Dear Father:-

Your letter containing the stamps was rec'd yesterday and I thank you for sending them.

My room is very pleasant and well heated and ventilated. I think I shall not notice the cold very much.

To-day is Mother's anniversary. I hope it is not raining in N.Y. It has been raining all morning here.

Yes, I have used the medicine and I think it helps me but I do not think it will cure my throat-trouble altogether.

The pupils are always glad when Monday's lessons are over because they do not have their lessons prepared as well as they do the other days.

In six weeks, I will be home for two weeks. I believe the Xmas vacation is a little over two weeks. I have been here seven weeks to-day and the time has flown.

I have the pictures of little George on my bureau and they are so natural that I feel like picking him up.

I am well and send love to you.

Your affectionate daughter
Georgia Welles
