Dear Father,

Your and Margaret's letters and the Robinsons were received yesterday.

I am very embarrassed
here and have not time
a bit home sick for a week.
I noticed by the Robb
that you had had lunch in My absence. We have had two or three cold days but no frost.

Out in the yard
there is quite a few
the orchard has fallen
and blowing in it.
I don't think I ever saw any thing like it before.

This is just a note
so that you will know that I am well and happy. I will write to Mother on Sunday.

With love to all and kisses to Baby Stone.

Your affectionate daughter,
Georgia Keller.
