether the organization made a profit or a loss last year. Oh! what a disillusionment! At least it was so in my case. With frank honesty I must say that I have not been able to find which books were used by the bookkeeper last year. I do not know. Nobody else does. Even when I inquired and asked curious questions about the books nobody could give a definite answer. Soon after I had taken my position the first issue of the paper came out. Of course someone had to take care of the accounts and I was forced to make a blind guess as to what ought to be done and then after it was done find out whether it was right or wrong. I spent the first two months of school trying to find out where I was, and during the last four months have been trying to find out where I am going. I am not quite sure yet. Nevertheless, I have discovered some things which are quite interesting. Look for an account of them next week.

SPASMS

The past week has been diligently spent in "kibitzing" and eavesdropping. As a result we have gleaned the following stories to offer the public.

Overheard from Speech 132-a conversation:

"Well, I like pink georgette better but of course it is just how you feel about it—"

"Say, will you'se gals shut up for a while, I am trying to—"

"But I mean, my dear, that is what he really—"

"Of course not, darling, it is just how the babes—"

"Aw, heck, auntie, I can't dance—"

"Well, anyway, she has the poor sap on the spot—"

"Hay, didja hear the one Walt Mitchell pulled about the 'Hot Squat—"

"To make the loveliest fudge, I use two—"

"The the man said if you bims don't shove off—"

"Well, success, Mrs. Zilch—"

"An' I said, I'm afraid so, honey—"

"But did I tell you about my last operation—"

There's the bell—let's scram.

A SHADOW

By C. M.

Love is sweet to a boy and girl,
And many the dreams they build.
Pictures of home and fireside bright,
With a towed tot romping in the glow.
Home, secure from the world's mad rush,
A place where God could dwell.

Dreams are dear, and can be real,
But man and his civilization,
With indelible blood may blight
The minds and dreams of youth.
Greed for gain, ambition unchecked,
Makes War,—that gloriolief hell.

Torture, yes torture racks many a brain
As that shadow flits o'er lovers' dreams.
Why must we lose each other? they ask,

When we could build a home—
Home, where God would love to dwell.

The answer is plain, my lovers:
Love is valueless to greed and war.
Only a shadow, you say. Ah, true!
Trees must drink the sunlight to grow,
But war casts a shadow which blights.

Many a girl has her dreams shattered
By the blight of that lurking shadow.
Many a boy holds his sweetheart close
But a shadow flits thru his mind.
Oh God! why must we always cringe?
Why is that thing let live?
Why should young lovers always be haunted
With a shadow of a sword?

WORK ON LAMBDA IS PROGRESSING

Work on the Annual is progressing more rapidly now, with every staff member busy with his particular department. The photographic work is now being completed, and it would be greatly appreciated if all students would co-operate by being on hand for the group pictures as they are scheduled. Also, we want more snaps,—clever, funny, unusual snaps! They are the spice of the Annual, and here is your chance to be featured! As a parting reminder, DO REMEMBER to stop at the student store and relieve yourselves of that $3.00 which we need so badly.

Yale University will reduce its faculty by some 20 members for the college year beginning July 1 because of the "loss of revenue to the university resulting from the constant stream of interest deficits and dividend reductions."

Overheard Conversations

"Say, can't you be serious for a minute? Here you are, practically an adult, and yet you are constantly acting like a rattle-brained, harum scarum kid."

"Well, you see, governor, I believe that seriousness is like hand-painted china; you gotta save it, handle it carefully, to really appreciate the true value. Seriousness can't be used up, but you can cheapen the quality by being serious about trivial subjects, such as money, school, first editions, or any number of things that you think are serious, and aren't to me. Of course when I get as old and wise as you are I'll probably use hand painted china for breakfast too, but at present I'll use it only on New Year's day and the Fourth of July."

SPORT GOSSIP
by EDE

The surprise of inter-class track was the seniors being last instead of contenders for first.

In spite of the "bum cracks" regarding the class spirit the frosh had enough to win inter-class basket ball and track.

The surprise man of the meet was Roy Smith, frosh, who won the 100 in 10:5, the 440 in 56.5, and won the broad jump with 21 feet ¾ inch.

Montgomery, who was handicapped with a bum knee, was not at his best form, and took second in the broad jump, jumping over 20 feet.

Bert Jones, who last year won the interclass single handed for the Juniors, was also handicapped with a bad knee this year, but succeeded in taking first in high hurdles, second in low hurdles, third in 100 yard dash, and tied for third in high jump.

In Hylton, who won the high jump, and Harris, who was second, the frosh have two potential star high jumpers. Both cleared 5 feet 6 inches.

Myer pulled the surprise of the day, winning the mile in 5 min. 15 sec. against his team mate, Roberts, who finished third.

Although the shotputters were off form, Flynn and Forney succeeded in breaking last year's mark by several feet.

Frankie showed good form in winning the pole vault and looks as if he had good possibilities.

In the javelin the Sophs had things their own way with Calvert first and Brooks second.

Lathrop added to the Juniors' total by easily winning the discus event.

It wouldn't have taken so long to run the meet if everyone had insisted on being in every event.

All inter-class records of last year were broken except the 100 yard dash.

Those who took part in the meet, whether they placed or not, are to be commended on their class spirit.

If the frosh succeed in taking inter-class indoor and pass ball the rest of us might as well leave school.

Our football relay team, which took part in the relays at Occidental, had a lead of about eight yards on the last lap, when they dropped the ball, but still recovered it and placed fourth.

In spite of the lack of conference schedule in baseball, some of the fellows have the courage and can be seen practicing in front of the gym.

If you think the inter-class meet was good be sure and come to see the girls' inter-class meet Wednesday.

At the end of the first half of the schedule, the LaVerne girls are in second place in the Pomona league. The games are played every Friday night.

I don't know why, but it's true. Every football player in school has played next season's schedule at least three times already.

Over 26 miles of adhesive tape were used to bind up Stanford players last fall.

CO-EDS TAKE GAME WITH PRESBYTERIANS

Defeating the Presbyterians 23-26, the Co-eds have finished the first round in the Civic League basket ball tournament.

Friday night's game was fast and a basket was made by first one team and then the other. At the half the Presbyterians had a one-point lead. Special referees were secured for the game, and they seemed to know their basket ball by the way they were calling fouls.

Nix, Strate and Lehman showed up well as forwards; Sheller, Roberts, Dickey and Blickenstaff held down the guard positions.

Last Tuesday night the Co-eds played the Catholics and won 29-38. LaVerne is now in second place and Covina is first.

VARSITY CLUB DOWNS CITRUS IN SLOW GAME

Wednesday night the LaVerne Varsity Club defeated the Citrus Athletic Club by a score of 44-35 in another league game. It was a slow game despite the fact that the score was close until almost the end of the game. At the half, LaVerne Varsity Club led 20-15, losing the lead soon after and trailing seven points at one time. Weybright and Eisan were high point men for the Varsity Club, the former with 16 and the latter with 14. The starting line-up was Weybright and Eisan, forwards; Lehmer, center; Brooks and Betts, guards. Two former LaVerne stars, Thomason and Nicolas, also played.

GOLF NOW OFFERED AT LAVERNE

By Harold Stern

Golf and Spring are here and mankind is busily engaged in every activity which brings him in contact with nature. Boys and girls stroll arm in arm over the campus, under the trees, studying plant life, and listening to the birds sing. The men are even going wild over chasing little white balls all over the green hills. This latest sport has recently captivated the interest of about thirty men of LaVerne College. Mr. Walker of the Los Seranos Country Club is giving lessons twice a week to all those who are interested in golf. He is charging the small fee of twenty-five cents a lesson and with his help LaVerne hopes to develop a fine golf team. If this group now taking these classes can master the game sufficiently, LaVerne will have an official team representing it in the college conference.

This new sport has brought back alumni to the college to participate in the classes. Alfred Nicolas can be seen digging divots and slicing the ball into the rough. Orville Thomason, Doyle Montz and Wayne Bohn are also present occasionally.

Although all the members are quite green at the game (Lee expects all the grass to be chopped off the field by the swinging niblicks) there is every chance of development and ultimately some one like Jerry Deal may become a Bobby Jones. The coach hopes for the best and he encourages all that are interested to come out for golf, because you may need it for recreation when you become a business man.

He: "How do you like O'Henry?"
She: "I can't stand it. The peanuts stick in my teeth."

YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE BANQUET MARCH 1

The annual Brethren Young People's banquet was held in the Christian Church in Glendora, March 1, under the direction of the Glendora young people.

With Levi Dickey as toastmaster, a very interesting program was presented. Dr. Snape, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church in Los Angeles, was the principal speaker of the evening. The theme of his address was "A Regular Fellow," based upon one of his experiences of past years.

About five hundred and thirty dollars were pledged by the group present for a Recreation Hall that is to be built at Camp LaVerne.

Miss Evelyn Wine and Paul Miller spent the week-end in their respective homes in Reedley.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS TO PRESENT PLAYS

In view of the deep significance which the cause of peace is now assuming, the Student Volunteers have chosen to send out a peace program to the churches of Southern California this semester as their 1932 project. The initial presentation was made February 21, at the Glendale Church of the Brethren. The program has a stirring theme which challenges thought on this vital present-day issue. It is arranged as follows:

Devotional, Scripture reading and prayer.

Violin solo, "Largo"—Bill Clinkenbeard.

One act play, "They Just Won't Talk," read by Helen Frantz.

One-act play, "Gas." Characters: Mrs. Barton—Virginia Stern.

Mr. Barton—Elwyn White.

Edgar, their son—John Heiser..

Alice, their daughter—Orvilla Stayer.

Robert Graham, engaged to Alice—Royal Glick.

A Waiter—Bill Clinkenbeard.

Talk, "Making a Fight Out of Peace," Russell Frantz.

The two plays compliment each other, the first presenting the positive side of the question, and the second the negative side. The play, "Gas," which has been coached by Russell Frantz, is set in New York City at a time "that must never come,"—the time of a possible future war. It dramatizes the meaning and consequences of gas warfare in a very strong manner.

The itinerary for the month of March will include the following dates: March 6, Pasadena; March 13, Inglewood; March 20, LaVerne.

A conviction that legalized four per cent beer would immensely aid the colleges of America in their work of training men to be good students was expressed by the dean of Yale University.
