Dear Virginia:-

Your letter also Margaret and Father's have been received. I gave Mrs. Richards the check that Father sent and will send him the receipt.

Father said you were not feeling well. I am sorry and hope you will be better when you receive this.

Just after noon, while the dancing class was in progress the (Mrs. Richards' daughter) and I were attending a musicale which was given in a room which the musical people of Sennettsville sent. We then had two tickets - one Sunday visited me. The mouse was obliterated and I enjoyed it very much. I will secure the postage which will give a better description than I can.

There are now twenty four boarding-schools. A girl from Ohio came Sunday morning. I imagine it will be rather difficult for her to get started in her studies.

Yesterday we had a rather visitation in French and I was perfect. It was about a merchant and what he sold. This morning, we had a passing match in Latin. It was hard as I have not been accustomed to them only in English grammar. It is great fun when you run the mind or make to day.

I did as you requested in your letter.

I cannot make any more now as I have a long Mythology lesson to learn. The stories are beautiful and I do not mind studying them.
This will be a Saturday letter.

I am well and need nothing from you and all.

Your affectionate sister Georgia Walker.
