Dear Mother: -

Yesterday, I received three letters, one from Margaret, one from Eleanor and one from Rosa Sauter. I am glad that you liked the tray cover I am now working on the center piece that Margaret purchased for me.

This morning I attended church and at dinner Mrs. Richards said if we wished to we could go to the Presbyterian church and hear a Mr. Armstrong lecture on Indian missions. Some Indians are to be there and are to sing and write in their own tongue.

I think I will go so will not write a very long letter.

With love to all from

Your affectionate daughter

6 o'clock Sunday.

I am just back from the meeting. I enclose the programme.
The Indians spoke very well. I enjoyed it very much.
Your loving daughter,
Georgia Hillis.
